要旨： Police are investigating a truck theft ring operating in Gwinnett County that has victimized some unwitting buyers as well as dealerships. In three separate cases in the last few weeks, individuals have bought Ford F-150 trucks from what appears to be the same woman, Gwinnett County Police said. Each truck was reported stolen from an auto dealer, had fake vehicle identification numbers, and came with a fraudulent South Carolina title. All three buyers paid cash for the trucks, and each vehicle title identified the seller as a Melissa Scott. <http://www.ajc.com/news/news/crime-law/police-investigating-ford-f-150-truck-theft-ring-i/nnXhg/>

要旨：Police said investigators received an anonymous tip that a man, who was wanted in Berkeley County for manufacturing methamphetamine charges, was located at a residence in the 3400 block of Ramsey Road in Sumter. Sumter County deputies arrived at the home at 6:30 a.m. to look for the man and located him walking along the street near the home. As the man was taken into custody, deputies were granted access into the residence with permission of one of the residents and discovered evidence of methamphetamine manufacturing hidden in the floor vents. The residence was evacuated and Sumter firefighters, Sumter County EMS, South Carolina Law Enforcement Division agents and members of the Sumter County Emergency Management Division were called to the scene to assist in decontamination efforts. The suspect and an associate were arrested.
