

The Consulate General of Japan in Atlanta and the Georgia Institute of Technology School of Public Policy present Dr. Masaru Yarime:
"Implementing Sustainability Innovation: Corporate Strategy, Public Policy, and Institutional Design"

November 16, 2:30 pm - 4:00 pm
Lecture followed by Reception

Clary Theater
Bill Moore Student Success Center
Georgia Tech

219 Uncle Heinie Way, NW
Atlanta, GA 30332

Dr. Yarime is an Associate Professor, Graduate Program in Sustainability Science, Graduate School of Frontier Sciences, University of Tokyo.

Dr. Yarime's current research includes corporate strategy, public policy, and institutional design for sustainability innovation, economics and policy studies of technological change, university-industry collaboration, and institutional analysis of knowledge creation, diffusion, and utilization.

For more information, contact the Consulate General of Japan
(404) 365-9239
info@cgjapanatlanta.org

Co-sponsored by the Consulate General of Japan in Atlanta and the Georgia Tech School of Public Policy with cooperation from the Japan-America Society of Georgia and the Japanese Chamber of Commerce of Georgia