要旨 : A Birmingham surgeon said his wife was robbed of her car at gunpoint in broad daylight in Southside this week. The holdup happened at 3 p.m. Tuesday on 15th Avenue South. The victim's husband said a man held a long-barrel pistol to her face and that she gave him the keys and the phone and ran into the house. Two men reportedly jumped into the car and drove off. The husband turned to Reddit for help. He said the car was found at an abandoned house today on the city's west side, a discovery which he said came from an anonymous tip.

要旨 : Tuscaloosa police and Tuscaloosa Metro Homicide investigators responded at 8 a.m. Saturday to America's Best Value Inn at 3500 McFarland Boulevard on a report of a sexual assault. Police said the 30-year-old victim, who is from Georgia, woke up in her room to a black male sexually assaulting her. The suspect fled and the victim called police. She told investigators she and a friend had been out and she was brought back to the motel by another friend. She said that as she was going into her room, the suspect, who said he was security guard, approached her and said he would help get her into the room. She fell asleep, and woke up a few hours later to the same man assaulting her. The motel said they do not have a security guard.

日付 : 1/7/2016

要旨 : Police arrested five men Wednesday night, trapping them in a stolen car at a BP gas station on Spring Street. They're charged in two robberies earlier this week, and likely will be looking at additional charges in other cases, police said. Police caught them after receiving a robbery call Wednesday night. A victim told police armed men stole his iPhone and that they were in a white Dodge Charger. The night before, said police, a couple walking along 8th Street were robbed, the man pistol-whipped, by two gunmen. The duo ran to a waiting car — a white Dodge Charger.
