16	1/2/22	4:22 PM	Avi Bajpai	The News & Observer	NC	Raleigh		North Raleigh Blvd	Shooting	Raleigh Man Charged with Assault after Shooting in Food Lion Parking Lot	A 23-year-old man faces an assault charge after a shooting outside a Food Lion in East Raleigh on Sunday left one man injured. Officers responded to a report of a shooting at the Food Lion on North Raleigh Boulevard at 4:22 p.m. They found a man with a gunshot wound to his foot. Officers arrested Jurante Avery Graham of Raleigh and charged him with assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious injury. The shooting, which took place in the parking lot, followed an argument between Graham and the other man that began inside the store. A video recorded by a shopper in the store and posted to Facebook on Monday shows two men, one of them wearing a light gray sweatshirt, and the other wearing a black sweatshirt, appearing to argue while standing next to an SUV. The man in the black sweatshirt then runs to another SUV, opens the door and appears to get something from the driver's side, possibly a firearm. "He went and got a gun," says a woman who can be heard in the background. The man in the black sweatshirt then approaches the man in the gray sweatshirt, but before he is able to reach him, the man in the gray sweatshirt appears to fire two shots toward the man in the black sweatshirt. People inside the Food Lion are then heard screaming just before the video ends.

Ethan Wayne Rogers, 32, from Fort Payne, Alabama, survived the shooting but is in critical condition at a Chattanooga hospital after undergoing surgery. Investigators from the DeKalb County Sheriff's Office in Alabama said they followed leads on a stolen car and discovered it in far northwest Georgia, just south of the Tennessee state line, at a One 9 Pilot Travel Center along Ga. 299 just off I-24. After alerting Dade County authorities, they approached the car about 7 p.m. and asked Rogers to exit the vehicle. At that point, he "drove the car in the direction of one of the investigators," the GBI said. A second Alabama investigator then fired into the car, striking Rogers. Two passengers, a man and a woman, were not hit. Rogers was charged with aggravated assault on a peace officer and theft by bringing stolen property into the state by Dade County officials. The woman was arrested on outstanding warrants, while the other passenger was released.

The incident began Tuesday just before 9 p.m. when the two drivers began arguing. In a 911 call, a 65-year-old East Point man told the dispatcher he was "just going to get my car inspected" when he became involved in a dispute with the driver of a silver Lexus SUV as the two drove on Langford Parkway at Stanton Road. The Lexus drove around the man's Chevrolet Malibu, hitting it in the process. The driver then stopped his car by the exit toward Greenbriar Parkway. As the victim drove past, the Lexus driver opened fire, hitting the car four times. One round went through the Malibu's windshield, and the other three hit the passenger side. The man was not hit. Investigators spotted the Lexus on traffic cameras at Campbellton Road and Greenbriar Parkway. The suspect's car has the license plate number CJZ3246, but the man has not been located. The victim was able to leave the scene in his car.

He was charged with kidnapping, aggravated assault, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon, obstruction of officer and multiple drug-related offenses. Deputies say Moreland knocked on the front door of a woman's New Street residence in unincorporated Coweta around 9 p.m. He insisted that she return a go-kart, but the woman told investigators she'd never met Moreland before and didn't have his go-kart. Apparently Moreland didn't believe her. He ordered the woman into a van at gunpoint. According to deputies, another man who was unknown to the victim was driving the van. He drove the pair to a convenience store in Whitesburg. When Moreland went inside the mini-mart, he asked the woman if she felt threatened. She conceded that she was in fear and tried to explain to the driver that she didn't know Moreland and didn't have his go-kart. The three returned to the victim's neighborhood after Moreland got back in the van, and the driver dropped the pair off on Sargent Landers Road. Sheriff's deputies eventually got involved after the victim's friend reported that the woman called her in a frenzy around 9:20 p.m. At the victim's home, she and Moreland approached from Sargent Landers Road. Deputies noted that the woman was visibly shaken and appeared to be crying. Deputies used a stun gun to subdue Moreland after he backed away from officers while reaching toward his waistband. A 9mm handgun was found in his pocket along with two smoking pipes that tested positive for methamphetamine.

36	1/5/22		Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Gwinnett		Sugarloaf Pkwy	Robbery	Man Robbed 4 Gwinnett Jewelry Stores, Pepper-Sprayed Bystander	A Forsyth County man accused in a series of snatch-and-grab jewelry store robberies was arrested Wednesday after police say he stole a ring at a Lawrenceville mall and then pepper-sprayed a bystander who tried to stop him. Jonathan Louis Weston, 32, of Cumming, was pulled over and taken into custody by Forsyth sheriff's deputies after fleeing the Sugarloaf Mills mall. Witnesses who saw the man running from the Zales store at the mall took down his license plate number as he left. Weston was taken to the Gwinnett County Jail and booked on four counts of robbery and one count of battery. Weston's alleged robbery spree began on Christmas Eve when he visited a Helzberg Diamonds at the Mall of Georgia, according to Gwinnett police. At the store, Weston asked to look at a pair of earrings, then ran once they were handed to him. The earrings were worth $4,500. The second theft took place a few days later, also at the Mall of Georgia. Police said Weston visited the Diamond Ring Company on Dec. 27 and asked to check the prices on two different earrings. As the store employee looked at the price tags, Weston is accused of snatching them and running from the store. One earring was valued at $14,800 and the other was worth $11,000. Two days later, police said Weston committed another robbery at Sugarloaf Mills. He visited the Jewelry Box Outlet and asked to see a diamond ring, which he once again grabbed before running from the store. The ring was valued at $8,900.

An Amber Alert was issued Wednesday evening for Riley Harper Bockes, who police say was abducted by her father, Brent James Bockes, from a house on Lee Avenue in Sanford. Both were found in Murfreesboro, Tenn., over 500 miles west of Sanford. The Rutherford County Sheriff's Office in Tennessee found the 2013 Toyota Avalon Brent Bockes was driving on Interstate 24 in Murfreesboro after it had been involved in an accident. Bockes left the accident scene with his daughter. Authorities located them at a motel, where Brent Bockes was taken into custody. Bockes has been charged with first-degree murder in the death of his wife, Deana Michelle Bockes, as well as larceny of motor vehicle. Earlier Wednesday at 1:15 p.m. police said they responded to a residence on Lee Avenue to check on Deana Bockes. When they arrived, they found her dead inside. Police said they were investigating her death as a homicide but have not said how she died, pending an autopsy from the State Medical Examiner's office.
39	1/6/22		Breaking News Staff	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Gordon County	Adair St	Shooting	GBI Investigating after Man Killed in Police Shooting in NW Georgia	The GBI is investigating after a man was shot by police Thursday in Gordon County. The shooting took place in the 100 block of Adair Street in Calhoun after police responded to a call about a burglary in progress and a man armed with a knife. Upon arrival, officers said they encountered Jose Brito Lopez, 37, inside the residence. Authorities said the Calhoun man failed to comply with the officers' commands to "show them his hands" and advanced toward them. One officer used a Taser on Lopez, but it was ineffective and the man continued moving forward. At that point, one officer fired, striking Lopez and killing him.

44	1/7/22		Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Ponce de Leon Ave	Hit & Run	Man Struck by Suspected Drunken Driver in Ponce de Leon Parking Lot	A man is recovering after being run over by an alleged drunken driver who hit him and three vehicles in a Ponce de Leon Avenue parking lot. The victim, Jeffrey Whitmire, and several other people told Atlanta police that an unknown man was drunk inside a restaurant at 736 Ponce de Leon Ave. asking for someone to call an ambulance before going outside and getting in his car Jan. 7. Witnesses said they tried to stop the driver because he appeared to be too inebriated to drive. Surveillance video posted to YouTube shows the driver in a dark gray Jeep Grand Cherokee backing into a parked pickup truck before pulling forward and hitting a white SUV. Whitmire, who drove the white SUV, ran toward the erratic driver with his arms raised and yelled at him. Then, the driver quickly drove toward Whitmire and ran over him. Whitmire's body was completely under the vehicle right next to its left-side tires. The driver stopped, as there was nowhere to turn, which allowed just enough time for Whitmire to roll out from behind the vehicle before the driver started to reverse. Whitmire had injuries to his left shoulder, right knee and a hematoma to the back of the head and was taken to the hospital. The driver then struck a third vehicle twice before eventually exiting the parking lot over what appeared to be large stairs. A witness told police the driver, who was last seen heading eastbound on Ponce de Leon, left a credit card in the restaurant.

82	1/15/22	9:15 AM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Marietta		Manning Rd	Shooting	Surveillance Video Shows Man Shoot into Marietta Home in Broad Daylight	Home security footage released Tuesday morning shows an unknown masked man firing a gun at a Marietta home three times in broad daylight before running away. The shooting Saturday morning was the last in a series of three, following incidents at the same home Thursday and Friday. Marietta police released the video in hopes that someone will recognize the man or the gray Nissan Murano that was used in the incidents. The video shows the vehicle quickly driving by the home located in the Manning Road area on Saturday just before 9:15 a.m. At one point, it turns around and stops just out of sight beyond the corner of another home. The suspect, whose face is covered with a yellow bandana, is then seen jogging up to the home, pulling a handgun out of his gym shorts pocket, firing three times and running back to the SUV. Thursday's shooting took place at about 8 p.m. and the second took place Friday at about 5 a.m. No one has been injured in any of the three incidents. Marietta police aren't often called to the neighborhood in which the shooting occurred, and the man has not been seen in connection with any other criminal activity. His actions only seem targeted at one specific home, police said. Authorities are still trying to identify a motive in the case.

86	1/16/22	2:00 AM	Alexis Stevens	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Brookhaven		Buford Hwy	Shooting	Police: Scientist Visiting from England Shot to Death Inside Brookhaven Apartment	A man visiting from England was shot to death early Sunday in a Brookhaven apartment. Around 2 a.m., multiple people called 911 to report hearing shots in a complex in the 3600 block of Buford Highway. While officers checked the area, another 911 caller reported a man had been shot inside an apartment in the 3100 block of Clairmont Road. Officers arrived to find a 31-year-old man with a gunshot wound to the head, Kissell said. Dr. Matthew Willson of Chertsey, Surrey, England — an astrophysicist — was taken to a hospital but died from his injuries. The case has been ruled a homicide. "This incident appears to be a random act involving individuals participating in the reckless discharge of firearm(s) which led to the tragic death of Dr. Willson," police said in an emailed statement. "Dr. Willson was in town from England visiting loved ones when the incident occurred." Investigators believe the deadly shot was fired into the apartment from a neighboring complex.

87	1/16/22	9:00 PM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Jonesboro	Clayton County	Tara Blvd	Shooting	3 Arrested on Assault, Drug Charges after Road-Rage Shooting in Clayton	Three men were arrested in Clayton County after police say shots were fired from their vehicle during an incident of road rage. After a brief chase, the men were pulled over and marijuana was found inside their car. The incident took place Jan. 16 around 9 p.m. along Tara Boulevard in Jonesboro. Two of the men arrested, Nicholas People, 23, and Jalen Jochimson, 20, each face multiple felonies after they were accused of threatening and shooting at another driver before trying to evade police. The third man, Chrisshawn Dunn, 23, was arrested on one count of marijuana possession of less than an ounce. According to Clayton police, the victim called 911 from their car while chasing after the suspects on Tara Boulevard following the shooting. The 911 dispatcher convinced the victim to pull over at a gas station near the intersection of Tara Boulevard and Ga. 54 as police took over the pursuit. Responding officers passed the suspects' car speeding south on Tara Boulevard and turned around to pursue them. The car, allegedly driven by Jochimson, at first tried to evade police but ultimately pulled over near the intersection with Lovejoy Road.

Both individuals fled the scene without getting any personal items or cash. The next robbery took place over an hour later around 11:50 p.m. at the Waffle House on 3262 Dauphin St. in Mobile. Just like the robbery attempt on Moffett Road, two people entered and demanded money from the register. Unlike the first time, the pair were able to get away with an undisclosed amount of cash from the store. They fled on foot before officers arrived.
117	1/23/22	10:30 PM	Chelsea Prince	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Amsterdam Ave	Shooting	1 Found Shot after Gunfire Erupts Outside Midtown Restaurant	Cellphone video captured chaos outside a popular Midtown restaurant on Sunday night as at least a dozen gunshots were fired in the parking lot. The video, shared by ATL Uncensored on Twitter, shows people running and ducking behind cars at Loca Luna on Amsterdam Avenue. A short time later, one person was found shot at a gas station on Piedmont Avenue, about a mile north of the Latin restaurant and nightclub. Atlanta police believe the two incidents are connected. Investigators believe two women got into an argument at Loca Luna and shots were fired when groups of men got involved. At least two vehicles were damaged by the gunfire, but no one was reported injured. About 10:40 p.m., a victim was found shot in the leg at the BP station on Piedmont Avenue. They were stable when they were taken to a hospital. Investigators believe the gunfire that started in the restaurant's parking lot continued at the gas station.

119	1/24/22	3:00 PM	Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Anderson Ave	Shooting	This One Hurts': Mayor, Chief Frustrated after 6-Month-Old Shot Dead in NW Atlanta	For the second time this month, a baby became a homicide victim in Atlanta. On Monday afternoon, a 6-month-old riding in a car was killed in the Dixie Hills neighborhood of northwest Atlanta. Atlanta Mayor Andre Dickens and police Chief Rodney Bryant echoed a similar message: Enough is enough. "These children are bearing the burden and the pain of adults who are choosing to use guns to solve disputes," Dickens said. "The children are bearing this burden with their lives, and I'm here to ask, and to demand, that it stop right now." Shortly before 3 p.m. Monday, Atlanta police were called to a Food Mart corner store at 202 Anderson Avenue about a shooting. Bryant said the child was taken to Grady Memorial Hospital but died there. His officers spent the afternoon consoling the baby's mother, he said. "This is painful. This one hurts for a ... 6-month-old to be riding down the street and become a victim to gun violence — random gun violence — between two people who can't resolve a simple issue," Bryant said. The investigation continued late Monday, and Bryant said officers would be working throughout the night.

Officers were first called to the Castleton Apartments off Bent Creek Way after getting reports of a shooting around 9:40 a.m. Shortly after, dispatch received a second shooting call from a Chevron gas station at Delowe Drive and Campbellton Road. At the first scene, officers found a man suffering from multiple gunshot wounds. At the second location, they found a man and woman who had each been shot multiple times. All three were conscious and taken to the hospital, where they are considered stable. Police believe the sequence of shootings stemmed from a drug deal that took place at the Castleton Apartments between the victims and the suspects.

143	1/28/22		Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Buckhead		Lenox Pkwy	Robbery	Lenox Square Shopper Robbed of Air Jordans in Latest Incident at Buckhead Mall	Continuing a string of violent incidents at Lenox Square, a man who had just bought a pair of pricey Nike Air Jordan 1 sneakers recently became the latest victim of crime on the luxury mall's property. The Buckhead mall has had a problem with violence in recent years, struggling to maintain its reputation as a posh shopping center in Atlanta's richest neighborhood. In September, it started a "youth supervision program," requiring minors to be accompanied by adults after 3 p.m. every day. The latest victim was walking to his car Jan. 28 when he was robbed at gunpoint by suspects who pulled up next to him in a red Chevrolet Camaro. The victim was standing by his own car, which was parked near a Starbucks, by the time the suspect, armed with a black semi-automatic pistol, got out and demanded the victim's shoe bag and wallet. The suspect removed around $100 in cash from the wallet and handed it back to the victim, according to the incident report. The suspect then searched the victim's car but did not take anything before getting back into the Camaro and driving off. The victim flagged down an off-duty officer to report the robbery, describing the suspects as in their 20s. The man told police the suspect who held him at gunpoint was about 6-foot tall and slender, with long dreads. He was wearing a mask. Air Jordan 1 sneakers retail for upwards of $170, with some Jordans released in limited quantities pushing the $400 range, making them extremely covetable.

He was shot with a firearm that was left in a vehicle while an adult went inside the restaurant to pick up food. Workers reported that the child's mother used a towel to stop the bleeding before paramedics arrived. "Some kids came in and they were screaming that someone shot him," Chipotle employee Johanna Cervantes told Channel 2. "You could see the visible gunshot wound coming out from his ear." The injured child was conscious and alert when taken to a hospital, police said. An update on his condition was not provided.

Officers responded to the Buc-ee's in Warner Robins just before 10 p.m. Sunday after receiving a call about an unconscious baby. One of the parents told first responders they dropped the child while bathing him inside their parked RV. The boy was taken to a Macon hospital before being airlifted to a Children's Healthcare of Atlanta location. Authorities said doctors found injuries on the child — "past and present" — that were consistent with abuse. The child's parents, Christopher Scott Palmer, 40, and Shelly Deanna Rooks, 26, were arrested on child cruelty charges. Two other children were turned over to the Division of Family & Children Services. The parents' charges were upgraded early Friday after police were notified the 9-month-old died. Palmer now faces additional charges of felony murder and aggravated battery, and Rooks is charged with second-degree murder.

Carrboro Police Seeing More Guns, Violence	Carrboro police are investigating a fatal shooting that happened last month near The Villages apartments on Smith Level Road. Taeveon Michael Jaquenti Young, 23, of Durham, was shot while driving a car, according to police, who do not think the killing was random. Police initially got a call just after 11 p.m. on Jan. 31 about gunshots near the BPW Club Road entrance to the apartment complex, Chief Chris Attack told The News & Observer in a phone interview. "Officers responded to the area, checked it, didn't see anything, didn't find anything," Attack said. "About 15, 20 minutes later, somebody showed up at UNC at the ER with a gunshot wound, was dropped off, and that person ultimately died of their injury." Police did not have enough time to talk with Young, he said, but later they found evidence that pinpointed the location of the shooting. The victim's vehicle was found and has been impounded as evidence. There have been no arrests in the case as of Friday afternoon (2/11).
170	2/1/22		Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Milton			Larceny	Cops: Thieves Steal Tithe Checks from Milton Church Mailbox	Milton police are searching for thieves they say stole checks from a church mailbox earlier this month. Police said Tuesday (2/22) that the multiple tithe checks were removed from the mailbox of a Milton church Feb. 1. Authorities did not say at what church the incident took place or how many checks were stolen. Four days later, a van and two people, who police believe are likely women, were seen at the location about 4:30 p.m., authorities said. One of the people appeared to be shielding the mailbox with a jacket, police said. A photo of the two people and a 2006 to 2011 Kia Sedona was released by officials. "It is not known if these subjects are involved in the reported thefts, but this does appear suspicious, and we would like to speak with them," police said.

Antwan Leeroy Green, 29, is charged with aggravated assault, possession of a dangerous weapon, cruelty to children and reckless conduct after police said he fired at another vehicle while driving. A woman riding in the other vehicle was injured in the shooting. Investigators were called to a Circle K on Northside Drive, one block south of the stadium, at around 7:45 a.m. A man told them his wife had been shot while they were driving northbound on Metropolitan Parkway at University Avenue. The woman was shot in the back. She was alert when taken to a hospital, police said. Preliminary information indicates the shooting stemmed from a dispute between the drivers of the two vehicles. Children were present in both vehicles at the time, though they were not injured. The victim's husband gave officers a description of the suspect's vehicle, which was still in the area. Officers caught up to the vehicle and detained the driver, later identified as Green. Green matched the suspect description provided to officers. Officers said they also located the gun believed to have been used in the shooting.

Police were called to the area of Pine Drive and Woodland Drive on Feb. 3 and spoke with a man who said he had been in an argument with an Uber driver, later identified as Kenneth Nichols. The man told police he nearly struck Nichols' car when the driver turned in front of him at a stop sign. According to the incident report, the victim had been driving along Ridgecrest Drive when Nichols, driving a gray Jeep Compass, made a left-hand turn in front of him. The victim told police he confronted the Uber driver as Nichols dropped off a passenger in the 2500 block of Ridgecrest Drive, letting him know he almost caused a crash. Nichols then got out of his vehicle and "acted like he wanted to fight," the incident report states. He told the victim "I got something for you" before walking back toward the Jeep. The victim then drove away toward Woodland Drive because he said he thought Nichols had a gun. Then, the victim noticed Nichols was driving behind him. Not wanting Nichols to follow him home, the man turned left, and when he reached the intersection of Pine Drive, he heard a "loud bang." Investigators contacted Nichols who, on a recorded phone call, confirmed he fired into the ground "to let the victim know he had a gun." As of Tuesday morning, Nichols had not been arrested. He faces multiple charges, including reckless conduct, simple assault firearm and driving without insurance.

Benjamin Tyshawn Akins, 46, was arrested Sunday and has been charged with homicide by vehicle, DUI and leaving the scene of an incident. He is being held at the Spalding County jail. Troopers with the Griffin post of the Georgia State Patrol found the victim shortly before midnight in the 300 block of Vineyard Road. The man, whose name was not released, was dead at the scene. He was wearing a reflective vest when he was struck. Authorities said the vehicle involved was possibly a silver Toyota with a broken headlight and damage to the front passenger side and bumper.
199	2/5/22		Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Dallas	Paulding County	Old Locklear Rd	Shooting	Friend Arrested, Charged with Murder in Paulding Woman's Shooting Death	A Paulding County woman is dead after she and a close friend became involved in a drunken dispute that escalated into a fatal shooting Saturday night, authorities said. Shana Nicole Dover, 35, was found with multiple gunshot wounds at a home on Old Locklear Road in Dallas when deputies responded just before midnight. The 911 caller initially told the dispatcher that Dover had been shot by her brother and that both of them were intoxicated. The caller also said bystanders at the house were performing first aid. Despite their attempts at lifesaving measures, Dover was pronounced dead at the scene. Investigators found that the suspected shooter was not actually Dover's blood relative but a very close friend. Deputies arrested Dover's friend, 32-year-old Justin Blane Smart, who remained at the home after the shooting. He has been charged with murder and aggravated assault. Smart was booked into the Paulding County Jail early Sunday morning and remains there without bond. More charges are likely as the investigation continues.

200	2/5/22	1:40 AM	Tandra Smith	AL.com	AL	Mobile		Dauphin St	Robbery	Mobile Woman Arrested for Allegedly Attempting Drive-Thru Robberies at Starbucks, Krystal	An Alabama woman has been arrested after attempting to rob a Starbucks and a Krystal with another individual over the weekend. Kimberly Anderson, 32, was booked into Mobile Metro Jail just after noon Monday and charged with two counts of first degree robbery. According to police, Anderson was arrested after driving a white SUV that they say they believed was used to commit the attempted robberies on Feb. 5. The first of the robberies occurred around 1:40 a.m., at the Krystal restaurant on Dauphin Street. Anderson, along with another male individual, pulled up to the drive-thru wearing ski masks. One of them allegedly pulled out a gun and demanded money from an employee. After an employee inside of the restaurant told another employee to call the police, the two fled the scene. Almost five hours later, the pair pulled up to a Mobile Starbucks and demanded money there as well. A man went up to the drive-thru window and demanded money from an employee. Said employee ran away screaming, which caused the pair to leave that scene as well. Neither Anderson or the unidentified male received any money in either incident. Along with the two robbery charges, Anderson was also arrested for four outstanding warrants, including a switched tag, an expired tag and more.

Officers responded to the area of Golfe Links Drive in unincorporated Snellville shortly after 6:45 p.m. and found 22-year-old Avery Nowlin dead in the street. The investigation later revealed the incident began when Nowlin, armed with a weapon, approached another 22-year-old man who was sitting in a car in the parking lot of a neighborhood. Nowlin initiated a fight with the other man, who then fired his gun and struck Nowlin. It's not clear what type of weapon Nowlin had. The other man is not being charged at this time, police said. "In the state of Georgia, 'a person is justified in threatening or using force against another when and to the extent that he or she reasonably believes that such threat or force is necessary to defend himself or herself or a third person against such other's imminent use of unlawful force,' " police noted in the release.

229	2/10/22	10:30 PM	Chelsea Prince	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Forsyth St	Stabbing	Cops: Woman Accused of Stabbing 2 at Atlanta Bus Station Shot by Officer	An Atlanta police officer shot a woman holding two knives outside a downtown bus station after two people were stabbed Thursday night. The woman and the two stabbing victims were said to be stable, according to Atlanta police Deputy Chief Timothy Peek. "We never want to use force, but when we are placed in those unfortunate situations, we do the best we can to resolve them," Peek told reporters from the scene. The two victims, a man and a woman, were stabbed inside the Greyhound station on Forsyth Street prior to police arrival. About 10:30 p.m., the first officer arrived, was flagged down by a Greyhound employee and quickly identified the stabbing suspect. "The officer approached that person and started giving verbal commands, and that person was armed at that particular point with two knives in their hand," Peek said. "The officer continued to give commands to drop the knife and the subject just would not do that." Shots were fired when the woman got too close to the officer. She was taken into custody, and no officers were injured. Investigators believe the stabbing started inside the bus station and continued out onto the sidewalk. It was not clear if the stabbing suspect knew the victims, and a motive was not disclosed.
230	2/11/22		Liset Cruz	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Buford	Gwinnett County		Robbery	Gwinnett Police Seaking Woman Accused of Robbing Bank, Threatening Clerk	An arrest warrant has been issued for a 32-year-old woman who is accused of jumping over the counter at a bank in Buford, stealing $750 and threatening the clerk with scissors, according to Gwinnett County police. The woman was identified as Sarahdia Camell of Long Beach, California. She became angry after the Chase Bank clerk notified her of some discrepancies with her credentials. She climbed over the counter, picked up some nearby scissors and held them toward the clerk. After taking money from the cash box, she left the bank through a side door. Video from the scene captures the confusion as the woman clambers over the high counter and past the clear protective shield. She can be heard loudly arguing with a teller as she confronts him as he raises his fists in a defensive posture. Another customer at the next teller's window watched the situation unfold without moving. Camell's whereabouts are unknown, police said.

231	2/11/22		Julian Shen-Berro	The News & Observer	NC	Knightdale	Wake County	Buffaloe Rd	Sexual Assault	Knightdale Couple Arrested, Charged with Child Abuse, Wake Sheriff Says	A Knightdale couple has been arrested and charged with allegedly sexually abusing a juvenile, the Wake County Sheriff's Office said. Lazaro Bernabe Gonzalez-Olivier has been charged with two counts of indecent liberties with a child, while Jesica Alejandra Rodriguez-Herrera has been charged with felony child abuse allowing sexual assault. The alleged abuse occurred during "an unknown extended period," the office said. Wake County deputies responded to a Friday call reporting a runaway juvenile in the 8000 block of Buffaloe Road in Knightdale. The juvenile was found Saturday at a relative's home. Investigators learned she said she had been sexually assaulted several times by Gonzalez-Olivier, and that Rodriguez-Herrera knew about the alleged activity but did not report the abuse to authorities. Gonzalez-Olivier reportedly admitted that he sexually assaulted the juvenile. The release also said Rodriguez-Herrera stated that she knew about the assault. Gonzalez-Olivier and Rodriguez-Herrera were at the Wake County Detention Center on Saturday, with bonds set at $30,000 and $50,000, respectively.

Artatyania Latasha Francis was arrested Feb. 11 in the 400 block of Galleon Road in Batesburg. The 28-year-old Leesville resident was charged with assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature. "Based on the interviews investigators have conducted, they've determined Francis got upset with a man after a dog got free from a leash," Sheriff Jay Koon said in the release. "Witnesses said Francis threw bottles at the man, then approached him from behind and stabbed him with the neck of a broken liquor bottle." Although the man fell to the ground, Francis continued to punch and kick him. "The victim told us he lost consciousness and eventually walked away from the scene," Koon said. "A passerby called 911 and EMS took the man to the hospital where he was treated for a puncture wound and a head injury." If convicted on the felony charge, Francis could face a maximum punishment of 20 years in prison, according to South Carolina law.

Montgomery police and fire medics responded to the area of North Decatur Street and Columbus Street around 1:45 p.m. Friday on a call of a person shot. There they found the victim, 3-year-old Ja' Seyon Green of Montgomery, who sustained a life-threatening gunshot wound. The boy was taken to a local hospital for treatment, where he was pronounced dead. "Sadly, this is not the first shooting in our city that has taken a young person's life far too soon," said Montgomery Interim Police Chief Ramona Harris in a statement. "We want to reassure the citizens of Montgomery that we are doing everything we can to interrupt and stop this cycle of gun violence in our communities. An innocent 3-year-old lost his life as a result of the irresponsible actions of a person who does not value the life of another. This type of violent behavior that lacks due regard to the general public must stop immediately."

The 18-month old Cherokee County boy was returned safely Sunday morning. The child was turned over unharmed and is now back in custody with his grandmother. Camren Clark, 21, who does not have custodial rights over the child, and his girlfriend, 22-year-old Malaysia Haynes, have been arrested and charged with felony interference with custody and burglary, according to the Cherokee County Sheriff's Office. Clark has an additional charge accusing him of simple battery. An Amber Alert was issued for the child after he was reported as taken from Acworth. Clark was believed to be with his girlfriend at the time and was heading to Minnesota. Overnight on Sunday, Clark contacted Cherokee investigators. He, his girlfriend and the child had been near St. Louis, Missouri. After speaking with investigators, Clark agreed to return to Cherokee County with the child. Both Clark and Haynes are in custody at the Cherokee County Adult Detention Center. Haynes' bond is set at $9,062. Clark has no bond at this time because his charges were filed under the Georgia Family Violence Act.

Joshua Caleb De La Hoz, 19, is charged with first degree sexual abuse, domestic violence strangulation, unlawful imprisonment, furnishing alcohol for a minor, and interference with a domestic violence 911 call. According to court records, De La Hoz was arrested for an incident happening on Valentine's Day. De La Hoz allegedly went to a woman's dorm room at UNA and offered her alcohol. She refused sexual advances by him and moved away from him in the room. The woman told police he held her down and assaulted her, leaving bruises on her neck and thighs. Court documents identify De La Hoz as a UNA employee. However the university denied this in a statement. "There is no place at our university for the behavior that is alleged in this matter," the statement reads. "We are working with law enforcement to provide any information that may be helpful. Maintaining a safe environment for our students and staff is always our top priority." A court date has not yet been set in the case.

Carlton James Brown, 29, of Pelham, was nude and appeared to be in a state of "excited delirium," said Pelham Police Chief Pat Cheatwood. Pelham police and fire medics responded to the Windstone subdivision just after midnight. One person was stabbed at a home on Camellia Drive and then Brown was shot at a nearby home on Honeysuckle Lane. Brown had reportedly stabbed another male at the home where they both lived. He then left on foot and rang the doorbells of several neighbors. When he got to the house at 321 Honeysuckle Lane, he banged on the door several times. The homeowner answered the door and a struggle ensued. A relative of the homeowner then fatally shot Brown just inside the home. "It appears to be self-defense," Cheatwood said. The stabbing victim is OK and refused medical treatment at the scene. The Shelby County Major Crime Task Force is leading the investigation.

Just two blocks later, a suspect or suspects bailed from a vehicle. A gun was recovered from that vehicle. At least 11 shell casings were found in the gas station parking lot. Police radio traffic indicated a suspect may have gotten into another vehicle that got onto I-59/20 headed southbound. The suspect was then spotted off Tallapoosa Street toward Tarrant. Police set up a large perimeter off Tallapoosa Street and, as of 1:30 p.m., the search was ongoing.
262	2/15/22	12:30 PM	Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Newnan		I-85	Shooting	GBI: Coweta Deputy Opens Fire on I-85 After Stolen Tractor-Trailer Hits Patrol Car	A Coweta County deputy opened fire on a man in a stolen tractor-trailer after authorities said he led them on a reckless chase Tuesday afternoon on I-85 just east of Newnan. The man swerved into motorists and police vehicles during the chase, prompting a deputy to resort to "deadly force" to stop the 18-wheeler. The driver, later identified as 56-year-old Bobby Gene Ingram, was shot multiple times. Deputies got reports about the tractor-trailer, which was stolen out of Forest Park. The truck was being tracked electronically on I-85 and deputies quickly located it shortly before 12:30 p.m. Ingram refused to pull over for a traffic stop, setting off the wild chase. The driver swerved several times and eventually struck a deputy's truck, GBI spokesperson Nelly Miles said. "Ingram continued driving on the interstate and a deputy pulled up beside the truck and fired his handgun from within the patrol car, striking Ingram multiple times," Miles said. He was treated at the scene for injuries that were not considered life-threatening before he was taken to Grady Memorial Hospital.

263	2/15/22	1:20 PM	Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Toccoa	Stephens County	Yearwood Rd	Shooting	Man Shot During Struggle Over Stephens County Deputy's Gun, GBI Says	An attempted traffic stop in northeast Georgia went awry quickly Tuesday and a man was wounded after trying to wrestle away a deputy's gun, authorities said. It began in Toccoa when a Stephens County deputy tried to stop a Chevrolet Silverado on Yearwood Road around 1:20 p.m. According to the GBI, the driver refused to stop and a chase ensued. The pursuit ended a few miles south when the driver crashed the pickup truck on Broad River Road, climbed out of the vehicle and approached the deputy. "There was a struggle between the driver and deputy, and during this struggle the deputy's gun was unholstered," Nelly Miles said. "The deputy and the driver fought over the gun during which the deputy fired one shot, striking the driver." The man was taken to a hospital with injuries that are not considered life-threatening.
264	2/15/22	5:15 PM	Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Buford	Gwinnett County	Buford Dr	Shooting	3 Wounded, 1 Arrested after Buford Road-Rage Shooting in U-Haul Parking Lot	Authorities said a Buford motorist shot at another vehicle during a road-rage dispute Tuesday evening, but police confirmed the alleged shooter quickly had his own gun turned against him. Gwinnett County police arrived at a U-Haul dealership along Buford Drive shortly after 5:15 p.m. and found Shormoi Martin, 25, sitting in the front seat of a Honda Accord bleeding from a gunshot wound to his leg. Officers treated his wound at the scene but said Martin refused to cooperate when they asked for details about how he was shot. Investigators later learned that Martin and two men in a white work van clashed in traffic. Both drivers pulled into the U-Haul parking lot and Martin began shooting into the van from his car. Martin tried to leave, but the van's driver stopped him. Police said Martin then got out of his car and opened fire on the van again. The van's passenger managed to grab the gun away from Martin and shot at him, striking him in the leg. Both men in the van sustained gunshot wounds during the ordeal; the driver was shot in the leg and the passenger took a gunshot to the chest. The two men left the scene before officers arrived and drove to a nearby fire station for treatment. Martin and both victims were considered stable at a hospital. Martin is charged with aggravated assault and possession of a firearm during a felony.

Hours after he was taken while in the car, the 6-year-old was found safe and unharmed. The manhunt continued for Rahem Laquan Devoe, 31, who is wanted on first-degree domestic violence and kidnapping charges. At about 8:15 p.m., Devoe and the mother of the child had a verbal argument which turned into a physical assault. The incident occurred at 5412 Jefferson Davis Highway. That's a Circle K gas station/convenience store in the Beech Island area. Devoe took the black four-door car while the child was seated in the backseat. Devoe is not related to the child, the sheriff's office said. At about 10:30 p.m., the sheriff's office said the boy was located after he was brought back to the gas station. The car was also recovered at 4667 Jefferson Davis Highway. The sheriff's office described Devoe as a 5-foot-11, 270-pound man, with black hair and brown eyes. He is armed with a handgun.

290	2/19/22	4:00 AM	Jonathan Limehouse	The News & Observer	NC	Charlotte		Millerton Ave	Robbery	Suspects in Red Car Robbed A Group Then Kidnapped, Sexually Assaulted NC Teen, Police Say	Charlotte–Mecklenburg police are looking for two suspects who robbed a group of three people at gunpoint, then kidnapped and sexually assaulted a 17-year-old girl on Saturday morning. Shortly before 4 a.m., the group was walking along Millerton Avenue — west of uptown — when a red Acura stopped. One of the vehicle’s occupants got out, approached the group and robbed them with a handgun. The gunman and another suspect then forced a 17-year-old girl into the car. After their attackers drove off, the remaining two victims called 911. Sheriff’s deputies in Davidson County — about 60 miles northeast of Charlotte — found the kidnapped teenager, but the suspects had already driven away. Police did not say how the teenager was located. Once returned to Charlotte, the teenager told CMPD detectives that one of the suspects had fondled her during the drive to Davidson County and threatened to harm her. CMPD obtained video surveillance of the suspect vehicle, a red 2008 Acura TSX with N.C. license plate JAB-3150 and reported stolen in Monroe. Police on Tuesday released photos of the two possible suspects. One suspect is seen wearing a black and gold jacket with a black hat, while the other has on a green jacket, police said.

299	2/20/22	1:15 PM	Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Spalding County	Northside Dr	Shooting	Teen Charged with Murder in Spalding County Shooting	Children ran for cover Sunday afternoon as a fatal shooting unfolded in the parking lot of a Spalding County apartment complex. Brandon Hawkins, 19, was charged with murder, aggravated assault and possession of a firearm during the commission of a crime in the death of 25-year-old Charlotin Presley. Deputies were called to the scene in the 600 block of Northside Drive about 1:15 p.m. It started with a verbal argument between Hawkins, Presley and others who were standing in the parking lot of the Northside Hills Apartments. Eventually, Hawkins got into his vehicle, drove a short distance, got back out and pointed his gun toward the group, the sheriff's office said. Multiple shots were exchanged and Presley was struck at least once on his side. He was taken to a hospital and later died. Investigators recovered more than 40 shell casings and three guns at the scene. Children were playing nearby during the shooting. After the shooting, Hawkins got back into his car and drove off. He was later arrested near the scene.

303	2/20/22	8:00 PM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Ensley		Court O	Shooting	Two 16-Year-Olds Found Shot to Death after Vehicle Hits Ensley House	Gunfire rang out in a west Birmingham neighborhood Sunday night, leaving two 16-year-old males from west Jefferson County dead. The shooting happened just after 8 p.m. West Precinct officers were dispatched to a residence at 5116 Court O in Ensley. When they arrived, they found Jeremiah Collier of Forestdale unresponsive in the passenger's seat of a vehicle that had crashed into a house. Collier was pronounced dead on the scene. Police then received a report of a person down at 57th Street and Avenue P, which is two blocks away. They found Todd Lorenzo Johnson, Jr. of Adamsville unresponsive and he, too, was pronounced dead on the scene. Detectives believe Johnson had been in the vehicle with Collier and ran two blocks before collapsing. A 15-year-old was taken to the hospital by private vehicle with a gunshot wound to the hand. Mauldin said they have not yet confirmed whether the 15-year-old was shot in the same incident. At least 18 shell casing markers were placed in the roadway. Multiple onlookers were at the crime scene, including some who believed the victims might be their family members.

308	2/21/22	10:00 PM	Alexis Stevens	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Cobb County	I-285	Hit & Run	Police: Woman Survives Cobb Crash But Is Killed Trying to Cross I-285	A woman survived crashing into the median wall on I-285 late Monday. But when she got out of her car and attempted to walk across the interstate, she was struck by multiple vehicles and killed, according to Cobb County police. The crash happened shortly before 10 p.m. on I-285 northbound between South Cobb Drive and Atlanta Road. Investigators believe Shamauri L. Fluellen, 20, was driving a gold 2001 Mercedes-Benz E320 when she lost control of the vehicle and crashed into the median wall. A purple 2010 Jeep Wrangler then crashed into the rear of the Mercedes. After both vehicles stopped in the left lane, Fluellen got out of her car and attempted to cross to the right shoulder. The Austell woman was struck by multiple vehicles and died at the scene. The driver of the Jeep, 36-year-old Trellany D. Taylor of Atlanta, was not injured Although several vehicles involved in the crash stopped and remained at the scene, investigators believe the first vehicle that hit Fluellen left the scene before officers arrived. No description of that vehicle is available.

324	2/24/22	12:00 PM	Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Piedmont Rd	Robbery	Woman Robbed at Knifepoint in Home Depot Parking Lot Near Buckhead	An Atlanta woman recently fell prey to the desperations of a violent mugger trying to escape town. A man snuck into the 59-year-old's vehicle after she shopped at a Home Depot in northeast Atlanta and robbed her at knifepoint. The man was intent on making it out of state and robbed the woman of cash for bus fare. Now Atlanta police are investigating the attack, which occurred shortly before noon Feb. 24 in the parking lot outside a Home Depot at 2525 Piedmont Road. No arrests had been made in the case as of Thursday, and investigators had yet to identify the suspect. The victim told officers she came out of the hardware store after shopping and loaded her items into her trunk. When she popped the lock on her SUV and got into her driver's seat, the suspect snuck into her vehicle on the passenger's side and sat right beside her. She said he stuck a knife to her throat and threatened to kill her, demanding she give him cash and take him to a bus station. The woman told officers she tried to escape, but the robber locked the doors and grabbed her arm to prevent her from leaving. She spent the next 10 minutes locked inside the SUV. The woman said she tried to talk her assailant down and told him he wasn't going to kill her at one stage of the violent encounter. But the man insisted that he would if she didn't adhere to his demands. At one point, the suspect mentioned that he needed to get to Alabama. He told the victim he was trying to buy a bus ticket. When the woman opened her wallet, the suspect took all the cash and grabbed a gold medallion necklace from around her neck, then got out of the vehicle. That's when the victim said she was finally able to get out and scream for help. Investigators were hoping to find clues from surveillance cameras surrounding the parking lot. 334	2/25/22	7:00 PM	Andrew Dys	The Herald	SC	Lancaster		Gay St	Shooting	2 Shot in Lancaster SC Include Teen Playing Basketball and Car Driver, Cops Say	Police in South Carolina are investigating after two people were shot and a grocery store was robbed in Lancaster at around the same time Friday night, officials said. A teen playing basketball was shot around 7 p.m. Friday on Gay Street near downtown. The teen and friends were shooting hoops at the court when one of the teens was wounded. After police arrived, they found that a second person had been hit by gunfire while driving on the Lancaster Bypass north of the first shooting location. Both victims were taken to hospitals for treatment. The police department and the Lancaster County Violent Crimes Task Force determined the two shootings are related but have not made any arrests. As officers investigated the two shootings Friday night, an Aldi grocery store near the intersection of U.S. 521 and the Lancaster Bypass was robbed by a woman who claimed to have a gun, officials said. The woman — dressed in black clothing, a face mask, scarf and sunglasses — demanded money and fled after the robbery. The robbery is not believed to be connected to the shootings, police said. All three incidents remain under investigation.

Tracy Lynn Stogner was charged with five counts of attempted murder, second-degree arson, and stalking. The 56-year-old Orangeburg County resident was also charged with using a destructive device, the Lexington County Sheriff's Department said in a news release. On Saturday, Stogner targeted a home where a woman with whom he had a previous relationship lived. He followed the woman to a Pelion Road home from a nearby store. "Based on evidence deputies documented at the scene and witness interviews, Stogner lit and tossed a water bottle containing gasoline through a window into a home on Pelion Road early Saturday morning," Lexington County Sheriff Jay Koon said. "Stogner started a fire and it resulted in significant property damage to the home...Stogner had left the scene before we got there...We tracked him down later Saturday and arrested him without incident." No bond has been set for Stogner, who remains behind bars at the Lexington County Detention Center, jail records show.

Birmingham police identified the slain man as Navari Deon Jones. He was 38 and lived in Bessemer. Just before 1 a.m. Saturday North Precinct officers were dispatched to a report of a person shot at the Tru-Riders Motorcycle Club at 905 Reverend Abraham Woods Jr. Boulevard. Officers arrived on the scene and found a woman suffering from a gunshot wound. She was taken to UAB Hospital with injuries not believed to be life-threatening. During the same time, a Birmingham officer was at police headquarters when the officer heard a car crash in the 1700 block of First Avenue North. The officer went to investigate and found the driver – now identified as Jones – suffering from a gunshot wound. The vehicle had struck two other parked vehicles. Birmingham Fire and Rescue Service pronounced Jones dead in front of Birmingham Police Headquarters. Investigators learned a second woman showed up at UAB Hospital with a non-life-threatening gunshot wound. The preliminary investigation suggests an altercation took place inside of the motorcycle club before the unknown suspect fired shots.

Arterio Crumbley, 25, surrendered at the Clayton County Jail just before midnight. He is accused of shooting the officer and another man during a robbery hours earlier in a shopping center along Riverdale Road. The officer, Ryan Richey, was released from Wellstar Atlanta Medical Center on Wednesday night after successfully undergoing surgery. The robbery victim's injury was not believed to be life-threatening. A multitude of police officers and tactical units from across metro Atlanta converged on the shopping center outside the Harbour Food Mart around 2 p.m. after the two were shot. The shopping strip also contains a Wells Fargo ATM, several small stores, a pan-African restaurant and a Chinese restaurant. "A robbery was being committed when the officer arrived," Clayton police Chief Kevin Roberts told reporters from the scene. "He engaged the suspect in the parking lot. That suspect discharged his firearm twice, striking the officer and the victim." Roberts said the officer was met with gunfire "upon his immediate arrival." He was struck once in his waistline, near his abdomen, with what was believed to be a ricocheting bullet. The robbery victim was struck in his hand. For several hours Wednesday, police believed they had the suspected shooter, later identified as Crumbley, contained in a large, densely populated neighborhood behind the shopping center. As officers searched on foot and by air, residents of the neighborhood were asked to stay inside and lock their doors. Police scaled back their presence in the area and allowed residents to return to normal activities shortly after 9 p.m. Three Clayton schools were put on lockdown Wednesday as a precaution.

384	3/5/22	12:40 AM	Liset Cruz	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		I-75	Shooting	Police: 3 Women, 1 Man Shot in Incident at I-75, Langford Parkway	Four people were wounded in an Atlanta roadway shooting early Saturday morning. APD officers responded to a person shot at I-75 and Arthur Langford Jr. Parkway at 12:40 a.m. A female victim with a gunshot wound in a pickup truck was taken to the hospital. Later, three other victims — a man and two women — drove themselves to the hospital with gunshot wounds. A fifth person called 911 and reported he had been shot at in the incident but was not wounded. Officers said the three victims who took themselves to the hospital were in a Lamborghini on the highway when another vehicle pulled alongside and began shooting, wounding the occupants. Two of the victims in the Lamborghini were not believed to be the intended targets. Investigators believe the shooting stemmed from an altercation earlier in the evening between the occupants of the Lamborghini and another group.

402	3/7/22		Michael Wetzel	AL.com	AL		Lawrence County	Lawrence Co. 294	Shooting	Burned Body Found in North Alabama May Have Been Kidnapping Victim	The severely burned body of a male discovered in Lawrence County on Monday could be that of a missing man believed kidnapped by two Trinity men on Sunday evening. Lawrence County Coroner Scott Norwood said the preliminary autopsy report ruled the man's death a homicide, with the cause of death being a gunshot wound to the chest. Family members reported David Guess, 51, of Trinity, missing and last seen at an address on Lawrence County 294 on Sunday night. The Lawrence County Sheriff's Office charged Charles Allan Keel, 43, and his son, Devon Allan Keel, 17, with first-degree assault and first-degree kidnapping in Guess' disappearance. According to an affidavit filed on Tuesday, Guess and Tyler Tippet were at Tippet's residence on Lawrence County 294 when the Keels arrived at the residence. Tippet said the Keels held them at gunpoint Sunday saying that Guess owed them $1,500, according to the affidavit. "Tippet states David (Guess) was beat over the head with a pipe and then when they tried to flee Charles or Devon shot at them twice and they stopped ....," the affidavit said. The Keels then took Guess to his truck, flipped him into the bed of the truck and drove off. About 3 p.m. Monday, a badly burned male body was discovered about 20 feet off Lawrence County 222 and Lawrence County 294 in the Chicken Foot community about 2 miles from where Guess disappeared. The Sheriff's Office said deputies obtained a search warrant of the Keels' residence on Lawrence County 321 in Trinity and found methamphetamine, marijuana, drug paraphernalia and other items related to the kidnapping of Guess. "This is an ongoing investigation and more charges could be coming," said Sheriff Max Sanders.

The ordeal began at 4:30 a.m. when Decatur patrol officers responded to the 4000 block of Hwy 31 S on a report of a home invasion robbery. There, they made contact with the homeowner who was suffering from a gunshot wound to the leg. Investigators determined someone had broken into the homeowner's garage and then attempted to force entry into the residence. The victim verbally confronted the suspect who fired a handgun through the door, striking the homeowner in the leg. The suspect then went into the home and stole some items, including the homeowner's vehicle keys. The suspect fled the scene in a white Jeep that was stolen from the residence. The homeowner was taken to the hospital to be treated for his injuries. Around 11 a.m., Decatur police officers were dispatched to a disturbance at the Morgan Center where a man was reportedly harassing people who were at the center preparing for an event. The man was reported to be in a white Jeep matching the description of the stolen vehicle. Officers attempted to stop the vehicle and the driver fled. A pursuit ensued that led to Old Highway 24 where officers disabled the stolen vehicle. The suspect began to fire a handgun at the officers. Several officers returned fire and struck the suspect several times. The suspect was taken to Parkway Medical Center where he later was pronounced dead.

William Parrott, 35, of Wrightsville, was believed to be the primary suspect in the deaths of his parents, News 95.5 and AM 750 WSB reported. Walton County Sheriff Joe Chapman told the radio station his deputies encountered Parrott at a gas station after deadly attacks at his father's home in Wrightsville, a small town about an hour east of Macon, and at his mother's Loganville mobile home. Chapman said he believes Parrott left his mother's home around 7:30 p.m. Saturday and drove to a Marathon station on Ga. 81, where he used his truck to damage several other vehicles in the parking lot. He got out and began to damage a vehicle with a hammer. Parrott then drove to an EZ Stop convenience store on Ga. 81, got out of his truck armed with the hammer and confronted a bystander who was armed with a gun. "A Walton County Sheriff's Office deputy arrived on scene and encountered the armed citizen and Parrott," a GBI spokesperson said in the news release. "The armed citizen complied with the deputy to put their gun down. Parrott, still armed with the hammer, charged at the deputy. The deputy fired one shot, striking Parrott." He was pronounced dead at a hospital.

Cameron Jakyle Motley, 22, was airlifted to the hospital and pronounced dead on Sunday. Three other victims were treated for non-life-threatening injuries and have been released from the hospital. The investigation is ongoing and no additional information has been released.
439	3/13/22		Lyn Riddle	The State	SC	Spartanburg			Shooting	Four Charged in SC Shootout That Left A 21-Year-Old Bystander Dead	About 117 shell casings were found in the parking lot of a Spartanburg apartment complex after a shootout between two groups of men that left an innocent bystander dead. Spartanburg County Sheriff Chuck Wright said the incident at Quail Pointe Apartments on March 13 was initially believed to be a call for service because people with firearms were in the parking lot. Instead, shots were fired amid a large group of bystanders. Paris Janai Kennedy, 21, was found dead in the parking lot. Four men have been arrested and charged with murder and possession of a weapon during a violent crime. Officials identified them as Zechariah James Utecht, 19, of Greer; Tyrease Sherrod Martinez, 21, of Taylors; Napoleon Demajcea Rhodes, 20, of Spartanburg; and Seven Terrell Keenon, 20, of Duncan. Martinez, Rhodes and Keenon are being held in the Spartanburg County Sheriff's Office Detention Center. Utecht is in custody in Alpina, Michigan, and is scheduled to have an extradition hearing in Michigan on April 14.

453	3/15/22	2:15 PM	Hayley Fowler	The Herald	SC	Oconee County			Shooting	Boater Shoots and Kills Jet Skier He Rescued from South Carolina Lake, Sheriff Says	A man who fell off his jet ski in a South Carolina lake was shot and killed by the boater who rescued him in what prosecutors have called an act of self-defense. The incident unfolded on Lake Keowee near Salem, South Carolina, on Tuesday, March 15, the Oconee County Sheriff's Office said in a news release. Deputies were dispatched to the man-made lake just after 2:15 p.m. in response to a reported shooting involving a boater and a wave runner. Law enforcement said a couple was on a pontoon boat when they saw a man and woman in distress in the water. The pair had reportedly fallen off a jet ski and were not wearing life jackets. The boaters rescued them while the jet ski continued "doing circles in the lake," the sheriff's office said. But the man who was rescued "became agitated and began assaulting the couple on the pontoon." Investigators said he might have wanted to get back on the jet ski. The woman who had been with him then pushed him in the lake in an attempt to deescalate the situation. The husband and wife helped the man back onto their boat. "After a second encounter, the man on the pontoon shot the man fearing for his and his wife's life while being assaulted," the sheriff's office said. "The man who was shot died on the pontoon." The 10th Circuit Solicitor's Office determined the shooting was in self defense and said no charges will be filed. The victim was identified as Nathan Drew Morgan.

Lucious Terrance Magazine was arrested Tuesday (3/29) and is being held at the Sumter County Sheriff's Office Detention Center, jail records show. The 35-year-old Sumter resident ran away from a March 15 wreck where five people from another vehicle were hospitalized with serious injuries. Jaiden Thompson was one of them, and on March 20 the Sumter child died while being treated at a Prisma Health hospital in Richland County. The two-vehicle collision happened at about 8 p.m. on March 15. Jaiden and the other crash victims were occupants in a 1999 Honda. Both the Honda and a 2005 Chevrolet Tahoe were driving south on U.S. 15, near the intersection with Havenwood Drive in Sumter. When the Honda slowed down it was hit in the rear by the Chevy SUV driven by Magazine. Magazine got out of the Chevy and ran away on foot. Magazine was denied bond on the charges of reckless homicide, hit-and-run leaving the scene with death, hit-and-run leaving the scene with great bodily injuries, hit-and-run leaving the scene with minor injuries, driving under suspension, jail records show. Magazine was also charged with use of license plate other than for vehicle which issued, operating or permitting operation of vehicle which is not registered and licensed, and uninsured motor vehicle fee violation, according to Sumter County court records. Despite the arrest, Jones said the Highway Patrol continues to investigate the collision.

The Knightdale Police Department received reports of Daniels knocking on several doors at the Country Hearth Inn around 7:15 a.m., apparently looking for his wife. Failing to find her, he returned to his home on Gaby Lane and at 11:32 a.m., the fire department received a call about a fire at the home. Before Knightdale police arrived, he fled in a vehicle that belonged to him and his wife and drove to an apartment on the 4200 block of Brockton Drive, where he broke into a residence to “terrorize” and attempt to murder two people, according to an order for arrest obtained by ABC 11. He shot one person and stole a 2015 Toyota Camry. The shooting victim is hospitalized with serious injuries, Raleigh police said. Responding officers followed Daniels and the ensuing chase ended when Daniels collided with another vehicle at New Bern Ave and New Hope Road. Daniels then fired a rifle at the two men in the other vehicle. The men were not injured. When police surrounded him at the scene, Daniels got out of the car with two firearms and fired multiple times at officers, striking their vehicles. Daniels fired a shotgun at two police officers, court documents say. Police fired back but did not hit Daniels. Officers eventually tased Daniels and wrestled him to the ground to arrest him. His charges include attempting to murder two police officers, the two people at the residence on Brockton Drive and the two passengers in the car he crashed into.

Devaundria Glanton, 21, is charged with three counts of second-degree assault. Dothan police responded Friday to the 2200 block of Westgate Parkway to investigate an undisclosed complaint that had been lodged by a citizen. Officers made contact with Glanton at the residence. They noticed she had three small children in the home with her at the time. Officers resolved the initial issue with Glanton. They were still in the area, however, when they noticed Glanton leave her home without her children. Officers made contact with Glanton again to address the fact her children were left unattended. At that point, police said, Glanton became disorderly and non-compliant. Police summoned DHR to the scene. When social workers arrived, Glanton became more agitated. "Officers attempted to take Glanton into custody and she began to go on a rampage," according to a press release. "While taking Glanton into custody, she managed to bite three different officers, and spit in the face of one officer." Glanton is being held without bond.
474	3/18/22		Alabama News Network Staff	Alabama News Network	AL	Montgomery		Cleveland Ct	Arson	Woman Charged with Arson after Fire at Montgomery Apartment Building	The Montgomery Fire/Rescue Department says a woman has been charged with arson after a fire at an apartment building. Investigators say 34-year-old Scherylese Lacole Sanders Cornley is charged with arson in the first degree after a fire in the 600 block of Cleveland Court. The fire happened just before midnight on March 18. Fire crews say they found a fire in the kitchen of a unit that involved the base cabinets and clothes that had been stuffed under them. They say there was also a burning piece of paper in an upper cabinet. Investigators say security video shows Cornley entering the apartment alone, then leaving several minutes later. A short time after that, maintenance workers could be seen running toward the apartment after a neighbor reported smelling smoke. Those workers helped put out the fire and got the people out of the apartment building.

Sheriff Says	A Columbia man armed with a wooden stake was shot and killed by a law enforcement officer after he ignored multiple commands and charged at the deputy, Richland County Sheriff Leon Lott said Sunday. Irvin D. Moorer-Charley, 34, was killed Saturday night. At about 6 p.m. Saturday, deputies responded to Heyward Brockington Road to a report of domestic violence involving a weapon. When the first deputy arrived on the scene, he was met outside the home by Moorer-Charley's mother and some other family members who said they had been attacked and Moorer-Charley was still in the house. Almost immediately after that, Moorer-Charley came out, armed with a wooden stake. The deputy, and another who soon arrived, believed the weapon was a knife. After ignoring commands to drop the weapon, Moorer advanced on a deputy, and an attempt to hit him with a taser failed. As Moorer rushed the deputy, four shots were fired, hitting him in the heart and liver. The South Carolina Black Activist Coalition said it demands accountability after Moorer-Charley's death. Lott said the 5th Circuit Solicitor's Office will decide if the deputy's actions were justifiable.

The department charged 42 year-old Keitrick Stevenson of Columbia with attempted murder Tuesday (4/5) and jailed him at Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center. A judge denied Stevenson bond. Sheriff Leon Lott said Stevenson is an "extremely violent repeat offender." "This isn't our first run-in with Mr. Stevenson," Lott said. "We arrested him for stabbing a man to death in 2006. He did time for that and got out only to try and kill someone else. This man has a total disregard for human life." The alleged attack happened on March 21. Stevenson is accused of approaching a group of people sitting outside a home in the 1000 block of Prescott Road. Stevenson was carrying a pitcher filled with gasoline, according to the department. He singled out the woman and doused her in the gasoline, deputies said. Stevenson threw matches at the woman as she ran away. She fell to the ground and was ignited by one of the matches. The woman was taken to a local hospital where she is currently in the burn center. Deputies found the pitcher they believe Stevenson used and traced it back to the store where he purchased it along with matches.

Officers were called to the Penthouse nightclub at 2847 Buford Highway around 2:45 a.m., Brookhaven police spokesman Sgt. Jake Kissel said. They met with a security guard who told them a man, later identified as 22-year-old Curtis Harlen, had fired multiple rounds inside the building, allegedly after being robbed. Police found Harlen in the parking lot and detained him as he was trying to leave the scene. Further investigation revealed Harlen had been involved in a "confrontation" inside the club just before the shooting. He was escorted out by security and then ran back inside. He was confronted again by security, took out a firearm and began shooting. Harlen was arrested and taken to the DeKalb County jail, where he was booked on charges of aggravated assault, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony, according to online records. Investigators are continuing to review evidence of the alleged robbery. Kissel said it's still unclear what exactly took place.

507	3/22/22	9:30 AM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Gwinnett		I-85	Assault	Suspected Gwinnett Greyhound Gunman ID'd, Charged with Aggravated Assault	A man accused of barricading himself inside a Greyhound bus on I-85 in Gwinnett County, leading to a SWAT standoff that blocked traffic for hours, has been charged with one count of aggravated assault, police said. Officials believe Jaylin Backman, 23, of Conyers was having a mental health crisis when he pulled out a handgun on the New York-bound bus Tuesday morning. Though he allegedly pointed the gun at the bus driver, he reportedly never pointed the weapon at any other passengers and did not prevent them from getting off the bus. The incident began when Backman got involved in an argument with another passenger. The fight escalated to the point that the driver noticed "the commotion" and pulled the bus over on the I-85 on-ramp from Indian Trail Lilburn Road. After Backman brandished his gun, the driver and the nearly 40 passengers were able to get off the vehicle and call 911. Once police arrived around 9:30 a.m., the hours-long standoff began. Traffic was stopped on I-85 in both directions well into the afternoon, creating serious delays in the area. Around 2 p.m., the SWAT team entered the bus and took Backman into custody. No one was injured during the incident, though Backman was checked out by medical personnel at the scene and received assistance from mental health professionals once transported to the Gwinnett County Jail. County officials supplied a bus, food and water for the Greyhound passengers stranded during the standoff. A second Greyhound bus arrived later to pick up the passengers to complete their route. Backman was booked into jail around 2:40 p.m. Tuesday and remains there with no bond.

512	3/23/22	1:50 AM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Clayton County	Tara Blvd	Shooting	Pregnant Clayton Woman Shot While Sleeping; Unborn Baby Dies Days Before Due Date	A pregnant woman who was shot while sleeping in her Clayton County home last week lost her unborn baby, according to police. Lovejoy police Chief Michael Gaddis said his officers responded to the Villas at Hampton townhome apartments on Tara Boulevard around 1:50 a.m. March 23 and found 27-year-old Princess Wolfe, who was nine months pregnant, and her 8-year-old daughter. Wolfe had been shot twice in the abdomen, Gaddis said, adding that she was taken to Grady Memorial Hospital, but “unfortunately, her newborn did not survive when they had surgery.” The 8-year-old was not injured. “That’s where we are right now. Investigators are still out canvassing the area, talking to neighbors, seeing if they heard or saw anything, reviewing surveillance equipment,” Gaddis said. A GoFundMe page set up by family members said Wolfe had her 8-year-old daughter in bed with her that night. In a public Facebook post, a woman who identified herself as Wolfe’s mother said her daughter was able to push the child onto the floor during the incident. “The bullets entered her bedroom window, striking her twice, hitting her in her abdomen and stomach, killing her unborn baby, who was five days away from her arrival date,” according to the GoFundMe account. Gaddis said that due to the location of Wolfe’s injuries and how the bullet went through the window, “we don’t think it was a stray bullet or anything at this time.”

Shortly before 3 a.m. Wednesday, Henderson was driving a 2017 Chevrolet Silverado south on Dallas Acworth Highway near Acworth. South of Bridgemont Place, Henderson's truck crossed the centerline, police said. "The front of the Chevrolet collided with the front of a Nissan Frontier traveling northbound on Dallas Acworth Highway," Henderson's warrant states. The driver of the Nissan, Robert Ellis, died from his injuries. Henderson walked away from the crash without attempting to help Ellis or provide information to officers. Henderson's truck was registered to both him and his mother, his warrant states. His mother told investigators he drove the truck and had been working a construction job in the Acworth area. Inside Henderson's truck, officers found his wallet, along with methamphetamine and heroin. Henderson was charged with first-degree vehicular homicide, hit-and-run, two counts of drug possession, and failure to maintain lane, jail records show.

Atlanta Police officers were called to the airport around 1 p.m. on March 25, where they spoke with a man who'd just flown in from Richmond, Virginia. He told APD that when he went to pick up his luggage from the carousel, it was gone and that the bag had some high-priced items and military equipment inside. The victim filed a claim with the airport and also a report with APD, advising the agencies that he had a tracking device on the bag. When officers pinged the bag's location, it was moving onto a MARTA train away from the airport, headed towards Dunwoody. Later, the GPS updated and showed the bag traveling back to the airport, where APD found the suspect. The suspected thief was detained at the airport, APD shows on body camera footage.

Montgomery County Sheriff Derrick Cunningham held a press conference to chronicle the events of the Friday afternoon incident that left the deputy's father dead. The slain man's name has not been released but authorities identified the wounded off-duty deputy as Cedric Law, a 26-year-old who has been on the force about two years. The shooting happened Friday afternoon in 2700 block of Lower Wetumpka Road. Cunningham said the ordeal began about 3 p.m. when Law was riding in the car with his mother and his brother. "His mother had just been involved in a domestic situation at her residence with his father," the sheriff said. "She was advised by the police department to go get a warrant and seek a protection order." The mother and her two sons were doing just that when they encountered the father on Lower Wetumpka Road. That's when the father struck the family's vehicle and then exited brandishing a gun. Law got out of his mother's vehicle, telling her and his brother to leave, Cunningham said. "He was trying to get his father to put down the firearm at which time his father fired off some rounds, striking the deputy multiple times," he said. "The deputy returned fire and struck his father multiple times." The father was pronounced dead on the scene. Law was transported to Baptist Hospital where he was listed in critical condition.

The robbery occurred just before 9:30 a.m. at a Chase Bank on Ga. 138 SE. Police said a man wearing sunglasses and gloves with a black mask covering his face handed a teller a note letting her know he was robbing the bank. The suspect then lifted his shirt to show the teller a gun tucked in his waistband and gave her a withdrawal slip on which he'd written $50,000. The teller gave the man an undisclosed amount of cash from her drawer and the suspect demanded his note back before leaving, according to police. Investigators said he calmly walked out of the bank lobby with the stolen cash. It was unclear how he left the property once outside because the bank isn't equipped with outdoor cameras. Police asked the FBI to open an independent investigation into the robbery.

542	3/26/22	11:00 PM	Liset Cruz & Chelsea Prince	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	South Fulton		Sable Chase Ln	Shooting	Police: Suspect Kills Himself after Woman Found Dead in South Fulton Home	The discovery of a woman's body prompted a SWAT standoff at a South Fulton home Saturday, which ended when the suspected gunman took his own life, police said. Teante Jones, 30, had been reported missing out of the Fairburn Police Department's jurisdiction before South Fulton police found her dead about 11 p.m. inside a residence in the 3400 block of Sable Chase Lane. A suspect, identified by police as Kenneth Southern, 43, was discovered barricaded in the attic. South Metro Regional SWAT was called in to try to negotiate with the man. He was later found dead with what was believed to be a self-inflicted gunshot wound, according to South Fulton police. No officers fired their weapons, and none were injured, the department said in a news release. Police did not release any other details about the apparent murder-suicide or Southern's relationship to Jones.

Sgt. Rosalind White of Huntsville police said officers were called to a possible shooting and stabbing in progress in the area of Grandview Boulevard on Sunday around 10 p.m. They found one victim in a nearby apartment with a stab wound, and another victim suffering from a gunshot wound. Osama Simpson, 20, was charged with first degree robbery and first degree assault, and is being held on a $90,000 bond. Kevon Hunter, 22, was charged with first degree robbery and is being held in the Madison County Jail on a $60,000 bond. Both victims suffered non-life-threatening injuries and are expected to survive, White said. Investigators believe a verbal altercation lead to the incident.
547	3/28/22	3:10 AM	Chelsea Prince & Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Commerce	Jackson County	I-85	Shooting	Philadelphia Man Arrested in Deadly Shooting on I-85 Near Commerce	Officials have identified a man killed in an early Monday morning shooting on I-85 near Commerce, along with the suspected shooter who was arrested as he tried to hide on some nearby farmland. Jackson County deputies were called to I-85 North near mile marker 144 around 3:10 a.m., the sheriff's office said in a news release. The victim's grandson, who was riding in a van with the two men, had dialed 911. At the scene, deputies found the panel van towing a U-Haul trailer stopped on the shoulder of the interstate. Inside the van, deputies located Samuel Sanders, 71, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, suffering from a gunshot wound. Sanders was taken to Northeast Georgia Medical Center, where he was pronounced dead. Deputies learned that the suspected shooter had fled. A manhunt began focused in the area of the Ga. 82 Spur and Dry Pond Road. By 9 a.m., the sheriff's office said Donald Carter, 67, also of Philadelphia, had been taken into custody. Carter was found hiding in a building near some chicken houses just off the interstate thanks to the help of the chicken farmer. Officials said that Carter was sitting on a handgun when he was found, but he was arrested without incident and booked into the Jackson County Jail on charges of murder and aggravated assault. According to the sheriff's office, Carter and Sanders were traveling back to their hometown after completing some work in Georgia. That's when an argument ensued that escalated to gunfire.

548	3/28/22	4:00 PM	Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Luckie St	Shooting	Cops: Man Arrested after Road Rage Erupts into Downtown Atlanta Shooting	A man is in custody after a road-rage incident Monday afternoon escalated into a shooting in downtown Atlanta that involved police, authorities said. Officers were called to the area of Luckie and Forsyth streets about 4 p.m. after two people started fighting as a result of road rage, Atlanta police Deputy Chief Charles Hampton said from the scene. "As the officer was trying to intervene, one of the male suspects returned to a vehicle to retrieve a firearm. Once the male retrieved the firearm, he did discharge his weapon one time and then our Atlanta police officer discharged his weapon as well," Hampton added. It did not appear that the officer struck anyone, according to Hampton, but the suspect's shot hit another man who was at the scene. Police did not say if that man was involved in the original dispute. His condition was not released. The shooter was taken into custody but he has not been identified by police. Officers were also able to speak to two women who were at the scene.

Zekiah Chrison Barber, 19, of Rock Hill, was charged Tuesday with assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature, possession of a weapon during a violent crime, and shooting into a vehicle. The victim, age 23, was hit by gunfire in both arms after an altercation in the road near the intersection of Gates Avenue and Bellingrath Boulevard, said Lt. Michael Chavis of the Rock Hill Police Department. The shooting happened around 5:15 p.m. The residential neighborhood is in southern Rock Hill west of Saluda Road and south of Heckle Boulevard. The victim's identity and relationship to Barber has not been released. She was taken to Piedmont Medical Center for treatment. Barber is in the Rock Hill jail awaiting a bond hearing, police and court records show. The shooting incident in a residential area was the second in the city on Monday. Earlier in the day around 11 a.m. in an unrelated case, police said a man on Byers Street was arrested and charged with domestic violence and weapons charges after allegedly firing a rifle toward a victim from a front porch. No one was hurt in the earlier shooting, police said.

551	3/28/22	10:00 PM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		DeKalb County	Bouldercrest Rd	Shooting	Uncle Charged with Murder after 4-Year-Old Girl Shot, Killed in DeKalb	An East Point man first arrested on child cruelty charges will face an upgraded charge of murder after his 4-year-old niece was fatally shot Monday night in DeKalb County. Officers responded to the Summit Hill apartments on Bouldercrest Road just before 10 p.m. for reports of a person shot, DeKalb police spokeswoman Michaela Vincent said. The girl, identified as Janiyah Jenkins, was suffering from a gunshot wound and was taken to the hospital by a family member. She died Tuesday morning. Police arrested Levante Cummings, 27, on one count of second-degree child cruelty, Vincent said. He was booked into the DeKalb County Jail overnight and remains there without bond. On Tuesday around noon, police said Cummings had also been charged with second-degree murder. According to Georgia law, the charge of second-degree child cruelty involves criminal negligence and can be upgraded to second-degree murder if the victim dies. Police have not said who fired the deadly shot, but Jenkins' mother told Channel 2 Action News the shooting was accidental. The mother, who asked not to be identified, said her daughter shot herself when Cummings, her brother, fell asleep and left his gun sitting out. "My baby shot herself," Jenkins' mother said. "My brother did not shoot her." Police are continuing to investigate the case.

553	3/28/22	11:10 PM	Alexis Stevens	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Lakewood Ave	Shooting	Man, 62, Survives Being Shot While Driving in SE Atlanta	A 62-year-old man was shot while driving on Lakewood Avenue in southeast Atlanta, police said Tuesday. It was the latest incident out of dozens in the metro area involving people shot while in their cars. It happened in the same block of Lakewood Heights where a grandmother was killed and a man was injured after being shot earlier this month. Late Monday, the man survived after being shot in the 1600 block of Lakewood Avenue. The search continues for the person responsible. The man told officers he heard multiple gunshots around 11:10 p.m. as he drove south. "He then stated he started to feel faint, and he ended up crashing his vehicle into a light pole at the intersection of Lakewood Avenue and Jonesboro Road," Atlanta police said in a news release. The man, who had been shot once, was taken to a hospital and considered stable, police said. A house and other vehicles in the area were damaged by gunfire, but no other injuries were reported.

Officers were called to the shopping center at 2975 Headland Drive in southwest Atlanta just before 6 p.m. March 30 and spoke with the victim. She told police she was hanging out behind the mall when a maroon Jeep Patriot circled the area multiple times. The woman said she told the Jeep's driver to leave her alone after he tried to speak to her multiple times as she was on the phone with another person. That is when the suspect told her, "(Expletive), who you talking to? You better not be back here tonight," according to the report. He then began punching and stomping her before grabbing her phone, necklace and a Louis Vuitton bag, the report adds. Another man broke up the confrontation, and the suspect fled in the Jeep. The victim sustained several injuries that caused swelling on her arms and to her entire face. Security footage from a nearby business corroborated the woman's version of events. The footage showed the Jeep and the suspect, who was wearing light-colored ripped jeans, a gray hoodie and black slides.

"Deputies have taken a person in custody who is believed to be the shooter from Tanglewood Middle school," Lt. Ryan Flood of the Greenville County Sheriff's Office said in a statement. "The male suspect was located in close proximity to the school and is described as a minor but no further information is available at this time. Deputies are not looking for any additional suspects." Flood said the school resource officer at Tanglewood Middle requested emergency backup just before 12:30 p.m. after a student was shot. The gunshot victim was transported to the hospital and their condition is unknown at this time. The shooter is believed to be another student. The Greenville County School District released a statement saying shots were fired inside Tanglewood Middle. Multiple agencies responded, Tim Waller, school district spokesman, said. Students were taken to Brookwood Church in Simpsonville. FOX Carolina television station said it received several calls about law enforcement vehicles on the scene and the Sheriff's Office said they had more than 100 deputies there. A WYFF-TV helicopter hovering over the campus around 1:30 p.m. showed a long line of school buses on the drive to the school, located southwest of the city of Greenville. Tanglewood has grades six through eight and about 800 students.

Jefferson County sheriff's deputies responded just before 10 p.m. Friday to the convenience store in the 900 block of Milstead Road. When they arrived, said Deputy Chief David Agee, they found evidence of a shooting but learned the victim had left and gone to another location. They located the 16-year-old, who sustained a gunshot wound to the knee. He told investigators he was a passenger in a car that was parked at the gas pumps when a dark-colored vehicle drove by and opened fire. The victim was taken to the hospital and is expected to be OK.

578	4/2/22		Dawn Baumgartner Vaughan	The News & Observer	NC	Knightdale			Shooting	Knightdale Carnival Canceled Sunday after Shooting Saturday. Police Search for Suspect	The final day of a carnival in Knightdale is canceled after violence at the event on Saturday night. A 16-year-old boy was injured and two cars were hit by gunfire, police say. "Due to the incidents of violence that occurred tonight at the Special Olympics Spring Carnival, and out of an abundance of caution for the public, Knightdale Police Department and Powers Amusement have canceled the final day of the event slated for Sunday, April 3," the Town of Knightdale posted on Facebook. A large fight broke out near a crowded concession stand at the carnival Saturday night, according to police. "As police worked to break up the fight and disperse the crowd, several shots were fired in a nearby parking lot. The gunshots sent some patrons scrambling for cover, while others rushed to their vehicles to flee the scene," a Town of Knightdale spokesperson said in a news release. Police from several agencies helped with crowd control and evacuation efforts after reports of shots fired. It took about 40 minutes to search for victims, clear out bystanders and secure the scene, police said. The 16-year-old was grazed by a bullet and treated for minor injuries at WakeMed hospital, police reported, and no other victims have been reported. Police also said at least two vehicles were struck by gunfire.

579	4/2/22		Liset Cruz	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Clayton County	River Station Blvd	Shooting	Teen Fatally Shot Outside His Clayton County Barbershop, Family Says	A teenager was fatally shot outside his Clayton County business Saturday afternoon, Channel 2 Action News reported. Anthony McClain, 17, was in his barbershop on River Station Boulevard co-owned by his mom when McClain heard commotion nearby. After stepping outside, he was shot. The boy's mother, Norma Huff, said she thinks he was walking outside the shop to call her and report the commotion. Instead, she got a phone call from another barber telling her to come quickly after "something tragic had happened in the shop," Huff told the news station. A second call confirmed her worst fears. "I said, please tell me, is it my child?," Huff said in an interview with Channel 2 Action News. "He said, 'Yes, it is.'" Huff believes McClain was an innocent bystander who became caught in the crossfire of an argument turned shooting. Clayton County police have not released any details about their investigation.

581	4/2/22	4:15 PM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Athens		Rocksprings Ct	Shooting	Cops: 4 Arrested in Shooting Incident after Driving from Atlanta to Athens	After hearing about a fight involving a young relative in Athens on Saturday, four Atlanta residents grabbed guns, drove to the Classic City and got involved in an armed confrontation and were arrested, police said. Officers were called to Rocksprings Court for a shooting around 4:15 p.m. At the scene, they found multiple people fighting. One of the people involved, Shontiva Myers, 31, fired multiple shots into the ground. Ricochets from the shots injured a 4-year-old boy and a 34-year-old woman. Both were taken to the hospital with minor injuries and later released. After getting control of the scene, officers learned that Myers and three other adults had come to Athens from Atlanta. Police identified two of the other suspects as Jeal Williams, 33, and Yolanda Myers, 50. The fourth suspect's identity was not shared. The four Atlanta residents had armed themselves and drove to Athens after hearing about a relative who had been involved in a fight just two hours before the shooting call. The earlier fight involved a minor, but police did not release any further details about that incident. Shontiva Myers and Williams are each facing two counts of aggravated assault and one count of possession of a firearm during the commission of a crime. Yolanda Myers is facing one count of disorderly conduct.

597	4/4/22		William Thornton	AL.com	AL		Franklin County		Shooting	One Arrested Following North Alabama Child Custody Exchange Shooting	A Franklin County man has been arrested after he shot another man during a child custody exchange. According to the Franklin County Sheriff's Office, deputies were dispatched to a call regarding shots fired at a business in the Spruce Pine community Monday. One of the people involved in the incident had been shot in the arm and left the scene in a personal vehicle to seek medical treatment. The other man, Jonathan Tyler Garrett, 29, of Spruce Pine, remained at the scene until deputies arrived, where he was detained. Other deputies were dispatched to Russellville Hospital to talk to the victim. Authorities said an altercation began during a child exchange which erupted into a physical confrontation over vulgar comments that Garrett made to his ex-wife. At this point the victim, who is in a dating relationship with Garrett's ex-wife, intervened. Garrett reportedly went back to his vehicle and retrieved a firearm. When the victim saw that Garrett was retrieving a firearm, he went to his vehicle to grab his own weapon. Witnesses say Garrett shot the victim in the arm, who then returned fire in self-defense. Garrett was uninjured. Deputies say the victim had his child in his car, as well as the ex-wife of Garrett and their child in common, during the shooting. Garrett has been charged with first degree assault and three counts of reckless endangerment. He was transported to the Franklin County Detention Center, where he will await a bond hearing.
598	4/4/22		Jonathan Raymond	11 Alive	GA		Douglas County		Child Abuse	Metro Atlanta EMT and Mother Accused of Abusing Her 2-Year-Old Child	A metro Atlanta EMT and mother were arrested earlier this week, accused of abusing her 2-year-old child. The Douglas County Sheriff's Office said it is asking the public if anyone else has experienced abuse by, or knows that their child was abused by, EMT Cristian Anthony Stern. He along with the mother were arrested on April 4 and face over 20 counts of abuse to a child, according to a release from the sheriff's office. An arrest report does not list their specific charges, so it's not clear how the 20-plus counts break down between the two. The release said that investigators conducted a two-week "intensive investigation" before opening a criminal case, after a tip from a "concerned citizen" in late March about the condition of the child. "The investigation, still underway, exposed the conduct of Stern who is a Georgia EMT and active in the Georgia National Guard. Stern has worked on Ambulances in several areas in the Metro Atlanta area," the release said.

606	4/5/22		Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Tuscaloosa			Child Abuse	Tuscaloosa Father Accused of Abuse Leading to Baby's Multiple Brain Bleeds and CPR	A 22-year-old Tuscaloosa man is behind bars, accused of causing his infant son to suffer at least one brain bleed. Jadarius Daquin Driver is charged with aggravated child abuse. He was arrested April 5 and remains held in the Tuscaloosa County Jail on $60,000 bond. Tuscaloosa County sheriff's deputies received a call April 5 of 5-month-old child who was unresponsive and not breathing. The report states that Driver performed CPR on the baby, Kamari. The baby was taken to DCH Medical Center and then airlifted to Children's of Alabama in Birmingham. Doctors at both hospitals confirmed a brain bleed. Driver reported that Kamari fell off a bed that was only a foot off the ground. The doctors told investigators the baby's injuries were not consistent with Driver's story. "Jadarius stated Kamari quit breathing the night before and he performed CPR on him until his breathing was better," the police report states. Jadarius stated he did not call for medical assistance because the baby seemed to be OK." About 8 a.m. Tuesday, Driver said he noticed Kamari was not breathing. He said he gave the baby CPR again and Kamari seemed to be OK. He said he then went back to sleep. When he woke up about 1 p.m., he noticed again that Kamari was not breathing. Driver then notified his mother and they called 911. "Jadarius admitted to throwing the baby on the bed, which has a very thin mattress, and hearing a loud thud Monday night before the baby fell off the bed," the investigator wrote. "Jadarius admitted to throwing the baby by the arm on the bed earlier that weekend." "He also admitted to shaking the baby to get him to quit crying," the report states. The report stated the baby also had a large, fresh bruise on his face.

610	4/5/22	6:00 PM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Woodstock		Downsby Ln	Assault	Cops: Woodstock Woman Seriously Injured After Ex-Boyfriend Hits Her with Car	A 22-year-old woman was seriously injured Tuesday evening after a fight with her ex-boyfriend led her to jump on the hood of her own car as the man drove away in it, throwing her off and running her over, authorities said. She was taken to Wellstar Kennestone Hospital with serious but non-life-threatening injuries, Cherokee County Sheriff's Office spokesman Capt. Jay Baker said in a news release. Her ex-boyfriend, David Moore, 19, of Atlanta, was later found driving her car and arrested by Atlanta police, Baker said. Sheriff's deputies responded to the Brooke Mill apartment complex in Woodstock around 6 p.m. after getting reports of a person hit by a car. There, they learned that the woman had been run over. Investigators said the woman had gotten into a fight with Moore before he snatched her keys and got into her car. The woman jumped onto the hood when she realized Moore was driving away, but she was thrown off as he drove away. Moore did not stop despite hitting his ex-girlfriend, Baker said. Deputies issued an alert to other law enforcement agencies in the region, and Atlanta police later found Moore driving the woman's car on Trabert Avenue, Baker said. Moore was taken into custody and transferred to the Cobb County Adult Detention Center, where he was booked on charges of aggravated assault and robbery. He remains in jail without bond, Baker said.

According to investigators, the deadly shooting happened around 5 p.m. during a traffic stop after police received a tip about a passenger in a Toyota Rav 4 traveling on the Chastain Road who matched the descriptions of the suspect. Acting Cobb County Police Chief Stuart Vanhoozer said someone shot at one of his officers on Sunday in the parking lot of the Cumberland Mall. The officer was not injured, but police made finding him a priority. The chief says they have not confirmed the identity of the man who they say pulled a gun Wednesday, but he matched the description and so did the pistol he allegedly produced. Police say Cobb's Violent Crime Bureau, essentially their SWAT team, pulled the car over and that's when things went south. The driver who was in the car with the passenger was not hit, but was taken in for questioning.

On April 9, Jeremy Gerome Junious shot his way into the house on Drayton Hall Road and took the child. The 34-year-old Columbia man was charged with attempted murder, discharging a firearm into a dwelling, first-degree burglary, possession of a weapon during a violent crime, and unlawful neglect of a child by a legal custodian, jail records show. "Based on the interviews detectives have done and the evidence collected, Junious got into the home on Drayton Hall Drive early on the morning of April 9 after he shot through the doorknob," Lexington County Sheriff Jay Koon said in the release. "Junious and the man inside the home shot at each other. Both men suffered gunshot wounds." Junious then ran upstairs, took his child from the home and left, according to Koon. Responding "deputies made contact with Junious ... (and he) was in his car with the child in his lap. The child suffered a minor gunshot wound to the leg," Koon said. Junious, the other man in the shootout and the child were taken to a local hospital for treatment. Junious was arrested Tuesday after he was released from the hospital. Investigators believe the shooting stems from a custody dispute between Junious and the child's mother, according to Koon.

646	4/10/22		Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Ted Turner Dr	Shooting	2 Murder Suspects Arrested in Fatal Shooting in Castleberry Hill Neighborhood	An Atlanta man and woman allegedly tied to a fatal shooting last month in the Castleberry Hill neighborhood have been arrested. Earl Robert Wade, 41, and Meyoshia Larrysha Gentry, 32, were both arrested in southwest Atlanta on May 4 on murder charges. Wade also faces one count of aggravated assault. Their charges stem from a shooting outside the Atlanta immigration federal courthouse at 180 Ted Turner Drive early the morning of April 10. Police later identified the victim as Alexander Tigner, 32. Officers responded to Grady Memorial Hospital around 1 a.m. after Tigner was dropped off there with gunshot wounds. He later died of his injuries. Investigators identified Wade and Gentry as suspects in the shooting May 3. A fugitive task force tracked them to a residence one day later and made the arrests. Police said a 1-year-old boy was found lying on a bed next to two guns during the arrest. Officers seized the weapons and turned the baby over to the custody of his grandparents. Tigner was laid to rest at Lakeside Memorial Gardens in Palmetto after a celebration of life service April 30, according to his obituary.

Officers were called to the area near Oglethorpe Avenue and McDonough Street just before 4 a.m. after someone reported two men fighting. There, they found a man talking irrationally and carrying a makeshift weapon on Abercorn Street. Investigators said they found a 13-inch sharpened spike with an improvised handle at the scene. Police tried to de-escalate the situation and get the man to put down the weapon, but he did not respond, according to the release. Officers eventually approached him as he walked along Abercorn Street toward Bay Street, but the man resisted and swung the weapon toward an officer, the GBI said. Police then unsuccessfully tried to use a stun gun on the man, but he attacked an officer with his weapon instead. That's when another officer shot the man. He was taken to a hospital, where he later died.

Victor Bentz Sydney Saint-Victor was arrested not long after the incident when he was spotted by officers running along a road in the area. The 20-year-old is charged with one count of home invasion, four counts of aggravated assault and one count of possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony. At about 3:50 p.m., officers responded to an active threat call and found a 24-year-old man with a gunshot wound to the shoulder and leg. The man was shot while driving around the Canopy Glen Apartments in the 1600 block of Pirkle Road in Norcross, she added. The victim was treated and released at the scene. Moments later, a 22-year-old woman was found with a gunshot wound to the shoulder and her boyfriend was grazed by a bullet at a duplex home in the 1500 block of Pirkle Road. They told officers they heard someone kick their bedroom door twice and then shoot into the room with them inside. The couple were taken to a hospital with non-life-threatening injuries. Saint-Victor was later found inside a storage box in a backyard in Stonewood Court and arrested. At the time of his arrest, he did not have any weapons on him, the rifle used was located inside a trash can near the incident location.

Police say this morning at around 9:30, two plain-clothes detectives were inside Lowe's on an unrelated matter when they noticed a man place a shopping cart, loaded with power tools valued at more than $2,000, near the exit of the door and walk away. A short time later, police say they noticed the man running out of the door with the shopping cart, followed by Lowe's employees. One detective chased the man to a truck while holding up his badge and announcing himself as "Police". The other detective got into his unmarked car, turned on his blue emergency lights and pulled behind the truck. Police say the man tried to start the truck several times. The man got out, ran to the rear parking lot of Steak-n-Shake where he was caught after a brief struggle. The man has been identified as Kevin Andrew Johnson, 43, of Montgomery. Police learned that Johnson and another man, Roderick Bernard Harris, 51 of Prattville, who was inside the truck, had committed another felony theft at Home Depot. All stolen property was recovered. Johnson faces charges of theft of property in the second and third degrees, plus unrelated warrants for assault in the third degree and harassing communications. Harris faces a theft of property charge in the third degree.

The incident began Tuesday morning when a 24-year-old man allegedly tried to steal copper wire from the store along Market Place Boulevard. Workers at the Home Depot confronted the man, but he ran out of the store and hid in the parking lot after officers were called about 8:10 a.m. The man was spotted by officers when he got into his car. But when authorities tried to pull him over, he sped off onto Ga. 400. Due to traffic, officers called off the chase. About 30 seconds later, the man crashed after losing control of the vehicle and hitting the guardrail. The man then hopped over the guardrail and fled into a development. Since it was still in the early stages of construction, the only part that had been completed was the sewer system. At that point, the Forsyth County Sheriff's Office joined the manhunt and a deputy asked the construction crew for a map of the sewer system. Authorities decided they would place a person at each entry into the system and wait for the man to resurface. When they were about to release a K-9 after waiting for about 20 minutes, the man came out. The man was charged with theft by shoplifting, fleeing or attempting to elude for a felony offense, and other drug offenses.

Oliver Ashley Toledo Saldivar, 26, of Durham fled to New Mexico after a shooting in Durham on April 12. He was killed on April 16 after allegedly charging a police officer and pointing a weapon at him. Saldivar was a suspect in a shooting on the 500 block of West Carver Street in north Durham shortly before 10 p.m. Police found a 31-year-old woman named Karla Yadira Jaramillo Noyola dead at the scene. She was the mother of four children and was allegedly shot in front of family members. Saldivar was initially named as a suspect, though his name was not publicly released. Before charges were filed, he fled to Santa Fe, New Mexico. On April 16 before noon, a New Mexico State Police officer responded to a welfare check for a man reported to be slumped over at the wheel of a brown BMW on the side of Interstate 40 in Santa Fe. The officer found Saldivar in the car and did not know he was a suspect in the Durham shooting. Police say Saldivar got out of the car at the officer's request and then locked the car doors. While he stood next to the passenger side of the officer's patrol car, he walked over to the officer and attempted to draw "a black object" in his jacket pocket, which turned out to be a gun, police said. The officer stepped back and pointed his service weapon at Saldivar. Saldivar then charged and tackled the officer. The officer shot him at least once as Saldivar continued to struggle with the officer. Police said he bit the officer's arm in the struggle and also retrieved a gun from his jacket. The officer took the gun as Saldivar tried to load his weapon. A truck driver passing by the scene stopped and threw Saldivar's weapon out of reach. He

Chapel Hill police charged Gabriel Cortez Peele, of Chapel Hill, with first-degree murder. Peele is accused in the death of Derek Tyrone Mack, 34, who was found around 4 p.m. April 13 inside a burning car in front of the Sagebrook Apartments on Dickens Court. The complex is off Sage Road in northeastern Chapel Hill. An investigation revealed that Mack had been murdered, and details of the case led police to Peele, who was being held in Wake County on a failure to appear charge stemming from a 2021 charge of driving while license revoked in Lee County. Raleigh police arrested Lee on April 23, court records show. Police also charged Peele with assault with a deadly weapon with the intent to kill inflicting serious injury, possession of a stolen firearm, two counts of possession of a firearm by a felon, armed robbery, and conspiring to improperly dispose of a body, court records showed. He is being held without bond in the Wake County Detention Center on unrelated charges, police said.

"I shot him in his leg," the unidentified 911 caller says as a person can be heard wailing in the background. "He's trespassing on my property." The call led Troutman Police officers to the home on Stillwater Road around 7:45 p.m. There, officers found a person with a gunshot wound to their "lower extremities" that was not life-threatening, Chief Josh Watson said. DaBaby, whose name is Jonathan Kirk, and another unidentified person were home at the time of the shooting, Watson said. The 911 caller told the dispatcher that the trespasser was "neutralized." It wasn't clear Friday morning whether DaBaby was the person who shot the trespasser. The 911 call-taker refers to the caller as "sir," but the voices in the audio are distorted so it's unclear whether it's DaBaby on the line. "I don't know what he's here for. I don't know what he's here to do, but he's shot," the 911 caller said. The trespasser was shot on the football field and may have jumped over a fence to get onto the property, the caller told the dispatcher. "He had to trespass on somebody else's property to even get to my property," the caller said. The exterior of the property is surrounded by a tall concrete wall. An Iredell County building permit also shows five guard towers were built at the house in 2021. In the 911 call, the dispatcher asked the caller to secure his firearm, but the person refused to do so until police arrives. "I'm not putting it down with this trespasser right here on my property," the caller said. "I'm not doing it. I don't know who he got with him." The incident took place on U.S. 441 at Shady Grove Road, between the towns of Homer and Hollingsworth. According to the GBI, Webb was speeding north in a truck towing a small trailer when he passed the deputy, who was driving an unmarked SUV. As the truck passed the SUV, the deputy flashed his emergency lights at it, the GBI said. When the lights flashed, the truck swerved into the SUV's lane. Though the vehicles did not hit each other, both left the highway and came to a stop on a grassy embankment. Once both vehicles had stopped, Webb got out of his truck carrying a hatchet and approached the deputy's SUV. Webb began beating on the driver's window with the hatchet, according to the GBI, ultimately breaking through the glass. While still sitting in his SUV, the deputy pulled his gun and shot Webb multiple times.

679	4/14/22		David Travis Bland	The State	SC	Lexington	Lexington County	Kenna Drive	Shooting	Father, Son Arrested After Chasing Driver, Shooting at Cars, Lexington Police Say	The Lexington County Sheriff's Department charged a father and son with attempted murder and other crimes Thursday after shooting at two drivers, deputies said. The department charged Anthony Gail Davis, 54, and Antony Ryan Davis, 28, each with two counts of attempted murder, four counts of pointing and presenting a gun, and gun possession during a violent crime. The shooting happened in the morning on Kenna Drive, the department said. That's in a neighborhood of St. Andrews Road near Irmo High School. Court records say that the elder Davis lives on Kenna Drive. The younger Davis was behind the wheel when they approached a truck occupied with a driver and passenger. They fired a shotgun at the truck. Some shotgun pellets hit houses. The driver of the truck tried to get away but the Davises chased them. The driver eventually lost the Davises in traffic. "They fired several more shots at a different truck," Sheriff Jay Koon said. Deputies were alerted to the shooting and, based on a description of the Davises' vehicle, found them near the scene of the shooting, the department said. Investigators reviewed surveillance footage and interviewed witnesses before making the arrests. Both men are being held at the Lexington County Detention Center without bond. Deputies also charged the younger Davis with being a habitual traffic offender. If convicted, attempted murder is punishable with up to 30 years in prison.

681	4/14/22	5:00 AM	Liset Cruz	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Thomasville		Bartow St	Shooting	Texas Teen Shot in Exchange of Gunfire with South Georgia Deputy, GBI Says	A South Georgia sheriff's deputy exchanged gunfire with a teenager who fired shots from a rifle before dawn Thursday, authorities said. Harold Alexander Jr., 18, of Houston, Texas, was shot in the hand and treated at a hospital before being taken to jail in Thomas County. Alexander had been the subject of an eight-hour manhunt that started with a traffic stop and ended when he was discovered hiding in a shed. According to state officials, Thomasville police attempted to pull over a van that did not have a license plate around 5 a.m. Thursday. The van sped off, causing officers to lose sight of it. Deputies with the Thomas County Sheriff's Office joined in the search and ultimately found the van abandoned on Bartow Street, near Wright Street in Thomasville. Alexander was found hiding under a nearby house, according to the GBI. "As officers chased Alexander, Alexander fired numerous rounds from a rifle at the officers," GBI agents said in a news release. "A Thomas County Sheriff's Office deputy fired back at Alexander; however, he got away. It was unknown at that time if Alexander had been shot." As they searched, authorities locked down an area near an elementary school and closed roads to traffic. Alexander was eventually found in a shed and taken into custody around 1 p.m. on charges of aggravated assault on a peace officer and felony obstruction. Officers recovered the rifle near the scene, according to the GBI.

Randi Leah Sheets, 39, was charged with felony hit and run and misdemeanor death by motor vehicle in connection with the collision, which occurred on the southbound N.C. 540 toll road, south of Apex, just before 7 a.m. on Thursday. The Highway Patrol first reported the hit-and-run in a tweet Thursday night, and said troopers were looking for a 2006-2013 Chevrolet Impala with damage on the front passenger side, and the passenger side mirror. On Saturday, the pedestrian who died was identified as Billy Dquan Jose McNeill of Fayetteville. Sheets reportedly called the Highway Patrol Friday morning to acknowledge her role in the hit-and-run, and said news stories about the crash had prompted her to call. Sheets is being held on a $50,000 secure bond.

687	4/15/22		Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Carrollton	Carroll County		Child Molestation	Carrollton School Resource Officer Arrested on Child Molestation Charges	A Carrollton police officer who also served as a school resource officer was fired Friday and later arrested on child molestation charges, officials said. Cpl. Jerric Gilbert was fired after Carrollton City Schools contacted police about “allegations of criminal misconduct” Thursday. The GBI said in a news release he had been arrested on one count each of child molestation and violation of oath by a public officer. The charges stem from an April 15 incident at his home. Gilbert is accused of encouraging an 11-year-old girl to touch him inappropriately. The police department said it immediately took action upon learning of the allegations and opened an internal investigation. Gilbert, who worked at Carrollton Elementary School, was taken into custody Friday and booked into the Carroll County Jail. According to records kept by Georgia’s Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) council, Gilbert had been employed by the Carrollton Police Department since April 2015. He was promoted to the rank of corporal in November. POST records show he had no disciplinary history.

The victim, who appeared to be in his late 30s or early 40s, had been shot, according to Atlanta police Lt. Ralph Woolfolk. Investigators have blocked off Donnelly Avenue with crime scene tape as they collect evidence from the sedan, which wrecked near the entrance to the Donnelly Courts apartments. "The preliminary indications are the gunshots came from inside of the vehicle," Woolfolk said. Officers were called to respond to the vehicle accident around 4:30 a.m. They were canvassing the area Friday for any witnesses who may have heard gunshots. Woolfolk said his detectives had collected electronic evidence and have identified surveillance cameras at the apartment complex that might be helpful to their investigation. They have been unable to confirm the identity of the victim and do not know what motivated the deadly shooting. The vehicle will be taken to a state crime lab to be processed. "We're going to be depending heavily on trace evidence as it pertains to this investigation," he said.

The GBI is now investigating the deadly shooting and the store clerk is in an Atlanta hospital. The incident happened around 4:45 a.m. Saturday at the BP convenience store at 2261 Cascade Road. That's when police received reports of a fight at the location. The situation intensified as officers were en route with reports that someone was armed with a knife. Police arrived and saw the suspect holding the knife inside the store, but the front doors were barred and locked. Officers ordered him to drop the weapon, but he ignored their demands. "It took officers a considerable amount of time to make entry into the store because the clerk had locked the suspect inside," he said. Police had to break the front windows with batons to force their way into the store. Two officers suffered minor injuries from the shattered glass. Once they got inside, officers saw the suspect stabbing the clerk near the checkout counter. A GBI spokesperson said officers found several "edged" weapons near the suspect after shooting him. "The suspect appeared to have the victim pinned to the ground," Hampton said. "Again, challenges were made to drop the weapon. The suspect did not; officers discharged their weapons." There were no customers inside the store during the deadly encounter. The suspect died at the scene. The store clerk sustained multiple stab wounds and was taken to Grady Memorial Hospital.

None have died from the shooting. Of those 12 injured, 10 were hit by gunfire and two others were hurt as people fled to exits, Columbia Police Department Chief Skip Holbrook said at a 5 p.m. news conference in Harbison, where Columbiana mall is located. Eight of the people hit by gunfire were transported to area hospitals, with two in critical but stable condition. Two other gunshot victims took themselves to a hospital, Holbrook said. The oldest victim was 73 years old and the youngest 15, Holbrook said. The first 911 call came in at 2:03 p.m. Saturday after shots were fired near the Gap store. At least three people were seen with firearms inside the mall, and at least one person fired a gun. Holbrook said it appears from a preliminary investigation that the shooter or shooters knew each other. Police "don't believe this is random," Holbrook said. The shooting was "not a situation of a random person that showed up the mall" to shoot people. Holbrook asked the public to stay out of the area as the investigation continues, and law enforcement officers could be at the mall for several more hours Saturday night.

714	4/17/22	5:00 AM	Liset Cruz	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Loganville	Gwinnett County	Beaver Rd	Homicide	Update: Teen Charged with Murder after Sister, 10, Dies in Loganville House Fire	A 15-year-old boy is accused of intentionally setting a fire that killed his 10-year-old sister, who was trapped inside her bedroom in their Loganville home on Easter Sunday. Gwinnett County police are investigating the girl's death as a homicide. The teenage boy was taken into custody Sunday afternoon after hours of searching for him, as the family and firefighters believed he was still inside the burning home on Beaver Road. He is charged with malice murder and felony murder. Arson charges are pending the completion of the fire department's investigation. Around 5 a.m., firefighters arrived at the single-story residence and found heavy flames. An adult and two children had already escaped the home before fire crews arrived, but the two missing children were believed to still be inside. "After the fire was brought under control, a 10-year-old female victim was located deceased in a room used as a bedroom without window access," fire spokesperson Lt. Justin Wilson said. Firefighters continued to sift through the charred debris for hours looking for the 15-year-old boy. He was found safe around 9 a.m. at another location. By Sunday afternoon, fire investigators suspected arson, and Gwinnett police took over the death investigation. "At this time, it has been determined the fire was set intentionally by a sibling of the deceased victim," a police spokesperson said.

717	4/17/22	12:30 AM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Clayton County	Valley Hill Rd	Shooting	Man Arrested After Teen Killed During Easter Gathering in Clayton County	A 19-year-old was killed Sunday after an argument broke out at an Easter gathering in Clayton County. When officers arrived at a home in the 200 block of Valley Hill Road just before 12:30 a.m., they found Reginald Manual in the driveway with a gunshot wound. Manual was able to tell police who shot him before he died, eventually leading to an arrest. Investigators determined that Manual was attending an Easter gathering with his girlfriend and her family when he became involved in a heated argument with his girlfriend's mother. They had been arguing over Manual wanting to remove his child from the home, and after the argument, Manual walked outside. Based on Manual's statement and multiple witness interviews, police identified Jaswan Burroughs as a suspect. Burroughs, 36, is the boyfriend of the woman with whom Manual was arguing. Burroughs was arrested on charges of malice murder, aggravated assault, possession of a firearm during the commission of a crime and possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. He is being held without bond in the Clayton County Jail.

723	4/18/22	8:00 AM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Garden City		Commerce Blvd	Shooting	GBI: Savannah Man Arrested after Shooting at Police from Inside Truck	A Savannah man was arrested Monday after locking himself inside a parked tractor-trailer for hours in Garden City and shooting at police, according to the GBI. Officers from multiple agencies responded around 8 a.m. after a truck driver called 911 to report that a man, later identified as 25-year-old Joseff Orion Smith, had climbed into his truck that was parked in a lot at 6069 Commerce Boulevard. The driver said he had an unsecured handgun inside, and the man had locked himself inside. Police ordered Smith to get out of the truck, but he refused and at some point fired at officers. A Port Wentworth police officer returned fire, though neither Smith nor the officers were injured. At that point, Savannah Police Department's SWAT team was called in to help negotiate. After a couple of hours of failed negotiations, the SWAT team shot tear gas into the cab of the truck to get Smith out. He was then taken into custody. After being taken to a hospital for observation, he was booked into the Chatham County Jail and charged with aggravated assault against a law enforcement officer and criminal attempt to commit a felony.

726	4/18/22	6:50 PM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Cleveland Ave	Shooting	Security Guard Killed in Shooting at SW Atlanta Strip Mall	A security guard was killed in a Monday evening shooting at a strip mall in southwest Atlanta. Officers were called to 387 Cleveland Avenue just after 6:50 p.m. for reports of a shooting, Atlanta police said. At the scene, officers found a man with a gunshot wound who was quickly pronounced dead. Customers told Channel 2 Action News he worked as a security guard for American Wings and Seafood in the small strip mall just south of the I-75/85 split. "For the most part, they're very wholesome people, the owners themselves," Kim Kae told the news station. "Usually, they're always on point, very attentive with orders. I know that they hire security just for their safety as well as the consumers' safety. He was a good guy." According to officers at the scene, the shooting was targeted. A witness stated that the guard was sitting in a booth when someone walked inside the restaurant and shot him in the back of the head. Atlanta city councilmember Antonio Lewis, who stopped by the scene Monday, told Channel 2 he would often see the victim while eating at the restaurant.

729	4/19/22		Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Gordon County	I-75	Shooting	GBI: Deputies Fatally Shoot Man Following High-Speed Chase in NW Georgia	A high-speed chase in northwest Georgia on Tuesday came to an end when deputies shot and killed the driver trying to evade custody, authorities said. Officials identified the suspect as Chris Honea, a 26-year-old Rossville man, and said he “made a movement toward his waist” as officers closed in to arrest him. That’s when the officers opened fire on Honea, who died at the scene. Now the GBI is investigating the 42nd officer-involved shooting the state agency has been asked to handle this year. According to GBI officials, the incident began when Ringgold police attempted to stop Honea’s car for speeding southbound on I-75. The chase ensued when Honea refused to stop and it eventually reached Gordon County, where deputies there took the lead. They performed a PIT maneuver on Honea’s car, which caused it to swerve off the interstate and go down an embankment. Even after the crash, Honea refused to follow authorities’ commands as they tried taking him into custody, investigators said. GBI officials said the Gordon County deputies shot at Honea when he appeared to reach for his waist. The GBI did not say if a weapon was found at the scene. The GBI Medical Examiner’s Office will conduct Honea’s autopsy.

Isaac Dominy, 25, is charged with one count of third-degree assault. Dominy is no longer on the force. The investigation began April 21 when police supervisors were made aware of a use of force incident involving Dominy. The findings of that investigation were turned over to the Lee County District Attorney's Office. A grand jury issued an indictment against Dominy on Sept. 2. Dominy was arrested on Sept. 9, authorities announced Tuesday (9/20). The alleged incident happened in the early-morning hours of April 21. Authorities said a male was attempting to flee from officers and crashed into a light pole at the Jeter Avenue and Raintree Street intersection. After the suspect was in custody, Dominy arrived to assist other officers. The indictment states Dominy used a closed fist on the male, causing physical injury to him. The incident was recorded, and those videos have been turned over to prosecutors. Alabama court records don't reflect any charges against the 25-year-old man in connection with that incident. A month later, he pleaded guilty to a felony charge of receiving stolen property and received a 46-month suspended sentence. Dominy is out of jail after posting a $1,000 bond. He is set to be arraigned on Oct. 3, with a jury trial tentatively set for December.

Twenty-six-year-old Tanasia Conwell's mother said she has no idea what her daughter was doing at the recording studio where she was killed. "When she left I thought she was going on to prepare the kids for the next day," Arkevia Conwell said, thinking her daughter was heading to work at Amazon later on Friday night. That moment would be the last time she saw her alive. "My daughter is 26 years old, just moved into her new apartment, just got her a brand new car, all she wanted to do was take care of her kids and watch them grow," Conwell said. According to East Point Police, Tanasia was shot around 6 p.m. or 6:30 p.m. Friday night at a recording studio on Nabell Avenue. On Tuesday, police released photos and said they want to talk to three people who may have witnessed the shooting.

752	4/23/22		Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	LaGrange		Lafayette Pkwy	Shooting	Member of Atlanta Rapper’s Entourage Shot Dead after LaGrange Club Performance	LaGrange police are investigating after a teen traveling with an Atlanta rap artist was shot this weekend and later died in an Atlanta hospital. Nasr Midian Kahenti Atun El Bebley-Calvin, 18, was struck in the head during a drive-by shooting late Saturday night. Bebley-Calvin was in LaGrange with Cold Hearted Savage, a protégé of Atlanta-bred rapper Lil Baby who signed to the Grammy Award-winning artist’s label 4PF. LaGrange investigators indicated the music label is a gang affiliated group tied criminal activity. Police said Cold Hearted Savage, whose legal name is Dontarius Chappell, and several other artists performed at Club TRU, a nightclub along East Depot Street in LaGrange on Saturday. Following the concert, the victim and artists left the club in multiple vehicles. Someone in an unknown vehicle opened fire on them as they were driving back to Atlanta. Investigators said Bebley-Calvin suffered his fatal wound when a bullet ripped through his car as the convoy of artists were heading eastbound on Lafayette Parkway. The teen was in a car with four other people. Bebley-Calvin died soon after someone dropped him off around 1 a.m. Sunday at Grady Memorial Hospital in Atlanta. Atlanta homicide detectives are now helping LaGrange police investigate. Investigators later determined it was a drive-by shooting along Lafayette Parkway near Ragland Street, less than two miles from the club.

Kristy, who doesn't want 11Alive to use her full name, said a delivery Saturday around 1 a.m. in Clayton County turned into a nightmare. She described how when she makes deliveries her disabled husband sits in the passenger seat, while their 2-month-old daughter Abigail sits in her car seat in the back of the car. On Saturday, Abigail was sleeping as Kristy went into Icebar Lounge and Restaurant off West Fayetteville Road in College Park. "I was handed the food and then my husband called from the car and said, 'Hey you need to get out here now...'" she recalled. Moments later her husband witnessed people running out of the Icebar and then he heard gunfire. Kristy showed 11Alive three bullet holes in the couple's SUV. The mother had heard each gunshot and stayed inside the Icebar until police arrived and it was safe to come outside. A department spokesperson described officers around 1:00 a.m. Saturday responding to a drive-by shooting in the area of the Icebar, and during an initial investigation, officers learned multiple vehicles were damaged, as a result of the shooting. There currently are no known suspects or anyone in custody for the shooting.

759	4/24/22	2:30 AM	Aaron Sánchez-Guerra	The News & Observer	NC	Durham			Shooting	Road Rage Shooting on US 70 is Third Reported in Durham this Month	An apparent road rage incident Sunday morning in Durham led to an assault and shooting that left two people injured, the Durham County Sheriff's Office said Monday. It is the third reported road rage incident in Durham this month, occurring three days after a Thursday shooting on U.S. 15-501. And on April 12, a man on a scooter fatally shot a man and injured a teenage boy in an apparent road rage, police said at the time. Sunday's incident occurred around 2:30 a.m. when a dark pick-up truck sideswiped a white Nissan Maxima on U.S. 70 in Wake County and then attempted to leave the area. Both vehicles crossed into Durham County, where an unknown person fired at the truck. The driver of the truck was shot and pulled over. Two of the truck's passengers were assaulted. Deputies say they arrived at the scene on U.S. 70 and a black or dark-colored sedan fled. The truck's driver was hospitalized with gunshot injuries, and one of the passengers was hospitalized from the assault. A third passenger was treated by EMS on the scene. Three people were questioned by deputies investigating the incident and at least one person had an outstanding warrant for a probation violence.

Joshua Lionel Jackson of Flowery Branch was arrested Monday and booked into the Hall County Jail. Jackson's booking at the primary Hall detention center indicates he is being charged as an adult. He is accused of attacking a 15-year-old schoolmate during a class transition around 1:30 p.m. Monday. Jackson picked up the 15-year-old from behind and slammed him to the floor. The victim hit his head, causing him to have a seizure, authorities said. Officials said Jackson continued the attack while the other student lay on the floor, punching him several times. The victim was taken to the hospital. The sheriff's office said Jackson also faces a misdemeanor charge of simple battery for allegedly slapping the same student earlier in the day. In an interview with Channel 2 Action News, Jackson's mother said the other student had threatened her son and that he had used racial slurs. During the interview, Jackson called her and spoke with reporters himself. "He said he was going to shoot me," Jackson told Channel 2. "And I didn't take that lightly. I got scared." Before the day of the incident, Jackson had no problem with the other student, he told the news station. Jackson's mother told Channel 2 that she believed her son was arrested without the school properly investigating the incident.

764	4/25/22	9:15 PM	Hunter Riggall	The Marietta Daily Journal	GA	Smyrna		South Cobb Dr	Assault	Police Report: Former Smyrna Mayor Involved in Altercation at Grocery Store	Max Bacon, the former mayor of Smyrna for 34 years, was involved in an altercation outside a grocery store Monday night, according to a Cobb County Police Department report. Bacon, 73, was accused in the report by store employees of making lewd comments to a 16-year-old female cashier at Food Depot, located at the corner of South Cobb Drive and Concord Road. After submitting to a voluntary breathalyzer test, Bacon blew a blood alcohol concentration of 0.104, above the legal driving limit of 0.08. No arrests were made in the incident. Bacon and store employees provided conflicting accounts to police of the incident, which was reported at about 9:15 p.m. Employees told police that they confronted Bacon in the parking lot about his comments toward the cashier, telling him to leave and never come back. An argument ensued, they say, in which Bacon allegedly cursed at, spit at and shoved Oscar Castro, an assistant manager. Bacon, meanwhile, told police that he simply bought several items, checked out and left the store. He said he was approached by a male employee (Castro) in the parking lot who shoved him to the ground (Castro admitted to pushing Bacon, but said Bacon pushed him first). When questioned, Bacon said he didn't recall who checked him out and denied speaking to anyone in the store. The store's manager told police there were no security cameras that showed the checkout aisle Bacon used.

784	4/28/22		Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Gwinnett County	Sweetwater Rd	Sexual Assault	Lawrenceville Man Accused of Groping 2 Women Faces Charges	Gwinnett County police have arrested a man suspected of touching two women inappropriately. Xiemohn Cornish, 22, of Lawrenceville, was arrested Thursday on two counts of sexual battery and giving a false name, address or birth date. He remained in custody Friday at the Gwinnett County jail on $7,200 bond, according to booking records. The charges stem from allegations police received from the victims on two consecutive days earlier this week. A 59-year-old Duluth woman reported the first incident Monday, telling officers a man wearing a hoodie followed her onto her patio and grabbed her buttocks. The following day, a 47-year-old Lawrenceville woman reported to police that an unknown man fondled her as well. An officer patrolling the area near Sweetwater Road on Thursday spotted Cornish and questioned him because he fit the suspect's description. Police said he initially gave the officer the wrong name and birth date, but investigators were quickly able to identify him as the suspect in both alleged incidents.

Police Charge Teens in Crime Spree	Three teenagers were arrested Monday after a crime spree that included a shooting, vehicle break-ins, a car chase, and a chase on foot through Columbia, the Forest Acres Police Department said. David Anderson, 18, Sabian Bryant, 18, and Jeremiah Jenkins, 17, were each charged with one count of attempted murder and two counts of vehicle break-ins. Jenkins was charged as an adult. The incident began at about 3 a.m. when a 60-year-old woman was awoken by an alarm at the Arborwood Condos. She told police that the three teenagers were trying to break into her vehicle, and she went outside to confront them, prompting them to run away. The woman said she chased after the three, who then began firing shots. 11 shell casings were recovered by police. The woman called police, who said officers began searching for the teens. The manhunt shifted to the City of Columbia, where it's believed Anderson, Bryant and Jenkins were breaking into vehicles off Shop Road. Officers began chasing the teenagers, who drove away in a Honda Accord. The teenagers crashed the car near the railroad tracks at South Assembly and Dreyfuss Road and tried to run away, but were tracked down and arrested.

818	5/4/22		Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Buckhead		Lenox Rd	Shooting	Man Shot Dead During Struggle Over Officer's Gun in Buckhead Restaurant, Cops Say	An off-duty Atlanta police officer shot and killed a Lithonia man Wednesday afternoon at a popular Buckhead restaurant during an "extended struggle" over the officer's gun that lasted several minutes, officials said. The GBI is investigating the deadly shooting, which occurred shortly before 3 p.m. at the Roasters Rotisserie restaurant at 2770 Lenox Road in northeast Atlanta. Police confirmed that the officer was in uniform and wearing his body camera while working an approved job at a nearby business when he was called to the restaurant in the Lenox Village shopping center. According to the GBI, Rogers Kyaruzi, 30, had been "expressing odd behavior prior to the incident and had followed a patron into Roasters where Kyaruzi was causing a disturbance." The officer tried to get Kyaruzi to step outside. "There was some discussion going on and then immediately there was a struggle," Atlanta police Deputy Chief Charles Hampton Jr. said from the scene. "The struggle involved the officers' gun; the struggle went on for several minutes." That struggle ended with the officer shooting Kyaruzi, who died after being taken to a hospital, Hampton said. One witness told Channel 2 Action News the man was shot multiple times. He could be seen in video being treated by first responders while en route to an ambulance. The officer, who was not injured, was taken to APD headquarters for interviews.

Cobb police said the suspects rammed the van into the front doors of the Mableton CVS around 12:30 a.m. and attempted to take the machine but were unable to get it loaded into the van before police arrived. The suspects left the van behind and fled in another vehicle. Brandon Tallaksen with Classic Glass and Door said he got a call around 3:30 a.m. about a vehicle that ran through the CVS at the corner of Mableton Parkway and Old Alabama Road. "So we did our best to get down here and get it cleaned up and get some material up for them," Tallaksen said. Crumbled bricks and broken glass were strewn across the ground where the vehicle collided with the wall. Metal paneling was pulled out of the wall, along with the ATM. An overturned drink cooler also lay just inside the building. Tallaksen said his crew was working to secure the opening with some plywood and two-by-fours, just to "make sure that nobody else can get in there unless, of course, they bring another truck. You know, we can't do much about that." He said that should suffice until brick masons can get there to rebuild the wall. Tallaksen's crew will then return to frame in new glass.

Bernie Mack, 61, was arrested Thursday in the shooting deaths of his wife, 61-year-old Bridget Mack, and 36-year-old Jeremy Santos, according to Gwinnett County police. He is facing one count of malice murder and two counts each of felony murder, aggravated assault and possession of a firearm during the commission of a crime. The shootings rocked the quiet Saint Martins Cove subdivision south of Lawrenceville and prompted a large police presence Thursday evening. Police were called to the neighborhood just after 6 p.m. after getting reports of an aggravated assault. Officers found Bridget Mack dead inside a house along Harbor Bay Drive and Santos lying dead outside a vehicle down the street. According to the initial investigation, Bridget Mack's daughter and her son-in-law Santos went to the home on Harbor Bay Drive to check on the woman after she did not arrive at their house as they expected. When they arrived, they found the 61-year-old woman dead from a gunshot wound. The married couple saw Bernie Mack in the subdivision as they were leaving, prompting a confrontation that escalated to gunfire between Mack and Santos, Winderwee said. Santos was shot and killed during the shootout. Mack remained on scene and was taken into custody without incident. Investigators believe the initial shooting was triggered by a domestic dispute between Bridget and Bernie Mack.

846	5/7/22	1:20 PM	Avi Bajpai & Mary Helen Moore	The News & Observer	NC	Raleigh		Rock Quarry Rd	Shooting	Raleigh Police Kill Man After He Sets Cars on Fire, Throws Molotov Cocktails at Officers	Raleigh police said a man died Saturday after four police officers shot him outside of a police station in Southeast Raleigh. Officers shot him after they saw him throwing “multiple” Molotov cocktails at vehicles in a parking lot near the police station, Chief Estella Patterson said. He then threw the “incendiary weapons” toward officers, and one came within close proximity of an officer, Patterson said. The situation started around 1:20 p.m. when an officer at the department’s Southeast District station in the 2800 block of Rock Quarry Road observed the man trying to set multiple vehicles on fire. At least three other officers responded, and commanded the man to stop. The man continued to throw Molotov cocktails at vehicles; they’re typically glass bottles with a fuse that contain flammable liquid. After one came near an officer, the four officers fired their guns at the man, who was struck “multiple times,” according to Patterson. Officers then moved the man away from a burning vehicle and tried to perform CPR, Patterson said. The man was transported to the hospital, where he died. Patterson said at least two vehicles had been “engulfed” by flames. At least one of the vehicles destroyed was an RPD SUV.
847	5/7/22	1:25 PM	Ron Sirmans	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Gwinnett County	Lawrenceville-Suwanee Rd	Shooting	Suspect Argued With Victim Before Shooting Inside Gwinnett Target, Police Say	A man was arrested after a shooting Saturday afternoon inside a Target on Lawrenceville-Suwanee Road that evacuated the store, Gwinnett County police said. Investigators believe the suspect, identified Monday as Elijah Mitchell, 30 knew the 27-year-old victim, and the two men argued before the shot was fired. The victim’s injuries are not life-threatening, according to police spokesperson Officer Angela Carter. Police arrived at the store at about 1:25 p.m. and found the victim suffering from a gunshot wound. He was then taken to a hospital. The store remained closed for the rest of the day while investigators collected evidence. In a statement obtained by Channel 2 Action News, Target said the store was immediately evacuated after the shooting. On Monday, police announced charges of aggravated assault, reckless conduct and third-degree cruelty to children. The relationship between Mitchell and the victim was not disclosed, and it was not clear what prompted the argument. He was being held at the Gwinnett jail. His bond was denied on the aggravated assault charge.

Dr. Sonya Lewis, 56, of Blythewood, was the woman who died, Richland County Coroner Naida Rutherford said. Lewis was the spokeswoman and a member of One Common Cause Community Control Initiative, a community activist group. At about 3 p.m., deputies responded to reports of a shooting near the intersection of U.S. 321/Fairfield Road and Eisenhower Drive. When they arrived, deputies learned several people had been hit by a vehicle. The shots reportedly were fired when the vehicle drove away. The driver, later identified as Carl Giles, 64, left the road and hit pedestrians who were gathered for an event. Two of the people hit by the vehicle were treated at a local hospital. The crimes Giles is charged with indicate one of the surviving victims suffered great bodily injury, while the other was a minor injury. A 5-year-old was one of the people hit in the collision and was seriously injured. After Giles hit the victims, he continued driving down a neighboring street. He was pursued by others from the gathering and ultimately was detained at the scene by deputies.

852	5/8/22	6:05 AM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Bessemer		Dartmouth Ave	Shooting	Morning Shooting at Bessemer Store Leaves Man Dead, Teen Girl Wounded in City's 2nd Homicide this Weekend	A Sunday morning shooting at a Bessemer convenience store left one man dead and a teen girl seriously injured. The shooting happened at 6:05 a.m. at Stop and Go on Dartmouth Avenue. It was one of two fatal shootings in Bessemer this weekend. Another homicide happened on Saturday. Sunday's shooting, said Lt. Christian Clemons, stemmed from an argument inside a car. The male victim was inside the car when he was shot and was pronounced dead on the scene. A teen girl was also wounded. Clemons said it wasn't immediately clear if she was an innocent bystander. She was taken to the hospital with life-threatening injuries. Detectives were on the scene Sunday morning speaking with witnesses. The suspected shooter is in custody. The Stop and Go last year was the scene of a gunfight inside the store that killed a teen bystander and wounded two others. Early Saturday, just after midnight, 38-year-old Warren Witherspoon man was shot after an argument also inside a car. That shooting happened at 24th Street and Berkley Avenue. The argument started inside a vehicle earlier, Clemons said, but the shooting happened outside the car. A 17-year-old has been arrested and charged as an adult in the Saturday killing. He had fled the scene but surrendered to police at 5 p.m. Saturday.

858	5/9/22		Ted Clifford & Makiya Seminera	The State	SC		Newberry County		Homicide	Body of Missing Midlands Woman Found, Her Boyfriend Charged with Murder, Authorities Say	The body of a woman reported missing in May from Richland County was found after her boyfriend gave investigators the location, the Richland County Sheriff said Friday. The body of Alisa Wood, 38, was found about 9 a.m. on July 19, near Little Mountain. Matthew Drennan, 26, was arrested on July 8 and has been charged with murder. Wood was missing since May 9. She was reported missing on May 12. The Richland sheriff's department obtained the location of Wood's body following plea negotiations with Drennan and his attorney. The negotiations with Drennan led to a police search of a wooded area in Newberry County, where they discovered Wood's remains in a shallow grave. Her identity was confirmed by dental records. When asked about a motive, Richland County Sheriff Leon Lott said it was "probably a domestic situation." According to Lott, law enforcement's suspicion had quickly focused on Drennan, who was likely the last person to have seen Wood, when parts of his story didn't add up. "We suspected [Drennan] almost from the very beginning," Lott said.

The incident happened in the 300 block of Skipper Place in the Collier Heights neighborhood around 7:20 a.m., Atlanta police said. It stemmed from a domestic situation in which the victim reported that a suspect was armed with a knife and a handgun. Jalissa Rattley, a witness at the scene, told The Atlanta Journal-Constitution she was in her car when she saw a man approaching the children with a gun in his right hand. He fired two shots in their direction, she said. Officers had already been driving around the area when an officer saw the suspect open fire toward the children. The officer immediately got out of his patrol vehicle and returned fire, striking the suspect at least once. The suspect was taken to a hospital and was said to be stable. There were more than 10 children at the bus stop. Officers recovered two firearms and a knife from the suspect.

According to Millbrook Police Chief P.K. Johnson, the car was stolen Tuesday in the 4100 block of Zeigler Drive. Police say the owner had left her car running while going inside a home to pick up a co-worker. That's when police say Margaret Henley of Prattville, 23, got into the car and drove away. But when police learned that the car was equipped with GPS, they began tracking it into Montgomery. Montgomery police were alerted and stopped the car at the intersection of Day and Hill streets. Police say Henley was taken into custody and charged with theft. She was taken to the Elmore County Jail. "Like I've said many times, if you can come here and commit a crime, don't think that because you jump on that interstate and leave our city, that you've gotten away with your crime," Johnson said in a statement.
867	5/10/22		Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Canton	Cherokee County	Carmichael Cir	Shooting	Cartersville Man Arrested After Allegedly Shooting at Canton Home 5 Times	A Cartersville man is facing charges after police say he fired multiple shots at a Canton home last week, the Cherokee County Sheriff's Office announced Monday. A woman called 911 on Tuesday afternoon to report shots being fired at her house in the Carmichael Farms subdivision. Deputies arrived and found the home had been struck five times, with one of the bullets going through a window and later being found in a walk-in closet, though no one was injured. Five shell casings were also found in the road. Deputies spoke with the homeowner, who said she had no idea who would shoot at her house or why, the release states. Detectives soon identified Timothy Gregory, 29, as a suspect and arrested him Friday in Cartersville. Three firearms were found in his home, including one that matched the caliber of the shell casings found at the house on Carmichael Circle. Gregory went to high school with one of the owners of the home, but it doesn't appear they had any contact since that time. Gregory is charged with aggravated assault, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon, discharging a firearm near a road, first-degree criminal damage to property and unauthorized use of a license plate. He is being held in the Cherokee County Adult Detention Center without bond.

The shooting is being investigated as a road rage incident. Sylvester Stokes has been charged in the incident with possession of a firearm by felon and assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill. Stokes suffered non-life threatening injuries in the shooting, which occurred around 10:55 a.m. in the 4800 block of Duraleigh Road. The other man involved, who was also armed, was not injured or charged in the shooting. The shooting appears to have stemmed from a dispute between the two drivers, which reportedly started at Brier Creek Parkway. Stokes was driving a dump truck, and the other man involved was in a dark-colored Volkswagen Passat. A witness video obtained by WRAL showed the shootout at a construction site between the two armed men. One man is seen in the video getting into his car with the driver's door ajar after walking away from a parked dump truck. Seconds later, as the man sits in his car, the driver's window visibly cracks as shots are heard. A man appearing to step out of the dump truck is seen pointing a firearm and shooting at the car and driver. As the driver sitting in the Passat also draws a firearm, the two men exchange gunfire. Stokes falls over on the ground in the shootout.

The incident began when two cars came in contact with each other on Academy Lane. The drivers – a female in car and a male in the other – of both vehicles were staying at the nearby Red Roof Inn, so they went there to further discuss the matter, said Lt. Christian Clemons. Once there, a dispute erupted over who was at fault in the fender bender. The suspects – a male and female – struck the female victim with the butt of a gun and stole her cell phone, then fled the scene. Clemons said officers spotted the suspects' vehicle leaving Walmart and a chase ensued. It ended in the 700 block of Ninth Street where the vehicle broke down. Both the male and female are in custody.

890	5/14/22		Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Joseph E. Boone Blvd	Shooting	Man Wanted in Atlanta Shooting Arrested During Birthday Party in Sandy Springs	A man was celebrating his birthday at a Sandy Springs restaurant over the weekend when he was arrested in connection with a shooting in Atlanta. Tanquevious Cetuan Lucas, who police described as a known gang member, was charged with aggravated assault, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon, possession of a weapon during the commission of a felony and participation in criminal gang activity in a May 14 shooting. After he was arrested at Ray's on the River by Sandy Springs police, Lucas was also charged with possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. Lucas and two other men allegedly fired more than 50 rounds toward an apartment building in the 1400 block of Joseph E. Boone Boulevard. The group got to the area about 12:45 p.m. in a tan SUV and went into a corner shop across the street from the complex. Less than two minutes later, they came back outside and began shooting toward the apartment. Surveillance footage from the corner shop showed the three men firing continuously while a "very small child" was in the back seat of their SUV, according to the report. A woman, who was also inside the vehicle, eventually got out and ran away after a bullet went through the front passenger window, the report states. At some point, one of the men hopped into the vehicle and left the scene. At least 59 shell casings were found on the road by officers.

895	5/15/22		Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Gwinnett County	Pleasant Lake Village Ln	Shooting	Cops: Gwinnett Cab Driver Who Shot at Customer Arrested With Drugs, $22K in Cash	A Gwinnett County taxi cab driver who fired multiple shots at a customer amid a payment dispute was arrested less than two weeks later at his home, where police found illegal drugs, guns and more than $22,000 in cash, officials said. Hector Armando Moreno Luzardo, 32, of Buford, was taken into custody late last month after a search warrant was executed at his home. Luzardo is facing three counts of aggravated assault and one count each of discharging a firearm near a public highway, reckless conduct, criminal trespass and possession of a firearm during the commission of a crime, as well as multiple drug counts. Luzardo was booked into the Gwinnett jail May 26 and remains there without bond. Police began investigating Luzardo on May 15 when officers were called to the Paramount Apartments on Pleasant Lake Village Lane in Duluth after getting reports of shots fired. At the scene, officers spoke with a witness who saw Luzardo dropping off a customer who told the driver he didn't have enough money to pay his fare. The witness said the customer offered to pay Luzardo in beer. Luzardo became upset and told the customer to hurry up and get his money. When the customer returned with some cash, Luzardo only became angrier and pulled out a handgun, firing two shots into the apartment building before getting back into his cab and leaving. Police were later able to identify Luzardo and secure a search warrant for his home. Officials found $22,600 in cash, a stolen handgun and a stash of illegal drugs. Officers confiscated more than 100 grams of cocaine, 65 grams of methamphetamine and 72 grams of marijuana — enough to charge Luzardo with possession of marijuana with the intent to distribute. Luzardo was arrested and booked into the Gwinnett jail later that day.

The 25-year-old woman notified police on May 17 that she was sexually assaulted by at least two people at the gathering a few days earlier, said Tuscaloosa Violent Crimes Unit Capt. Jack Kennedy. The victim told investigators she had been drinking and had little to no memory of the events. She had pieced together the events from speaking with others who were there at the time, Kennedy said. Witnesses and video evidence were obtained by The Sexual Assault Section of the Violent Crimes Unit. The evidence corroborated that the victim was not able to consent to any sexual activity. Kennedy said multiple search warrants were executed for physical evidence, and two victims were located and interviewed. "Based upon all evidence, and the suspects' own statements, both were arrested and charged for sexual assault," Kennedy said. "Whether or not only alcohol was involved is still under investigation." Zachery Rashawn Mack, 31., is charged with first-degree sexual abuse and first-degree sodomy. His bond is set at $75,000. Daryl Mack, 34, is charged first-degree rape. His bond is set at $60,000 bond. The two suspects are cousins.

In a letter sent to parents Wednesday morning, officials confirmed the arrest of 30-year-old Nicholas Morrow, a former English teacher at River Ridge High School who had worked in the district since 2020. Morrow was relieved of his teaching responsibilities as soon as the allegations were reported Monday, the district said. He resigned just prior to his arrest Tuesday afternoon. "Our school district takes the safety and security of our students very seriously, and inappropriate behavior by our staff toward students will not be tolerated," district leaders reassured parents in the letter. A joint investigation by school district police and the Holly Springs Police Department resulted in Morrow being charged with three felony counts of sexual assault by a teacher. According to his arrest warrant, Morrow is accused of engaging in "sexual contact" with a River Ridge student at his home in Canton between May 2 and 17.
916	5/18/22		Shaddi Abusaid	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		DeKalb County	Panola Rd	Stabbing	Man Charged in Atlanta Pastor's Stabbing Death	A Stone Mountain man is facing a murder charge after police said he fatally stabbed an Atlanta pastor and abandoned her body in a vehicle several miles from his home. Rev. Marita Harrell, a senior pastor at Connections at Metropolitan United Methodist Church, was discovered along a secluded road near an industrial area outside Lithonia, DeKalb County police spokesman Lt. Shane Smith said Friday (5/20). Investigators believe she was stabbed to death Wednesday, if not sooner, at the home of 27-year-old Christopher Griggs, who lives along Panola Road. "He then transported her in a vehicle to the 1600 block of Coffee Road, where she was later discovered," Smith said in an email. DeKalb police took out warrants charging Griggs with murder and arson in the 57-year-old's slaying. He was arrested Thursday and is being held without bond at the DeKalb jail. Investigators have not said what she was doing at Griggs' home when she was killed this week..

919	5/18/22	7:00 PM	Matt Bruce & Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Buckhead		Piedmont Rd	Shooting	Man Killed by Police After Shooting Security Guard at Buckhead Eatery, Cops Say	Atlanta police shot and killed an “unruly” man after he shot a security guard inside a crowded, upscale Buckhead restaurant during the evening dinner rush Wednesday, authorities said. The GBI is now investigating the shooting, which occurred shortly after 7 p.m. at Fogo de Chao, a Brazilian steakhouse in the 3100 block of Piedmont Road. Atlanta police Deputy Chief Charles Hampton Jr. said restaurant staff called for help with handling an unruly patron. Officers encountered him near the bar area and tried to escort him out of the eatery, but the man was uncooperative, and one of the officers used their stun gun, which “had a negative effect on the subject,” Hampton said. That’s when the struggle spilled toward the front doors. The man managed to get on his feet and tried to leave the restaurant when one of the restaurant’s security guards tackled him, the deputy chief said. The man then pulled out a gun and fired one shot toward the guard, wounding him. Officers responded by fatally shooting the man. The security guard was taken to a hospital and was stable late Wednesday. Officers recovered the deceased man’s gun. He was identified by his family as 22-year-old Nygil Cullins, a former employee of Fogo de Chao. His mother, Mya Speller Cullins, said her son struggled with mental health issues and was not in his right state of mind Wednesday. Hours before the shooting, she said she called 911 to try to get him to a hospital. He left home before police and paramedics arrived and ended up at the restaurant “I would have rather him be in a psychiatric hospital as opposed to him being outside in a body bag,” she said.
920	5/19/22	1:45 AM	Rosana Hughes & John Spink	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Buckhead		Piedmont Rd	Shooting	Shooting at Buckhead Gas Station Leaves Man Injured; 2 Suspects Sought	A man was shot multiple times while at a Buckhead gas station Thursday morning, according to Atlanta police. Officers were sent to the area of Piedmont Road and Sidney Marcus Boulevard around 1:45 a.m. and found a man in a vehicle with gunshot wounds. He was taken to a hospital and was described as stable. Investigators believe the victim was at the Chevron gas station at 639 Morosgo Drive when two suspects approached his vehicle, tried to get inside and then fired several shots, the release states. By around 5 a.m., the gas station’s night manager, Raymond Minter, was still cleaning up glass, debris and other damage caused by the barrage of bullets that left holes in the store’s windows. The coffee machine, ice cream machine and bathroom door all took 45-caliber rounds. Police have not said if they have identified the suspects or released any other details about the shooting.

The man was then shot at again when they arrived at the alleged shooter's residence. The incident began when the unidentified man attempted to merge while driving his red Mustang near Greenbriar Parkway on Friday afternoon. The alleged shooter, identified as Quincey Adam Rogers, told police he was cut off and proceeded to point his gun at the driver as he passed the other man's vehicle. Rogers shouted at the man before shooting at the vehicle, striking it above the rear wheel. The man followed Rogers to his home, where Rogers came back outside with another gun and shot at him again. Police arrived at Rogers' home on the 3000 block of Imperial Circle in southwest Atlanta, where he was arrested. Rogers was taken to Fulton County Jail and charged with aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and damage to property. Channel 2 says investigators seized other weapons from Rogers' home.

Officers called to a home in the 100 block of West Tinsley Street found Rafael Thomas, 46, suffering from a gunshot wound to the upper body. First responders rushed the victim to Wellstar Spalding Regional Hospital, where he died. Investigators at the scene quickly recovered evidence that implicated Lamarion Sharod Banks, 35. Police searched Banks' home, which was just a few houses down the street from the shooting. They found a 9mm handgun with a brand of ammunition that matched shell casings found at the scene. Witnesses told investigators they saw the suspect and Thomas arguing shortly before the shooting. Banks was arrested and charged with malice murder, aggravated assault, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon and possession of a firearm during the commission of a crime. Police said Banks has a lengthy criminal history and was out on probation at the time of the incident.

932	5/21/22		Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Marietta	Cobb County	Roberta Dr	Shooting	Partygoers May Have Information About Fatal Marietta Shooting, Police Say	A crowd of teenagers and young adults scattered when gunshots rang out at a Marietta apartment complex last month. When the dust settled, a 17-year-old boy was dead. Now detectives are asking for the public's help to track down potential witnesses who were at the scene. Grayson Green was killed in the May 21 shooting at the Walton Village apartments in the 1600 block of Roberta Drive where a large group was gathered. On Friday (6/3), police released surveillance footage from a nearby parking lot and a snippet from one of the responding officers' body camera videos. The surveillance video shows about 20 people running to the complex's overflow parking lot moments after the shots were fired. They piled into five vehicles, which could be seen speeding out of the lot moments later. When police arrived, they saw a "large number of teenagers and young adults" fleeing the area. They found Green lying on the pavement near the complex's gated entrance with a gunshot wound to the chest. One woman could be heard on the officer's bodycam video yelling, "Goodness gracious, he's just a baby" as a group of people gathered around the victim. The teen was taken to Wellstar Kennestone Hospital, where he died. Investigators said the large gathering started at an Airbnb outside the Marietta city limits and shifted to the Walton Village apartments after the Airbnb homeowner shut the party down. Witnesses told police some of the partygoers used social media to spread the word that the festivities were relocating. Officers worked to treat Green at the scene and could not question many witnesses who fled the premises. Crime Stoppers of Atlanta has offered a $2,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the shooter. The Walton Village and Walton Communities have matched that reward.

The shooting occurred on Claudia Drive in a trailer park residential complex on the western edge of Durham located within Orange County. Authorities were dispatched to a domestic call around 10:30 p.m. and were alerted by the dispatcher that shots had been fired. Deputies located a male victim on the porch of the residence with "multiple bullet wounds," the Sheriff's Office said. Rangel was being detained by family members in the street after they had disarmed him and secured a handgun he allegedly had in the trunk of a nearby car. The man who was shot was given emergency aid until medical responders took him to the hospital. The shooting was preceded by a verbal dispute, the sheriff's office said. Rangel is the man's father-in-law, authorities said. The suspect's bond has been set at $100,000.

966	5/24/22	8:00 AM	Staff Reports	The Marietta Daily Journal	GA	Marietta		Allgood Rd	Auto Theft	Man Driving Stolen Car Arrested After Chase Through Marietta	The Marietta Police Department arrested a man after a brief chase Tuesday morning that ended in a crash near the intersection of Allgood Road and Cobb Parkway, police said. MPD spokesman Chuck McPhilamy said that license plate-reading cameras first identified a stolen car in the area of Franklin Gateway and Delk Road around 8 a.m. Officers responded, but the car sped off. Police initially disengaged and did not chase after the car, since they had no charges to pursue, McPhilamy said. But another officer passed the suspect elsewhere in the city, and the suspect swerved to collide with the officer's car. "So, now there's reason to actually continue, he's now putting the public at risk. And he's attempted to hit a police car," McPhilamy said. A short chase ensued before the car rear-ended a civilian who was stopped at a traffic light, McPhilamy said. The suspect had been heading north on Fairground Street, went right at the roundabout onto Allgood Road and crashed into the civilian. Officers pulled the suspect out of the car, McPhilamy said. The suspect had no visible injuries, and after being medically cleared was taken to the Cobb County Jail. The suspect is refusing to cooperate, and authorities are working to confirm his identity using fingerprints.

The latest shooting occurred shortly before 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Nellie B. Community apartments. Police said officers went to the scene near East Carver and Cone drives and found a 17-year-old boy with a gunshot wound to the leg. A second victim, a 16-year-old boy who'd been shot in the upper back, showed up at the scene moments later. Both teens were taken to the hospital. According to investigators, the shooting stemmed from a "denigrating" social media post. The two victims were riding around when they spotted someone they thought was behind the posts and confronted them. The suspects fled the scene after the shooting. On Monday, a 29-year-old man was wounded when shots rang out during a fight in the 200 block of Chalfont Lane around 4 p.m. That victim showed up at a hospital to be treated for a gunshot wound. Later that day, a 40-year-old man was shot in the 300 block of Jennings Mill Parkway around 10:45 p.m. Police said paramedics rushed the man to a hospital.

The Acworth Police Department responded to a burglary call at the Texaco Food Mart at 4739 South Main Street Wednesday. Citing surveillance footage, police say a suspect forced his way inside and tried to remove a bolted-down ATM. After failing to remove the ATM, the burglar then backed a Ford Transit U-Haul van into the front of the business, which knocked the ATM loose. The burglar then loaded the ATM into the van and fled. The van was later found at a store on Canton Road and confirmed to be stolen, police said. The suspect wore a black hoodie, black face mask, long green pants and black and white shoes during the burglary, according to police.
971	5/25/22		Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Fayetteville		Carnoustie Way	Shooting	GBI: 2 Shot After 13-Year-Old Girl Opens Fire During Custody Exchange in Fayette	A contentious child custody situation boiled over in Fayetteville on Wednesday when a 13-year-old girl opened fire on a man attempting to pick up his child with the help of deputies, state officials said. The 38-year-old Marietta man was struck by the initial gunfire, while the girl was shot when a deputy fired back at her, the GBI said in a news release. He was taken to Grady Memorial Hospital and is stable. The teen was taken to Children's Healthcare of Atlanta at Egleston with non-life-threatening injuries. The GBI did not share any details about the nature of the relationship between the girl and the man, whose 3-year-old was involved in the custody exchange. According to the GBI's initial investigation, the man called the Fayette watch desk to ask for law enforcement assistance with a dispute at a home on Carnoustie Way. A sheriff's deputy met the man at the entrance to the Whitewater Creek neighborhood. The man parked in the driveway of the home and walked to the front porch while the deputy parked on the street. As the deputy was walking to the front of the house, the 13-year-old girl stepped out and began to fire, shooting the man several times, the GBI said. The deputy then fired multiple shots, striking the girl.

Ladeeje Harvey was shot twice in the legs after she fired at Deputy John Tarpley. Harvey, 25, and Tarpley were both taken to Augusta University Medical Center and released Thursday night. After, Harvey was booked into the Richmond County Jail. The Augusta woman faces two counts of aggravated assault on a law enforcement officer, possession of a firearm during the commission of a crime and second-degree cruelty to children. Tarpley is recovering at home. The incident began shortly before 4 p.m. when deputies pulled over a white Chevrolet Impala on Lumpkin Road near the Charlestowne South apartments. The Impala was driven by Darius Rivera, while Harvey was sitting in the passenger seat and her 5-year-old son was sitting in the rear. The deputies said they could smell marijuana and asked the driver to step out of the car. Harvey grabbed her son from the back seat, and began walking away from the traffic stop, ignoring Tarpley's orders for her to stay in the car. At some point, she ran to her apartment door and was able to get in but deputies were not far behind. Deputy Dontavion Jones managed to stop Harvey from going inside, causing a struggle at her front entrance. During the skirmish, Harvey pulled a revolver from her purse and fired multiple rounds at officers. Harvey shot Tarpley as he entered the apartment, wounding him in the upper chest just above his body armor. Jones returned fire and hit Harvey in the legs, but she continued to run. She was found and taken into custody nearby.

One Man Struck in The Groin Died, Police Say	A Sumter woman is facing a criminal charge after a violent altercation with staff at a local hospital, after which one man died. Imani Cox, 27, is charged with second-degree assault and battery after a May 27 altercation at Prisma Health Tuomey Hospital, police said in a news release Monday (6/6). Sumter police said Cox was at the hospital for a court-ordered evaluation when hospital staff and security reportedly attempted to stop her from leaving. Police say Cox started fighting with the staff, striking at least two of them. One of them was Kevin Robinson, a 40-year-old mental health technician who was "struck in the groin area," police said. Robinson then became unresponsive and died a few days after the altercation. Further details about Robinson's injury were not available. Police said the results of an autopsy were pending on Monday. After the altercation in Sumter, Cox was transported to another hospital in Columbia, where she completed her treatment. When she was released from the hospital, Cox was booked into the Sumter County Detention Center.

986	5/27/22	2:30 AM	Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Spalding County	North Hill St	Shooting	His Life and Future Were Stolen': Man Found Shot to Death in Griffin Street	Spalding County deputies are investigating the death of a man found lying in the street with multiple gunshot wounds early Friday morning. Sheriff Darrell Dix identified the victim as 22-year-old Jacquaris Holland. He'd been shot twice in the upper body when deputies arrived in the 1600 block of North Hill Street around 2:30 a.m. Coroner Michael Pryor pronounced the man dead at the scene. "All I can say at this point is that a young man lost his life and we are going to do all we can to track down his killer or killers," Dix said in the release. "His life and future were stolen from him and his family this morning, and even though we cannot get those things back for them, we are going to do our best to give his family as many answers and as much closure as we can." Dix said crime scene investigators have been gathering evidence at the scene and conducting interviews.
987	5/27/22	10:45 PM	Liset Cruz	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Donald Lee Hollowell Pkwy	Shooting	Police: 5 Shot in Atlanta Incidents Within 6 Hours as Memorial Day Weekend Begins	Four separate incidents have left five people injured from gunshot wounds as Memorial Day weekend begins. Around 10:45 p.m. Friday, Atlanta police responded to two different calls, both regarding people suffering gunshot wounds. Police officers responded to the 1900 block of Donald Lee Hollowell Parkway in northwest Atlanta after receiving a call of a woman shot. When police arrived, they found the injured woman inside a car. Investigators found the woman was in a dispute with a man she knew when shots were fired. At the same time Friday night, other officers responded to the 4000 block of Ester Drive in west Atlanta after receiving a call that a man was shot. In this case, a domestic dispute escalated to gunfire, leaving a man injured, police said. Later Friday night, around 11:30 p.m., Atlanta police responded to the Butler Recreation Center and found two women shot. Investigators determined that the shooting resulted from a dispute between the victims and a group of men. Around 4:30 a.m. Saturday morning, officers arrived in the 2200 block of Niskey Lake Road. There, police found a man with a gunshot wound but did not release any information about the circumstances of the shooting. All victims were taken to the hospital. Police have not announced any arrests.

Officers were called to the parking lot of the Publix at 3730 Carmia Drive shortly after 8:30 p.m. and found the victim with a gunshot wound. He was pronounced dead at the scene. The man had been outside a barbershop in the same shopping center when he was shot. Police said the victim was in his 30s and the shooting was a targeted incident. The man had just walked out of the barbershop and a confrontation ensued in the parking lot. Grocery store employees heard the gunshots and pushed shopping carts to barricade the doors as a precaution in an effort to keep people safe.
992	5/29/22		Jessica Cha	11 Alive	GA	Sandersville	Washington County		Shooting	Two Killed in shooting at Freaknik-Themed Party in Georgia	The GBI and Washington County Sheriff's Office investigators are still working to find out who shot and killed two people at a park near Sandersville Sunday night. Sheriff Joel Cochran identified the two as 17-year-old William Lowery and 30-year-old Christopher Dunn. Sheriff Joel Cochran says it started with a call for shots fired at the event – an 80s vs. 90s-themed party. When the first deputy got there, he found about 1,000 people. “Once he got there to the location, more shots were being fired. He radioed for assistance and there, far out, he found a victim that had been shot. We later found out that another person had been shot and was driven to the hospital by a civilian,” said Cochran. Cochran adds there have been several calls made from that location before. He’s still investigating, but says the shooting was probably gang related.

993	5/29/22	1:30 AM	Chelsea Prince	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Columbus		Urban Ave	Shooting	GBI: Man Shot by Columbus Police During Gunfire Investigation	A man was shot in Columbus early Sunday morning by a police officer investigating gunshots, officials said. Janathaen Strum, 24, of Columbus, was said to be stable after the shooting on Urban Avenue. Multiple people called 911 to report gunshots in the area around 1:30 a.m. The first Columbus police officer on the scene was working in that neighborhood and heard the gunshots. When the officer arrived, he had to park his patrol car and walk because of the crowds. "The officer began walking down the street asking individuals if anyone had been shot and who was shooting," GBI agent Jeremy Dockins said. "Multiple people stated their vehicles had been shot, but no names or descriptions were mentioned to the officer." Some of the witnesses motioned toward a black BMW sedan, driven by Strum, which was slowly navigating around parked vehicles with its windows down. The officer approached the BMW and ordered Strum out of the vehicle. According to the state agency, Strum was shot once after the officer saw the man reach into the area of the center console and raise his hands toward the window a short time later. The Columbus Police Department said Strum was shot while holding a firearm, but the GBI did not confirm that account. After the shooting, Strum wrecked the BMW down the street and attempted to run. The officer caught up after a short distance and he was detained. Strum was taken to the Midtown location of Piedmont Columbus Regional Hospital. Investigators later learned a woman was shot in the Urban Avenue area before the officer arrived, and she was taken by friends to the same hospital. It was not clear if Strum was a suspect in that shooting.

On May 30, the victim told officers he was working in an office inside the CVS in the 2200 block of Cascade Road when the gunman, wearing all black, knocked on the door at about 11:20 p.m., an incident report states. When the victim came out of the office, the report reveals that the suspect pulled out a gun and demanded money from the cash register. With a gun pointing directly at his face, the victim was unable to escape and instead complied and got about $190 out of the register, according to the report. Police said the suspect then demanded that the victim open the safe in the office and retrieve more money. The gunman followed the victim into the office “while pointing the gun at the victim’s head and tells him, ‘You better not call the police or else I’ll kill you,’ ” the report states. Surveillance footage shows that the victim was unable to open the safe and the two eventually walked out of the office. Police said the suspect then ran out of the store. It was only after the robber was gone that the victim was able to call police.

The problem, according to Bessemer police, is that he accidentally shot himself. And, to make matters worse, he did so with a stolen gun, said Lt. Christian Clemons. Officers responded about 10:15 a.m. Wednesday to the area of Fourth Avenue S.W. and Crumpton Drive on a report of a person shot. They arrived to find 30-year-old Calvin Washington suffering from a non-life-threatening gunshot wound. Washington, Clemons said, told officers he did not know who shot him. Further investigation showed that he had a negligent discharge while driving in the area and shot himself in the leg. It was also determined the gun was stolen from Bessemer. Authorities on Friday charged Washington with giving false information to police and second-degree stolen property. "This is not the first time we have had someone lie to the police, but in doing so time and resources are wasted that could be used elsewhere," Clemons said. "The truth may hurt (pun intended), but it is the best course to take."

The ordeal began about 1:30 a.m. Wednesday when the man called his son and said he was going to kill his wife and himself, said Trussville Police Chief Eric Rush. The son then called 911. Officers arrived on the scene, and heard a gunshot, Rush said. They were unable to make contact with anyone inside the house. They quickly set up a perimeter around the home and negotiations began. Rush said police surrounded the home on Brookstone Drive for roughly four hours, during which time they were in communication with the suspect. Eventually, the chief said, communications broke down. With daylight approaching, the department's Special Response Team made entry into the home through a window and saw the suspect walking throughout the home. A short time later, the suspect surrendered by walking out of the front door. He was not armed at the time of his surrender. Rush said the suspect had shot himself in the face, but the wound was not fatal. He was taken to UAB Hospital. Inside police found the suspect's 82-year-old wife dead from a gunshot wound.

Two suspects in a vehicle approached West Main Street around 2 p.m. Wednesday and fired multiple shots, hitting the two victims, who died of their injuries, said the lead detective in the case, according to footage from WPMI. The suspects then drove away from the scene and down Highway 45 when a 911 caller lost sight of the vehicle, the detective said. A witness in the case described the suspects to police as two Black males wearing dark colored clothing. Police believe the suspects were in a 2005-2008 model Toyota Camry with faded gold paint. The vehicle was also missing a right taillight. The detective called on the public to submit tips on the vehicle to police. "That car is going to be crucial to our investigation," he said.

1030	6/3/22		David Travis Bland	The State	SC		Lexington County	Feather Trail Run	Shooting	Lexington County Teen Identified As Person Killed in Police Shooting	The Lexington County Sheriff's Department identified a 19-year-old killed by officers in what the department described as a standoff and shootout during a mental health crisis on Friday. Officers fatally shot Tyler Mehki Sincere Boages which attributed the information to Lexington County Coroner Margaret Fisher. About midday, Lexington County deputies and West Columbia police officers responded to a 911 call saying that Boages had a handgun and was threatening to kill himself and a family member at an apartment off Feather Trail Run. The department said the call was a "mental health call" and described Boages as a "mental health patient." When police arrived, Boages ran into nearby woods. Officers pursued him and a standoff ensued. Officers ordered Boages to drop his gun, and he fired at them, the department said. Officers fired back, shooting Boages "multiple" times in the upper body. Four deputies were placed on paid administrative leave, the department said. West Columbia Police Chief Marion Boyce placed two officers on paid leave. Koon asked the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division to investigate the shooting "to ensure a fair, thorough and independent review of the incident."

Two 14-year-old boys and one 15-year-old boy were each charged with arson, burglary, criminal interference with government property, criminal damage to property and criminal trespassing. The boys were being held early Thursday at a youth detention center. Investigators believe the fire was started in one of the homes late Friday and quickly spread to the other two homes. City of Morrow and Clayton County firefighters battled the blaze for several hours. No injuries were reported at the homes that were meant to be converted into commercial spaces in the city's 16-acre development called The District, formerly known Olde Towne Morrow. All three homes burned over the weekend were total losses. A community prayer vigil is planned for Saturday at 9 a.m. in The District, located at 1065 Olde Towne Morrow Road. Local residents are asked to "gather in solidarity as the city commits to rebuilding the burned buildings," the city said late Wednesday.

Police said a manager at the fast food restaurant was critically injured when a co-worker opened fire on her. McDonald's officials identified the victim as Elizabeth Williams and said she's worked at the restaurant the last three years, Channel 2 Action News reported. The incident happened at the McDonald's in the 400 block of Moreland Avenue. Officers were called to the scene around 4:15 p.m. and found Williams with multiple gunshot wounds. She was taken to the hospital in critical condition. Investigators said Williams was a manager at the restaurant and preliminary indications show she had a dispute with a co-worker that carried over into the parking lot. Police said after being asked to leave the property, the suspect returned and confronted Williams outside, where he shot her and fled the scene.

1036	6/3/22	7:45 PM	Noah Feit	The State	SC	Warrenville	Aiken County	Pelzer St	Shooting	Man Killed His Girlfriend Before Turning Gun on Himself, SC Coroner Says	A South Carolina woman died Saturday after she was shot by her boyfriend, who then turned the gun on himself, the Aiken County Coroner's Office said. Lacey Toole, a 34-year-old Warrentonville resident, was killed, Coroner Darryl Ables said in a news release. Her boyfriend, who has not been publicly identified, is still alive, according to Ables. The boyfriend is being treated at Augusta University Medical Center and is in critical condition. The incident happened Friday. At about 7:45 p.m., Aiken County sheriff's deputies responded to reports of a shooting at a home in the 100 block of Pelzer Street. That's in Warrentonville, near Augusta Road in the Langley Pond area. When they arrived, deputies found Toole in the front yard, and determined she had been shot. The man was found on the front porch of the home also suffering from a gunshot wound, Ables said. Both were taken to the hospital in Augusta, Georgia, where Toole died shortly after midnight. Investigators determined the man shot Toole during a domestic violence incident, then he shot himself. An autopsy will be performed Monday in Newberry, according to the coroner. There was no word on any criminal charges the man will face, should he recover from his injuries, but the shooting continues to be investigated by the coroner's office and sheriff's office.

1037	6/3/22	9:00 PM	Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Gwinnett County	Duluth Hwy	Kidnaping	UPDATE: Kidnapping Suspect Arrested After Shooting Involving Gwinnett Cops	No officers were injured and one person was taken into custody following a shooting involving Gwinnett County police late Friday night. Detectives from Gwinnett County's criminal division are investigating the shooting, which involved an officer firing gunshots at a fleeing kidnapping suspect. Jinsuk Pei, a 23-year-old Macon man, was charged with kidnapping, obstruction, aggravated assault on a police officer and interference with government property, police said. Officers responded to calls about an abduction near the busy intersection of Duluth Highway and Riverside Parkway shortly after 9 p.m. A man concerned that his girlfriend was in danger reported that she went to run an errand and he got an "alarming phone call" from the woman before she returned home. Police said audio from the call suggested the 22-year-old victim was in immediate danger. Her boyfriend began tracking her cellphone to help officers in the area find her. Officers spotted a vehicle in which the victim was traveling westbound on Duluth Highway near Purcell Road. The driver, Pei, initially stopped when police pulled him over. Officers saw the woman get out of the passenger's side unharmed. Pei then fled the traffic stop, running into a patrol car as he sped away. He rammed into two more patrol cars during the ensuing chase, and an officer fired multiple rounds at Pei's vehicle. Pei managed to escape on foot with minor injuries for a brief period, but police K-9s tracked him hiding in woods and he was taken into custody. Officials originally said the victim sustained minor injuries, including a dog bite from a police K-9. They later corrected that information and said her injuries were from the attempted abduction. She was treated at the scene and released.

Audrionna Kind was killed, Clarendon County Coroner Jacqueline Blackwell told The State Monday. The Summerton resident was airlifted from McLeod Health Clarendon to Prisma Health Richland hospital. Kind died at the Richland County hospital Sunday morning. The shooting happened late Saturday night at a graduation party being held on St. Paul Road. That's in the Summerton area of Clarendon County. Kind was killed, and seven other people were injured in the shooting. Six of the victims were children, according to Baxley. In addition to Kind, a 12-, 13-, 14-, 17- and 36-year-old were shot, along with two 15-year-olds. At least one of the surviving victims is believed to be in critical condition, and all are still being treated at area hospitals. At about 11 p.m., deputies responded to calls about a shooting at the party. There were between 100-150 people at the party when deputies arrived, including the shooting victims. The shooting is believed to have been gang related. Investigators think a previous disagreement or drive-by shootings in other parts of Clarendon County led to Saturday night's shooting. At least one vehicle, but likely two, pulled up to the party, and shots were fired before the vehicles sped off driving south on U.S. 15. Between 60-70 bullet shells have been recovered.

1052	6/6/22	3:30 AM	Dan Kane	The News & Observer	NC	Durham		Angier Ave	Shooting	Three Injured After Gunfire Erupts in Durham Strip Club Parking Lot	Three people were seriously injured after gunfire erupted in the parking lot of a strip club on the eastern outskirts of Durham early Sunday morning, a Durham sheriff's spokeswoman said. All three were taken to a local hospital in private vehicles for treatment following the shooting at about 3:30 a.m. at the Diamond Girls club at 3724 Angier Ave., sheriff's spokeswoman AnnMarie Breen said in a news release. Witnesses told investigators a large group of people was involved in a disturbance in the club's parking lot when the shooting began. Investigators found a large number of shell casings, causing them to close Angier Avenue to collect evidence. Investigators are reviewing surveillance video and continuing to interview witnesses, Breen said.

1053	6/6/22	3:00 PM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Ensley		40th St	Shooting	Man Killed, Woman Seriously Injured in Hail of Gunfire in Ensley Neighborhood	Gunfire erupted in an Ensley neighborhood Monday afternoon, leaving a man dead and a woman seriously injured. The shooting happened just after 3 p.m. at 1143 40th Street in Ensley. The crime scene, according to police, was a white van that was stopped on Avenue L. Sgt. Rod Mauldin said a woman who was a passenger in the van called 911 screaming that she and someone else had been shot. When officers arrived on the scene, they found the man in the driver's seat unresponsive. He was pronounced dead. Birmingham police identified the victim as Michael Lazaria Arrington. He was 37. The woman was rushed to UAB Hospital. Her injuries are considered life-threatening, Mauldin said. Bystanders reported multiple shots fired, and police marked at least 41 shell casings. "The information we have is they were sitting in the van and someone discharged a weapon," Mauldin said. "It is a well-traveled area, a main thoroughfare," he said. "We do believe the victim was targeted. Multiple rounds fired, various types of guns were fired at this location."

The shooting happened about 5:30 p.m. in the 600 block of 35th Way North. Lt. Christian Clemons said the victim, an adult male, was in Bessemer to meet someone at a public housing apartment. It's unclear what happened next, but the man was shot multiple times in the torso, he said. He was taken to UAB Hospital with life-threatening injuries. Clemons said witnesses reported seeing at least two people running from the scene. There were conflicting reports whether the suspects were two males or a male and female.
1055	6/6/22	8:17 PM	Dan Kane	The News & Observer	NC	Goldsboro	Wayne County		Shooting	Police Searching for Suspect After Shooting at NC Hospital	Wayne UNC Health Care hospital in Goldsboro was put on a lockdown Sunday night after a shooting that left a visitor with non-life-threatening injuries, a Wayne County spokesman said. The lockdown at the Eastern North Carolina hospital was lifted at 9:10 p.m., less than an hour after Goldsboro Police and Wayne County Sheriff's Office responded to an active shooting call at 8:17 p.m., said county spokesman Joel Gillie. They are looking for a suspect who fled the hospital. Alan Wolf, a UNC Health Care spokesman, said the person the shooter wounded was not an employee. The hospital was "swept floor-by-floor by a local SWAT team" before the lockdown was lifted and the hospital reopened, Wolf said. Gillie said they know who the suspect is and the shooting "is domestic in nature." The shooting remains under investigation.

Law enforcement officers are searching for Shyhiem Tyriek Boyd after the 25-year-old Prosperity resident grappled with a deputy and ran away. The incident happened at about 3 a.m. Wednesday, near the intersection of S.C. 34 and U.S. 176. The deputy was on patrol in the area and saw a Dodge Charger near the wood line of a pull-off area with its head lights off and a man inside, who was soon identified as Boyd. The deputy approached the car and while speaking with Boyd could smell marijuana coming from the vehicle. Boyd was asked to get out of the car and was found with marijuana in his pocket, prompting the deputy to attempt an arrest. Boyd refused to comply with commands and jerked away while pushing the deputy. As the two struggled they fell to the ground with Boyd on top of the deputy. The deputy got free of Boyd and attempted to fire a taser, but Boyd ran away. The sheriff's office bloodhound tracking team was called to the scene, but efforts to find Boyd were unsuccessful. As the Deputy secured and searched the car, he found a handgun. Boyd was also discovered to have outstanding warrants for charges of breach of peace and malicious injury to property. Following the incident, Boyd also faces charges for possession of marijuana, assault and battery on a police officer while resisting arrest, unlawful carry of a firearm, and driving under suspension (3rd Offense).

Paul Michael Nix, 68, of Cumming, was mowing his lawn at his home on Hopewell Road around 4 p.m. when he was hit by a white Ford Fusion that failed to negotiate a curve near Church Road, Forsyth sheriff's office spokeswoman Stacie Miller said. Nix was pronounced dead at the scene. The car's driver, 22-year-old Kenneth Johnson, suffered minor injuries in the crash. As responding deputies investigated the scene, they found Johnson's cellphone on the ground outside the car, unlocked and with the text screen active, according to Miller. "It appeared Mr. Johnson was replying to a text at the time of the crash," Miller said. Deputies performed a field sobriety test on Johnson during the investigation and determined that he was not sober while driving. Johnson was arrested and charged with first-degree vehicular homicide, DUI, reckless driving, driving too fast for conditions, failure to maintain his lane and texting while driving. He was booked into the Forsyth County Jail, where he remains without bond, online records show.

The bullet was fired from inside the 2003 Mercedez-Benz that the pregnant 29-year-old was driving. The woman's autistic son pulled the trigger of a gun he found inside the car. Deputies responded to the shooting at 8:25 p.m. at the Rush's at 283 Harbison Blvd. A Columbia police officer was already on the scene and told deputies the woman was inside the car in the drive-thru line when she heard a gunshot and realized she had been shot in the stomach area. The shot came from the backseat, where her son was seated. The deputy did not get a chance to speak to the victim, who was holding her torso and had blood on the front of her shirt when EMS put her in an ambulance and took her to Prisma Health Richland hospital. The woman's injury isn't life threatening, Lexington County Sheriff's Department spokesman Capt. Adam Myrick told The State Thursday. Without giving specific details, Myrick said both mother and baby are in good condition and are expected to make a full recovery. There was no word if anyone would face charges for a possible crime connected to the gun, but the sheriff's department is continuing to investigate the shooting, Myrick said.

According to an account provided by the Mobile County Sheriff's Office, Mobile County EMS responded to a call in the 12000 block of Ala. 188 at about 11:30 Wednesday evening. The great-aunt of Weston Spelich told responders that her nephew and her son had been playing in a bedroom when her son came in and said Spelich had fallen and hit his head. According to the sheriff's office, "Once at the hospital, Doctors observed the wound and conducted a c.t scan on the child and discovered a projectile consistent with a gun shot which entered above the right eye, into the skull where it then penetrated through the child's brain and came to rest at the back of his head. The Sheriff's Office was contacted after these findings. Weston was pronounced deceased at 4:00 am." In the interim, Weston's 13-year-old son told the great-aunt he had accidentally shot his cousin during play. The 13-year-old told his mother "that he and Weston were playing cops and robbers. He stated that he walked in the closet, grabbed a 22 caliber air rifle, pointed it at Weston and pulled the trigger causing it to fire a projectile into the child's head. He did not think the gun was loaded." According to the MCSO, the 13-year-old was taken to Strickland Youth Center and is charged with criminally negligent homicide.
1073	6/9/22	9:30 AM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Gadsden			Shooting	Shooting Outside Gadsden School Leaves Suspect Dead, Police Officer Suffers Minor Injuries	Investigators are still sorting out what happened to spark a shooting outside a Gadsden elementary school Thursday morning that left one person dead. The incident happened at about 9:30 a.m. outside Walnut Park Elementary School where a summer literacy camp for elementary-age children was taking place. Gadsden City School Superintendent Tony Reddick said 34 children were in the school at the time of the incident. Etowah County Sheriff Jonathan Horton said a resident called Attalla police reporting a suspicious man outside the school. According to Reddick, the man was trying to get into vehicles and "aggressively" tried to open several door ways. The school went into lockdown, following protocols. A school resource officer on site responded, talked with the man and called for backup. When a second officer arrived, an altercation ensued. The suspect was then fatally shot. A Rainbow City police officer suffered minor injuries in the scuffle. All children in the school at the time of the incident had been safely picked up from Gadsden City High School within 20 minutes of being taken from the school.

Gadsden City Schools Superintendent Tony Reddick told reporters that a "potential intruder" went to several doors trying to get into Walnut Park Elementary School, where a summer literacy program was being conducted for 34 children. All the exterior doors were locked and the principal contacted the school resource officer when she realized what was happening, Reddick said. The resource officer confronted a person who attempted to break into a marked Rainbow City police car near the school, according to a statement from the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency. More officers from the Gadsden Police Department showed up to assist. The person was shot to death after resisting and trying to take the resource officer's gun. The state identified the dead man as 32-year-old Robert Tyler White of Bunnlevel, North Carolina. Officials don't know whether the man was a "passerby" or something else, Reddick said. While the resource officer suffered minor injuries, no students were hurt and most didn't realize anything unusual had happened, Reddick said. "Our primary concern was just making sure that someone who wasn't authorized to be in our building does not enter and our kids are safe," he said. Gov. Kay Ivey sent a tweet saying school police "immediately took action, faculty inside the building followed safety protocols and all children present were kept out of harm's way." "I commend all involved for acting quickly to protect these children," she said.

The chase started after a Richland County deputy pulled over a car that was reported stolen. The 15-year-old behind the wheel of the stolen vehicle took off, leading deputies on a chase through Forest Acres. The teen crashed into another car at the intersection of Two Notch Road and W. Beltline Boulevard. Four juvenile passengers were in the stolen car, the department said. One was significantly injured in the wreck. The other three were taken to a hospital and treated for injuries. Deputies charged the 15-year-old with possessing a stolen vehicle, failure to stop for police resulting in great bodily injury, reckless driving and gun carrying by a minor. The most serious charge, failure to stop for police resulting in great bodily injury, is punishable with up to 10 years in prison.
1077	6/9/22		Noah Feit	The State	SC	Newberry		Jollystreet Rd	Assault	Bulldozer Stolen from Construction Site Used in 'Act of Vengeance,' SC Sheriff Says	A Midlands man is in jail after he stole a bulldozer from a construction site and smashed it into a home in "an act of vengeance," the Newberry County Sheriff's Office said. Robert Fred Robarge, 41, was charged with attempted murder, malicious injury to property (value $10,000 or more), and grand larceny (value $10,000 or more). The incident happened June 9. When deputies responded to a report of a tractor driving through a shed in the Jollystreet area of Newberry, they found an unmanned bulldozer sitting on top of a shed with its tracks still running. A deputy was able to scale the demolished structure and board the bulldozer and turn off the engine. It was discovered that the bulldozer had been stolen from a nearby construction site and was driven to Jollystreet Road. The sheriff's office said the bulldozer had been aimed at a house, which it actually hit, causing extensive damage to the side porch and a carport before smashing into and over the block shed in the backyard. Although no driver was at the scene, investigators collected forensic evidence that led them Robarge on June 17. "Our investigating deputies determined this was (an) act of revenge for allegations made in a previous case," Sheriff Lee Foster said in the release. Robarge remains behind bars in the Newberry County Detention Center, jail records show.

1083	6/10/22	12:00 AM	Howard Koplowitz	AL.com	AL	McIntosh		Highway 43	Shooting	Police Shoot at 'Erratic' Ex-Mobile Officer After He Rams Vehicle, Begg for Suicide by Cop: Authorities	Police shot at an “erratic” former Mobile police officer early Friday after he allegedly rammed his vehicle into their car, pleaded for officers to shoot him and grabbed an object from behind his back as if it were a weapon, authorities said. The incident unfolded around midnight Friday, when Mobile police Cpl. Raymond Grissett was driving home in his department-issued vehicle traveling northbound on Highway 43 near John Johnston Road in McIntosh. That’s where Grissett observed the suspect, later identified as former Mobile police officer Robert Harris, in the road attempting to change lanes when Harris allegedly intentionally struck Grissett’s vehicle, authorities said. Grissett turned around to investigate, and he was helped by a McIntosh officer who was responding to a call in reference to the same suspect. Harris, who resigned in March while under investigation for allegedly having improper contact with a minor, was “erratic and combative while making suicidal statements and refused officers repeated commands,” Mobile Police Chief Paul Prine said. Harris begged the officers to shoot and kill him and then produced an object from behind his back “as if it were a weapon,” Prine said. The McIntosh officer then deployed his Taser but it had not effect on Harris. Grissett then fired two shots, but the bullets did not hit Harris, who fled from the officers and hurled himself into an uninvolved passing vehicle. Harris then gained access to his vehicle and attempted to flee the scene. The officers pursued the suspect and Harris crashed into a convenience store, where he was taken into custody. Harris was taken to the Washington County jail and charged with disorderly conduct, criminal mischief and attempting to elude, Prine said.

A suspect went to another man's apartment and shot the victim, Rock Hill Police Department officials said in a written news release. The 21-year-old man identified by police as the victim returned fire after being shot, and has not been charged, Rock Hill police spokesman Lt. Michael Chavis said Friday. The suspect, identified as Tavaris Lavan McMillan, 33, was shot in the chest and leg by the victim. Police have pending arrest warrants against McMillan, charging him with attempted murder and possession of a weapon in a violent crime. McMillan was found wounded in the street outside the apartment on Cypress Point Drive around 12:15 a.m. Friday. McMillan is hospitalized with injuries to the chest and leg, officers said. McMillan was in critical condition Friday at a hospital. The man officers said was the victim has not been identified by police. The extent of his injuries was not released. The two men involved are known to each other, police spokesman Chavis said Friday. The specifics of the relationship and alleged motive for the shooting remain under investigation, Chavis said.

Police say at about 8AM today, they and the Lee County SWAT Team executed a search warrant in the 2800 Block of Lee Road 188 in Loachapoka. The juvenile was arrested on two counts of robbery first degree, related to robberies at a convenience store and in several mobile home parks off Pepperell Parkway. Police say the teen slipped out of the handcuffs, and once they arrived at the police department, ran away. During a chase, an officer was injured and lost sight of the suspect heading in the direction of Toomer Court around 9:20AM. After a search, officers caught the teen more than three hours later at a home on Carver Avenue. The juvenile is now facing additional charges related to the escape, police say.

The incident happened about 10:20 a.m. Friday in Blount County's Susan Moore community. Sheriff Mark Moon said the suspect was believed to be using an unknown type of illegal narcotics at a house on Gilliland Road when he used the claw hammer to hit the male victim in the head. The victim was seriously injured. The suspect then grabbed a shotgun and ran outside, Moon said. A witness to the assault called 911, and law enforcement officers surrounded the area. Moon said they found the suspect about 200 yards from the home near a pond. He was dead from a self-inflicted gunshot wound.
1089	6/10/22	10:30 AM	Avi Bajpai	The News & Observer	NC	Benson	Johnston County		Shooting	NC Man Killed Friend, Moved Body to Another Town, Johnston County Sheriff Says	A Sampson County man was arrested by deputies Friday and charged in the murder of a 39-year-old friend, the Johnston County Sheriff's Office said. Onzie Putnam Cox, 28, was interviewed and later charged by detectives with killing Preston Shadrack Mayo, who was found dead at a home in Four Oaks on Friday morning, Capt. Jeff Caldwell said in a news release. Deputies were sent to the Four Oaks home, on Devils Race Track Road, at around 10:30 a.m. After finding Mayo's body, deputies determined he had been killed at his home in Benson and moved to Four Oaks about eight miles away, the release stated. Deputies also determined that Cox, of Newton Grove, had taken Mayo to the Four Oaks home and fled. Cox was found soon after. Cox is now being held at the Johnston County jail without bail, according to Caldwell. The sheriff's office's investigation is ongoing.

1090	6/10/22	5:00 PM	Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Duluth		Sweetwater Rd	Shooting	GBI: Suspect Accused of Shooting Gwinnett Deputy Remains in Critical Condition	A Gwinnett County deputy was shot as officers chased a suspect in a stolen car Friday evening near an apartment complex in Duluth, officials confirmed. SWAT team officers responded to the Anzio Apartments in the 3100 block of Sweetwater Road and captured the alleged shooter after he barricaded himself in the car. GBI officials identified the alleged shooter as 34-year-old James Edward Perkins. The sheriff's office identified the deputy only as Master Deputy Sheriff N. Butler. The incident started shortly after 5 p.m. Gwinnett County police officers and sheriff's deputies were on the lookout for a stolen vehicle, the GBI said. They spotted the SUV at a Goodwill Thrift Store in Lawrenceville. Officers detained a female passenger but Perkins managed to escape in the stolen vehicle. The Gwinnett County Police Department said that gunfire was exchanged after its officers and sheriff's deputies tried to stop the stolen vehicle. Perkins led officers on a high-speed chase during which he hit several patrol cars and civilian vehicles. The chase ended at Anzio Apartments when he tried driving between the clubhouse and an apartment unit, and went over a steep drop-off that disabled the SUV. Perkins then barricaded himself inside the vehicle. That's when the shootout with the driver ensued. The GBI said Perkins shot a sheriff's office K9 deputy several times as he approached the SUV. Other officers at the scene returned fire and struck Perkins. The police department's SWAT team moved in to apprehend the suspect, who was taken to Northside Hospital Gwinnett in Lawrenceville. He remained there in critical condition Saturday. The wounded deputy was also taken to Northside Hospital Gwinnett. By Saturday evening, the deputy was released from the hospital and was "doing very well" according to the sheriff's office.

Rock Hill Police charged the teens after responding to a call about a shooting shortly after 8 p.m., Friday at Oak Hollow Apartments on South York Avenue. An 18-year-old woman had been shot in the leg while driving in the area. A passenger in her car moved to the driver's seat to drive the woman to Piedmont Medical Center. Officers say they determined the woman had been shot by someone in a white Buick SUV, which they later found less than two miles from the apartment complex, on Wilson Street. During an attempted stop, the SUV took off, according to police, and a gun was thrown from the car during a police chase. The chase continued until the suspects fled the car at the intersection of Marshall and Eighth streets. Three 15-year-olds and two 17-year-olds were arrested on weapon and assault charges. The two 17-year-olds, Tyrecus Donta Brice Jr., and Trayvion Jatarri Miller, were charged as adults. According to police, Miller was driving and was also charged with failure to stop. Officers found four handguns in the car and collected the gun thrown during the chase.
1093	6/10/22	11:20 PM	Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		DeKalb County	Candler PI	Shooting	4 Victims ID'd in Fatal Shooting at Restaurant in DeKalb Mall	One of the four men shot at a DeKalb County restaurant late Friday night has died from his wounds, police confirmed Saturday afternoon. Now investigators are searching for the shooters responsible. "We do not have a suspect in custody, but are following up on several promising leads," DeKalb police Lt. Shane Smith said in a statement. The shooting happened at Fletcher's Place, a restaurant in the Gallery at South DeKalb shopping mall. Officers responded to the eatery in the 2800 block of Candler Place shortly around 11:20 p.m. and found four men in their 20s and 30s who had been shot. Police identified the victims Saturday as Damon Davis, 37; Octavious Maddox, 38; Daletavios McGuire, 48; and Draviounte Towns, 27. Smith said a dispute over a woman escalated into gunfire. Investigators said a customer who may have been intoxicated got into an argument with an employee or another patron and began shooting. The shooting may have spilled outside as several cars in the parking lot were riddled with bullet holes. The four men were taken to area hospitals with serious to critical injuries Friday night, police said. McGuire died there Saturday morning.

An armed man, identified as Cesar Anthony Pena, was shooting at family members in the home, the GBI said in a news release. Officers responded and while there, heard gun shots inside the home. At one point when Pena stepped outside onto the front porch with a shotgun, two officers shot Pena. He was pronounced dead at the scene. The Cobb County Police Department asked the GBI to conduct an independent investigation. Once complete, it will be turned over to the Cobb County District Attorney's Office for review.
1103	6/11/22	4:40 PM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Birmingham		66th Court Way	Shooting	43-Year-Old ID'd as Man Shot to Death in East Birmingham Alley	Authorities have released the name of a man killed in a Saturday afternoon shooting in an east Birmingham public housing community. Birmingham police on Sunday identified the victim a Morrion Hamilton. He was 43. East Precinct officers were dispatched at 4:40 p.m. to a report of gunfire in the 7500 block of 66th Court Way South in Gate City. Once on the scene, they found Hamilton unresponsive in an alley, said Officer Truman Fitzgerald. Officers applied pressure to the victim's wounds until Birmingham Fire and Rescue Service arrived. They transported him to UAB Hospital, where he was pronounced dead a short time later. He had been shot multiple times. Fitzgerald said Shot Spotter registered at least 10 shots fired, and police found numerous shell casings. The preliminary investigation suggests the victim was involved in an argument with the unknown suspect. The shooter fired shots at the victim then fled the scene in a vehicle.

The shooting happened Saturday night. Deputies responded to a "gun shots in the area" call on Sinclair Street in Camden at about 8:45 p.m. Once on the scene, deputies determined an altercation between Michael Jermaine Jefferson and his relative led to the shooting. As the situation escalated, the 43-year-old Camden resident took a flare gun loaded with .410 shotgun ammunition and shot his father-in-law in the arm. The father-in-law was taken to the emergency room of an area hospital with a non-life threatening injury. Jefferson was arrested on charges of attempted murder, domestic violence high and aggravated nature, and possession of weapon during a violent crime. No bond was set for Jefferson on the attempted murder charge and he is being held at the Kershaw County Detention Center, according to jail records. A combined $35,000 bond was set on the domestic violence and weapons charges.
1105	6/11/22	11:00 PM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Covington		Chandler Fields Dr	Shooting	Police: Father Kills Newton County Toddler, Himself at End of Statewide Search	Within hours of issuing an Amber Alert for a 1-year-old Newton County girl Sunday morning, the GBI posted the grim news of the child's death. The girl, Jaquari Bennett, was reported to be missing and in "extreme danger," the GBI said, and she was believed to be with her father, suspect Darian Javaris Bennett. She had last been seen at a residence on Chandler Fields Drive in Covington around 11 p.m. Saturday. Police told Channel 2 Action News that Darian Bennett shot and killed the girl's mother and critically injured her grandmother before kidnapping Jaquari Bennett. The mother was later identified as 38-year-old Keashawn Bennett and the grandmother as 63-year-old Peggy Burns. Burns has been hospitalized. An Amber Alert was first issued just after 2 a.m. and again just before 8 a.m. Shortly before the second alert, Darian Bennett called police in Clayton County and said he was going to kill himself. However, he would not give officers his location, so 911 dispatchers tracked the call to the area of Riverdale First United Methodist Church, about 40 miles away from where the child was taken. There, responding officers spotted Darian Bennett's vehicle with a door open in front of the church. As officers checked the vehicle, gunshots were heard coming from behind the building. Officers then found Jaquari Bennett shot to death in a secluded wooded area behind the church. Darian Bennett also had taken his own life, police said.

Brian Plott, the 47-year-old victim, was shot midday Sunday, June 12, in the 7000 block of First Ave. South. He said he was left for dead, heckled and refused help by multiple passers-by. The victim has his realtor's license and he flips and manages multiple properties in Birmingham. He and an investor recently bought a home on 66th Street South to renovate and, on that Sunday, he was checking out a similar property nearby that someone else had already renovated. Plott said he was looking at the renovated home to see if the HVAC system had been replaced and glanced into the detached garage. He said when he turned around, the suspect was pointing a gun at him. Plott said he pushed the gun away and the bullet hit him in his right femur, close to the groin area. While lying on the ground, his truck, gun, and cash were stolen. The truck has since been recovered. Plott said that afterwards, passerbys ignored or taunted him, until one woman brought him water and a man finally took to UAB Hospital. He is now recovering at home.

According to an arrest warrant, Frederick Benjamin Ottison, a 50-year-old homeless man, approached the victim in the parking lot of an apartment complex in the 500 block of Riverside Parkway, around 12:30 a.m. on June 12. Ottison yelled at the other man and then shot him in the arm with a .22 caliber pistol, the warrant says. The accused fled the scene but was later detained by officers, per the warrant. He has been charged with two felonies: aggravated assault and possession of a firearm during the commission of a crime. Ottison was booked into the county jail but transferred to another, unnamed jurisdiction on Monday. The reason for the transfer was not immediately clear.
1110	6/12/22	5:00 PM	Chelsea Prince	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Griffin		Zebulon Rd	Shooting	Cops: Murder Suspect Kills Himself After Agreeing to Surrender at Griffin Ingles	The GBI has been asked to investigate after a man suspected in a Middle Georgia slaying killed himself Sunday outside a grocery store in Griffin, authorities said. Demonte Terrell Davis had agreed to surrender to authorities outside the Ingles on Zebulon Road shortly before 5 p.m. When he arrived in the parking lot, Davis got out of a vehicle, placed a gun to his head and fired a single shot, according to the Upson County Sheriff's Office. Spalding County Sheriff Darrell Dix, who was monitoring the surrender with Upson Sheriff Dan Kilgore offsite, said Davis was speaking with police and family members when he abruptly shot himself. Davis had been wanted in the disappearance and death of Stanley Steverson, who was reported missing June 8 in Thomaston. His truck was located the same day in northern Upson County, and it showed evidence that Steverson had been killed, Kilgore said. The Upson agency and the Thomaston Police Department had the help of the GBI to investigate the death, which they believe occurred on Rose Hill Drive. Steverson's body has not been located. Deputies made contact with Davis by phone Sunday, and Kilgore said he agreed to meet them at the Griffin grocery store to be arrested. The GBI will handle the investigation into his death. Davis' wife, Amber Smith Davis, was arrested on a charge of concealing a death and is being held in the Upson County Jail.

The family had arrived at the downtown Atlanta hospital after a separate incident in DeKalb County late Sunday, according to Atlanta police Deputy Chief Charles Hampton. Investigators believe they are looking for three shooters, including two who ran from the scene. "What we do know is the incident started in DeKalb County, and some family members from that incident showed up outside Grady emergency room," Hampton told reporters from the scene. "There was a dispute and that then escalated to gunfire." Atlanta police were called to the area of Jesse Hill Jr. Drive and Armstrong Street about 11 p.m. Sunday after getting reports of a person shot. The scene was quickly contained, and there was never a threat of an active shooter, Hampton said. The hospital was placed on lockdown during the initial investigation. Some members of the family are cooperating with police, Hampton said. While they have not publicly identified any suspects, the deputy chief said investigators believe everyone involved belonged to the same family.

1117	6/13/22	7:30 PM	Breaking News Staff	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Holly Springs		Holly Springs Pkwy	Shooting	Man Fatally Shot by Cherokee County Narcotics Agents During Arrest at Walmart	A man suspected of trafficking drugs outside a Walmart in Holly Springs was shot Monday night by members of a Cherokee County narcotics squad and later died after striking two vehicles on I-575, officials said. The GBI has been called to investigate the police shooting. A large police presence has converged in the parking lot of the store just off the interstate on Holly Springs Parkway, including authorities from the Cherokee County Sheriff's Office and Canton Police Department. About 7:30 p.m., the Cherokee Multi-Agency Narcotics Squad was conducting an undercover operation at the Walmart when a man thought to be selling heroin and fentanyl was approached by agents, Cherokee sheriff's office spokesman Jay Baker said in a news release. The suspect attempted to flee the area and in the process rammed an agent's vehicle and drove toward agents, Baker said. At that point, the agents fired at the suspect, striking him. Despite being hit, the man drove north on Ga. 5 and struck a guard rail, drove down the exit ramp from I-575 in the wrong direction and hit two vehicles. After the crash, the suspect was taken to Wellstar Kennestone Hospital, where he died from his injuries.

The sheriff's office said the scheme was "an elaborate plot to steal fuel, as well as defraud unknowing people." Lucas Paul Reyes was arrested on multiple charges Tuesday. No bond has been set, and the 20-year-old Hialeah, Florida, resident remains locked up at the Newberry County Detention Center. Reyes was caught in the act at a Pilot Travel Center while a deputy was investigating a previous incident where several hundreds of gallons of diesel fuel were stolen from the gas station/convenience store. The Pilot station is next to Exit 82 on Interstate 26. As the deputy and the station manager reviewed surveillance films, they saw someone, later identified as Reyes, pumping diesel fuel into a pickup truck, and determined the vehicle was the same from the previous crime. The deputy tried to arrest Reyes, who pulled away and attempted to drive off, but after a brief confrontation, he was detained and arrested. Reyes was charged with driving without a license, resisting arrest, financial transaction card theft, financial transaction card fraud, breaking into a fuel tank, and violation of the computer crime act.

1138	6/17/22		Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Ted Turner Dr	Shooting	Officer Shoots Man Outside Federal Courthouse in Downtown Atlanta, Feds Say	A Federal Protective Service officer was involved in a shooting Friday afternoon outside the Richard B. Russell Federal Building in Atlanta. Atlanta police confirmed the shooting at the downtown building at 75 Ted Turner Drive that houses the U.S. Courthouse. Atlanta police were among a throng of local and federal officers that swarmed the scene to assist with the investigation. FBI officials at the scene told Channel 2 Action News that a Federal Protective Service agent shot someone on Ted Turner Drive. The agency is a uniformed security branch of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, whose agents protect federal government facilities. An FBI spokesperson confirmed to The Atlanta Journal-Constitution that federal agents were helping process the scene. But officials did not provide any other information on what led to the shooting, or how serious the wounded person's injuries were. Homeland Security did not respond to emails and phone calls Friday afternoon. Channel 2 obtained a video from an apparent witness that showed the Federal Protective Service agent trying to get the man to stop moments before the shooting. The witness told the news station the officer pursued the man and the two began shooting one another, exchanging more than 30 shots. Several roads surrounding the courthouse and State Farm Arena were blocked during rush hour as officers from the different agencies investigated the scene.

On June 20, a passerby discovered the decomposing body of 19-year-old Sarai Llanos Gómez on Paradise Point Road near Flowery Branch Bay at Lake Lanier, Hall County Sheriff's Office spokeswoman B.J. Williams said. Authorities said the teenager is from Ecuador, but did not say why she was in Hall County. They have classified the case as a homicide, but no suspects have been identified. Officials said the incident does not appear to be random. Gómez's family were only notified of her death Monday. Authorities said there "was nothing at the scene that immediately pointed to her identity." According to Telemundo Atlanta, Gómez was a mother of two and traveled to the United States in August 2021. She settled into a family member's home in Chicago and worked various jobs at restaurants. Eventually, she was offered a job as a waitress in Atlanta, her mother, Gardenia Gómez, told Telemundo. The job was not what her daughter expected, Gómez told the news site, but instead a sex trafficking network. Authorities did not confirm if Sarai Gómez was the victim of a sex trafficking operation.

Investigators believe the shooting was domestic in nature but have not confirmed the man's relationship to the three victims. They were identified Wednesday as 63-year-old Donnell Peaks, 60-year-old Janice Peaks, and 38-year-old Cameron King. Authorities were called to a home along Gardner Street about 12:30 p.m. and found the victims with gunshot wounds, police spokesman Sgt. Wayne Delk said. Donnell and Janice Peaks were pronounced dead at the scene, and King died shortly after arriving at Grady Memorial Hospital. Not far from the home, officers located 37-year-old suspect Marcus Smith. He was arrested on charges of murder and aggravated assault. According to jail records, Smith resided at the Gardner Street home. "This incident appears to have stemmed from a domestic dispute, and there are no other suspects involved," Delk said Wednesday.

Spartanburg County Deputy Austin Derek Aldridge, 25, died from his injuries at the hospital Tuesday night. At about 3:20 p.m., Aldridge was responding to a domestic violence call, sheriff's office spokesman Lt. Kevin Bobo said in a news release. Aldridge was shot as he approached a Chaffee Road residence, according to Bobo. As neighbors provided other deputies with a description of the shooter and his vehicle, another deputy spotted the vehicle and attempted a traffic stop. The shooter was later identified as Duane Heard, 63. Initially, Heard acted like he was going to surrender, but then he fired at that deputy, who returned fire. Heard continued driving until he wrecked the vehicle near the Keurig Dr. Pepper plant, about 4 miles from where Aldridge was shot, and ran into the woods after shooting at other deputies. A SWAT team and police dogs were called to the scene and found Heard in the woods where he was arrested. During one of the exchanges of gunfire with deputies, Heard was shot twice, and he was found on the ground near a rifle. Heard was taken to an area hospital where he remained Tuesday night.

The man, 61-year-old Ben Stallings, faces multiple charges, including vehicle theft, the sheriff's office said, adding that "this was not an attack on a religious facility and there is no indication of any bias." Monks who live at the Wat Phramahajanaka temple on Steele Road were in the facility at the time of the incident. Stallings allegedly left a path of destruction in his wake, as the incident yielded a significant emergency response from the police, fire department and emergency medical services to multiple locations throughout the county. Authorities said Stallings suffered a head injury from the crash and had to be removed from the bus by emergency personnel upon their arrival. He was flown to a Macon hospital. The sheriff's office noted that, contrary to posts on social media, "no shots fired by anyone involved in this incident or during this event."

This is the latest incident of a young person losing their life to gun violence in the city. DeKalb Police tell 11Alive that multiple people were firing weapons in the parking lot of the Chevron Gas Station on Covington Highway, which resulted in the death of the teen. Detectives add that about 9:30 p.m., officers received the initial call about a person shot. Once they got to the gas station, they found multiple shell casings spread across the parking lot and a young man in his late teens dead from an apparent gunshot wound. As of now, police have not given any information on the circumstances leading up to the shooting or any possible suspects. However, police did say they are trying to figure out if a man who was found dead on Stablewood Way in Lithonia has anything to do with the shooting. At this time though, they don't know if these two incidents are connected.

Upson County deputies were called around 10:45 p.m. to a home on North Street in Thomaston, a small town west of Macon, Sheriff Dan Kilgore said in a news release. They encountered a man, identified as 49-year-old Timothy Charles "Chuck" Gravitt, who had allegedly been intoxicated and was causing a disturbance with a handgun. Gravitt had already fired two rounds before deputies arrived, according to the release. When deputies arrived, he was behind the home holding a Glock 9 mm and pointed it at himself. However, Kilgore said Gravitt then pointed the gun at deputies. The deputies sought cover and again asked him to put the gun down, but he refused and pointed the gun at one deputy, who fired his weapon and wounded Gravitt, the release states. Gravitt was taken to a hospital, where he later died. The sheriff's office said the shooting investigation was turned over to the GBI.

James Riley Williams IV, 26, is facing malice murder and unspecified weapons charges in the shooting at the Vineyard Village Apartments on Ga. 16, police said in a news release. Officers located the victims, 53-year-old James Riley Williams and 52-year-old Lisa Blanton, after responding to the complex at about 3 a.m. Thursday on a report of a person shot. Blanton was found dead inside an apartment, and the elder Williams was found with gunshot wounds to his extremities and abdomen. His son was also found inside the apartment. The 26-year-old Williams was arrested at the scene after police said he was found in possession of marijuana and a handgun. He was later charged in the shooting. Police said he has no known relationship to Blanton. "This senseless act of violence appears to be a domestic-related incident of some type but it will take some time to sort out the dynamics and history of what has taken place," police said in the release. Griffin police confirmed Thursday the man's father was stable and was being treated at Wellstar Atlanta Medical Center. Investigators are still pursuing leads and said they hope to identify a motive.

1173	6/23/22	5:45 AM	George McDonald	Alabama News Network	AL		Dallas County		Shooting	Selma Woman Shot & Killed, Suspect Arrested & Charged	One woman is dead — and another is behind bars — following a shooting early Thursday morning at a Dallas County manufacturing plant. Sheriff Mike Granthum says the woman was shot and killed — in the parking lot where she worked — at around 5:45 in the morning. Granthum says 28 year old Kadeejia Lee of Selma was laying on the side of her car suffering from gunshot wounds — when deputies arrived on the scene. He says video surveillance at the plant — shows Lee sitting in the parking lot waiting to start her shift — when 29 year old Cherrell Tyus pulls up beside her — gets out of her car — and starts shooting. “She gets out of the car and just opens fire through the passenger side striking Miss Lee several times,” said Granthum. “Miss Lee was able to get out of the car and she rolled to the ground where she is now deceased due to gunshots.” Granthum says the evidence — leads investigators to believe — that the two woman had some sort of altercation — some time before the shooting. Deputies found Tyus later near the home of a family member. She was arrested without incident — and charged with capital murder. Granthum says Tyus could be facing more charges — pending an autopsy. She’s being held in the Dallas County Jail — without bond.

Other officers chased him. He acted like he was going to surrender, but fled again. Officers fired, striking him twice, then caused him to wreck his vehicle. He ran into the woods and was found lying on the ground, gun beside him. "Our men and women had every opportunity to fix this problem in the woods but we're no better than him if we did," Wright said. Responding to people on social media who said if the suspect was black he'd have been shot to death on the spot instead of hospitalized, Wright said, "I don't want to hear your crap." He said a suspect's behavior is what prompts a deadly response. In this case, the suspect did not resist arrest. Duane Leslie Heard, 63, has been charged with murder and remains hospitalized. The sheriff said Deputy Austin Aldridge's visit to Heard's home began with Heard's wife, Kimberly Heard went to the sheriff's office to report an altercation at their home. Aldridge went to the home to get Duane Heard's side of the story, Wright said. Aldridge knocked and was shot as soon as the suspect opened the door. A neighbor called 911 and confronted the suspect with a gun, Wright said. When SWAT members found the suspect in the woods they "applied life saving measures to a guy who had just killed one of our deputies," Wright said. Wright sternly responded to critics, saying, "We do it right around here. We hire civic minded people." Aldridge's funeral is set for 4 p.m. Sunday at The Church at the Mill in Moore. S.C.

The plexiglass was out of the frame. And they soon learned why. On Sunday, June 26, The Fret Shop had been broken into and 13 guitars were stolen. Located at the distinctive log-cabin-type building at 3090 Jordan Lane N.W., Stolen items included an array of Gretsch and Ibanez electric guitars and a couple acoustics. A ukulele was also taken. A motion detector was set off near the area that displays the store's acoustic guitars, including pricey Martin and Taylor brand guitars. The thieves didn't make off with the most expensive electrics, Paul Reed Smith guitars, either. Same goes for the Marshall amplifiers. The Fret Shop's stock is insured, but there's a deductible. Besides the guitars and backdoor damage, there were no other losses. The cash register, cash box and computers were spared, it appears. The Fret Shop filed a police report regarding the theft. They reached out to other local music stores and pawn shops so they could keep a look out. Torstenson is also keeping an eye on online listings at Craigslist, Facebook Marketplace and Reverb. "All the likely places someone might try to sell a guitar," Torstenson says.

Johnathan Lancer Hargett, 43, of Lake Wylie, was found dead in woods behind a gas station off S.C. 49 near the lake on June 27. On June 28, David Lynn Amos, 52, was arrested at a travel stop off Interstate 77 in Fort Mill. Amos is charged with murder in the death of Hargett. Amos assaulted Hargett, causing Hargett's death, according to the arrest warrant. Deputies recovered evidence that included witness statements. Amos was known to be homeless in the Lake Wylie area of South Carolina and in the Steel Creek area of Charlotte near the lake, deputies said. Amos remains in the York County jail without bail, jail records show.
1183	6/29/22		Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Birmingham			Shooting	2 Charged in Shooting That Critically Wounded Birmingham 15-Year-Old; 3rd Suspect Sought	Two suspects have been arrested in a shooting last week that left a 15-year-old Birmingham boy fighting for his life. Birmingham police on Tuesday said Omar Smith, 19, and Martez Jefferson, also 19, are charged with attempted murder and discharging a firearm into an occupied dwelling. Both suspects were booked into the Jefferson County Jail on Friday night (7/1). Investigators are trying to identify at least one additional suspect. Christian Savage, a point guard with the Woodlawn High School basketball team, was shot in the head June 29 while playing video games in the second-floor bedroom of the family's apartment at The Rev. Dr. Morrell Todd Homes in Birmingham's Kingston area. His mother, Patrice Leonard, said Birmingham police detectives told her the suspects were targeting a neighbor when they opened fire. One of the bullets bore through Christian's window and television before striking him in the right side of his face. He is currently in the Critical Care Unit at Children's of Alabama.

The shooting happened June 29. Deputies responded around 1 p.m. to reports of a shooting victim found at the BP gas station/convenience store at 7301 Parklane Road. The man had been shot in the upper body and was still inside a vehicle when deputies arrived. He was taken to an area hospital. Prior to the shooting, the victim picked up the accused gunman at the Obama gas station on North Main Street to give him a ride, the sheriff's department said. The suspect was seen on surveillance cameras inside the store before leaving with the victim. The victim drove the man to Parkview Drive, about 3.5 miles away from the Obama gas station and near Columbia Place Mall, where the man claimed he lived. That's when the man demanded the victim's car and shot him when the driver refused. While the accused shooter ran away, the victim drove to the BP Station on Parklane Road.

On June 30, crews were initially called out to a house fire near Orange Petite Academy, a former daycare center, on Mason Road. South Fulton Fire Rescue said crews found a house on fire, then noticed a nearby church that was also on fire, which led them to the former daycare center and more flames. Just before 11:30 p.m, you can see flames shooting up from the right side of the former daycare center. "City of South Fulton Firefighters worked valiantly that night and into the early morning to extinguish all three fires before they could spread into the woods while preventing other occupancies nearby from catching on fire," the fire rescue department said. A reward is being offered of up to $10,000 for information leading to the arrest of those responsible.

The suspected shooter, Jamil Hakim Gray, who goes by the street name "Blue," is still on the run. Henry police have obtained an arrest warrant for murder in the June 30 shooting. Surveillance footage shows the moments leading up to the shooting at a Chevron gas station along Ga. 138 West in unincorporated Stockbridge about 11 p.m. Police also released photos of Gray in hopes of someone recognizing him. Police spokesman Capt. Randy Lee told Channel 2 Action News that the victim was sweeping at the station prior to the shooting. After about 10 minutes, Gray walked near the victim with a suitcase and the two got into a verbal fight about a cellphone, Lee said. "Then at one point, the victim stands up. The suspect pulls a handgun out of his waistband area," Lee told the news station. "The suspect points and shoots and fires at least one round, hitting the victim in the stomach area." The video shows the victim falling to the ground and staggering to get back up. Gray appears to walk away from the scene. Lee identified the victim as Fitzgerald Carelus to Channel 2, adding that he is from New York but had been staying at a homeless encampment nearby with Gray. Carelus survived the initial shooting but later died at an Atlanta hospital, Lee told the news station.

Rayonne Ashford, 19, is wanted on charges of attempted murder, possession of a weapon during a violent crime, and breach of peace, police said Tuesday in a news release. On July 1, Ashford shot another 19-year-old outside of a convenience store, according to the release. Rayonne Ashford will be charged with attempted murder, possession of a weapon during a violent crime and breach of peace, the Columbia police said. Columbia Police Department At approximately 5:30 p.m., police said officers responded to the Orange Party Shop at 2480 Millwood Ave. after receiving a ShotSpotter alert. Officers were soon notified that a 19-year-old male arrived at a local hospital with a gunshot wound to the arm that was not a life-threatening injury, according to the release. Ashford argued with the 19-year-old victim and a 15-year-old male outside of the convenience store moments before shots were fired, police said. Police said they don't believe the gunfire was a random act of violence, and they are continuing to investigate the shooting. Immediately after the shooting, officers found multiple shell casings outside and inside of the business, and the ballistic evidence was used to aid the investigation. Arrest warrants for Ashford have been entered into the National Crime Information Center database, and the U.S. Marshals Service is assisting in the search.

The threats ended in a standoff on Interstate 65 just south of the Tennessee River Bridge. Traffic was shut down in both directions for more than an hour. Sheriff's officials on Monday identified the man as Michael David Kinney of Orange City, Florida. The 50-year-old is being held in the Limestone County Jail. The ordeal began about 1 p.m. when the sheriff's office was notified that Kinney was traveling to Athens after making threats directed at the Limestone County Sheriff's Office. At that point, Kinney was in Jacksonville, FL. Authorities said Kinney had previous interaction with the Limestone County Sheriff's Office in 2015, when he lived in the county. About 8 p.m., Alabama state troopers spotted Kinney's vehicle on I-65 in Morgan County. Troopers, along with Limestone, Madison, and Morgan county deputies and police officers from Athens, Decatur, Priceville and Cullman, stopped Kinney on the interstate. ATF bomb technicians rendered the vehicle safe after Kinney was taken into custody. Kinney is charged with making a terrorist threat. He is being held without bond.

The Calhoun County Sheriff's Office just before 1:30 p.m. received a 911 call about a woman – Betty Cobb – that was missing. The woman's family members made the call, said Sheriff Matthew Wade, after they searched her house and property but were unable to find her. Deputies learned Cobb had been grocery shopping. Some of those purchased groceries were inside her home, and some of her personal items were found in the road. The sheriff called in off-duty deputies and launched a massive search. Community members, along with area fire departments, organized search parties once they heard the woman was missing. Investigators obtained video from stores Cobb had visited, which led them to look into several different vehicles. Using the technology and resources of the East Alabama Metro Crime Center, they developed a picture of the suspect vehicle as well as a license plate number. They also developed 47-year-old Tony Lamar White as a suspect. The information led investigators several residences in Anniston linked to White in the Anniston area. When they arrived at a residence on South Wilmer Street, deputies cleared the residence and found Cobb bound with duct tape in a closet. Wade said Cobb had been kidnapped and taken to the residence. White was not there when law enforcement officers arrived. Cobb was evaluated by EMS on the scene and taken to the hospital for treatment. Authorities said White could be in a silver Chrysler 300 with license plate 11JA702.

1216	7/5/22		Tandra Smith	AL.com	AL	Mobile		Clearview Dr	Shooting	Man Arrested After Shootout With Bounty Hunters in South Alabama, Mobile Police Say	A man has been arrested in south Alabama after barricading himself in a home and shooting at a group of bounty hunters that he believed were police, according to officials. The man, whose identity hasn't been released yet, was inside of a home on Clearview Drive on the outskirts of Mobile on Tuesday morning when the incident occurred. According to police, two bounty hunters were looking for a person in the area when a woman came out of a home and started yelling for help. She eventually ran back inside of the home. Shortly after, a man came out and began to fire at the bounty hunters, who he believed were police. The man later barricaded himself in the home after the bounty hunters returned fire. He later came outside after being convinced by the Mobile Police Department SWAT Team to do so. The Mobile Police Department is still investigating the case.
1217	7/5/22		Mary Helene Hall	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Various			Robbery	Gwinnett Police Arrest Man, Woman After String of Armed Robberies	A man and woman were arrested by Gwinnett County police in connection with a two-week series of armed robberies, authorities said. Steve Alan Coleman, 35, and Larkerria Dominique Stevenson, 25, were taken into custody Tuesday after their alleged fourth and final armed robbery at an O'Reilly Auto Parts store in Dacula, according to Gwinnett police. They are also charged with committing armed robberies at a Lawrenceville Pizza Hut, a Lawrenceville Metro PCS store and a Duluth PetSmart. The four robberies took place over the course of 11 days. Police said the suspects' tactic was to act like customers, approach the register with an item or question, then show a semiautomatic handgun to the cashier and order them to fill a bag with money. Just after Tuesday's robbery at the O'Reilly store, police performed a traffic stop on a black Chrysler 300 that matched the description of the vehicle that left the scene. Coleman and Stevenson were then arrested. Police said that vehicle is believed to be tied to several armed robberies in other metro Atlanta counties. Coleman is charged with four counts each of armed robbery, aggravated assault and possession of a firearm during a felony, plus one count of possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. Stevenson is charged with armed robbery and aggravated assault. They are being held without bond in the Gwinnett jail.

1220	7/5/22		Associated Press	11 Alive	NC	Hubert	Onslow County		Shooting	NC Sheriff: Virginia Father Drives to North Carolina to Fight Man Who Dated Daughter, Shoots Him to Death	An Alexandria man drove more than 300 miles to confront a 27-year-old man who he said dated his daughter, then fatally shot him in a fight, according to authorities in eastern North Carolina. The Onslow County Sheriff's Office said emergency responders found Jared Musgrove suffering from two gunshot wounds at a Hubert mobile home park on July 5, news outlets reported. Musgrove was taken to a hospital, where he was pronounced dead. Investigators learned that James McAlee, 46, drove from Alexandria, Virginia, to confront Musgrove about an alleged relationship with McAlee's adult daughter and they got into a physical altercation, the sheriff's office said. After the men were separated, McAlee got a gun from his truck and shot Musgrove, the sheriff's office said. On Monday, the U.S. Marshals Service and a sheriff's office detective found McAlee and arrested him. He was charged with murder and initially held without bond. On Tuesday, a District Court judge set McAlee's bond at $500,000, WITN-TV reported. Court records do not list an attorney for McAlee, according to court officials.

Robert Lee Johnson Jr. is charged with five counts of first-degree theft. He was arrested earlier this week (week of 7/10) and remains in the Tuscaloosa County Jail on bonds totaling $150,000. Police spokeswoman Stephanie Taylor said the first theft Wednesday, July 6. The vehicle's owners had left it running while going inside the gas station to make a purchase. Over the next few days, four more vehicles were stolen from gas stations under similar circumstances. All but one of the vehicles have been recovered. Taylor said investigators have information expected to lead to the recovery of the final vehicle. Tuscaloosa investigators developed Johnson as a suspect. They took him into custody, questioned him and then obtained the multiple warrants. Authorities said he kept the stolen vehicles anywhere from four hours to a few days before abandoning them. He reportedly used them to joyride and just get wherever he needed to go. More charges are expected to be filed against Johnson.

No one has been taken into custody, but officials have identified a person of interest, AFR spokeswoman Alyssa Richardson confirmed. Crews were sent to the Adams House Apartments in the 2280 block of Campbellton Road at around 9 a.m. and immediately noticed heavy smoke in the back of the building, fire Capt. Taurus Durrah said. The blaze originated in a bottom-floor unit and extended into the attic space, he said. Durrah estimated that three or four units were damaged, with eight families being displaced from their units. All of the residents self-evacuated, authorities said. Once crews determined the building was empty, they were able to begin the process of putting out the fire.
1245	7/7/22	6:00 PM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Riverdale		Ga. 85	Shooting	BREAKING: Teen in custody after shooting in meat section at Riverdale Walmart	Dozens of law enforcement officers swarmed a Walmart in Riverdale after gunfire inside the store Thursday sent one man to a hospital and another man on the run. An 18-year-old suspect, identified by police as Matthew Thomas Jr., was taken into custody Friday morning. Investigators believe the shooting was the result of an argument between Thomas and another man in the store's meat section. An off-duty police officer working an approved part-time job at the Walmart located at 7050 Ga. 85 reported hearing shots fired in the store just after 6 p.m., Riverdale police Chief Todd Spivey said. The responding law enforcement officers cleared the store, Spivey said, and one man was taken to the hospital with a gunshot wound. He was not identified, and the nature of his injuries was not disclosed. Spivey said responding officers believe the suspected shooter ran from the store in the ensuing chaos. He was later identified as Thomas, who is expected to be charged with aggravated assault, police confirmed to Channel 2. The store was considered an active crime scene for several hours overnight, and patrol cars remain positioned outside Friday morning. Walmart was expected to delay opening until at least 9 a.m. Friday.

"The female was crying uncontrollably stating she had been raped and abused by the man next door. The female pointed to the house to her right, just down the hill," a Forsyth County Sheriff's Office incident report states. The woman's alleged attacker, Brian Keith Harris, 52, is charged with rape, aggravated assault and aggravated battery. The two met on a dating site and the 48-year-old woman told officers that Harris went to the club where she works prior to the incident. After leaving the club, Harris drove the victim and another man to his home in the 5000 block of Wiltshire Lane. The victim said she and Harris began kissing in a bedroom and eventually went to the basement to play pool. Harris then began forcing himself on her. "She was telling him no and to stop," the report states. She attempted to go upstairs, but said Harris strangled her with a cord and "beat her with what she believed was a brick-like object." That's when he raped her. She then told Harris that she wanted to get her things and Harris proceeded to go upstairs. She then crawled out of the basement door and went to the neighbor's home, where officers found her about 6:20 a.m. Harris was located hours later when a Freightliner Boom truck was reported stolen from a business about two miles from his Suwanee home. The vehicle was tracked by GPS and found at an Amazon facility, with Harris still inside. He told responding officers he stole the truck. He was taken into custody and additionally charged with felony theft by taking.

1273	7/10/22	11:00 AM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Ashville	St. Clair County		Kidnaping	Man Steals Car with Child in Back, Leads Police on 2-County Chase, Authorities Say	A 45-year-old man is behind bars after authorities say he stole a car in St. Clair County that had a child in the back seat. The suspect – Michael Sawyer – led multiple law enforcement agencies on a chase late Sunday morning that began in Ashville and ended in Trussville. Sawyer was booked into the St. Clair County Jail on charges of kidnapping–abduction of a minor, theft of a motor vehicle and fourth-degree theft of property. The incident began about 11 a.m. when authorities say a woman stopped at a Texaco in Ashville, leaving the vehicle running with her child in the back seat while she ran inside. It was then, according to police, that Sawyer jumped into the vehicle and took off. The mother, who was waiting in line, saw what was happening and ran outside to try to stop it. “She started yelling, ‘You’re taking my baby,’” Ashville police Chief Ed Hampton said. The suspect, however continued on. A lookout bulletin was issued for the vehicle and the child. Hampton said the 5-year-old girl began crying for her mother, and Sawyer told her to be quiet and he’d let her out when it was safe to do so. A few miles later, the suspect let the girl out on the side of Highway 11. The girl’s father provided police with GPS tracking information, which showed the suspect was heading toward Trussville. Trussville police officers spotted the stolen vehicle traveling on Interstate 59 at Deerfoot Parkway. The chase traveled to Chalkville Mountain Road into Grayson Valley and then onto Old Springville Road back toward Deerfoot Parkway. The suspect then bailed from the vehicle in a subdivision and fled on foot. The Jefferson County Sheriff’s Office had a tracking dog on duty nearby, which joined in the search and helped locate Sawyer. Sawyer is being held without bond.

1275	7/10/22	12:30 PM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Peachtree Corners		Peachtree Pkwy	Shooting	Man Killed in Attempted Carjacking at Peachtree Corners Gas Station	A man was killed Sunday at a Peachtree Corners gas station after a group of people attempted to steal his car and he fought back, police said. Officers were called shortly after 12:30 p.m. to the QuikTrip gas station at Peachtree Parkway and Peachtree Corners Circle, where they found the victim with a gunshot wound, Gwinnett County police said in a news release. Investigators believe he was trying to put air in his tires when he was targeted by three people in a black four-door passenger vehicle. While the victim was standing on the passenger side, the black vehicle backed in next to his car and one person climbed into the driver's seat, according to police spokeswoman Sgt. Michele Pihera. "Seeing what was happening, the victim then tried to stop his vehicle from being stolen," Pihera said. "The suspect and the victim engaged in a physical altercation when the victim entered through the passenger side. A second suspect got out of the vehicle and got involved." A third driver, not realizing what was happening, lined up behind the victim's car to use the air pumps and blocked it in, she said. The suspects collided with the third vehicle before abandoning their effort. "The suspect got out of the victim's vehicle, and one of the suspects shot the victim," Pihera said. "Both suspects got back into their vehicle and drove off." The victim died at the scene. Investigators believe the black vehicle left the QuikTrip headed south on Peachtree Parkway. Detectives interviewed witnesses Sunday and were reviewing video surveillance footage.
1276	7/10/22	12:30 PM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Spalding County	W Ellis Rd	Shooting	3 Arrested After Spalding Community Shelters in Place Following Chase, Shooting	Three people have been arrested after leading Spalding County sheriff's deputies on a vehicle pursuit that ended with shots being fired and nearby residents told to shelter in place Sunday afternoon. Residents near West Ellis Road and Ellis Crossing were told in an alert around 12:30 p.m. to stay put while deputies searched for the allegedly armed suspects. The "heavy law enforcement presence" in the area was related to an earlier vehicle pursuit in which the suspect was armed and shots had been fired, the alert read. The shelter-in-place advisory was lifted shortly before 2:30 p.m., according to a second alert. By 3:10 p.m., three suspects — two men and one woman — were arrested, the sheriff's office said. Their identities and charges were not immediately released by the agency. No other details were released about the suspects or the circumstances that led up to the vehicle pursuit.

The victim was struck around 3:15 p.m. while trying to cross Bells Ferry Road south of Ga. 92 and was taken to a local hospital before being flown to Children's Healthcare of Atlanta at Scottish Rite Hospital. A resulting investigation shut down the busy road for nearly two hours Monday. An update on her condition was not available Tuesday. After speaking with witnesses and viewing traffic camera footage, investigators said they are confident a large white box truck was involved in the hit-and-run, the sheriff's office said. No distinctive markings are visible on the truck, as shown in a still image taken from a traffic camera released Monday. Investigators are asking any motorists who have a dash camera and may have been in the area of Bells Ferry Road and Ga. 92 around the time of the accident to review that footage. It is possible the truck's tag was fixed to its front, according to sheriff's spokesman Capt. Jay Baker.

The gunfire erupted just after 1 p.m. Tuesday in the 2100 block of Avenue J in Ensley. Officers responded to the neighborhood after a report of multiple gunshots in the area. Officers said 39 shots were reported. When they arrived on the scene, they learned the teen victim had been taken to nearby Fire Station 16 on Avenue I. The boy had been shot multiple times. He was taken to Children's of Alabama where he is listed in stable condition and is expected to survive. Police don't believe he was an intended victim. Simultaneously, police received a report of a man shot on Interstate 59 southbound near the 19th Street exit. The investigation showed that victim, an adult, was shot in the same location as the teen. He then got into a U-Haul and started driving but didn't get far. His vehicle came to a rest in the median and first responders found him in a grassy area along the interstate. The adult victim was shot in the leg and taken to UAB Hospital. He, too, is in stable condition. The investigation temporarily shut down two lanes of the interstate. The shooting happened in the parking lot of a small apartment complex. Police believe the dispute that led to the shootout started in another jurisdiction and ended in Birmingham. One person has been detained for questioning. Detectives are also canvassing the area for more witnesses.

The woman may still be in danger after the brazen killing at the Chevron station on the corner of Candler Road and Misty Waters Drive, DeKalb police officers at the scene told Channel 2. After the shooting, she was driven away in a white vehicle. According to police, the man was likely a bystander and had no known connection to the couple. He saw the two arguing inside their vehicle parked at a gas pump around 2 a.m., and went to intervene when he saw the woman was possibly being beaten. The driver of the vehicle fired on the victim, killing him, police told the news station. Debebe Nuramo, who works at the Chevron, said he heard between three and five gunshots before customers inside the convenience store scattered. He did not see the shooting, but he said he recognized the victim as a regular. "I was scared," Nuramo told reporters Wednesday morning. "People were moving around, around, scaring many." At least one bullet entered the gas station, shattering a front window.

Clarkston police received a report of an incident at the Clarkston First Baptist Academy at 4007 Church Street on Wednesday around 11:45 a.m., the department wrote on Facebook. The Georgia Department of Early Care and Learning confirmed two reports had been made, one on Wednesday and one Thursday, concerning allegations of inappropriate discipline at the facility, and an investigation has been opened. On Wednesday, DeKalb County police announced an investigation into another day care facility just one mile from the Clarkston center. Police said they received reports of abuse at the Appletree Learning Center and Academy at 4700 East Ponce de Leon Avenue, and DECAL confirmed that allegations of inappropriate discipline with toddlers had been made. The DeKalb facility was investigated in 2018 for missing or incomplete training for some staff and a missing criminal records check for two staff members, according to DECAL records. The facility agreed to schedule the required 10 hours of annual training each year and to obtain background checks before an individual is present at the center. A third day care, ABC Learning Academy in Stockbridge, is also under investigation by police and the state after a 3-year-old child was found by police wandering alone in a parking lot in a high-traffic area last week.

Deputies were unsure if the incident was a homicide at first, but after an investigation, the sheriff's office arrested Joseph Mykytyn III, 43, and charged him with felony murder, malice murder, aggravated assault and elder abuse. He is being held at the Paulding County Jail without bond and is considered the only suspect in the case, sheriff's office spokesman Sgt. Ashley Henson said. After a 911 call about 12:15 p.m. regarding an unknown problem at the home in the 10000 block of Buchanan Highway in Dallas, deputies had trouble finding someone at the residence to check on the issue, Henson said. Deputies were eventually able to speak to a man, later identified as Mykytyn, who was intoxicated at the time, according to Henson. Mykytyn allowed officials to enter the home, Henson said, where they found the homeowner, identified as 66-year-old James Entrekin, dead. "Detectives and agents were able to preliminarily determine that Entrekin died as a result of a gunshot wound and that the manner of death appears to be consistent with that of a homicide," Henson added. Authorities did not reveal the relationship between the victim and suspect or provide a motive in the case. Henson said Mykytyn was not a resident of the Paulding home.

Shakita Leann Crittenton, 35, is facing multiple charges involving the gunfire, as well as for other alleged crimes police discovered when a search warrant was carried out at her home. On July 15, several juveniles were involved in an altercation in the 1200 block of Lake Street, police said. Some of them left but soon returned in a vehicle driven by Crittenton. The juveniles exited the vehicle, retrieved a handgun Crittenton's trunk and began firing at the other vehicle of juveniles while Crittenton watched. "Crittenton aided these juveniles by giving them a firearm and transporting them to and from the incident location," according to a Dothan police press release. On Wednesday (7/20), investigators carried out a search warrant at Crittenton's home on Earnest Drive. They found illegal drugs in a common area of the residence. Police said two juveniles had access to that common area. Additionally, two puppies were found in crates in separate closets. Both puppies were malnourished and underweight. Dothan Animal Services responded and took possession of both puppies. Crittenton is charged with two counts of attempted first-degree assault, one count of discharging a firearm into an occupied vehicle, two counts of animal cruelty and two counts of chemical endangerment of a child. 1307	7/16/22	4:00 AM	Mary Helene Hall	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Hall County	Browns Bridge Rd	Shooting	GBI: Hatchet-Wielding Man Shot After Threat to Light Woman on Fire	A SWAT standoff in Hall County led to police shooting a man who police say was threatening to light himself and a hostage on fire Saturday morning. Hall County Sheriff's Office deputies responded to a 911 call just after midnight regarding a welfare check for a domestic situation at a residence on Lakeview Lane off Browns Bridge Road. When they arrived, they found Randy Berry, 34, armed and holding a woman hostage inside a shed while armed with a hatchet. He reportedly also had a torch and had poured gasoline over himself and the shed and was threatening to light it all on fire, including the woman, according to the GBI. He had also nailed the front door shut. Negotiations between Berry and the Hall County authorities were failing, the release states, resulting in SWAT members being called to the scene. Berry stopped responding to authorities around 4 a.m., nearly four hours after the sheriff's office was notified of the incident. At that point, Berry was shot in the arm by police, and SWAT members forcibly entered the house to save the woman and render aid to Berry. After Berry was treated for his injury, he was charged with felony terrorist threats and false imprisonment as well as misdemeanor charges of obstruction and reckless conduct, the release said.

1308	7/16/22	7:30 AM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Birmingham		Seventh St N	Shooting	Man Fatally Gunned Down Leaving Prison Reentry Housing Facility in North Birmingham	A man was gunned down Saturday morning when he was leaving a prison reentry facility in north Birmingham. The deadly shooting happened at 7:30 a.m. at the Keeton Correctional Facility at 1609 Seventh Street North in the Fountain Heights Community. Keeton Corrections Inc. operates reentry centers for the federal Bureau of Prisons. The Birmingham Police Department's 911 center received a call of a person shot at the facility. When officers arrived on the scene, they learned the victim – an adult male – had been taken to St. Vincent's Hospital by private vehicle, said Lt. Rod Mauldin. The victim has been identified as 47-year-old Larry Taylor. He was pronounced dead at the hospital. Mauldin said Taylor was exiting the facility when he was approached in the parking lot by the gunman. The gunman fired several shots, and then fled in a white sedan, traveling southbound on Seventh Street. Police said Taylor was targeted.

1310	7/16/22	6:00 PM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Clayton County	Tara Blvd	Kidnaping	2 Arrested in Alleged Lovejoy Walmart Kidnapping	Two people were arrested hours after one of them allegedly kidnaped an 18-year-old woman at a Clayton County Walmart on Saturday evening, according to police. Lovejoy police were called to the big-box store on Tara Boulevard shortly after 6 p.m. to investigate the reported kidnapping. Witnesses at the scene told police they saw a man walk up to a vehicle with a gun, break the car window, drag a woman out and force her into his vehicle at gunpoint. Officers issued a “be on the lookout” alert for the suspect, 19-year-old Cameron Ja’ Michael Hopkins, and both police and family attempted to contact him via phone, the news release states. During those phone calls, Hopkins “expressed his rage over the relationship ending and threatened to shoot and kill (the victim) if the police attempted to pull him over,” according to the release. At some point, police said Hopkins ditched his car and got the help of 33-year-old Demarco Jennings, who picked him up and the victim also was forced into Jennings’ car. By the time they got to the Macon area and the car was stopped, the victim bolted out of the back seat and to a nearby business for safety, police said. The victim has since returned home and is with family. She also told police that the suspects were headed toward Albany. With the help of Albany police, both Hopkins and Jennings were taken into custody. Hopkins faces multiple charges, including kidnapping, aggravated assault, pointing a gun at another, terroristic threats and criminal damage to property, the news station reported. Hopkins and Jennings have both been booked into the Clayton County jail.

Laferris Jamarco Williams, of Tuscaloosa, is charged with five counts of third-degree assault and DUI. Investigators said those charges could be upgraded and more charges added. Tuscaloosa police responded at 5:48 p.m. Sunday to La Gran Fiesta at 9770 Highway 69 South after reports that a Jeep Grand Cherokee had driven through the front of the restaurant and into the restaurant. The SUV then backed out and left the scene. Moments later, the Jeep struck another vehicle at the intersection of Old Greensboro Road and Englewood Drive. Williams was taken into custody at the second scene and arrested on the DUI charge with bond set at $6,000. Five customers at the restaurant were injured and taken to area hospitals. A sixth was later treated at the hospital for stress-related issues. Investigators believe Williams intentionally drove into the restaurant but are still working to prove that theory. "It's been reported that there was a minor argument" prior to the crash, Tuscaloosa Violent Crimes Unit Capt. Jack Kennedy said. "We're still reviewing video." Williams, Kennedy said, has no significant prior criminal history. His bonds on the assault charges total $15,000.

Nicholas Shaun Rohrer of Winder was wanted in Barrow County after leading deputies on a vehicle pursuit, according to police. After crossing the county line into Gwinnett, Rohrer caused a hit-and-run with severe injuries in the area of Ga. 316 and Drowning Creek Road, police spokeswoman Hideshi Valle said. The 22-year-old continued driving down Drowning Creek Road onto Whitely Road, where his vehicle eventually became disabled due to the crash. Three people in the vehicle fled, Valle said, with two being located in the surrounding area. Ga. 316 was shut down for more than three hours as officials searched for and apprehended Rohrer. After about a mile and a half trek, K-9 Sika, with the Gwinnett police K-9 unit, located Rohrer hiding in an old chicken coop, Valle said. Rohrer is charged with hit-and-run resulting in serious injury, willful obstruction of law enforcement, failure to obey stop sign and driving without a valid license. He remains in the Gwinnett jail after being granted bond on all but the hit-and-run charge.

On July 18, Priscilla Graves lured Willie McDuffie to the auto repair garage where he worked. At the maintenance shop in the 1500 block of Airport Road, McDuffie was robbed of a large sum of money and shot several times. The 70-year-old Lee County resident died at the scene, and his body wasn't found until the following morning, when the maintenance shop was about to open for business. Graves, a 30-year-old Sumter resident, is accused of asking McDuffie to meet at the shop to discuss plans for work on her vehicle. She then allegedly conspired with another individual to use a weapon and rob McDuffie, the sheriff's office said. On July 28, Graves was arrested on a conspiracy to commit armed robbery charge. After the initial arrest and more evidence was verified, Graves was also charged with murder on Aug. 2, the sheriff's office said. Graves was denied bond and is being held at the Sumter County Sheriff's Office Detention Center, according to the release.

After responding to the residential robbery call and reviewing additional reports from the past two months, Atlanta police believe the man is linked to at least five other burglaries in the area, robbery unit commander Lt. Ryan Stephens said. During two separate incidents, security cameras were able to capture unusually clear video and photos of the suspect. Police shared those video clips and images in the hopes the public can help identify the man. In one clip, the man can be seen wandering through a home wearing an orange backpack and openly carrying a handgun. In the second, taken from Monday's robbery, the suspect quickly moves through the frame to the front door to meet the victim, again with his gun drawn. In both clips, the man can be seen carrying a silver revolver in his left hand. The investigation began Monday when officers responded to the robbery call at the home on Edgewood Avenue around 4:30 p.m.. The victim, who called 911, said he returned home about 15 minutes earlier and found a man inside his house. The suspect robbed the resident at gunpoint, causing him to fall down, then ran away. Stephens said investigators believe the suspect typically travels on foot or rides a bicycle.

Officers responded to a house on the corner of Templeton Lane and Templeton Drive for a domestic call around 1:20 a.m., Gwinnett police spokesman Cpl. Ryan Winderweedle said. The dispute led to the initial 911 call. When officers arrived, they saw both the 911 caller and the suspect in the home's driveway. The suspect, who was holding a gun, was preventing the roommate from leaving, Winderweedle said. Once police arrived, the roommate was able to leave the property and the man with the gun retreated inside. Police took out arrest warrants charging the man with aggravated assault and criminal damage to property. They also determined that "an elderly female was still inside the residence" and might be in danger, Winderweedle said. SWAT negotiators talked with the man for more than five hours. During that time, the suspect pointed guns at the SWAT vehicle and threatened to shoot officers multiple times, Winderweedle said. Around 7:15 a.m., the man went to the back door of the house and pointed a gun at two SWAT officers. The officers opened fire, hitting and killing the man. The investigation scene remained active around midday and the GBI has responded to open an independent investigation.

Evrard Tehua was arrested following two incidents of sexual assault and kidnapping that took place a week apart. Tehua was charged on Aug. 11, but the Richland County Sheriff's Department now says that there may be more victims. On July 23, an underage girl reported Tehua, 30, watching her as she walked across an apartment complex at 1601 Longcreek Drive. Tehua then allegedly grabbed her and forced her into an apartment where he assaulted her, according the sheriff's office. A week later on July 30, the Irmo Police Department called Richland sheriff's deputies to a Circle K on Broad River Road to investigate an alleged carjacking and kidnapping. The female victim told investigators that Tehua had sexually assaulted her at the Longcreek Drive apartment complex and stolen her vehicle. The sheriff's department arrested and charged Tehua with kidnapping, first degree criminal sexual conduct and second degree criminal sexual conduct with a child between 11 and 14. Tehua was also charged with assault and battery, kidnapping and carjacking by the Irmo Police Department. Tehua received a $50,000 bond, with additional conditions that he wear an ankle monitor and stay 1,000 yards away from his alleged victims. A statement released Friday (9/2) by the Richland County Sheriff's department stated that he remains in the Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center.

Deputy Caitlin Emanuel was airlifted to a regional trauma center and had surgery Saturday, according to the sheriff's office. A GoFundMe page to raise money to help with Emanuel's recovery says she was shot several times in the leg. The sheriff's office said one suspect was arrested but that deputies continued to look for a second man they thought was involved. Deputies later ruled that out and called off their search. The shooting took place on Hayne Stretch Road, outside Roseboro, just after 2 a.m. Saturday. Emanuel responded to a call about a stolen motor vehicle and found the vehicle and two men near where Hayne Stretch meets Butler Island Road. "Shortly after making contact with the suspects, the deputy called for assistance," according to a statement from the sheriff's department. "A second deputy responding to the scene discovered that the initial responding deputy had been shot." Emanuel was taken by patrol car to Sampson Regional Medical Center in Clinton before being airlifted. She was listed in stable condition Saturday. At about 4:45 a.m., officers from several agencies arrested Michael A. Walthall Jr. of Pennsylvania on nearby Sir Lane. The sheriff's office later charged Walthall, 46, with several crimes, including assault with a deadly weapon, assault on a law enforcement officer, larceny of a firearm, possession of a firearm by a felon and driving while impaired. He is being held in lieu of $150,000 bail and is scheduled to make his first court appearance in Clinton on Aug. 19.

James Lee Holmes was charged with two counts of murder in addition to possession of a weapon during a violent crime, the sheriff's office said in a news release. A minor called 911, saying his father shot his mother and 36-year-old brother, according to the release. Deputies responded to the Lowcountry home at 49 Enchanted Lane in Walterboro at about 3:30 p.m. and discovered the bodies of the woman and son, the sheriff's office said. Both had been shot and died at the scene, according to the release. Holmes was tracked down a short distance from the home and surrendered without incident, the sheriff's office said. No bond has been set for Holmes, 52, who is being held at the Colleton County Detention Center, jail records show.
1371	7/23/22	11:00 PM	Noah Feit	The State	SC	Columbia		Farrow Rd	Shooting	Teenager and Two Men Were Shot Overnight, Columbia Police Say	Two men and a 15-year-old boy were injured in two separate overnight shootings, and a search is underway for the people who pulled the triggers, the Columbia Police Department said Sunday. The first shooting happened at about 11 p.m. Saturday near the EZ Spot convenience store at 3213 Farrow Road. The teenager and a 23-year-old man were shot, according to police. Neither suffered a life-threatening injury, according to police. A few hours later, a 22-year-old man was shot, according to police. At about 2:30 a.m. Sunday, both the man and a parked car were hit by gunfire near the 700 block of Harden Street, police said. That's in the Five Points area, near the campus of the University of South Carolina, and about 2.5 miles from the earlier shooting. Officers collected ballistic and DNA evidence as well as video surveillance from the scene. Police said the man in the second shooting also suffered non-life-threatening injuries.

1372	7/24/22		Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Pike County	Sage Brush Trl	Shooting	GBI Investigating After U.S. Marshal, Murder Suspect Shot in Fayette	The GBI is investigating after a U.S. marshal was shot while arresting a Pike County murder suspect in Fayette County on Sunday, officials confirmed. The shooting happened at a home in the 400 block of Sage Brush Trail at the Shiloh Mobile Home Ranch off Ga. 54 just outside Peachtree City. When officers entered the home, the suspect shot the marshal, according to the GBI. Officers returned fire, hitting the suspect multiple times. The marshal was taken to a hospital and was expected to be released later Sunday. He is a Coweta County sheriff's investigator who is attached to the U.S. Marshals Service, according to the Coweta sheriff's office. Pike County officials identified the suspect as 19-year-old Antonio Murgado Jr. He was taken to a hospital with injuries that were not life-threatening, the GBI said. Murgado is one of three suspects who has been charged in the shooting death of 19-year-old James Knight on July 16 during an apparent drug deal, according to Pike County investigators. A 14-year-old was arrested last week in connection with the deadly shooting, and an 18-year-old woman has also been charged. Once the GBI completes its investigation into the Fayette County shooting, the case file will be given to the Griffin Judicial Circuit District Attorney's Office for review.
1373	7/24/22		Alabama News Network Staff	Alabama News Network	AL	Prattville			Shooting	Man Charged with Firing Gun at Pratt Park, No Injuries Reported	Prattville police say one man has been arrested following a shooting incident in a city park Sunday. Prattville Police Chief Mark Thompson said officers responded to Pratt Park after receiving several calls related to shots being fired. Upon their arrival, they found 20-year-old Trent Blackmon involved in a domestic situation with his ex-girlfriend. Police say the alleged victim would not cooperate with the investigation, but witnesses at the scene reported only seeing Blackmon with a gun and firing one shot. Blackmon later admitted to retrieving a weapon from his vehicle after he felt threatened and fired one shot. Police say Blackmon has been charged with Discharging a Firearm in City Limits. His bond is currently at $500. Chief Thompson said the investigation is ongoing and more charges could be coming. No one was injured in the shooting incident.

1374	7/24/22	4:30 AM	Noah Feit	The State	SC	Columbia	Richland County	Sands St	Arson	Deadly Columbia Fire Was Intentionally Set, Two Charged with arson, Officials Say	Arson was the cause of Sunday's deadly house fire, according to the Columbia Fire Department. After an investigation, the Richland County Fire Marshal's Office determined that the fire on Sands Street that claimed the life of one person was intentionally set, the fire department said. Willie L. Kelly is the 67-year-old Columbia resident who died. Two people were charged with arson, the sheriff's department told The State Tuesday. Jennifer Ann Clifton, 37, and Leroy Henry Chambers, 58, were both charged with arson, jail records show. Bond was denied for both Clifton and Chambers, who are being held at Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center, according to jail records. At about 4:30 a.m. Sunday, firefighters responded to reports of a structure fire near the 1800 block of Shop Road, the fire department said. Firefighters found a burning duplex on nearby Sands Street, and flames were visible from the porch to the roof. There were also four vehicles on the property that were on fire. Crews started to extinguish the fire and entered the home where Kelly was found. Kelly was removed from the property and the rest of the fire was extinguished, fire department officials said. No other injuries were reported. Investigators determined that the fire started on the front exterior of the residence, according to the fire department. Both Clifton and Chambers have extensive criminal histories with multiple arrests, Richland County court records show.
1375	7/24/22	5:00 AM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Birmingham			Homicide	55-Year-Old Man Charged in Blunt Force Trauma Death of Girlfriend Inside Birmingham Home	A 55-year-old man is behind bars in connection with the beating death of a woman with whom he was in a relationship. Fessor Vontrese McKinney III is charged with capital murder in the slaying of Holli Jo Wilson. The charge is capital because at some point, authorities say, McKinney held Wilson against her will with the intent to do her harm. Wilson, 38, of Birmingham, was found dead early Sunday inside a northern Birmingham home after police received a call reporting a person down inside a home in the 3100 block of 30th Avenue North. That is in the Collegeville neighborhood. When North Precinct officers entered the residence just after 5 a.m., they located the Wilson unresponsive. She was pronounced dead on the scene by Birmingham Fire and Rescue Service at 5:53 a.m. Coroner's officials said the woman died from blunt force trauma. According to police, McKinney and Wilson lived in the home together. McKinney turned himself into authorities. He was booked into the Birmingham City Jail at 3:28 p.m. Sunday and will be held without bond once he is transferred to the Jefferson County Jail.

The crash happened at 12:15 a.m. Sunday on Bessemer Road at Avenue R. According to the Jefferson County Coroner's Office, the male teen was a pedestrian struck by one of two vehicles that were racing on Bessemer Road. The victim was pronounced dead on the scene at 12:30 a.m. Birmingham police said the case is being investigated as a hit-and-run. Chief Deputy Coroner Bill Yates said they have not yet been able to identify the victim.
1377	7/24/22	1:00 AM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Northside Dr	Shooting	8 Injured in Northwest Atlanta Gas Station Shooting	Several people were injured in what police say was a drive-by shooting at a northwest Atlanta gas station shortly after midnight Sunday. A patrolling officer was flagged down around 1 a.m. by a driver who reported that people had been shot in the parking lot of a Shell gas station at 1695 Northside Drive, police said in a news release. Initially, police only knew of four victims who were mentioned by the driver who reported the incident. They had been shot while inside a vehicle, and officers escorted that vehicle to a hospital. Two more victims arrived shortly after. The six victims had all been shot but were described as being stable. Officers then learned that two additional victims arrived at another hospital and were in critical condition. Investigators believe the victims — six women and girls, ages 16 to 21, and two men, ages 18 and 21 — were gathered outside the gas station when they were shot by unknown suspects. Officers were seen tediously combing through evidence at the scene in the hours that followed. Multiple bullets had pierced the glass of the gas station's convenience store, leaving window panes shattered. People who live nearby told Channel 2 Action News that they heard nearly 30 gunshots.

The shooting happened early Monday morning in Columbia and involved an officer with the Forest Acres Police Department. The officer was not hurt and no injuries were reported, according to the sheriff's department. The shooting happened at about 1:30 a.m. after the officer saw "a suspicious vehicle in a neighborhood off Decker Boulevard." The officer followed the vehicle as it drove across Decker Boulevard onto Dupont Drive, the sheriff's department said. The officer was about to make a traffic stop when multiple shots were fired from the vehicle, and two bullets hit the officer's patrol car. Bullet holes were found in the hood and roof of the Forest Acres patrol vehicle. The officer lost sight of the vehicle, and it hasn't been located, according to the release. The sheriff's department described the shooter's vehicle as a possibly beige or light-colored SUV. Forest Acres police asked the Richland County Sheriff's Department to assist in the investigation.

The first call came in around 1:45 a.m. when a man was shot in the leg as he was leaving the Hendrixx Ultra Lounge at 330 Edgewood Avenue. The man had already gone to a hospital by the time police arrived and was described as being alert. Investigators believe he was leaving the location when he was approached by a man who demanded his property. The victim refused, and as he attempted to run away, he was shot, the news release states. Just a few hours later, by 8 a.m., an officer heard shots being fired in the area of 378 Edgewood Avenue, where the Foxx Original Jamaican Restaurant is located. When the officer got there, she found a man with apparent gunshot wounds. She began rendering aid and ultimately took the victim to a hospital. He also was described as being alert. Investigators are working to determine the circumstances of both shootings.

Drequan Greene, 14, died of a gunshot wound, the Orangeburg County Coroner's Office said Wednesday afternoon. Drequan lived at the same address as 46-year-old Andre Green, who was charged with murdering the teenager, Orangeburg County court records show. Multiple media outlets reported the teen was Andre Greene's son. In addition to one count of murder, Andre Greene was also charged with attempted murder, and possession of a weapon during a violent crime, the sheriff's office said in a news release. At about 6 p.m. Monday, deputies responded to reports of a shooting at a Kemmerlin Road home. Arrest warrants show Andre Greene lives on Kemmerlin Road, which is near the intersection with U.S. 601/U.S. 301/Old Edisto Drive, and about 2 miles from downtown Orangeburg. Deputies said they found the boy's body, in addition to Andre Greene's 40-year-old wife, who survived multiple gunshot wounds. An incident report said deputies were met by a man screaming "Help my wife," the Times and Democrat reported. The woman then replied, "He shot me!" and pointed at the man. If convicted on the murder charge, Andre Greene faces a minimum of 30 years in prison, according to the sheriff's office.

1390	7/26/22		Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	South Fulton		Roosevelt Hwy	Shooting	Clerk Killed in Armed Robbery at South Fulton Food Mart; 2 Suspects Sought	South Fulton police are urgently searching for two suspects accused of holding up two discount stores Tuesday and shooting a clerk to death. The two men first struck at a Dollar General in the 4800 block of Roosevelt Highway, according to officials. They then went to a Quick Pick Food Mart about two miles away in the 5200 block of Welcome All Road. The suspects robbed the Quick Pick and shot the clerk as they left, South Fulton police said in a lookout circulated late Tuesday. Investigators believe the men escaped in a bronze-colored, late-model Chevrolet Malibu, and may still be traveling in the vehicle. Both suspects were wearing one glove and covered their faces during the robberies. Sayed Buhari, who owns the Quick Pick, identified the victim as his brother-in-law, 44-year-old Tony Zanabe, Channel 2 Action News reported. Buhari said Zanabe had a family. According to Channel 2, a customer walked in on the robbery and saw the clerk being held at gunpoint. She said the men demanded money, cigarettes and other items before opening fire. The woman, who asked not to be identified for fear of her life, said she counted about eight gunshots as she dropped to the floor. South Fulton police are circulating surveillance images of the masked men that appear to have been taken inside one of the stores. One was wearing a yellow hooded sweatshirt and the other was wearing a black T-shirt.

West Precinct officers responded just before midnight to a report of person shot in the 1300 block of 34th Street. They arrived on the scene to find that a small sedan had wrecked into a parked vehicle, said Officer Truman Fitzgerald. Inside, they found an adult male unresponsive in the front seat. He was pronounced dead on the scene by Birmingham Fire and Rescue Service. While investigating, police learned that a second male also had been shot. He was taken to the hospital with injuries believed to be non-life-threatening. Investigators determined that more than 40 shots had been fired. "We believe the victims were targeted," Fitzgerald said.
1399	7/27/22		Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL		Jefferson County	Mimosa St	Assault	Man Hits Officer's SUV with Stolen Vehicle, Drives Off Cliff, Captured After 6-Hour Hunt, Police Say	A north Jefferson County man has been charged after police say he struck a Warrior police officer with a vehicle and then drove that vehicle off a cliff to elude capture. Dantrell Dajuan Purifoy, 29, of Warrior, is charged with attempted murder of a police officer, along with several other crimes stemming from Wednesday incident. At the time of his arrest, Purifoy had an outstanding warrant, which carried no bond, from the Alabama Department of Corrections for parole violation, said Warrior Det. Sgt. Tim Evans. On Wednesday, Warrior police officers were searching for a vehicle that had been reported stolen out of Birmingham. A detective spotted the vehicle in the area of the city's Mimosa Street. The detective, Evans said, pulled in front of the stolen vehicle. He activated his emergency lights and attempted to block in the vehicle. The detective got out of his Tahoe and initiated a felony stop. Purifoy, Evans said, backed up his car and sped toward the detective. The officer got back into his Tahoe, and it was then that the suspect struck the SUV's door, pinning the detective's foot in the door. Evans said the detective is expected to make a full recovery. Police then pursued the suspect, which led them to River Road. Purifoy, authorities said, drove to the end of the road, which is a dead-end street and leads to a steep cliff. He drove off the cliff, Evans said, traveling about 75 yards down the cliff before the vehicle flipped. Purifoy, uninjured, managed to escape and took off running toward the river. After a six-hour search, Purifoy was taken into custody. The Jefferson County Sheriff's Office Star 1 helicopter, Kimberly police and Morris police assisted in the search. Purifoy is also charged with receiving stolen property and being a felon in possession of a firearm.

The gunfire rang out about 1:20 a.m. Wednesday at Spades on Culver Road. Authorities said there was an altercation between two groups of people. One group armed themselves once outside the establishment and fired multiple rounds at the other group, said Tuscaloosa Violent Crimes Unit Capt. Jack Kennedy. One person was struck. The victim, who was not part of either group, was taken to DCHR Regional Medical Center. Corey Lewis, 24, of Eutaw, is charged with first-degree assault. He was arrested Friday and has since been released on $60,000. Kennedy said the investigation is ongoing and several other potential suspects are still sought.
1402	7/27/22	2:35 AM	Mary Helene Hall	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	LaGrange		Fort Dr	Stabbing	2 Arrested After Pregnant Woman Found Stabbed to Death in LaGrange	Two people were arrested Wednesday in connection with the stabbing death of a pregnant woman whose body was found by LaGrange police officers on a routine patrol. The woman, identified as Breanna Burgess, was found around 2:35 a.m. on Fort Drive with stab wounds. According to LaGrange police, she was 20 weeks pregnant. By Wednesday evening, detectives had closed in on two suspects, identified as Curteze Avery and Shallandra Freeman, who were located at their home on Alton Drive and arrested. Police said they also found "evidence of the crime." "Detectives were able to determine that Avery, Freeman and Burgess had been acquaintances for several years and the victim was targeted," a police spokesperson said in a news release. Avery and Freeman are being held in the Troup County jail without bond on charges of murder and feticide. A GoFundMe page created by the family in order to raise funds for the funeral said Burgess was 26 years old with three children and another one on the way. "The unborn baby did not survive," the page, created by Burgess' aunt Melissa Nicole Kurian, said. "She didn't deserve this and this was the last thing we expected to happen." Burgess' body will be sent to the GBI medical examiner for an autopsy, the Troup County Coroner's Office told the LaGrange Daily News.

Clayton County police Officer Demika Lloyd was shot twice late Wednesday while responding to calls about a suicidal person at a home in the 7800 block of Newbury Drive. The suspect, Aiyanah Pryor, 25, was later shot by Atlanta police officers who tracked her vehicle to Polar Rock Road. Pryor was taken to Wellstar Atlanta Medical Center in critical condition but is currently considered stable. Lloyd underwent surgery at Grady Memorial Hospital and was in serious condition but also considered stable. Emergency dispatchers received three calls from Pryor's home between 9:40 p.m. and 11 p.m. At least one call was made by the woman's mother, and the final call came from Pryor herself, police said in a news release. Pryor was armed when Lloyd arrived at the Newbury Drive home and made contact with her a short time later, Clayton police Chief Kevin Roberts said. "Immediately upon that contact, another subject in the house called our dispatch back and advised that she heard multiple gunshots and that our officer was down behind the residence," Roberts told reporters during the news conference. Lloyd was found wounded when backup arrived, he said. After the initial shooting, Pryor was believed to have traveled north on I-75 in a black Jeep. A lookout was issued, and the Jeep was flagged by a license plate reader a short time later in the area of Langford Parkway. Traffic officers with the Atlanta Police Department's Zone 3 went to apprehend Pryor and found her vehicle in the Polar Rock area. As they approached, they gave the woman commands to show her hands, but she fired at them, causing them to

More than a month later, her mother now sits in jail without bond on charges including vehicular homicide and DUI. Stacie Lee Reid, 33, of Gainesville was seriously injured in the July 28 crash, the Forsyth County Sheriff's Office said in a news release Friday. Reid was arrested Wednesday and has been charged with first-degree vehicular homicide, driving under the influence, reckless driving, open container and a seatbelt violation. The 19-year-old driver of the second car was stable when taken to the hospital, the sheriff's office said at the time. No update was provided on the teen's condition. Reid's 6-year-old daughter, who was properly fastened into her car seat, was unresponsive at the scene and later died at the hospital, the release said. According to the sheriff's office, Reid was driving north on Crystal Cove Trail around 3:15 p.m. in her gray Toyota Camry with her daughter in the back seat. "For unknown reasons, the Camry entered the southbound lane and went off the side of the road," the sheriff's office said. Reid tried to correct her steering back toward the northbound lane, the sheriff's office said, but the Camry remained in the southbound lane as a Chevrolet Impala driven by the 19-year-old crested a hill. The two cars hit head-on.

Officers were called to The Bloom at Morrow Apartments in the 6200 block of North Lee Street just after 7 p.m. after the suspected shooter, 37-year-old Jamilah Iman Garcia Lopez, called 911, Morrow police interim Chief David Snively said. At the scene, Snively said police found Juskesia "Jae" Bellamy, 41, on her front porch dead from several gunshots. Lopez, who is charged with murder, aggravated assault with intent to murder and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony, was Bellamy's next-door neighbor, Snively said. She remains in the Clayton County Jail. The investigation revealed that Lopez and Bellamy had been involved in an ongoing dispute, but Snively did not say what they were fighting about. Detectives are reviewing surveillance footage and speaking to witnesses to determine what exactly led up to the shooting. Bellamy's wife, Shantè Bellamy, told Channel 2 Action News that she was heartbroken when she found out her partner was gone. "I just broke down because I lost my best friend," she said. "Losing someone is not the best feeling at all." Shantè Bellamy wrote in a GoFundMe campaign that her wife was battling cancer and starting to heal.

Shane Carden, 35, is charged with two counts of attempted murder, burglary and theft of property. He is being held without bond because he had outstanding warrants for probation revocation. The ordeal began about 8:20 p.m. on July 28 when the woman arrived at her home on Coosa County Road 39. She had her son and daughter with her. Once inside, she encountered Carden brandishing the victim's rifle. He accused her of hacking his phone and making his apps disappear. The victim yelled for her children to call 911, and Carden reportedly told her, "If police come up, you are dead." They wrestled over the gun, and it discharged, but no one was injured. The woman fled her home. Coosa County Deputy Logan Mitchell, as well as a civilian ride-along, arrived as the woman was fleeing the residence. She took cover behind a BMW SUV parked in the carport. Carden, according to Mitchell's report, then pointed the rifle out of the door and fired on the deputy's vehicle but missed. The deputy drew his weapon and coaxed the victim to take cover behind his patrol cruiser. The victim's children were able to escape the home through a window and hid behind an Elephant Ears plant. The deputy then motioned for them to come take cover by the police vehicle as well. Once backup arrived – which included Talladega County sheriff's deputies and Sylacauga, Goodwater and Clanton police – the victim and her children were moved farther away from the home. A perimeter was set up around the residence, and an SRT arrived. A short time later – about 9:45 p.m. – Carden emerged from the woods line with his hands up and surrendered. Carrollton police said security guards kicked out Richard Sigman, 47, from Leopoldo's Pizza Napoletana on Adamson Square early Saturday when they noticed he was armed with a gun. Sigman walked to a parking deck across the street from the pizzeria and fired several shots into a parked vehicle, investigators said. The Carrollton man struck 18-year-old Anna Jones, who later died at a hospital. Police arrested Sigman, charging him with murder, three counts of aggravated assault and possession of a firearm during the commission of a crime. The fatal shooting happened less than two miles from the University of West Georgia's main campus, where school officials confirmed Jones was a student. Brendan Kelly, the university's president, also confirmed that Sigman was a faculty member at the school and said he has been fired. The shooting unfolded just before 12:30 a.m. Saturday, according to a police statement. Sigman got into an argument with another man inside Leopoldo's. That man told security inside the eatery that Sigman threatened to shoot him. Security guards confronted Sigman, noticed he had a gun and asked him to leave the restaurant. According to investigators, he walked across the street to the courthouse parking deck and fired multiple rounds into a parked vehicle. Police did not say whether Sigman targeted the vehicle for a specific reason or just fired into a random vehicle, and on Sunday, investigators were still unsure why he shot into that vehicle. After Jones was shot, friends immediately drove the Carrollton teen to Tanner Medical Center, where she died.

The gunfire erupted just before 10 a.m. in the 3000 block of 31st Avenue North in Collegeville. Police arrived to find the victim unresponsive in a courtyard of the complex, said Officer Truman Fitzgerald. He had been shot at least one time. The victim was taken by Birmingham Fire and Rescue Service to UAB Hospital. Fitzgerald said the man’s injuries are life-threatening. Investigators believe the shooting was not random and that the victim was targeted. No arrests have been made.
1432	7/31/22	11:00 AM	Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal–Constitution	GA	Woodstock	Cherokee County	Meadowbrook Ln	Shooting	GBI: Cherokee County Deputy Shoots Armed Man Outside Red Lobster	A man who violated a restraining order by allegedly visiting his family’s home Saturday morning and trying to shoot his way inside was later shot by a Cherokee County deputy at a restaurant, according to authorities who said the man had a gun and reached for it. Cherokee County Sheriff’s Office spokesman Capt. Jay Baker said agency officials have requested that the GBI investigate the shooting. Cherokee deputies responded to the domestic disturbance call around 11 a.m. at a Meadowbrook Lane residence in Woodstock. A man, later identified by the GBI as 67-year-old Mark Allen, was there despite having an active temporary protective order that prohibited him from being on the property. Deputies said the man fired several shots at the lock on the home’s front door while his wife and daughter were inside. He did not manage to get inside the house and no one was injured. The suspect was gone by the time officers arrived at the house. Deputies issued a lookout bulletin for him and an officer spotted the man parked at a Red Lobster along Riverstone Parkway in Canton. The suspect reached for a gun as the deputy approached him, Baker said in a statement. The officer responded by shooting the suspect, critically injuring him. The GBI will conduct its independent investigation, and upon completion the case will be given to the Blue Ridge Judicial Circuit District Attorney’s Office for review.

Deangelo R. Washington was killed in a shooting, Aiken County Coroner Darryl Ables said. The 22-year-old Beech Island resident's body was found in the driver's seat of his car behind a home in Clearwater, according to Ables. At about 5:05 p.m., deputies responded to multiple 911 calls reporting a shooting, the Aiken County Sheriff's Office said. Witnesses said individuals from four separate cars were shooting at each other with handguns in the area near the intersection of Belvedere Road and Augusta Road. The shooting might have been caused by a disturbance that happened during an event at Midland Valley High School, the sheriff's office said. Responding deputies found Washington, who died at the scene from multiple gunshot wounds, Ables said. An autopsy will be performed Wednesday in Newberry, according to the coroner.

The victim was driven to a fire station on Boulevard for help after being shot about four miles away at Tanner's Corner Grocery on McDonough Boulevard, according to Atlanta police. He was later pronounced dead at a hospital. The Fulton County Medical Examiner's Office identified him as 24-year-old Zarak Right. Investigators at the shooting scene told Channel 2 Action News gunfire was reported inside the store about 5:30 p.m. The first officers to arrive saw blood and evidence of a shooting and were met by the victim's mother, the news station reported. "She said the victim was involved in a dispute at the store," police Lt. Germain Dearlove told Channel 2. "Shots were fired and he was shot." Dearlove said investigators are looking to identify a shooting suspect who was wearing a red shirt and blue jeans. "I don't believe this was a random incident. It looked like it was targeted, perhaps an earlier dispute that escalated to the store location," he said. No arrests have been announced in the case.

Holly Worley, a 31-year-old Graniteville resident, was arrested after the hit-and-run collision that happened Sunday night, according to the department of public safety. The collision happened at about 9:45 p.m. in the 3800 block of Richland Avenue West, Aiken County Coroner Darryl Ables said. A convenience store clerk working in the area told responding officers about hearing screaming after the hit-and-run, an incident report shows. Officers soon found an unoccupied 2006 Saturn Ion in the parking lot of a Food Lion grocery store. That's about 5 miles from the scene of the crash. The car had heavy front end damage, extreme windshield damage, and was missing the driver side mirror, the incident report said. It was discovered the Saturn belongs to Worley, and she eventually arrived at the scene. Worley was charged with leaving the scene of a collision (great bodily injury), and leaving the scene of a collision (resulting in death), jail records show. No bond has been set, and Worley is being held at the Aiken County Detention Center. Alexa Little, a 20-year-old Louisville, Georgia resident, died at the scene, Ables said. The other pedestrian is a 21-year-old Aiken County man. He was taken to a hospital in Augusta after suffering serious injuries, but they are not considered life threatening, Aiken officials said.

Javier Ramirez, 27, of Hoschton, was driving an illegally modified truck as he raced another vehicle that was driven by a minor along Braselton Highway around 10:30 p.m. July 31, police said. At some point, a vehicle driven by Jeffrey Smith, 50, of Buford, pulled onto the road from a private driveway, and Ramirez struck the vehicle, authorities said. Channel 2 Action News reported Ramirez was driving more than 80 mph at the time of the crash in Dacula. Ramirez was arrested last week (week of 9/4), according to Channel 2, and faces several charges, including first-degree vehicular homicide, racing and reckless driving, online court records show. Smith's family spoke with Channel 2, saying he left behind 10- and 12-year-old daughters. "He certainly was a devoted father to two girls," his aunt, Rosemary Mangum, told the news station. "They were extremely close, as close as any father could be with his children."
1441	8/1/22		George McDonald	Alabama News Network	AL	Linden			Homicide	Linden Police Investigate City's 1st Murder in Years	A Linden man is behind bars tonight — on charges that include murder — and tampering with evidence. Wal Lindenmurder Fox PkgJami Cross of Linden grew up an only-child — and had a very close relationship with her father — David Huckabee. A bond she says grew even stronger — after her mother passed away several years ago. So, when she wasn't able to reach him by phone — or at his house last week — she got worried — and called police. "He was my everything. He was my hero. And he was a person — he was who I went to, you know. It was me and him. I have my own family now, but we were still super, super close." The investigation into Huckabee's disappearance started out as a missing persons case. But it soon turned into a murder investigation. "We searched around the house — inside the house. And upon searching and looking closer the next day, we found more evidence of foul play," said Lt. Cody Cross. Investigators later found Huckabee's body — in a wooded area about 75 yards behind his house. And it's now been sent to forensics for an autopsy. Police arrested 50 year old Jonathan Windham in the case. He's charged with murder — tampering with evidence — and possession of a controlled substance. Windham is being held in the Marengo County Jail. "It's a pretty hard pill to swallow," said Cross. "Anybody that knew my daddy knew that he was the most generous, the most loving and caring, gentle man."

1442	8/1/22		William Thornton	AL.com	AL	Rossville			Shooting	2 Huntsville Men Arrested in Georgia Murder	Two Huntsville men have been arrested and charged with murder in connection with a shooting death earlier this month in Georgia. The Georgia Bureau of Investigation Thursday announced that Jontae Kavon Collier, 23, and Eric Dodds, 23, both of Huntsville, have been arrested in connection with the Aug. 1 death of Dakota Bradshaw in Rossville, Ga., a town on the Georgia-Tennessee border just outside Chattanooga. According to the GBI, Bradshaw was shot inside his home in Rossville and later pronounced dead at Erlanger Hospital. Witnesses saw a red truck and a blue Dodge Challenger leaving the home, describing a shooter getting into the red truck and fleeing. Collier was arrested Aug. 10 in Huntsville at a residence on Chatfield Way N.W. by the U.S. Marshal's Task Force. He is now being held in the Walker County (Ga.) Jail. Dodds was arrested by U.S. Marshals on Aug. 16 in Huntsville. He is currently being held in the Limestone County Jail, awaiting extradition to Walker County, Ga.
1443	8/1/22		Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Peachtree St	Homicide	Cops: Search Continues for Body of Missing Woman Killed in Midtown; 2 Charged	Two men have been charged with murder after a woman last seen nearly three months ago in Atlanta is believed to have been killed and her body disposed of at an unknown location, police said Tuesday (9/20). Allahnia Lenoir, 24, was reported missing Aug. 1 and was last seen July 30 at Peachtree Midtown Apartments at 1660 Peachtree Street, according to police. Authorities said she was with two men in the apartment. "At that point in the case, we quickly began to realize that there may be some foul play involved in the disappearance of Allahnia," Atlanta police Lt. Peter Malecki said during a news conference Tuesday. The men suspected of being with her at the time of her disappearance have been charged, Malecki said. Diante Reynolds, 29, was taken into custody Sept. 9 in Conyers and charged with murder and concealing the death of another. Authorities are still searching for 29-year-old Steven Oboite, who faces the same charges. Police said Lenoir never left the apartment on her own accord. Authorities are still investigating the cause of her death. "We do believe that she had died inside the apartment and then was potentially relocated to an undetermined location," Malecki said. Lenoir's body has not been located and that the two suspects were not strangers to Lenoir. The woman is believed to have had a brief relationship with the men prior to meeting them at the Midtown apartment. A third person who was there the night Lenoir went missing is not believed to have been involved in her disappearance, Malecki said.

Hartford police responded about 8:30 a.m. to a home on Highway 167 North, near Geneva County Road 45. When they arrived, they found Angel Nicole Stout dead. Authorities have not said how Stout was killed. The 25-year-old victim was from Graceville, Fl. but had been staying at the Highway 167 home. The State Bureau of Investigation took lead on the probe. On Monday, they announced a murder warrant had been obtained against 31-year-old Brandon Michael Waddell in Stout's slaying. Stout was killed at Waddell's home, and authorities said the killing was domestic-related. Waddell pleaded guilty in 2018 to felony domestic violence involving a different woman. He was sentenced to three years in prison for that conviction, court records show. He is now being held without bond in the Geneva County Jail.

The investigation began just before 8:30 a.m. Monday when a passerby spotted the girl walking in the area of 3547 County Road 34, said Tallapoosa County Sheriff Jimmy Abbett. The motorist picked up the child, and immediately called 911. Abbett said a team of state, local and federal investigators worked over the next 24 hours to arrest a suspect, identified Tuesday as Jose Paulino Pascual-Reyes. The 37-year-old man is charged with first-degree kidnapping in connection with the young girl. He was taken into custody in Auburn. Investigators searched Pascual-Reyes' residence, which was near where the girl was found, and discovered two decomposed bodies. The remains have been sent to the Alabama Department of Forensic Sciences for identification. The girl was reportedly bound and drugged at some point during her captivity but managed to escape. Tallapoosa County District Attorney Jeremy Duerr said Pascual-Reyes is facing multiple counts of capital murder in connection with the bodies found in his home.
1447	8/1/22	9:30 PM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Gordon County		Shooting	Sheriff: Gordon County Deputies Shoot, Kill Man During Undercover Drug Bust	North Georgia sheriff's deputies shot and killed a man they say pointed a semi-automatic rifle at them during an undercover drug deal Monday night, according to authorities. Deputies in Gordon County had been investigating the distribution of methamphetamine and marijuana near the intersection of Brookline Circle and Dews Pond Road, about six miles east of Calhoun. It was around 9:30 p.m. when they met with a pair of men who they say had advertised the sale of drugs on social media and offered a large amount of controlled substances. The meeting was arranged at a vacant house, and when the undercover deputies arrived, the two men met them with the drugs, the news release states. The officers made the exchange and then identified themselves as deputies and attempted to make arrests. But one of the suspects, who was carrying a firearm, took out a shortened AK-47-type weapon and threatened the deputies, the agency said. The deputies opened fire on the suspect, killing him, according to the release. The second suspect ran away. Deputies conducted an "intensive" search of the area, including the use of K-9 units, but were unable to locate him, the release states.

Franklin tells Alabama News Network it happened around 11PM Monday in the Cherokee Trail area. He says deputies were called to a home after a woman said one of her sons had shot another son in the leg. Franklin said when deputies arrived, they heard someone say "My brother is trying to kill me." He says deputies thought it was coming from a workshop. When they went inside the workshop, he says deputies found the suspect, 61-year-old Darrin Gray, armed with a handgun in one hand and a flashlight in another. He says the deputies tried to calm down Gray, but after 10-15 minutes, he says Gray raised the gun as if he was going to shoot. Franklin says two deputies opened fire, hitting him. He died later at a hospital. Franklin said Gray is well known to law enforcement. Franklin says Gray's brother, 56-year-old Cecil Gray, was taken to Baptist Medical Center South with non-life threatening injuries. ALEA is investigating the incident because it involved a law enforcement officer.

Investigators consider the man, identified as 51-year-old Thang Duc Doan, as the only suspect in the deaths of the two women, 42-year-old Kim Nguyen and her daughter, 18-year-old Lam-Anh Tran, according to the Hall sheriff's office. The GBI is investigating the shooting. Deputies were sent to Nguyen's home in the 3200 block of Long Creek Drive around noon to perform the check and investigate a possible missing person case but could not get anyone to come to the door, according to a GBI news release. A concerned relative of the women later went to the home and spoke with Doan, who told the relative the women were not there. The relative told deputies that Doan had what appeared to be blood on his clothes, and with that information, a search warrant for the home was secured. By 11 p.m., deputies entered the home and encountered Doan holding a knife and making "aggressive movements" toward the deputies, according to the sheriff's office. "As a result, the man was shot and killed by deputies," a sheriff's spokesperson said in a news release. After securing the scene, deputies continued searching the home and found the bodies of the two women. Their deaths are being investigated by the sheriff's office. The GBI will conduct an independent investigation into the shooting, and upon completion, the case will be handed over to the Northeastern Judicial Circuit District Attorney for review.

Police said Antavious Cierre Bailey, a 36-year-old Conyers man, followed the victim home from the grocery store and forced his way into her residence in the 2900 block of Parkridge Drive. He flashed a gun, threatened to kill the woman and demanded money, bank cards and PIN information, she told police. Bailey then used a phone cord and power cable to tie the woman up in a back bedroom. The victim reported the robbery to authorities around 12:15 p.m. Shortly after, she began getting fraud alerts from her banks, which notified her about purchases being made near Buckhead. Investigators secured surveillance video that showed Bailey following the victim home from her neighborhood Publix. Detectives also obtained footage that allegedly showed him using the woman's bank cards at several shops in Buckhead. Police tracked Bailey to the 100 block of Fulton Street in southeast Atlanta, where he was arrested Tuesday. He was charged with first-degree home invasion, false imprisonment, kidnapping, possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony and obstruction of law enforcement officers. Bailey remained held without bond Wednesday, according to online jail records.

The man, whose identity has not been released, was shot about 12:45 p.m. outside the Luxury Nail Spa, located in a strip mall anchored by a Walmart at 384 Cleveland Avenue, East Point police said in a news release. Three other men who were involved in the incident ran from the scene. Witnesses told The Atlanta Journal-Constitution the man left the salon and they heard gunfire shortly after. When the man came back inside, he was bleeding from multiple wounds. The three other men who investigators believe were involved in the shooting ran toward Sylvan Road, East Point police spokeswoman Keisha Watts said. Investigators believe the victim knew the men and they were involved in a confrontation immediately before shots were fired. A woman who was inside the salon at the time, who asked to be identified only by her first name Louise, said the victim was there with his girlfriend. The man went outside, Louise said, "then I heard gunshots and everybody started panicking, and he walked right back in bleeding everywhere." "They were holding his neck. So much blood," she added.

The charges stem from an incident on Aug. 2. At about 9 p.m., dispatchers were alerted to a structure fire in the 2000 block of Hogan Drive in Elkmont. The call came from the homeowner, who said she was inside the house with six other people, trapped in the basement. The caller said she believed her husband started the fire. While deputies were en route to the scene, all of the occupants were able to safely flee the residence. James Tyler Bush, who was also still at the scene, was detained while local volunteer fire departments fought the fire. According to investigators, deputies had previously responded twice that day to this address for domestic disputes. The Limestone County Sheriff's Office requested assistance from the Alabama State Fire Marshal's Office. Fire investigators determined the fire had two points of origin and was intentionally set. According to the sheriff's office, Bush confessed to the crime. He has been charged with first degree arson and third degree domestic violence. He is being held in the Limestone County Detention Center on a $102,500 bond.

Glenroy Roberts, 51, called 911 around 9:15 p.m. Tuesday and said his wife shot herself, according to police. When police arrived at the couple's home in the 100 block of Bethesda Church Road, they found the woman, 45-year-old Claudia Roberts, dead with a gunshot wound to the head. Glenroy Roberts told officers at the scene that he and his wife had been arguing before she turned a gun on herself, a news release states. After further investigation, police determined the victim had more than one gunshot wound and multiple shell casings were found near her body, the release states. Glenroy Roberts was then arrested on charges of felony murder and aggravated assault. He was booked on Wednesday morning into the Gwinnett County jail, where he is being held without bond.

1458	8/2/22	10:00 PM	Chelsea Prince	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Bakers Ferry Rd	Shooting	Officials ID Man Killed in Shooting at SW Atlanta Park	A shooting inside a city park left a man dead Tuesday night and rattled residents in a southwest Atlanta neighborhood, police said. The victim was discovered shot multiple times when Atlanta police responded to Wilson Mill Park off Bakers Ferry Road shortly after 10 p.m., Atlanta police confirmed in a news release. Homicide investigators at the scene said officers attempted first aid on the man, but he died of his injuries a short time later. He was identified by the Fulton County Medical Examiner's Office as 36-year-old Lamarcus Griffin. Atlanta City Councilmember Andrea L. Boone, who lives in the area, told Channel 2 Action News she started hearing gunshots coming from the park around 9:45 p.m. "We began to call each other. I called my neighbor down the street, and then I got a call from the Atlanta Police Department letting me know that something had happened about 30 minutes later," she said. Police have not said what motivated the shooting or if any suspects have been identified. Boone said it was not the first time gunfire was heard at the park. "Many of my neighbors have been concerned about the activity here in July," she told the news station. "We heard several gunshots one evening, and it seems to be just escalating."

Authorities said Thursday they still don't have an accurate description of the vehicle that hit the victim Aug. 2 in Norcross or the driver who fled the scene. Officers were called to the intersection of Singleton Road and Harbins Ridge Drive about 10:30 p.m. and found the person dead, Gwinnett police spokesman Sgt. J.R. Richter said in a news release. The victim's name has not been released to the public. Police are asking anyone who might have been in the area at the time or might have knowledge of the incident to come forward. "Pedestrians should exercise caution, particularly at night in areas that are poorly lit, to cross in crosswalks and obey pedestrian signals," Richter said in the release. "It is illegal to cross anywhere other than marked crosswalks, as well as extremely dangerous."

The Jefferson County Coroner's Office identified the victim as Thomas Allen Everett. The shooting happened shortly before 11:30 p.m. Tuesday in the 5500 block of Myron Clark Road in McCalla. Jefferson County sheriff's deputies responded after receiving a 911 call from neighbors reporting a man had been shot. Everett was pronounced dead on the scene at 11:55 p.m. Lt. Joni Money said the shooter remained at the location to speak with detectives. Additional information, including a possible motive, has not been released. Money said once the investigation is complete, the evidence will be presented to the Jefferson County District Attorney's Office to determine whether charges will be filed. The deadly shooting happened on the same street as a murder-suicide that took place over the weekend. Money said there was no connection between the two incidents and said there is no danger to the general public stemming from those incidents.
1461	8/3/22		Noah Feit	The State	SC		Richland County	Hard Scrabble Rd	Shooting	Deputy Hurt in Shooting When Responding to Call for Help, Richland County Sheriff Says	A dead man was discovered and a deputy was injured when responding to a call for help early Wednesday morning, the Richland County Sheriff's Department said. Deputies were investigating the call in northeast Columbia at the Carriage Oaks Subdivision, the sheriff's department said in a news release. That's in the area between Hard Scrabble Road and Summit Parkway. When clearing the scene, deputies began being shot at and one deputy at the scene had multiple bullets strike his vehicle. The deputy was not shot but was injured by glass during the gunfire. The sheriff's department said deputies did not return fire, because they could not determine the source of the gunfire. After searching the area, the body of a deceased male was found outside of a neighboring house. Richland County Sheriff Leon Lott is expected to hold a news conference Wednesday.

1462	8/3/22	4:00 PM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Peters St	Shooting	2-Year-Old Critical After Targeted Shooting in SW Atlanta	A 2-year-old was critically injured after he was shot near downtown Atlanta on Wednesday afternoon in what police called a targeted incident. The boy and his father had just left a barbershop on Peters Street in the Castleberry Hill neighborhood about 4 p.m. when the shooting took place, Atlanta police Deputy Chief Charles Hampton said during a news conference. The child's father took him to a nearby fire station at the corner of Lee Street and Avon Avenue, where he was then rushed to a hospital, Hampton said. The child is stable but remains in critical condition, he said. Police believe the boy and his father were followed from Off the Hook Barbershop by the suspect. As they drove south on Peters Street, a blue Kia Optima pulled alongside their car on the passenger side and someone inside opened fire at an intersection, Hampton said. "What I can say is that it appears to be a targeted incident — I'm not sure of if they know one another, but it appears that the shooters in fact wanted to shoot the occupants in that vehicle," the deputy chief said. Police are actively searching for the Kia, which continued south, and are investigating at the barbershop.

The thefts happened between Aug. 2 through Aug. 5, at an undisclosed gas station in Pelham. Those charged are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– Brion Tiyyari Harris, 21, of Conyers</li> <li>– Brandon Michael Tyson, 23, of Atlanta</li> <li>– Makai Michael Anthony Brown, 22, of Atlanta</li> <li>– Santos Sirchard Oliver, 23, of Atlanta</li> <li>– Jasmine Symone Mathis, 25, Atlanta</li> </ul> The thefts were discovered when the gas station owner noticed a large amount of fuel gone, with no record of sale. Once he determined there was no leak, he reviewed his surveillance video and saw a man filling up large storage containers in the back of a moving truck. That’s when he notified police. The initial theft report was made at 8:30 am Thursday, Aug. 4 These suspects were taken into custody around 1:15 a.m. Friday. Pelham police Det. Sgt. Brad Jordan said the suspects were somehow able to bypass the pumps’ security and reporting mechanism, which meant the owners would have no record of the fuel being pumped. The stolen fuel was worth roughly $10,000. Investigators increased patrols at all area gas stations. The suspects were nabbed when they showed up to steal again, police said. All five are charged with theft of property. Tyson and Oliver remain held in the Shelby County Jail with bond set at $10,000. Oliver, Harris and Mathis have been released on bond.

"When you're angry, put the weapons down. Walk away from the weapons," interim police Chief Darin Schierbaum said from the crime scene. Officers responded to an area along Merritts Avenue near Central Park about 1:25 p.m. regarding a person shot call. Not long after, a 911 caller told officers that a man had shot himself, Deputy Chief Charles Hampton said. "We did in fact find a male in his late 60s shot, deceased, with a weapon in his lap with all indications that it was a self-inflicted wound," said Hampton, adding that the man was found inside the popular park. Ten minutes later, officers were called to Cosby Spear Memorial Towers along North Avenue regarding a person shot. A woman, believed to be in her early 60s, was found fatally shot, Hampton said. "Right now, early indication appears that these two incidents are related," Hampton said. "The individual here at the park may be responsible for the incident at the high-rise." Police did not release the names of those involved or clarify their relationship.

1487	8/6/22	9:15 PM	William Thornton	AL.com	AL		Lawrence County	County Road 217	Shooting	North Alabama Man Shot Dead by Deputy Following Vehicle Pursuit, Sheriff Says	A man was shot to death Saturday night by a Lawrence County deputy following a traffic stop, according to Sheriff Max Sanders. Chief Deputy Brian Covington said the incident began with a traffic stop begun around 9:15 p.m. Saturday at or near the intersection of County Road 217 and County Road 214. The driver, Marty Hutto, was being stopped for a traffic violation, Covington said, after Hutto was spotted driving down the center of the roadway in a gold-colored Ford F-150. Hutto also had outstanding warrants for a domestic violence arrest. Covington said Hutto began throwing objects out of the vehicle, including nails and bottles, to disable the deputy's pursuing vehicle. The deputy's car sustained a broken windshield and damaged tires. Hutto's vehicle became disabled on Lawrence County Road 222, Covington said. As he exited the vehicle, Hutto pointed a gun at the deputy. The deputy shot Hutto in his side, and he fell near his vehicle. He later died of his injuries. An investigation determined Hutto's weapon was a flare gun loaded with a modified 12 gauge shotgun shell. Covington said the deputy, who was not named, is on paid administrative leave. The Alabama Law Enforcement Agency is investigating the incident.

1489	8/7/22	1:00 AM	William Thornton	AL.com	AL	Athens	Limestone County	Alabama 31	Auto Theft	Limestone County Man Arrested After Stealing Two Emergency Vehicles, Police Say	Limestone County authorities say a man who had already stolen a vehicle managed to steal and wreck both an ambulance and a fire truck early Sunday morning. According to Sheriff Joshua McLaughlin, a man, later identified as Tyrek Dequavious Hayes, was spotted about 1 a.m. along Alabama 31 north of Pryor Field Airport in Athens. Hayes, 30, had stolen a vehicle in Athens and wrecked it, authorities say. An Athens-Limestone EMS were traveling north, noticed the vehicle, and stopped to check on Hayes' welfare. Once he entered the back of the ambulance, Hayes bypassed the patient compartment and entered the driver's seat. One EMT was still in the patient area, while one was stepping into the patient area from the rear. Hayes took off, throwing one EMT from the ambulance and trapping the other in the rear compartment. He then drove north until he left the roadway crossing Martin Line Road, nearly landing the ambulance in Swan Creek, McLaughlin said. Hayes then fled on foot, heading west under 31 in the creek. The Morgan County Sheriff's Office K-9 unit arrived and began to track Hayes, who by this time had made it back out to the highway. There, he stole a Tanner Volunteer Department fire truck and headed south on Alabama 31, touching off a pursuit. Hayes left the roadway westbound at Flower Hill Way, where the fire truck wrecked in a thicket about a quarter mile from the road. The vehicle was apparently totaled. Hayes again fled on foot, and was taken into custody by Athens police and Limestone County deputies. He faces two counts of first degree theft, second degree assault, first degree kidnapping, reckless endangerment, attempting to elude, marijuana possession and possession of drug paraphernalia charges. Hayes is being held in the Limestone County Detention Center without bond.

Malik Rashoid Canty, 25, turned himself in to law enforcement officers early Monday morning, according to police. “This was the outcome that we’d hoped for and the safest resolution for all parties involved,” police said. On Sunday, police said Canty was wanted for attempted murder, kidnapping, domestic violence of a high and aggravated nature, first-degree burglary and possession of a weapon during the commission of a violent crime. The charges stem from an overnight incident at an apartment complex. At about 1:30 a.m. Sunday, officers responded to reports of a domestic incident and shooting at the Irmo Village Apartment Complex, according to the release. That’s near the intersection of St. Andrews Road and Lake Murray Boulevard. Officers found a person shot in the leg and applied a tourniquet to stop the bleeding, police said. The gunshot victim was transported to a local hospital with serious injuries. Further information on the victim’s condition was not available Sunday morning. Police said Canty was armed with a gun when he forced his way into the apartment, where he’s accused of assaulting the occupant of the residence and shooting the other person in the leg. Canty then drove away in a white 2010 Lexus ES300 with a South Carolina license plate “NJN979,” police said.

A large crowd was gathered in a parking lot in the 800 block of Second Avenue North where drivers were doing burnouts and donuts. According to police and to a video circulating on social media, a vehicle doing a burnout struck another vehicle in the parking lot. The collision happened just after 3 a.m. Officer Truman Fitzgerald said a verbal argument ensued and shots were exchanged. The video shows a male immediately opening fire after the cars made contact. An adult female who police say was an innocent bystander was shot. She died on the scene. Four other victims – two women and two men – were also wounded. The four surviving victims were taken to area hospitals by private vehicles. Two of the victims sustained life-threatening injuries. The other two are expected to be OK. One man has been detained for questioning. “We do believe there were multiple shooters,” Fitzgerald said. The city’s gunfire detection system indicated more than 10 shots fired.

The Fulton County Medical Examiner's Office confirmed Monday morning two of the six people shot at Rosa L. Burney Park have died. They were identified as 31-year-old Rashad Rogers and 33-year-old April Sparks. Atlanta police are investigating after gunfire erupted around 7 p.m. Sunday at the Windsor Street park, Deputy Chief Charles Hampton Jr. told media at the crime scene. Shots were exchanged after an argument apparently broke out during a baseball or softball game, Hampton said. The six victims were all taken to hospitals, where two later died. The 6-year-old was taken to Children's Healthcare of Atlanta at Egleston Hospital and was in critical condition, Hampton said Sunday evening. Updates were not provided Monday on the conditions of the other surviving victims, two adult women and a man, but an investigator with the medical examiner's office told The Atlanta Journal-Constitution at least one was fighting for life in a hospital.

Officers were called to I-85 northbound at North Druid Hills Road just after 7:30 p.m. when someone was reported shot, DeKalb police spokesman Lt. Shane Smith said. When officers arrived, they found the girl dead in the back seat having suffered an apparent gunshot wound. Police identified the victim as Kendal Lewis. Homicide detectives determined that while Kaelin Lewis, 26, was driving, her daughter found the firearm and the weapon discharged, striking the girl. According to Georgia law, parents or caretakers can be charged with second-degree cruelty to children if investigators can prove criminal negligence — whether an adult was aware or should have been aware of a gun being in the area and did nothing to keep it out of the reach of children. In this case, the mother was charged with cruelty to children in the second degree and booked into the DeKalb jail.

Authorities were called to Sutter Lake apartments in the 8100 block of Webb Road about 9 p.m. regarding a domestic dispute involving a death, police spokeswoman Sgt. Julia Isaac said. While officers were en route, Isaac said 20-year-old Kathan Guzman told 911 dispatchers that he killed 19-year-old Delila Grayson by choking her. Grayson was found dead in the bathroom by officers, Isaac added. The investigation led authorities to determine that a dispute between Guzman and Grayson led to the deadly incident. Isaac said she could not elaborate on the full extent of their relationship. Guzman, who remains in the Clayton County Jail, is charged with malice murder and aggravated assault by strangulation. Just hours prior, Clayton police officers were investigating another fatal incident in the 600 block of Oakville Trail. Authorities said they found one person shot at the scene and learned that another was taken to the hospital prior to police arriving, but later died. Investigators believe an argument broke out just before that shooting. The suspect is unknown and no other details were released.

The incident was the second of two unusual shootings to take place downtown in less than two hours Monday night. Officers were called to 15 Peachtree Street for reports of a person shot around 11:20 p.m., Atlanta police said in a news release. At the scene, police found a 42-year-old man suffering from a gunshot wound. The man told police he was walking in the area near Woodruff Park when he was approached by another man who asked to use his cellphone. The 42-year-old refused the stranger, who pulled out a pistol and shot him, according to police. The victim was able to run to a nearby parking garage and hid until officers arrived. He was taken to the hospital and was considered stable. Less than an hour and a half earlier, officers responded to a person shot call at 500 McDaniel Street, a little more than a mile away from the scene of the cellphone incident, according to police. On McDaniel Street, police found a 26-year-old man suffering from a gunshot wound. The man told officers he had been driving in the area of McDaniel and Whitehall streets when someone shot him. He did not know who was shooting. The victim was taken to the hospital and also considered stable, police said.

1507	8/9/22		Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Ware County		Homicide	GBI: Youth Detention Officer Who Allowed Deadly 'Fight Game' Charged with Murder	A juvenile correctional officer at a South Georgia youth detention facility was arrested Tuesday on multiple charges, including murder, after a boy in his custody died during a "fight game" he allowed, the GBI said. Thomas Lee Hicks, 30, of Waycross, is facing one count of second-degree murder, two counts of second-degree cruelty to children and one count of violating his oath of office, the GBI said in a news release. Hicks was booked into the Ware County Jail, where he remains without bond. The GBI became involved in the case when officials at the Waycross Regional Youth Detention Center (RYDC) requested an independent investigation into an Aug. 9 incident that resulted in a boy losing consciousness while in custody, the state agency said. The boy was treated by emergency medical personnel and taken to Memorial Health Hospital in Savannah, where he later died. At the time, the GBI said only that the boy had become unresponsive in the presence of several other youths and a detention officer. After Hicks' arrest, the state agency said the boy's injuries were the result of a fighting game that Hicks did not stop. Hicks' only sworn law enforcement experience is with the Waycross RYDC, according to records kept by Georgia's Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) council. He first began working at the Waycross facility in 2014 and resigned in 2018 before returning for a second stint last year. POST records indicate Hicks had no prior disciplinary history. After his arrest, Hicks' certification as a law enforcement officer remained in good standing Wednesday, online records show.

Special Response Team Operator Sarah Merriman suffered head and body injuries after being struck by the stolen vehicle, the sheriff's department said. Jamon Cheatham, 17, the alleged driver of the vehicle, is being charged with attempted murder. Around 10 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 9, Merriman was responding to a report of a stolen vehicle in the Dentsville area. Video footage showed deputies surrounding a white Ford sedan, which had pulled into a parking spot at 6908 Two Notch Road. Merriman had just exited her cruiser when the Ford quickly reversed, crushing the deputy between the two cars. Another deputy quickly boxed Cheatham in with his car, and Merriman was taken to the hospital. Cheatham, who is being charged as an adult, was also charged with failure to stop for blue lights, committing a hit and run, and possession of a stolen vehicle. At a press conference Wednesday, Richland County Sheriff Leon Lott criticized the court's decision to grant a $150,000 bond for Cheatham. Were Cheatham to retain the services of a bail bondsman, he could post 10% of the total amount or as little as $25 (the minimum under state law that can be paid to a bondsman), according to Lott. "What price tag would you put on a deputy's life?" Lott questioned. "I found out today it's not very much."

Atlanta Police said they were called to the area near Gibson Street and Memorial Drive Tuesday at 12:41 p.m. Atlanta dispatch received a report of a sexual assault happening at an apartment. The caller reported a dispute involving a U-Haul, Deputy Chief Charles Hampton Jr. said during a news briefing. Police said the caller was a mover and clarified they were extra help hired for the day -- not an employee of the contracted moving company. When the officer arrived at the area they found the U-Haul at the intersection of Woodward Drive and Gibson Street, which is the center of the apartment complex. The man police were searching for was sitting in the passenger side. "The officer approached the passenger side, had a conversation with the male, had asked the male to get out," Hampton explained. The man was not cooperating with the officer's instructions. When the man got out of the U-Haul, the officer saw he was armed and the two got into a physical fight. "The officer disengaged himself and shot at least one round," Hampton said. The deputy chief added the individual was a convicted felon who should not have access to a gun. The 32-year-old was taken to Grady Memorial Hospital where he's listed as critical.

Two men died and a woman was shot, but survived the Aug. 9 rash of violence, which erupted in little over an hour. She suffered multiple gunshots that proved non-life-threatening. Police found the female victim when officers responded to the first shooting near Lemon Drive around 11:45 p.m. Minutes later, while officers were on scene investigating that incident, they received a call about a second shooting about two miles north on Fairview Drive. Police arrived and found a man shot dead. Shortly before 1 a.m. the following morning, cops were dispatched to a drive-by shooting on Bridges Road, where they found yet another man fatally wounded from multiple gunshots. McDonough investigators suspect all three shootings may be linked. Police did not specify what may connect the shootings and did not reveal any suspect information. "The investigation remains active and evidence is being evaluated to determine persons of interest at this time," officials said in the release.
1517	8/10/22		Reeves Jackson	11 Alive	GA	Atlanta		Beecher Rd SW	Homicide	2 Arrested, Charged with Murder in Death of Infant in Southwest Atlanta, Police Say	Parents were arrested by Atlanta police in connection to the death of their infant child earlier this month. Zion Byrd, 23, and Deshan Turner, 20, were taken into custody on Aug. 18 and were charged with murder and cruelty to children, according to APD's Fugitive Unit. On Aug. 10, officers responded to the 2200 block of Beecher Road Southwest regarding an unresponsive infant. The baby was taken to a hospital, where police said they were declared dead. Homicide investigators launched their investigation, which revealed the child suffered injuries consistent with inflicted trauma. Investigators said they were later able to establish probable cause to arrest the infant's guardians, Byrd and Turner. After search warrants were obtained and the suspects were taken into custody, they were taken to the Fulton County Jail. "Police officers respond to many types of calls, but arguably the most difficult are those where infants and children have been harmed or killed," an official from APD's Fugitive Unit said. "When these and other crime atrocities happen, the response is always a relentless pursuit to identify the suspects, arrest them and ensure justice for the victim." Authorities said that the Fugitive Unit assists in closing the case and bringing the victim justice.

1518	8/10/22		Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	McDonough			Shooting	Man Accused of Shooting at Ex-Girlfriend, Infant Arrested by Henry Deputies	Georgia deputies arrested a man they say stalked his ex-girlfriend and tried to kill her and the couple's infant on two occasions this week. Marcus Issaih Calhoun, 25, was taken into custody Thursday on several felonies, including battery, aggravated stalking, robbery by sudden snatching, possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony and two counts of aggravated assault. The Henry County Sheriff's Office announced the arrest in a news release late Thursday. The Muscogee County Sheriff's Office worked with Henry County deputies to track down Calhoun in Columbus after he got on a Greyhound bus headed to Alabama. Agency officials said he was trying to escape arrest. Investigators said they found a gun in Calhoun's possession on the bus. Calhoun violated a temporary protective order when he showed up to his ex-lover's McDonough home Tuesday and attacked her. Calhoun fled the home before officers arrived, but investigators obtained warrants for his arrest. On Wednesday, authorities said he approached the victim while she was at Avalon Park with her and Calhoun's infant. Deputies said he fired several shots at a vehicle the woman and baby were in as she drove away from the McDonough park. Calhoun is in custody at the Henry County Jail, according to the statement.

1521	8/10/22	1:00 PM	Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Cherokee County		Shooting	UPDATE: Man Charged in Shooting at Hyundai Dealership in Cherokee County	A man was arrested Wednesday after police said he shot another man at a Canton car dealership. Officers were called to Shottenkirk Hyundai along Liberty Boulevard about 1 p.m. after gunshots rang out, police said. While en route to the dealership, an officer spotted a vehicle parked on the side of the road that matched the description of the one involved in the incident. Authorities found a 24-year-old man shot in the leg and an unharmed woman inside the vehicle, police said. An officer applied a tourniquet to the victim's leg and he was taken to a hospital. His condition was not provided. Kevon Phillip Duffus, 30, of Covington, was detained soon after the shooting and later charged with two counts of aggravated assault, according to police. He remains in the Cherokee County Detention Center. "We do know that one person that was taken into custody was here at the dealership," Canton police Sgt. Mary Turner told Channel 2 Action News from the scene. The investigation revealed that an argument at the dealership between Duffus and the victim led to the shooting. Police said that those involved in the incident were not employees or customers of Shottenkirk Hyundai. The nature of their relationship is being investigated.

1523	8/10/22	4:00 PM	Aaron Sánchez-Guerra	The News & Observer	NC		Caswell County		Shooting	Man in Custody for Shooting Caswell County Sheriff's Deputy, Then Barricading Himself in Home	An officer with the Caswell County Sheriff's Office was hospitalized with serious injuries Wednesday after being shot by an armed man at a residence in the rural town of Semora. Authorities arrested the suspect who barricaded himself inside his home for several hours after the shooting. The suspect, identified as Kevin DeSilva, surrendered to law enforcement around 4 p.m., reported ABC11. The shooting occurred in the late morning when two sheriff's deputies arrived at a home to serve a domestic violence protective order, Sgt. Greg Ingram told The N&O. The man at the home started shooting deputies with one of the officers shot "multiple times," Ingram said. Caswell County Sheriff Tony Durden Jr. identified the deputy as Aaron Tyndall, who has worked with the sheriff's department for over three years. He is currently hospitalized at Duke University Hospital with injuries, but is "responsive and alert, which is a great sign," Ingram said.
1524	8/10/22	5:00 PM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		DeKalb County	Meadow Ln	Robbery	1 of 2 Suspects Apprehended in Armed Robbery, Kidnapping of DeKalb Dad	Police are still searching for the last of two suspects in an alleged robbing and kidnapping of a father in DeKalb County last week, according to police. DeKalb officers were called to the 1900 block of Meadow Lane on Wednesday shortly before 5 p.m., where they spoke with two teenagers who told them their father was robbed at gunpoint by two men as they worked on a house. The suspects then forced the father into a vehicle, still at gunpoint, and drove him to a nearby ATM where they forced him to withdraw money, according to the statement. They dropped the father off at a nearby intersection and fled. The next day, patrolling officers spotted the suspects' vehicle on Glenwood Road near I-285 around 6:30 p.m.. Officers followed the vehicle toward Covington Highway when they tried to conduct a traffic stop. The suspects instead pulled into a gas station and three people ran away. Police brought in K-9 officers and began tracking the suspects. After three-and-a-half hours, a suspect — later identified as 33-year-old Regis Jackson — was found hiding in a shed. He was allegedly still wearing the same clothes used in the kidnapping and armed robbery the day before, police said. Jackson was charged with armed robbery and kidnapping and is being held at the DeKalb County jail. The second suspect, who remains at large, was identified as Jackson's brother, 38-year-old Darius Jackson. Darius Jackson also faces armed robbery and kidnapping charges. Police said additional charges may be filed, as the pair have been linked to other armed robberies in the area.

1527	8/10/22	10:37 PM	Tim Chitwood Columbus Ledger-Enquirer, Ga.	AL.com	GA	Columbus			Shooting	Alabama Teen Gunned Down Outside Georgia Walmart, Possibly by Teen He May Have Robbed	Security cameras at a Columbus, Georgia Walmart recorded the shooting that killed an Alabama teen last week, capturing images of a car that led police to a suspect, a detective testified Monday. Police Sgt. Thomas Hill said the black 2003 Honda Accord the gunman drove had distinctive markings investigators noticed as they reviewed footage of 18-year-old Caleb Boling getting gunned down at 10:37 p.m. Wednesday outside the store. Boling, who had just gotten off work at the Walmart, was sitting in his 2016 Nissan Altima in the parking lot when the Honda pulled up and a single assailant got out and shot Boling multiple times, leaving him dead on the scene as the shooter got back in the Honda and fled, Hill said. Witnesses called police at 10:44 p.m., and Boling, of Smiths Station, Alabama, died at 11:19 p.m., the sergeant said. Columbus investigators learned from Phenix City police that Boling had been named a suspect in a May robbery there, with the victim listed as Dorian Reviere, Hill said. Detectives tracked Reviere to the Sumbry Hill Apartments on 25th Avenue in Phenix City, where they found a Honda with the same markings as the one on the Walmart video. Police searched the suspect's apartment and car and arrested Reviere, 18, who in court Monday faced charges of murder and using a firearm to commit a crime. Hill said Reviere told police he and Boling knew each other from having attended Central High School in Phenix City.

Officers were called to the Oak Forest Apartments on Hatton Drive shortly after 2:30 a.m. on a report of shots fired and found the man wounded behind a building. He died at the scene, according to DeKalb police Sgt. Lynn Shuler. The victim, who has not been identified, appears to be in his mid-20s, and his connection to the complex is unknown, said Shuler, who is a member of the police department's homicide unit. Shuler is hopeful their case will start coming together once the man is identified. "Right now we are canvassing for witnesses and we are going to review video," he said, adding that investigators had already located at least one witness. Investigators blocked off a grassy area outside a breezeway with crime scene tape while they gathered evidence Thursday morning. The man's body could be seen there.

Antonetta Phylisha Stevens, 27, of Buford, and Janine Rosa Gonzalez, a 17-year-old from Buffalo, New York, were both arrested Friday (8/13) on charges of felony murder, robbery and aggravated battery. They both remained in the Gwinnett jail without bond Friday afternoon, according to online booking records. A police spokesman said the suspects lured Bocanegra to Stevens' residence at the Preston Hills at Mill Creek apartment complex in the 2900 block of Buford Drive around 1 p.m. Thursday. Once there, police said they attacked the victim, beating her severely and causing injuries that forced her to be hospitalized and ultimately led to her death. They also took her cellphone, police said. Homicide detectives questioned Gonzalez and Stevens at the apartment and said both women participated in the attack. According to investigators, Bocanegra and Stevens were in a romantic relationship with the same man, who was Gonzalez's brother, and that was their impetus for the attack.

Officers responded at 2:13 p.m. on Aug. 11 to the store and found that an employee had been "cut with a knife along the neck," according to a statement from the Mobile Police Department. The employee had been trying to stop a woman from leaving the store without paying, the statement says. First responders transported the employee to a hospital, where she was in critical condition. Officers found the accused shoplifter about half a mile away and arrested her. The woman, Takea Shackelford, 39, is charged with first-degree attempted murder and first-degree robbery, the statement says. Shackelford is also accused of shoplifting from a Walmart in Mobile in July and injuring people as she left the store. On July 26, Shackelford took items from a Walmart without paying and then struck two people in the parking lot as she tried to flee in her vehicle, police said. She is charged with two counts of leaving the scene of an accident and one count each of reckless endangerment and theft of property in connection with that incident. She is being held in the Mobile County Jail, according to jail records.

1536	8/11/22	2:30 PM	Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Johnson Rd	Shooting	Please Don't Kill Me': Security Guard Shot in Atlanta Apartment Complex	A security guard was shot at a northwest Atlanta apartment complex while begging the shooter to not kill him, an incident report released Tuesday states. When officers arrived at the scene Thursday at about 2:30 p.m., a man holding a gun was standing over the victim near the entrance of Columbia Grove apartments along Johnson Road. The alleged gunman, identified as Lee Anthony Forehand, began backing up after officers drew their guns and the victim was able to limp away from Forehand, police said. The victim, who witnesses told officers was a security guard at the apartment complex, was shot in the thigh. Police applied a tourniquet just above the wound and the victim was taken to Grady Memorial Hospital. Forehand was arrested at the scene after attempting to hide behind a vehicle nearby, the report states. A gun was found on his waistband, along with 144 grams of suspected marijuana and several empty plastic bags inside his book bag, police said. A witness told responding officers that she heard three gunshots and saw Forehand speaking to the victim. The witness then saw the victim put his hands up and begin to walk away from the gunman before falling to the ground. "The victim was lying on the pavement defenseless and stated 'please don't kill me,' " the witness told officers. Forehand then shot the victim once, the report states, and then got his phone out and began filming. Another witness told police that she saw Forehand shooting multiple times and eventually shoot the security guard while standing over him. Forehand is charged with aggravated assault with a deadly weapon, criminal attempt to commit murder, possession of a weapon during the commission of a felony and possession of marijuana with the intent to distribute. He remained Tuesday at the Fulton County jail, where he was being held without bond.

1537	8/11/22	10:30 PM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Birmingham		20th Pl	Shooting	2 Men, 1 Woman Shot Dead in Less Than 30 Minutes on Birmingham's West Side	Three people were killed in less than 30 minutes Thursday night on Birmingham's westside. Gunfire erupted about 10:30 p.m. in one neighborhood, leaving a man and woman dead. About 20 minutes later, a barrage of shots rang out several blocks away at a small apartment building. One man was killed in that incident. "Very rough night," said Officer Truman Fitzgerald. In the first incident, West Precinct officers were dispatched to the 2300 block of 20th Place in Ensley on a report of a person shot. When they arrived, they found an adult female unresponsive inside a residence. Birmingham Fire and Rescue Service pronounced the woman dead. Officers then learned there was a second victim in a yard across the street. He, too, was pronounced dead on the scene. Both victims had been shot. Fitzgerald said the preliminary investigation indicates the double killing could be domestic related. "The suspect may or may not have some type of romantic link to one of the victims," he said. The victims, he said, were possibly friends. A suspect was later spotted by East Precinct Task Force officers and was taken into custody on John Rogers Drive at Alton Road. Just 20 minutes later, West Precinct officers responded to shots fired in the 2800 block of 29th Place in Ensley. Once at that location, police found an adult dead on the porch of an apartment unit. Fitzgerald said the victim had been shot multiple times. The city's Shot Spotter gunfire detection system indicated numerous rounds were fired. "We believe the victim was targeted based on the proximity of the rounds fired," he said.

Milton Police said the armed robbery at the Zaxby's happened at 13788 Highway 9 on Aug. 11 shortly before 11 p.m. A man forced two women, who worked at the fast food restaurant, back into the building and demanded cash, according to the police department. He appears to be armed with a pistol-style firearm, possibly an AK-47, Milton Police said, sharing a photo. The man allegedly stole $1,370 from the restaurant, according to an incident report obtained from police. Investigators believe the same person allegedly robbed the Chick-fil-A on North Point Parkway in Alpharetta on May 19. Authorities shared photos of the man they are looking for below. Milton Police said he appears to be of a medium build and muscular. He was wearing a mask and gloves. Investigators think he's between 5-feet 6 and 8-inches tall. He's estimated to weigh between 145 and 160 pounds, according to Milton Police. The man is wanted on armed robbery charges, and should be considered armed and dangerous, the police department said. Two of the employees working that night are in their 50s, while the other two are in their teens.
1540	8/12/22	12:30 AM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Powder Springs	Cobb County	Silvery Way	Robbery	Suspect in Armed Powder Springs Home Invasion at Large in Atlanta	One person was arrested and a second remains on the run after officers from multiple agencies chased a car linked to an armed home invasion in Powder Springs early Friday morning, police said. Officers were called to a home on Silvery Way in a development called Tapp Farm after getting reports of the home invasion just after 12:30 a.m. The victim said a man broke into his home using a crowbar, brandished a gun and demanded money. The man took "property," which police did not specify, and left in a dark sedan driven by a second suspect. Powder Springs police were able to get the car's license plate number and issue an alert to other agencies about the suspects. Cobb police soon found the car traveling on the East-West Connector and tried to make a traffic stop. Instead of stopping, the suspects drove away and Cobb officers gave chase, continuing into Atlanta. At one point, the suspects' car stopped and one person got out. That suspect was arrested after a foot chase, but the driver of the car continued on. The second suspect left the car somewhere in Atlanta and fled on foot.

A reward of up to $5,000 is being offered for information leading to the arrests of the suspects, Atlanta police said. The shooting took place Aug. 12 around 1 a.m. at a small complex of loft apartments in the 1500 block of Ralph David Abernathy Boulevard. The victim, who lives at the apartment building, told police he saw three men trying to break into his car through his doorbell camera. According to the incident report, the man saw a white Kia Optima trigger his camera three times between midnight and 1 a.m. The third time, he stepped outside with a handgun to confront the men in the parking area. The resident can be seen in security footage shouting from the building's open stairwell at the suspects below. As they drive away, multiple shots are fired in quick succession and the victim can be seen running for cover. As the suspects' car leaves the frame, the tires can be heard squealing as it speeds away. No one was injured during the incident, but the gunfire caused damage to the building, police said. The victim did not fire his gun. Police are asking for help from the public to identify the suspects.

U.S. 264	Hit & Run	Highway Patrol Makes Arrest in Hit-and-Run That Killed NCDOT Worker in Wilson County	The State Highway Patrol arrested the driver suspected of hitting and killing a state highway worker late Friday morning as she was helping clear a downed tree along Alternate U.S. 264 in Wilson County. Jamari Marquis Powell of Bailey was arrested late Friday and charged with felony hit and run, according to the Highway Patrol. Powell, 31, is accused of hitting Anna Gavin Bradshaw as she was holding a sign and standing on the shoulder of the highway west of the City of Wilson just before 11 a.m. The car that hit Bradshaw did not stop, according to the Highway Patrol, and authorities were looking for a Honda Accord. State troopers say they found the car when they arrested Powell. Bradshaw, 60, was part of a crew based in Wilson that was working to remove the tree from alongside the highway, which is also known as Raleigh Road Parkway, according to N.C. Department of Transportation spokesman Jamie Kritzer. She had been with NCDOT for 11 years.

A barrage of gunfire erupted just before 6 p.m. Friday at the Shell station in the 4000 block of Messer Airport Highway. Officer Truman Fitzgerald said the victim was wounded when a group of people opened fire on him. "We have multiple spent shell casings and Shot Spotter registered numerous rounds fired," Fitzgerald said. "I would most definitely say it was an ambush." Police and fire medics arrived at the store to find the teen unresponsive in the doorway. He was taken to UAB Hospital where he was pronounced dead early Saturday from multiple gunshot wounds. The victim just turned 18 in July. Fitzgerald on Friday said bullets entered the store but fortunately no one inside was injured. "The store clerk is shaken up," he said. "We're thankful that he wasn't struck by the gunfire."

The six victims, ranging in age from 12 to 17, were shot during a fight at a private event geared toward teenagers at Club Dreams, 2414 Paula St., according to police. "The incident started out as an altercation inside of the club," said Raleigh Police Lt. Jason Borneo in an interview with The News & Observer Saturday. "The firearm was discharged within the club. The altercation then spilled out into the parking lot where additional gunshots were fired." The first calls into 911 began at 10:54 p.m. Friday. Four of the six children shot were girls and two were boys. All of the victims are recovering and their injuries are not considered life threatening, Borneo said. All six of the victims were still at the hospital early Saturday, he said. There were no off-duty Raleigh Police officers acting as security, Borneo said, adding he wasn't able to confirm if other security was at the club. Police didn't have an estimate of how many teenagers were at the party. There are no reported suspects or arrests at this time, Borneo said. A phone call and email to Club Dreams was not returned Saturday afternoon.

1549	8/13/22		William Thornton	AL.com	AL	Florence		Huntsville Rd	Kidnaping	Forence Kidnapping Suspect Arrested in Walker County After Manhunt	A man wanted for almost a month on kidnapping charges in the Shoals area was arrested Wednesday (9/7) in Walker County, authorities say. Nicholas Boudoin, 26, of Florence, is being held in the Lauderdale County Detention Center on a $75,000 bond. Boudoin's arrest came in connection with an incident in Florence on Aug. 13. Florence police responded to a business in the 3100 block of Huntsville Road. Witnesses reported that a male had assaulted a female and forced his way into the vehicle she was driving. The victim was taken to a location in Franklin County. During the incident, Boudoin was armed with a firearm, authorities said. Investigators said the incident involved a member of Boudoin's family. Three days later, authorities came to North American Lighting on Counts Drive at about 11 a.m., looking to serve an arrest warrant for first degree kidnapping, third degree domestic violence (assault), third degree domestic violence (reckless endangerment) and interference with a domestic violence emergency call. According to police, when officers made contact with Boudoin through a supervisor, he fled on foot. A brief encounter with a Muscle Shoals officer took place, with Boudoin scuffling with the officer, before running back inside the facility. He later escaped, police said. Florence police detectives, with the assistance of the FBI's North Alabama Violent Crimes Taskforce and Walker County Sheriff's Office, executed a search warrant at a residence in Walker County Wednesday, where Boudoin was arrested.
1550	8/13/22	2:30 AM	Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		W Marietta St	Shooting	1 Dead in Triple Shooting Outside NW Atlanta Lounge	One person is dead and two others were injured after a shooting outside a northwest Atlanta lounge, police said. Atlanta police Maj. Carlo Peek told reporters from the scene that the shooting happened outside Odyssey Lounge along West Marietta Street after a fight over a vehicle being blocked in the parking lot. When officers arrived at the scene about 3:20 a.m. Saturday, one man was found shot dead in the parking lot. Another man was found grazed by a bullet to the leg. Just a few minutes later, officers were dispatched to the 1600 block of Howell Mill Road regarding a person shot. "We believe the one on Howell Mill may be connected. That's our other victim that's at Grady with a gunshot wound to the leg," Peek said. "But again, we are still trying to determine that for sure." Officers said they believe the victim went to Howell Mill Road from Odyssey Lounge after the shooting, where he then called for help. Nearly five hours later, the parking lot remains enclosed with crime scene tape.

1571	8/17/22	11:00 AM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	LaGrange		Moore's Hill	Shooting	LaGrange Man Shot by Police After Hitting Wife with Car, Officials Say	A husband and wife in LaGrange were both injured Wednesday after police say the man threatened the woman at knifepoint and hit her with a car before he was shot by officers. Officers were called to a home on Moore's Hill after getting reports of a man with a weapon shortly before 11 a.m. Before they arrived, 911 dispatch told them a man at the scene had forced his wife into a car at knifepoint. The man, identified as 32-year-old Reginald Lamar Saffold, was in the car with his wife when officers arrived, police said. The officers began negotiating with Saffold, who was in the driver's seat, and as they spoke, the woman got out of the car and tried to run away. As she fled, Saffold accelerated the car and hit her, police said. The car dragged the woman as it left the street and continued down an embankment. The three officers at the scene fired multiple shots at the car as they tried to stop it. When the car stopped, police said the officers were able to pull the woman to safety from the bottom of the embankment. They continued to talk with Saffold, who revved the car's engine, and ordered him out of the vehicle. "Receiving no response, officers approached the vehicle and determined that Reginald Saffold had been struck by officers' gunfire," a police spokesperson said in the release. Both Saffold and his wife were treated by emergency medical personnel at the scene and taken to nearby Wellstar West Georgia Medical Center before being transferred to a Columbus hospital. Saffold is facing charges of attempted murder, aggravated assault and kidnapping, with all counts enhanced under the Family Violence Act, once he is released from the hospital, police said.

Police say the city's gunfire detection system – ShotSpotter– registered more than 30 rounds fired, said Lt. Rod Mauldin. Police responded just before 6 p.m. to 40th Street Grocery, also known as Mystik, at 1200 40th Street. The report was of a person down. Mauldin said it wasn't immediately clear if the victim was shot there or just ran there for help. He was transported to the hospital. His injuries aren't believed to be life-threatening, Mauldin said. Detectives believe there were multiple shooters involved.
1574	8/18/22		Jon Shirek	11 Alive	GA		Clayton County		Hit & Run	Witnesses Say They Can Identify Driver Who Struck Girl in Hit-and-Run; Parents Ask 'Why No Arrest?'	The parents of an 8-year-old victim of a hit-and-run collision say witnesses can identify the driver who collided into her, but three weeks later the parents say they can't find out from police if investigators are close to making an arrest. On Aug. 18, their daughter, Noel Dickens, and two of her friends were on their bicycles near their homes in Clayton County, on their way home just before dark, when Noel was struck by the driver of a motor scooter. She was nearly killed. One of Noel's friends who was with her, nine-year-old Dylan Flores, said Tuesday that the scooter was a motorized dirt bike, and they saw it coming toward them just before it collided into Noel. Dylan said the driver of the scooter was a 16-year-old boy they all know from the neighborhood. "He was on his phone texting people and he just ran into her," Dylan said. The impact threw Noel off of her bicycle and onto the asphalt. Then Dylan said the teen picked up Noel and carried her to the side of the street, drove away on his scooter, and never came back. "He said he was going to go get his dad," or Noel's dad, Dylan said. "But he lied. He went home." Three weeks later, Noel's mother, Candy Miller, told 11Alive that even with the witnesses, Clayton County police have still not told her and her family if they've arrested the 16 year old boy. 11Alive is working on finding out from Clayton County police about the status of the investigation, and whether they are about to make any arrests.

1577	8/19/22		Noah Feit	The State	SC			Antelope Dr	Homicide	Midlands Man Charged with Murder After His Roommate Died, Sheriff's Office Says	A Midlands man was charged with murder and another crime after his roommate was killed, the Sumter County Sheriff's Office said Tuesday (8/30). James Edward Barnes, 40, was also charged with possession of a weapon during a violent crime more than a week after Richard Preusser was fatally shot. On Aug. 19, deputies responded to a home on Antelope Drive after a 911 caller said there was an unresponsive man in the residence. The caller said he suspected the man was suffering from a drug overdose. Preusser died at the scene, the sheriff's office said — but not from a drug overdose. During the investigation both deputies and the Sumter County Coroner's Office noticed Preusser had been shot in the upper right side of his chest. There were two other people in the home, who were identified as Preusser's roommates, and one of them gave a name during questioning which was later discovered to be a false identity. That person was quickly identified as Barnes. While Barnes left the scene and tried to evade law enforcement, he was located on Aug. 20. During questioning, Barnes gave several inconsistent stories and quickly became a suspect. A gun believed to be the murder weapon was recovered and, on Tuesday, arrest warrants were issued for Barnes. Barnes is currently in the Sumter County Sheriff's Office Detention Center awaiting a bond hearing, the sheriff's office said.

Police are now trying to figure out who is responsible. The home along Derby Drive in Riverdale went up in flames about 2:40 a.m. When officers arrived on the scene, it was engulfed and had smoke coming out of the windows, an incident report obtained Friday by The Atlanta Journal-Constitution states. Officers were able to find the two residents, one of whom had several injuries to her face, neck and arms, according to the report. That victim, 22-year-old Adreana Swanson, was identified by Channel 2 Action News as a Clayton County teacher. Surveillance footage reveals bright sparks of light and a person running through the middle of the street near the home. A neighbor told officers he was sitting inside his garage when he noticed a man wearing a black T-shirt, white shorts and a mask carrying a grocery bag. He later saw the man running behind his neighbor's home and walking when he got in front of his residence, the incident report states. The man eventually ran out of the neighborhood. Authorities told Channel 2 the suspect was intent on making sure no one survived. "It seems to us it was a targeting situation where there was an accelerant that went through the top window and an accelerant that went through the bottom window," Riverdale police Detective Kamie McKay said. The firebomb that hit the top of the house went into the victim's bedroom, leaving massive damage, the news station reported. The second went in the front window, investigators told Channel 2.

Birmingham police identified the victim as Jamari Smith. West Precinct officers were dispatched at 12:39 a.m. on multiple calls of shots fired at 4421 Ishkooda–Wenonah Road S.W. When they arrived, they found Smith in the front yard suffering from multiple gunshot wounds, said Lt. Rod Mauldin. Birmingham Fire and Rescue Service pronounced Smith dead on the scene. Mauldin said the preliminary investigation indicates Smith was speaking with another male outside prior to being shot. The suspect or suspects fled the scene and remain at large. Smith and his girlfriend were shot on June 13, 2021, while driving in a vehicle near the intersection of Warrior Road and Avenue V. Smith survived that shooting, but 21-year-old Lykeria Briana Taylor died the following day at UAB Hospital. The couple had just left Euphoria Sports Bar and Hookah Lounge, also known as Club Euphoria, where three people had been shot. The club shooting happened at 1:58 a.m. that Sunday. A short time later, at 2:20 a.m., officers found Smith and Taylor wounded on Warrior Road. Police at the time said it appeared a vehicle pulled up alongside them and fired shots into their vehicle after they left the club. No arrests have ever been made in Taylor’s slaying.

The shooting occurred about 12:20 p.m. when a customer inside the store along Tara Boulevard shot himself in the leg after mishandling a gun, police said. The bullet then ricocheted, striking three other people, according to authorities. All injuries were not considered life-threatening. According to police, the armed man, identified as 29-year-old Michael Walton, did not have his gun secured in a holster while it was loaded. Police said Walton will be charged with reckless conduct and booked into the Clayton County Jail. In mid-July, two people were arrested after they allegedly kidnapped an 18-year-old woman at the same Walmart, police said. Witnesses in that incident told Lovejoy officers that they saw a man walk up to a vehicle with a gun, break the car window, drag a woman out and force her into his vehicle at gunpoint. The victim was eventually able to escape near Macon and the kidnapping suspects were located in Albany.

When it ended, he had accidentally shot himself, along with three other customers inside a busy Walmart, all with a single bullet. Police said a man dropped his loaded gun and as he tried to catch it, the gun went off. Now four people are hurt, and a reminder over gun safety is back in the spotlight. Lovejoy Police Department Sgt. Akeem Turnbull said the bizarre incident happened in the deli section just before 12:30 p.m. "He had a loaded firearm that was not in a holster in his waistband that fell," Turnbull said. "He attempted to grab the firearm, and while handling the firearm, discharged it, and struck him in the leg... The bullet ricocheted, and subsequently struck three other patrons that were inside the business," Turnbull said. All three customers struck by the ricocheting bullet are female, according to police. Two are middle-aged, and one is in her 70s. The 29-year-old man now faces reckless conduct charges. The gun owner and one of the women shot were taken to Grady Hospital, and the other two customers ended up being treated at the scene. All were struck in their leg and are expected to be okay.

An official with the U.S. Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives identified the woman and said task force officers with the agency made the arrest, Channel 2 Action News reported. Kengne was taken into custody at Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport at the end of a citywide manhunt that spawned a frenzy of police activity and a shelter-in-place order. The woman is accused of fatally shooting two men and injuring a third at two Midtown locations, Atlanta police said. Michael Shinnars, 60, was found dead and a second victim was injured around 1:45 p.m. at the first shooting scene, the 1280 West condominium building on West Peachtree Street. Shinnars was identified as the property manager and the injured victim was identified as chief building engineer Mike Horne, Channel 2 reported. The two were located in the management office. Thirty minutes later, Wesley Freeman, 41, was injured in the second shooting at an office tower at 1100 Peachtree Street. Freeman later died at Grady Memorial Hospital. Kengne was taken into custody a little more than two hours after the first shots were fired and was booked into the Fulton County Jail on multiple counts of murder, aggravated assault, false imprisonment and weapons charges related to those crimes.

1605	8/22/22	9:00 PM	Matt Bruce	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Athens		Harve Mathis Rd	Hit & Run	Accused Hit-and-Run Driver Arrested Hours After Deadly Athens Crash	It took Athens-Clarke County police a few hours to arrest a suspect accused of fleeing a fatal hit-and-run collision involving a pickup truck and SUV Monday night. Antonio Reyes-Velazquez, 36, of Madison County, was taken into custody early Tuesday on charges of first-degree vehicular homicide and felony hit and run resulting in death. One man was killed in the wreck, which happened around 9 p.m. at the intersection of Harve Mathis Road and U.S. 29 in northeast Athens. Investigators said a Ford F-150 heading north slammed into a westbound Ford Expedition as the SUV attempted to cross the highway. The SUV's driver, a 52-year-old man whose name was not released, died from injuries sustained in the crash. By the time officers arrived, the pickup truck had been abandoned. Investigators worked to identify Reyes as the driver of that vehicle. It was unclear why he fled the scene. The Hull man remained in custody at the Clarke County jail late Tuesday without bond, according to online booking records.

No bond has been set for Devon Ray Shealy, who is being held in the Lexington County Detention Center after he was arrested Wednesday. Shealy was charged with first-degree assault, four counts of failure to stop for blue lights, four counts of reckless driving and one count of larceny. "Deputies saw Shealy speeding and driving into oncoming lanes Wednesday afternoon, which led to an attempted traffic stop on Goose Platter Road (in Batesburg)," Lexington County Sheriff Jay Koon said in the release. "Shealy was suspected in the theft of the truck he was driving after it was reported stolen out of Lexington County earlier this week." The first pursuit started when Shealy failed to pull over, and continued when he crashed into a patrol vehicle, Koon said. Deputies eventually ended the pursuit. "Later during the shift, deputies again saw Shealy driving recklessly and attempted another traffic stop," Koon said. "Shealy initiated a second pursuit and eventually bailed out of the truck as it was moving and ran away." Deputies arrested Shealy after a short chase on foot.

Leads to Police Standoff	A shooting in Marengo County that left one person dead — and another person hurt — lead to stand-off between law enforcement — and the suspected shooter. The suspect is now in custody — charged with discharging a firearm in an occupied building. “We got a call for a shooting incident in the Flatwood community, where a shooter was supposed to been had shot two people,” said MCSO Chief Deputy Kenny Collier. State and local law enforcement officers from the surrounding area — responded to the call — including a SWAT team — and an armored vehicle unit. Mary and Iesha Shaw live nearby. And they got scared when they saw all the law enforcement vehicles rushing to the scene. “What’s going on? Why they had to bring an armored truck in here. But I know if … killed somebody, you got to have them sharp shooters. You don’t know what all he had in that room,” said Mary Shaw. “We knew he was armed,” said Collier. The suspect — now identified as 30 year old Jeron Boykin — then barricaded himself inside the house for several hours. Authorities used tear gas — to force him to come out. “We got him out peacefully. Took him into custody yesterday evening,” said Collier. The ALEA State Bureau of Investigation is now leading the investigation into the shooting.
1615	8/24/22		Jason Braverman	11 Alive	GA	Peachtree City		Hwy 54	Arson	Police Arrest 14-Year-Old Girl After Massive Fire Inside Metro Atlanta Walmart	A 14-year-old girl is under arrest (8/31) after a massive fire inside a Peachtree City Walmart, police said one week after the blaze that sent shoppers scrambling for the exits. She is charged with first degree arson. Firefighters responded to the fire off Highway 54 on Aug. 24 where they spent several hours putting out the fire that tore through the roof. Investigators said that the fire was intentionally ignited in the paper goods aisle. Peachtree City Police said they used a search warrant at the teen’s home and that’s when the girl admitted to starting the fire. The teenager was taken into custody and charged in the case, police said in a statement. So far, authorities said there’s “no evidence of a specific motive or participation in an organized activity.” Three police officers took themselves to a nearby hospital for smoke inhalation after making sure everyone was evacuated inside of the building, officials said. Peachtree City officials have no information on an expected reopening date for the Walmart as of now, according to a statement from police.

1621	8/25/22	2:00 PM	Aaron Sánchez-Guerra	The News & Observer	NC	Raleigh		New Bern Ave	Shooting	Pregnant Woman Shot in Car on New Bern Ave. in Raleigh. Suspect Arrested.	A pregnant woman was shot while riding in a car on New Bern Avenue in Raleigh Thursday afternoon, Raleigh police confirmed. Police responded to a report of the shooting in the 1000 block of New Bern Avenue, near Raleigh Boulevard, just before 2 p.m. Late Thursday, police identified the wounded woman as 25-year-old Maya Sherrod and said she had been shot in the head. Sherrod was taken to the hospital, but there was no update on her condition Thursday night. Police said Sherrod was in the back seat of the car when she was wounded. Earlier reports said she was the driver. Also in the car were Tyshawn Debnam, 25, and Darrell Debnam, 38, who were uninjured. As police were on their way to the scene, officers noticed a white Dodge Charger speeding away from the area, eastbound on New Bern Avenue. They notified the Garner Police Department, which located the car on Forest Drive. The driver of the car, Tyler Mack Kirby, 26, was arrested and charged with shooting into an occupied vehicle, felony speed to elude, assault with a deadly weapon, and possession of a firearm by a felon. He is being held in the Wake County Detention Center. The shooting appears to have blown the back windshield out of the victim's car. A passenger, who identified himself as the victim's boyfriend, told ABC 11 that Sherrod was driving when she was shot and said she is early in her pregnancy.

Preston Lamar Nelson, 33, of Madison, is accused of intentionally backing his vehicle over Sherry Sain, 64, who was walking in the parking lot of Walmart Neighborhood Market at 1203 Sixth Ave. S.E. about 8:45 p.m. Aug. 25. Nelson is in the Morgan County Jail in lieu of $500,000 cash bond. Patrick Caver, Nelson's appointed attorney, filed a motion Monday (9/12) requesting a court-ordered mental examination of his indigent client. "The defendant has a history of mental health issues since his early teenage years," According to a witness, Nelson had his Mercury Grand Prix in a handicapped spot outside the store and, as Sain walked toward her car, he accelerated his vehicle in reverse, pinning her against another vehicle. A witness said Nelson returned to Sain's body. "He got out of the car and came running back up here, kneels down beside (Sain) and takes his hands and rakes her blood all over his face," Amy Brown said on the night of the incident. "It was unreal, the look in his eyes. His eyes were so huge." Nelson's car stalled heading north at the store's Eighth Street exit across from a nearby pharmacy. Police said it "was stopped by a civilian at which point his vehicle became inoperable." Morgan County Coroner Jeff Chunn arrived at the scene and pronounced Sain dead at 9:21 p.m. Aug. 25.

The shooting remains under investigation at the Prominence Apartments at the corner of Lenox and Piedmont roads. According to Atlanta police, one of the people detained also sustained a gunshot wound in what investigators believe was a drug-related robbery gone wrong. Officers were called to the building to investigate gunfire around 2 a.m. As they arrived, they received additional 911 calls reporting a person was shot, Atlanta police homicide commander Lt. Germain Dearlove said. The officers canvassed the building and saw two people in the back of the parking deck, including a man in his 20s with a gunshot wound. They were both detained before officers went inside and found the victim, another man in his 20s, dead inside his apartment, Dearlove said. "The preliminary investigation shows that this is going to be a robbery with a nexus to narcotics involvement," he said. The injured man is considered a suspect in the robbery and deadly shooting. He was stable before heading into surgery at Grady Memorial Hospital on Friday morning. The other person detained, a woman in her early 20s, is considered a person of interest and was being interviewed at police headquarters.

DeKalb County police responded to the neighborhood off Young Road shortly after noon and found the woman's black pickup truck parked on Dunbarton Drive. The victim, who appeared to be in her 30s, was unable to tell officers what happened, according to a police spokesperson. Dominique Sanderson, who lives nearby, told Channel 2 Action News officers came knocking on his door looking for the gunman, who was believed to have jumped inside a vehicle seen parked in Sanderson's driveway. "We didn't know who they were, and by the time we found out, the cops said themselves they were pulling out (of the driveway)," Sanderson said. "Somebody was running through our backyard with a backpack." He said investigators were looking for a gold Honda Accord or CR-V. DeKalb police have not released any further details about the shooting, including a possible motive. It was not clear if any suspects had been identified or arrested Monday.

1635	8/27/22	10:15 PM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Jackson St	Shooting	BREAKING: 1 Arrested, 1 at Large in Shooting That Killed 7-Year-Old Girl	Atlanta police have identified two suspects in a shooting Saturday during an argument at a family gathering that killed a 7-year-old girl. Investigators obtained warrants for the arrests of 23-year-old Deshon Collins and 44-year-old Kemeka Springfield less than 24 hours after the fatal shooting at the Camden Vantage Apartments. Springfield is already in custody, police said Monday, and is facing charges of aggravated assault and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony. Collins is still at large. He faces charges of murder, cruelty towards children, aggravated assault and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony. On Saturday, officers were called to an apartment in the Jackson Street complex around 10:15 p.m., Atlanta police Deputy Chief Charles Hampton Jr. told reporters from the scene. When they got there, they found the child with a gunshot wound to the head. She did not survive. The deputy chief said it appeared a domestic dispute during the gathering escalated into an exchange of gunfire. He could not say whether investigators believe the girl was the intended target, but the child's father believes she was hit by a stray bullet. Her father identified the girl as Ava Phillips. Jonathan Phillips told the news station Ava and her brother were visiting their mother at Camden Vantage when there was some type of disagreement, and "one thing led to another." It was the worst phone call he's ever received, he said, learning his youngest child was gone.

The woman is in critical but stable condition at a hospital in Columbia. Kameron Wolfe was arrested Wednesday, when he was charged with two counts of attempted murder, discharging a firearm at or into a dwelling and possession of a weapon during a violent crime, Sumter County court records show. On Tuesday night, the Wedgefield resident was at a relative's home on South Saint Pauls Church Road firing rounds from his personal rifle in the rear of the property, according to the release. The woman, who lives in the neighborhood, went to the home and told Wolfe he was shooting directly toward her home and that he needed to stop shooting. The woman then went home and after getting out of her vehicle, more shots were fired, and she was struck causing "a significant life-threatening injury." Deputies who responded to reports of a shooting found the woman in her yard "with a severe gunshot wound to her lower back," the sheriff's office said. She was taken to a nearby hospital where she was stabilized before being transferred to the hospital in Columbia. The sheriff's office said a witness was with the woman and told deputies several shots were fired from Wolfe's direction after the victim arrived at her home. During a search, the gun was recovered and Wolfe was taken into custody at the scene, according to the release.

Jeremiah Long is charged with murder in the predawn killing of his grandfather, 71-year-old Thomas Parker. Sheriff Bill Franklin said the deadly shooting happened just before 3 a.m. Thursday in the 1400 block of Ingram Road in the Elmore community. Long, who Franklin said struggles with drug addiction, had recently come from Georgia and was staying with his grandparents. At some point overnight, the sheriff said, Long went into his grandparents' bedroom and took their cell phones. The grandmother, however, still had another one hidden somewhere in the house. A short time later, while the grandparents were asleep, he woke them up and asked Parker for the keys to his van. The grandfather refused, and an argument ensued. Long, Franklin said, then fired one round from a handgun into his grandfather's chest. "They don't have their cell phones and they're not able to call and get aid rendered to them quickly," the sheriff said. "The grandmother a while later was able to get to an area where she was able to make a phone call to her daughter." "She took that phone she had scurried away unbeknownst to the grandson, and she was able to make a phone call," he said. "That phone call is what precipitated the call to 911." Long remained on the scene after the shooting. He's being held in the Elmore County Jail.

1665	8/31/22	6:15 PM	Howard Koplowitz	AL.com	AL		Shelby County	Alexander Rd	Shooting	16-Year-Old Shot to Death in Shelby County; Suspects at Large	A shooting death is under investigation tonight in Shelby County. According to the sheriff's office, deputies were called to a report of shooting with injuries in the 400 Block of Alexander Road in the Leeds area. The incident happened at approximately 6:15 p.m. A 16-year-old male was found dead at the scene, and the sheriff's office is investigating the incident as a homicide. The victim's name was not released as all family members might not yet have been notified. "We do not believe this was a random act of violence," Major Clay Hammac told reporters. There were possibly "multiple offenders" responsible for the homicide, Hammac said. No arrests have yet been made. "There is currently a large law enforcement presence in the area as deputies and investigators continue to investigate and develop additional information," a statement read. This is a developing story and will be updated.
1666	8/31/22	7:00 PM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Birmingham		66th St S	Shooting	1 Shot to Death in Birmingham's Gate City; 2nd Shootout Erupts as Police Investigate	An argument in Birmingham's Gate City neighborhood turned deadly Wednesday night. The gunfire erupted about 7 p.m. in the 500 block of 66th Street South. The city's gunfire detection system – Shot Spotter – recorded more than 20 shots fired. While officers and detectives were on the scene, another shootout took place less than a block away. No one was reported to have been injured by those shots. Officer Truman Fitzgerald said when officers responded to the initial shooting, they received information while en route that a person had been wounded. They arrived to find the victim – an adult male – unresponsive in the middle of the road in the 7700 block of 67th Court Way South, which is an alley. He was taken to UAB Hospital where he was pronounced dead a short time later. Officers were quickly able to identify the location of a possible suspect, who was still in the complex. They surrounded an apartment in the 6700 block of Kimberly Way and took another man into custody. "He was taken into custody as he was getting ready to enter a vehicle and possibly flee the scene," Fitzgerald said. The suspect is currently undergoing questioning.

1671	9/1/22		T. Keung Hui	The News & Observer	NC	Knightdale			Robbery	Police Say A Student Was Robbed at Gunpoint at Knightdale High. Parents Weren't Told	Knightdale High School did not notify families that a student was arrested earlier this month on charges of bringing a gun to campus to rob another student. Arrest records show that Cameron McCario Miles, 18, of Knightdale, was charged Sept. 2 with robbery with a dangerous weapon and having a gun on educational property. Knightdale Police say the arrest stems from a robbery that occurred on Sept. 1 near Knightdale High's football stadium. Knightdale Police Chief Lawrence Capps said that the victim and suspect, both identified as students, had spoken online about the sale of a pair of sneakers. They agreed to make the exchange on the morning of Sept. 1 near the roundabout by the stadium. "Instead of producing money for the purchase, the suspect opened a bookbag and revealed the grip of a pistol," Capps said in an email. "The suspect fled the scene after taking the shoes." Capps said the suspect also stole the victim's iPhone and used the victim's cash app to send money to unknown recipients. The victim didn't immediately notify school officials or the police about the incident, according to Capps. Instead, the victim reported the crime to his father who later contacted authorities. The case was investigated by the school resource officer. Miles was arrested and charged the following day.

1681	9/2/22		Alexis Stevens	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Clayton County	Old Dixie Rd	Shooting	Police: Man in Crash Takes Off Clothes, Runs Before Being Shot by Officer	A man was shot after swinging a ratchet strap at a police officer Friday morning, according to Clayton County police. The string of events began as a car crash with injuries, a police spokeswoman said. Officers were called to the 4200 block of Old Dixie Road near Forest Park when the wreck was reported. "Prior to officers' arrival, a witness advised a male involved in the accident exited the vehicle, took off his clothes, and ran into the woods," Julia Isaac, a police spokeswoman, said in an emailed statement. Officers searched the area and located the man at a construction site located near C.W. Grant Parkway and Old Dixie Road, Isaac said. The man, who was not identified, was attempting to enter a vehicle using the metal part of the ratchet strap, according to police. Multiple officers commanded the man to drop the strap, according to police. Instead, the man began to twirl it in an attempt to use it as a weapon. Officers attempted to taser the man twice, but the tasers were not effective, police said. When the man strung the strap at an officer, the officer shot the man in the leg, Isaac said. The man was taken to a local hospital for treatment. His injuries were not believed to be life-threatening, police said. The GBI was requested to assist with the investigation.

1683	9/2/22	1:00 AM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	South Fulton		Roosevelt Hwy	Assault	Cops: Wrong-Way Driver Fleeing Cobb Officers Crashes, Kills Man Near South Fulton	A crash involving a wrong-way driver who was fleeing from Cobb County police just outside South Fulton left a man dead during the holiday weekend. According to the Georgia State Patrol, a man in a 2014 Dodge Durango was traveling west in the eastbound lanes on Roosevelt Highway approaching Delano Road just before 1 a.m. Friday. At the same time, 41-year-old Jonathon Denham was in a 2015 Honda Pilot and was approaching the intersection to turn east onto Roosevelt Highway. The vehicles crashed and spun out before coming to a rest on the shoulder of the highway. The pursuit of the Durango began after the driver nearly struck a Cobb officer who was on foot along I-285 after ending an earlier pursuit with an allegedly armed suspect. That pursuit began in Cobb and ended in Fulton County, just south of I-20, after officers conducted a PIT maneuver. Officers initiated a pursuit of the Durango after the close call with one of the officers, but they lost sight of the vehicle shortly after it exited I-285 at Camp Creek Parkway, police said. The Durango, driven by 28-year-old Jordan Collins, continued onto Roosevelt Highway, where it collided with Denham's vehicle, according to police. Denham died at the scene and Collins was taken to Grady Memorial Hospital. Collins is charged with aggravated assault against a law enforcement officer and fleeing attempting to elude. He also has outstanding warrants in Pennsylvania for weapons and drug offenses, as well as in Chicago for burglary. Additional charges are pending related to the fatal traffic crash.

Birmingham police on Saturday night identified the victim as Demarkus Etwan Moss. He was 22. Moss, a father of four, had his infant son and toddler daughter with him and they were driving on the city's westside Friday evening. Investigators say someone from another vehicle opened fire into his vehicle. The gunfire happened in the 800 block of Arkadelphia Road, just in front of Birmingham-Southern College. Moss was shot multiple times, but continued to drive, making it almost to Interstate 59/20 before he collided with another vehicle in the 1000 block of Arkadelphia Road. Officers from Birmingham's North and West precincts were dispatched to the wreck scene at 5:50 p.m. They arrived to find Moss slumped over and unresponsive and rushed him to UAB Hospital where he was pronounced dead. Moss' toddler daughter was also unresponsive and taken to Children's of Alabama where her family said she continues the fight to recover. Officers said she suffered injuries in the crash. There were early reports from the scene that she was also shot, but as of Saturday those reports were still not confirmed, police said. Moss' son was also injured in the wreck but is expected to be OK. Several occupants of the other vehicle were also hurt. Those injuries were not believed to be life-threatening. No arrests have been announced.

Kaine Chastain of Jasper was taken to Children's Healthcare of Atlanta at Egleston Hospital with a broken leg that required surgery, according to a GoFundMe page set up to help cover his medical expenses. He remains in the hospital after his "tibia and fibula were broken clean through," the fundraising page said. A crash report obtained by The AJC said Kaine ran ahead of his family as they crossed Northside Drive and did not have the right-of-way. The black sedan was going through a yellow light, but a group of pedestrians had already started to cross Northside Drive near the stadium, according to the report. Kaine's father, Jonathan Chastain, said he witnessed the incident as he walked behind with his 7-year-old daughter. Officers were called to the intersection of Northside Drive and Thurmond Street just after 11:20 p.m. Police found Kaine "screaming in pain" with "an obvious broken lower right leg," according to the report. Cameras in the area captured the incident. The report said the footage showed the sedan slow for a moment before fleeing the scene. Kaine's right leg was initially put in a cast, but doctors decided to remove it and perform surgery instead, the GoFundMe page said. His recovery is expected to take months.

Richland County Sheriff's Department said in a news release that it has charged Philip Coker, 34, with homicide by child abuse and charged Cassandra Clautu, 27, with unlawful conduct toward a child. Both were being held at Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center as of Thursday (9/22) morning, per jail records. The sheriff's department said Clautu was the mother of the child and that Coker was her boyfriend. Deputies responded to a local hospital on Sept. 6 after learning a 4-month-old baby had been taken to the hospital and was unresponsive. The sheriff's department said deputies saw bruises on the baby's arms, back, legs and ears. The child died on Sept. 8, the department said in the release. An autopsy reportedly showed the baby had "an acute rib fracture, severe brain and eye hemorrhaging and multiple bruises about the body," according to the sheriff's department. The department said Clautu told deputies Coker had been watching the infant. Coker alleged that he woke up and found the baby unresponsive and called EMS, deputies said. "During the investigation, it was discovered that the baby also sustained injuries during an incident days prior," the sheriff's department release said. "Clautu did not seek medical treatment for the baby at that time."

Now, two men are charged with kidnapping him. The Coweta County Sheriff's Office confirmed the incident Wednesday, saying deputies responded to a Wells Fargo on Amlajack Boulevard and quickly stopped the suspects a block away. Their arrests were caught on body camera footage that was released to The Atlanta Journal-Constitution on Wednesday. Deputies spoke with the kidnapping victim, who said two men — Gabriel Lawrence, 33, and Terrence McPherson, 38 — picked him up in Atlanta after asking him if he wanted to make a couple of hundred dollars, sheriff's office spokesperson Toby Nix said. The men drove around Atlanta for an extended time, and the victim tried to get out of the vehicle twice while it was stopped at traffic lights. But he was unable to exit due to the child safety locks being engaged in the back seat. They eventually ended up at a gas station in Newnan, Nix said. While there, Lawrence went into the convenience store and came out with a check for $1,467 and handed it to the victim, who was told to walk inside the bank, cash the check, walk back out and give a signal indicating he had the cash. Instead, the victim went inside, wrote his plea for help on a note and handed it to the teller. Both Lawrence and McPherson were arrested and charged with false imprisonment, kidnapping, fourth-degree forgery and possession of a firearm during the commission of a crime. McPherson is additionally charged with theft by receiving stolen property and possession of a firearm by a convicted felon.

The ordeal began just before 2 p.m. when police received information that a man was breaking into a home. Officers flooded the area, said Chief Corky Knight, and spotted a vehicle matching the suspect's pulling into another driveway at a home on 12th Street. The suspect, Knight said, had items in his arms and ran inside. Those items are believed to be three to four guns stolen in the afternoon burglary. Police set up a perimeter and asked the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office SWAT team for assistance. Knight, however, said he was told the sheriff called off his SWAT team, which the sheriff's office refuted. The Vestavia Hills Police Department's tactical officers assisted instead. The county's Star 1 helicopter remained at the scene. Negotiators spent several hours trying to coax out the suspect. At 6:18 p.m., he walked out of his front door with his arms up and was taken into custody without further incident. Knight said the suspect, whose name hasn't been released, has an extensive criminal history for theft and burglary, and is on parole from the state prison system.

The child is 4-years-old and shot in the back. The victim was taken to Children's of Alabama hospital. Police said the injuries appear to be non-life-threatening. Sgt. Monica Law said the gunfire erupted about 8:30 p.m. in the Tom Brown Village public housing community on the side of Messer—Airport Highway. An adult woman who is a family member of the victim told police she and the child were sitting in the vehicle. "The adult family member heard the shots ring out and then the child advised that she had been struck," Law said. The car quickly got away, circled the block and stopped in the parking lot of Avondale Grocery & Deli. That's where police and fire medics responded to help them. Law said Shot Spotter picked up multiple shots fired. The exact number wasn't immediately known. It was not clear if the vehicle the child was in was targeted or was struck in a crossfire. Police on the scene were examining the car she was in at the time of the shooting.

1729	9/8/22	8:30 PM	Howard Koplowitz	AL.com	AL	Tuscaloosa		14th St	Robbery	Tuscaloosa Robbery Suspect Who Held Up Family Dollar with Drill May Have Hit Same Store 5 Times: Police	A man captured Thursday night and suspected of robbing a Family Dollar store in Tuscaloosa by hiding a drill under his clothing and pretending the tool was a gun may have held up the same store up to five times using the same method, police said Friday. Irish Tyshawn Hunter, 31, is facing two counts of first-degree robbery in the Thursday night holdup of the Family Dollar at 524 14th St. in Tuscaloosa and another robbery at the business on Jan. 14, police said. Investigators are looking into whether Hunter was responsible for three other robberies at the store dating back to May 2021. Tuscaloosa police received a call of a robbery in progress around 8:30 p.m. Thursday at the Family Dollar. The masked suspect entered the store near clothing time. He indicated he had a gun under his clothes and demanded money. When an employee noticed that the “gun” turned out to be a drill, they confronted the suspect as the employee left the store. A brief struggle then ensued between the suspect and employee when the suspect dropped the drill and some cash before running from the shopping center where the Family Dollar is located, police said. A Tuscaloosa police investigator who worked the previous robbery cases at the store identified Hunter as a possible suspect. Officers went to Hunter’s home and found some of the cash taken in the robbery and charged him with Thursday’s incident and the Jan. 14 holdup, police said. He is being held in the Tuscaloosa County Jail; no bond has been set in the cases.

1733	9/8/22	7:45 PM	Jessica Schladebeck	AL.com	GA		Cobb County		Shooting	2 Cobb County, Georgia Deputies 'Ambushed,' Killed; 2 Arrested	A pair of deputies were “ambushed” and killed as they attempted to serve a warrant at a home in Georgia, police said. The Cobb County deputies arrived at the door of a Marietta-area residence on Thursday just after 7:45 p.m., Sheriff Craig D. Owens said in a press conference. The officers were there to present a warrant for failure to appear for theft by deception. The deputies knocked on the door and rang the doorbell several times, but they did not get a response. Owens said that just as they were getting inside their cruiser to leave, another vehicle pulled up to the home, which the deputies assumed belonged to the suspect. The minute they moved away from their own vehicle, gunfire erupted. “What I can tell you in this moment is this — in plain terms, it’s very simple,” Owens said late Thursday. “My two deputies were ambushed this evening and killed.” It’s not clear whether the deputies returned fire, but Owens said they did manage to radio in the violence. The names of the officers, who have both served for at least five years, won’t be released until families are notified. “It is a night of heartache for two families from the Cobb sheriff’s office, two wives who have lost their amazing husbands,” the sheriff said. “These two deputies served Cobb County with dignity and honor.” Two suspects were also arrested in connection with the incident. One of them barricaded themselves in wake of the shooting, but ultimately surrendered peacefully after several hours of negotiation, the sheriff’s office said in a tweet. The suspects have not been identified.

1743	9/10/22	11:30 AM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Loganville		Frank Boyd Rd	Homicide	Loganville Man Charged with Killing 61-Year-Old Mother at Forsyth County Home	A Loganville man has been arrested on a murder charge after his mother was found dead in her Forsyth County home Saturday morning and the ensuing investigation found signs of foul play, officials said. Christopher Pino, 39, was taken into custody Tuesday after being identified as the suspect in his mother's death, the Forsyth sheriff's office said in a news release. Pino was located in Gainesville and booked into the Forsyth County Jail, where he is being held without bond. He is also wanted out of Virginia on a theft charge, the sheriff's office said. The investigation began with a medical call to a home on Frank Boyd Road around 11:30 a.m. Saturday, according to the sheriff's office. A man at the home could not wake up 61-year-old Tresa Slate and called 911. Responding deputies determined Slate was not just unresponsive. She was eventually pronounced dead, and detectives suspected foul play was involved, the sheriff's office said. A joint investigation between detectives and the medical examiner's office found that Slate's manner of death was homicide, officials said, though no cause has been publicly released. In the course of the investigation, detectives determined Pino was the suspect, the sheriff's office said. He is charged with murder under Georgia's Family Violence Act, online jail records show.

1749	9/11/22	6:15 PM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Newton County	Pebble Ln	Shooting	Cops: Newton Man Kills Child's Mother, Her Boyfriend During Custody Exchange	A man allegedly shot and killed his child's mother and her boyfriend during a custody exchange in Newton County on Sunday evening, according to authorities. Around 6:15 p.m., deputies were called to a home along Pebble Lane in a neighborhood just a few miles outside Covington, the sheriff's office said. There, they found a man and a woman with gunshot wounds. Investigators believe the man and his girlfriend were sitting in their car outside the house with the woman's 15-year-old daughter for a custody exchange, but the girl didn't want to go inside the house with her father. That's when the father, Marquez Smith, walked into the house, grabbed a handgun, came back out and shot the woman and her boyfriend, a news release states. The couple then either attempted to drive away or the vehicle rolled down the street, according to authorities, and the car hit a mailbox and trash cans about three houses down. Both victims were pronounced dead at the scene. The teenager was physically unhurt, the sheriff's office said. She is with family members. Smith left the scene but later arranged to turn himself in to the sheriff's office shortly after midnight. He is being held at the Newton County jail and has been charged with murder, aggravated assault, second-degree cruelty to children, possession of a firearm during the commission of a crime and a parole violation. Police did not release any other details about the case.

The deputy shot at the man three times at the conclusion of a chase that ended in a CVS parking lot, Tolson said in a video on Facebook live, and statement at an impromptu news conference near the scene. The shooting happened in the parking lot at the corner of Cherry Road and Charlotte Avenue in Rock Hill, near the Winthrop University campus. The man has been hospitalized. In the video posted by the sheriff's office, Tolson said the man was armed with a vehicle and rammed the deputy's cruiser while the deputy was standing outside the open door of the vehicle. The deputy was standing in the nexus of the door and the body of the police cruiser. Deputies received a call Tuesday afternoon about a stolen vehicle in the Baxter Village area near Fort Mill. Deputies tried to stop the vehicle. When it did not stop, deputies chased the vehicle south on U.S. 21, then further south on Cherry Road. The vehicle rammed another deputy cruiser during the pursuit, Tolson said. Tolson said his office notified the State Law Enforcement Division to investigate the shooting as an independent agency.

1757	9/13/22	1:45 AM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Andrew Young International Blvd	Stabbing	Police: Victims Stabbed, Shot at Separate Atlanta Waffle Houses within 4 Hours	One man was stabbed and another shot in separate incidents at two Waffle Houses six miles apart Tuesday morning, according to Atlanta police. Officers got the first call about a stabbing at a Waffle House on Andrew Young International Boulevard around 1:45 a.m., according to a news release. There, they found a man with a laceration to his neck. He was alert when he was taken to a hospital. Investigators believe the attack stemmed from a dispute between the victim and a suspect identified as Theodore Maultsby. Maultsby was found nearby. He also had sustained a laceration during the dispute, according to authorities. Once officers determined Maultsby was the primary aggressor, he was arrested and charged with aggravated assault. Just over three hours later, around 5 a.m., police were called about a person being shot at the Waffle House on Piedmont Road. When they got there, they found one man who had been injured in the shooting. He was alert and taken to a hospital. In that case, investigators believe the victim was sitting inside the restaurant when a group of men went inside and confronted him. Police did not disclose what the confrontation was about, but when the victim exited the building, the suspects followed him and began shooting in his direction.

Tuscaloosa County sheriff's deputies responded to a call of a domestic disturbance in the Taylor Wood area of Tuscaloosa around 4:30 a.m. Tuesday. said Capt. Jack Kennedy of the sheriff's office's Violent Crimes Unit. Authorities determined the Hale County sheriff's deputy, identified as 36-year-old Joseph Allen Nail, was involved in a physical altercation with the victim, said Kennedy. Because Nail is a law enforcement officer and because the allegations against him were serious, the Violent Crimes Unit was asked to head the investigation, Kennedy said. Following the investigation, Nail was charged with one count of domestic violence-strangulation and taken to the Tuscaloosa County Jail on $15,000 bond. A 24-hour hold was placed on the sheriff's deputy in accordance with Alabama law, Kennedy said.

Troopers say the incident happened just before 8:30 a.m. Tuesday. A trooper with the Highway Patrol Division pulled over the driver, 32-year-old Joseph Wise, near the intersection of Alabama 143 and Alabama 14 in Elmore County. ALEA says Wise assaulted the trooper then fled on foot. Just before 11 a.m., Wise was taken into custody without incident and booked into the Elmore County Jail. Wise has been charged with Resisting Arrest, Third Degree Assault, Escape and Criminal Mischief. In addition, Wise was issued citations for Window Tint and Driving with a Revoked License. ALEA says no officers were injured during the accident. Several units from various divisions within ALEA responded to assist in the search including ALEA's Aviation Unit, Special Agents and SWAT Team Members within the Agency's State Bureau of Investigation (SBI), and additional Troopers within ALEA's Highway Patrol Division, along with deputies from the Elmore County Sheriff's Office and the Alabama Department of Corrections (ADOC) K-9 Team.

Officers were called to the city park on Woodstock Road around 9:30 p.m. Tuesday after a man was found suffering from injuries to his head on one of the trails, Roswell police said on social media. Based on the initial investigation, police believe the man's injuries were the result of an assault. Authorities did not provide further details about the nature of the man's injuries but said they were severe enough that he has not been able to tell them what happened. The man's identity has not been shared, but police said he is 40 years old and was wearing red shoes, gray sweatpants and a blue hoodie when he was found. Investigators are asking anyone who may have seen the man Tuesday night or could have any information about this incident to contact the Roswell Police Department.

1763	9/14/22	4:00 PM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA			Forsyth St	Shooting	Man Dies After Shooting Near Downtown Atlanta	A man injured in a shooting Wednesday afternoon near downtown Atlanta later died from his wounds, police said. Officers were called to 159 Forsyth Street just before 4 p.m. for reports of a person shot, Atlanta police said in a news release. At the scene, they found a man with a gunshot wound. He was taken to the hospital but later died. Few details were released about the incident, including any information about the man's identity or the circumstances around the shooting. Homicide detectives were dispatched to the scene and the investigation remains active, police said. The fatal shooting comes exactly a week after a man was shot while attempting to steal a backpack that contained illegal drugs at the Greyhound bus station just down the street, according to information previously released by police. That incident resulted in the arrests of both the robbery suspect and victim, police said. The robbery suspect allegedly grabbed the backpack from one man but was shot soon after by a third man, police said. The robbery suspect was taken to the hospital and the owner of the backpack was arrested on multiple charges. The third man, who police said shot the robbery suspect, has not been identified.

Officers were called to a home in the 1800 block of Sandtown Road just after 8:15 p.m. after getting reports of a domestic violence incident there, the GBI said in a news release. When they arrived, police went inside the home and met with the 911 caller. According to the GBI, the caller said they had been involved in a dispute with Anton Washington, who also lived at the home. After meeting the caller inside, officers came face-to-face with Washington, who was armed with a knife, the state agency said. Washington initially followed the officers' commands and placed his knife on the floor, the GBI said, but he then grabbed it again and lunged at one of them. As he did, two officers opened fire and the 22-year-old was hit. Washington was taken to Wellstar Kennestone Hospital, where he later died, the GBI said. No officers were injured during the incident, and no additional details were provided about the circumstances around the domestic dispute. Cobb police asked the GBI to conduct an independent investigation.

The crash happened at just after 7 a.m. on Stonecreek Drive in the Old Cahaba neighborhood, according to Helena police. David Hart said his daughter is a high school graduate who now attends Falcon Flight at the University of Montevallo. The program is designed to teach functional life skills and entry-level work skills to special education students and to support their growth into adulthood. She takes the bus from Helena to the University of Montevallo. Helena police Chief Brad Flynn said officers and fire medics transported the student to hospital. She is still undergoing examination at UAB Hospital. "She has a broken collarbone and they're checking for internal injuries," Hart said. "She's scraped up really bad, so I guess she got dragged a little bit." The driver was not on the scene when first responders arrived. Flynn said they were able to make contact with him a short time later and take him into custody. Jeremy Shaw, 38, of Helena, is charged with leaving the scene of an accident with injuries. Shaw told police he stopped, and the victim told him she was OK, so he left. "You have a lawful obligation to notify law enforcement when you're in an accident like that," Flynn said. "It's just a stupid mistake and he's going to have to face the consequences."

Bruce Miller was arrested Wednesday (9/28), nearly two weeks after he called 911 and said his wife Judith had stabbed herself, according to a Roswell police news release. He is charged with murder, felony murder and possession of a knife during the commission of a crime. He called 911 shortly before 4 p.m. on Sept. 15 and said he found his wife dead inside their home in the 900 block of Oakhaven Drive, police spokesman Officer Tim Lupo said. Miller provided a statement saying Judith Miller's stab wounds were self-inflicted. However, based on the evidence found at the scene and the autopsy report, the Fulton County medical examiner ruled her death a homicide. Lupo told The Atlanta Journal-Constitution: "There were notable inconsistencies in the testimony provided by Bruce Miller that did not match up with further investigative findings." Roswell detectives then arrested Bruce Miller, just one day after his wife was buried Tuesday. Miller was booked into the Fulton County Jail after receiving medical clearance Wednesday evening.

Manager Laura McKelvey said she and two other employees had to go to the shelter in the middle of the night after being alerted by their security cameras about a dog abandoned in their parking lot. As they tried to trap the dog, they saw a suspicious person and heard breaking glass. They called 911, but when DeKalb County police showed up around 2:30 a.m., the burglary suspect had already left with three dogs. The thief had taken a toy Yorkshire Terrier named Princeton and two mixed-breed puppies, Emilia and Violet. McKelvey said she thought the dogs were targeted for their potential monetary value. A fourth dog, a senior poodle mix named Lincoln, was dropped by the thief on the way out. McKelvey said police responded quickly after they called 911. A DeKalb police spokeswoman confirmed that the incident was under investigation.

1784	9/17/22	10:00 PM	Breaking News Staff	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Acworth		Cowan Rd	Carjacking	Man Accused of Hiding in Backseat During Carjacking Outside Acworth Eatery	In a span of a few minutes, two people called Acworth police with nearly similar stories. The first, a woman, said a man tried to force his way into her vehicle outside a business Sept. 17, but she was able to push him away, lock the car and call 911. As officers were talking to the woman and starting their investigation, they said they got another call about a carjacking outside a nearby Mexican restaurant. This time, the victim said a man got into his vehicle while it was unattended and hid in the backseat, then took the SUV and fled the scene. Thanks to license plate reader technology, it took law enforcement just a few hours to find the suspect and the stolen vehicle. Myron Baxter Pitts, 38, of Stone Mountain, was arrested the next morning by Fairburn police and charged with hijacking a motor vehicle, theft by taking and simple battery. He was booked into the Fulton County Jail. Flock cameras were used to track the 2018 Dodge Grand Caravan, which authorities said was stolen outside La Bamba restaurant at 3509 Baker Road. The victim said the suspect, who was hiding in his backseat, surprised him when he returned to his car and then told him to drive toward I-75. After a brief struggle, police said the suspect drove off in the stolen vehicle. That victim was unaware that just a few minutes earlier, about 10 p.m., a woman outside a nearby business fought with the same suspect, police said. She was approached outside Acworth Tobacco and Liquor at 4974 Cowan Road by a man who asked for a ride, the release states. After she said no, he attempted to force his way into her vehicle, police said. She managed to keep him from getting inside and locked the car, then called authorities.

1794	9/19/22		Henri Hollis & John Spink	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Lilburn		Stone Mountain Hwy	Shooting	Dispute at Gwinnett Car Shop Leads to Fatal Shooting, Police Say	A dispute at a Lilburn auto shop escalated into a shooting that left one man dead Monday morning, police said. Officers responded to a business at 4534 Stone Mountain Highway on Monday after getting reports of a person shot, Gwinnett police spokeswoman Officer Hideshi Valle said at the scene. Behind the building, which houses multiple businesses, police found a man dead from a gunshot wound, Valle said. The shooting stemmed from a dispute between the victim and the owner of one of the businesses housed there, according to Valle. She said the business owner was being questioned by detectives and no charges have been filed. Investigators are considering multiple motives, Valle said, including self-defense. The victim was not an employee or a customer of the auto shop, she added. Two guns were recovered from the scene and police are also interviewing multiple witnesses. The investigation is active, she said, but no one had been arrested as of Monday.

Anthony Eubanks is charged with second-degree assault. At the time of his arrest Monday, he was already on bond for a previous attempted murder charge. Tuscaloosa police and the Tuscaloosa Violent Crimes Unit responded Monday to the 1900 block of 29th Avenue on a report of a stabbing, said TVCU Capt. Jack Kennedy. The victim told authorities she and Eubanks argued over his proposed sexual advances and the argument spilled over onto the front porch of the residence. At some point during the argument, Kennedy said, the victim was cut on the shoulder with a knife or some other sharp incident. The victim sustained an injury. Eubanks was taken into custody that night. Eubanks was arrested in July 2021 on an attempted murder charge, also in Tuscaloosa, after police say he stabbed a man in the chest. The victim was seriously injured. He was out on bond in that case, but his bond has now been revoked. He is being held without bond in the Tuscaloosa County Jail.

1797	9/19/22		11 Alive Staff, Kaitlyn Ross	11 Alive	GA		DeKalb County	Parkway Trl	Homicide	Death of 13-Year-Old DeKalb County Boy Ruled A Homicide, Police Say	The death of a 13-year-old boy, Jamiren Crosby, whose body was found near a park in Lithonia earlier this week has been ruled a homicide, according to DeKalb Police. A witness told 11Alive's Cody Alcorn she found Jamiren's body while on a walk with her daughter near a townhome on Parkway Trail. The woman said they discovered the child in the bushes. She ran and told a neighbor to call 911 because there was someone dead. Family later identified the boy as Jamiren. They told police he was last seen around 2 a.m. Saturday, when he left home with some new friends. His mom Chanell Crosby wants to know what happened to her little boy. "It was senseless, gun violence, it could be envy, jealousy. He didn't know what he was getting himself into as a growing child. As a mother, I just try to be here for him. Redirect him to keep genuine people around him," she said. Chanell Crosby said she's working closely with police to find the people who were with her son just before his death.

Officers were called to the 500 block of Pennybrook Lane at about 5:40 p.m., but only one gunshot victim remained at the scene. A woman in her 40s was grazed by a bullet while inside her home, police spokesman Lt. Shane Smith said, and she declined to be taken to a hospital. "She stated that she observed a large group of juveniles in a fight in the middle of the street when she began to hear gunfire," Smith said. "She was grazed by one of those bullets." Nearly five miles away, near the intersection of Memorial Drive and Village Square, officers said they were able to stop two vehicles that fled after the fight. In the vehicles were a 16-year-old and a 19-year-old who told officers they were shot at Pennybrook Lane, according to Smith. They were taken to a hospital with injuries not considered life-threatening. Another man eventually arrived at a hospital and said he had been shot at the same location, Smith said. His injuries were also not life-threatening. That man was later identified as 26-year-old Mariceo Godwin, according to Channel 2 Action News. Godwin faces three counts of aggravated assault, the news station reported. Police told Channel 2 the brawl began with two women attempting to fight one another. Godwin is accused of firing a gun several times, striking the three other victims. Godwin was being held without bond Wednesday at the DeKalb County Jail.

The sheriff's office posted about the alleged assault just after 3 p.m. Sheriff Patrick Labat told Channel 2 Action News from the scene that the incident happened inside a bathroom and involved a courthouse employee. He said someone walked in and interrupted the alleged assault. Labat said the victim had minor injuries. "Apparently the gentleman had been hiding out in the bathroom and escaped through one of the side entrances," Labat told Channel 2. The search is active and the sheriff's office is asking the public not to approach the man if he is spotted. The Fulton courthouse sits on the corner of Martin Luther King Jr. Drive and Pryor Street in downtown Atlanta. Anyone who sees the suspect, whose picture was included in the sheriff's Facebook post, should immediately call 911, officials said.

The woman, identified by family in a GoFundMe campaign as 34-year-old Tonya White, was found by police around 11:30 p.m. in an SUV parked at the Regal Forest Apartments, according to Channel 2 Action News. Investigators have released limited information, but have said that at least one suspect has been arrested. White's family wants Tonya's name to be shared and remembered, they told Channel 2. "We just want to make sure that everybody out here in this neighborhood know that we love her and we care about her," her bother, Gregory White, said. Tonya White was a mother to three girls and one boy, Grubbs wrote. The children were between the ages of 4 and 16, Channel 2 reported. On Saturday night, the family gathered for a memorial at the apartment complex where she died and canvassed the neighborhood, asking neighbors if they saw or heard anything that day, according to Channel 2. While police did not disclose the way in which White was killed, Gregory White told Channel 2 that his sister was shot to death.

Boone Blvd	Shooting	Teen Detained on Active Warrants After Being Shot Multiple Times in NW Atlanta	Atlanta police detained a teenage shooting victim Friday morning after discovering he had active warrants for his arrest. The teen was taken to a fire station for help after being shot shortly before 2 a.m. in the area of Joseph E. Boone Boulevard and Lanier Street, according to Atlanta police. His aunt flagged down officers responding to the shooting scene and redirected them to the fire station, where firefighters were performing first aid. Police told Channel 2 Action News the boy took five bullets, mostly to his legs. He was also grazed in his stomach. According to a police spokesperson, investigators believe he was shot by a man who accused the teen of robbing his home. "During the investigation it was revealed the victim had an outstanding warrant out of Atlanta for robbery and an additional warrant out of jurisdiction," the spokesperson said in a statement. After being treated by firefighters, the boy was taken to Grady Memorial Hospital, where he was being detained Friday. He was expected to be booked into a regional youth detention center upon his release, police said. It was not clear if the shooter would face charges.

1835	9/24/22	11:40 AM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Ensley		30th St	Shooting	Man Shot, Seriously Injured by Birmingham Police After Pointing Gun at Officers, Officials Say	A 23-year-old man was shot by Birmingham police after authorities say he pointed a gun at them inside an Ensley apartment. The wounded suspect was taken to UAB Hospital with life-threatening injuries. Two West Precinct officers were dispatched at 11:40 a.m. Saturday on a report of a domestic disturbance inside an apartment at 2447 30th Street Ensley. A father told dispatchers his son was armed with a gun, and they had been having issues with him lately, said Officer Truman Fitzgerald, and wanted him out of the home. The two officers entered the apartment and came in contact with the adult son. They tried to deescalate the situation, Fitzgerald said, and the son went into a back bedroom. When the son came out of the bedroom, he was brandishing a gun. “We were told by several supervisors on the scene that he pointed the firearm at officers,” Fitzgerald said. One of the officers fired on the suspect. The suspect was struck multiple times. Officers also put out a call for all possible assistance to officers throughout the city. The scene was locked down, and the wounded man was taken to the hospital. The State Bureau of Investigation was called in to lead the probe, which is standard in shootings involving police. Fitzgerald said the entire incident was captured on the officers’ body worn cameras. “Both officers were extremely shaken up after this incident,” he said.

1836	9/24/22	3:30 PM	Carolina Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Paulding County	Southern Oaks Dr	Shooting	17-Year-Old Arrested, Faces Murder Charge in Teen's Shooting in Paulding	A teenager is behind bars after he fatally shot another teen at a Paulding County home Saturday afternoon, the sheriff's office said. Carson Nathaniel Kennedy turned himself in Sunday in connection with the shooting on Southern Oaks Drive. The 17-year-old is charged with murder and is being held at the Paulding County Jail without bond. The family of the victim identified him as 17-year-old Adam David Lewis. Deputies were called to the home about 3:30 p.m. and found Lewis in the loft of a detached garage on the property with a gunshot wound to the chest. By then, Kennedy had left the scene. Lewis was taken to a hospital, where he died. "Thus far, detectives and agents have not been able to determine what led up to the shooting and are still unclear as to why the suspect shot the victim," the sheriff's office said. According to a GoFundMe campaign created by the family of the victim, Lewis and a longtime friend were "messing around with a pistol they assumed wasn't loaded" after removing the clip. "The pistol went off and our son, his friend, and the other half of this nightmare was holding the gun," wrote family member Will Clark. Paulding deputies, with the assistance of the U.S. Marshals Service, were able to contact the suspect and encourage him to turn himself in, authorities said. At about 9 p.m. the day after the shooting, Kennedy surrendered. Authorities said they anticipate more charges as the investigation continues.

Shortly before 1 a.m., deputies responded to a shooting at Foxwood Apartments on Country Club Road in Kershaw, the Lancaster County Sheriff's Office said in a press release. Several people in the complex heard gunshots, and one person told deputies they heard a car speed away, the release said. Investigators determined the shots likely were fired from a car on Country Club Road. At the scene, deputies found "possible damage from gunfire to an air conditioning unit facing the road," but no other damage was reported. At the time, no injuries were reported. At 7 a.m., deputies were called back to the apartment complex, officials said. A resident found her 15-year-old niece on the couch with a gunshot wound. The victim, who was visiting family, was pronounced dead at the scene, officials said. Investigators believe the victim was struck by a bullet that entered the apartment through an exterior wall during the shooting reported at 1 a.m. There's no evidence that a second shooting occurred at the complex, officials said.

1841	9/25/22	2:20 AM	Leon Stafford	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Edgewood Ave	Shooting	Man Shot Early Sunday Outside Edgewood Avenue Bar	A man was shot early Sunday an Edgewood Avenue bar, Atlanta police said. At least six other people have been victims in reported shootings at the site since August 2021. In a news release, the Atlanta Police Department reported that officers responded to a person shot call around 2:20 a.m. Sunday at Our Bar ATL at 339 Edgewood Ave. When they arrived, officers were informed the 34-year-old male, who was not identified, had apparently taken himself to the hospital. The man sustained a gunshot wound to the abdomen and was alert when officers met him at the hospital to check on his injuries. The department has launched an investigation. Our Bar ATL has been the site of at least two other shootings in just over a year. In December, three people were injured after someone allegedly starting shooting outside the bar and some of the bullets made their way into the building. Two of those shot in the December incident told police they walked to Grady Memorial Hospital for treatment of their wounds. A third person also walked to the medical facility, but it was not clear at the time how the victim was wounded. In August of last year, three people were injured in an apparent drive-by shooting, The Atlanta Journal-Constitution previously reported. Authorities said someone in a car fired shots into the bar after business hours and injured two women and a man. All three were taken to a hospital with relatively minor injuries, according to police.

The incident happened at about 8 a.m., after deputies responded to reports of a domestic disturbance at a Cains Mill Road home, the sheriff's office said in a news release. That's in Sumter, near the intersection with Kolb Road. As the first deputy arrived on scene, he saw the garage area of the home was on fire, according to the release. The deputy was attempting to put the fire out when Leroy Quick Jr. opened fire at him, the sheriff's office said. The deputy returned fire, and when other deputies arrived on scene they discovered Quick unresponsive in the backyard, according to the release. Quick was pronounced dead at a hospital in Columbia from a gunshot wound later in the morning, the sheriff's office said. The deputy is being treated for a gunshot wound and is in serious condition. "It appears that our deputies acted appropriately and I commend them on their quick actions in defense of themselves and others," Sheriff Anthony Dennis said in the release. Dennis requested that the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division investigate both the shooting and the arson, the sheriff's office said.

The injured man, Saul Higuera Jimenez, 22, of Marietta, was later determined to be the suspect in the attack and tried to disarm officers when they attempted first aid, according to Marietta police spokesman Officer Chuck McPhilamy. Jimenez is accused of hitting a man with a hammer, who then stabbed him with a pocket knife in self-defense, McPhilamy said. McPhilamy said the victim was standing in his unit at Public Storage, a self-storage facility next to a Mazda dealership on Cobb Parkway, and was “minding (his) own business” when he was approached by Jimenez on Sept. 25. According to his arrest warrant, Jimenez followed two men into the gated facility and began looking for a woman, whom he believed was kidnapped. He allegedly began attacking the victim with a hammer after thinking he heard her inside the storage unit, the warrant states. Another man, who was not injured, tried to intervene but ended up walking away before the arrival of Cobb police. Officers were dispatched to the business around 2:30 p.m. after getting reports of a person banging on storage units with a hammer. “When we arrived at the facility, we’re now getting multiple other, different calls,” McPhilamy said. “Calls about a possible stabbing, as well as there is now an individual walking down Cobb Parkway, presumably away from the scene, who is just covered in blood.” The bloodied man was presumed to be the aggressor and was ordered to the ground by a second unit of officers responding to the scene. At the storage facility, officers turned their attention first to Jimenez’s wounds, McPhilamy said. “While our officers are starting to render aid, he begins to attack the officer and tries to take the officer’s gun away

1854	9/26/22	8:30 PM	Carolina Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Covington		Cricket Fog Trail	Assault	Cops: Woman Assaulted on Covington Trail While Walking Dog; 2 Suspects at Large	A woman was walking her dog Monday evening along a trail in Covington when she had to fight off two men, police said. When officers met the woman on Cricket Frog Trail about 8:30 p.m., she was sitting on the ground crying and distraught, an incident report obtained by The Atlanta Journal-Constitution states. No arrests have been made. The woman told officers she was walking near Conyers and Mill streets when she saw two men “coming out of the woods behind her.” She was hit in the head as she tried to run and then hit in the head again after a suspect grabbed her flashlight, according to the report. The victim told officers the men tried to rape her as she fought back, the report states. During the encounter, police said one of the men snatched a gold necklace from the woman’s neck. It was found a few hundred yards from where she was sitting when officers found her. Authorities said the victim was bleeding from the mouth and had several scratches on her upper body. Her shirt and sweatpants were also ripped. Witnesses nearby told officers they heard the victim scream, but only found her when the suspects had already taken off. Another witness said they saw two people on bikes leaving the trail at a “high rate of speed” after the incident. The victim was released from the hospital later that night. Police did not say if the dog was injured, but confirmed it did not bite any of the suspects during the attack.

Officers met with the victim about 12:15 a.m. outside a Chevron gas station at 2656 Donald Lee Hollowell Parkway, Atlanta police said in a news release. He told authorities that two men, one of them armed, took his vehicle while he was pumping gas. After they gathered information about the suspects' descriptions and their direction of travel, officers began canvassing the area. In a few short minutes, they tracked the stolen car to the Rolling Bends Apartments at 2500 Center Street and spotted two men who matched the suspects' description walking through the complex. One suspect was detained immediately, police said, and the second man tried to flee but was quickly detained. Authorities said a gun was recovered at the scene. Both were in custody by 12:56 a.m., according to a video released Thursday. Cornell Harrell, 26, and Tarrell Sanders, 17, were each booked on charges of armed robbery, hijacking a motor vehicle and obstruction of law enforcement officers, jail records show. Harrell also faces a marijuana possession charge, while Sanders faces a weapons charge. Both remain in the Fulton County Jail.

1860	9/28/22		Lyn Riddle	The State	SC	Taylor s	Greenvi lle County		Shoot ing	Exchange of Gunfire Leads to SC Man's Death in Confrontation with Law Enforcement	A man wanted for unlawful communication after an ex-girlfriend called law enforcement to report he had threatened her was killed Wednesday in a confrontation with four deputies. Greenville County Coroner's Office identified the man as Terrance Maurice Sligh, 34. The man's mother, Deborah Roberts, said in a statement, "I am heartbroken at today's events, but in my grief I am asking for a full, complete and transparent investigation into the events surrounding my son's death. At the appropriate time I will make a more detailed statement." The State Law Enforcement Division is handling the investigation as it does with all shootings involving officers. Sheriff Hobart Lewis said the ex-girlfriend reported the man texted her and then sent her a photo of a gun. They had been broken up for a while, the sheriff said, and he had recently resumed communications. Officers obtained the warrant to "give her some level of comfort" until she could get an order of protection. He said they found him in an apartment complex in Taylors where a family member lived, followed him as he drove away but then were able to stop him. When they got out of their cars, an exchange of gunfire took place. Lewis said he did not know how many rounds were fired. "Multiple," he said. No deputies were injured. They were placed on paid administrative leave pending the results of an internal investigation. A critical incident community briefing will be released on the Sheriff's Office YouTube page at 8 a.m. Nov. 12.

Just before 9 p.m., an officer approached 31-year-old Anthony Owen, of Chatsworth, the GBI said in a statement. The state agency did not disclose what led to the initial interaction, only stating that Owen had an outstanding warrant for arrest. Owen gave the officer a false name and resisted arrest by fighting with the officer, according to the statement. He then escaped by running into the woods along U.S. 411. The officer followed, and after catching up with Owen, another fight took place and the officer shot Owen once, the GBI said. Owen was arrested once backup officers arrived and was taken to a hospital with injuries that were not considered life-threatening. The officer sustained minor injuries. The GBI did not say whether Owen was believed to be armed, or if any weapons were recovered from the scene. The agency will conduct an independent investigation. Once completed, it will turn over its findings to the Murray County District Attorney's Office for review.

1876	9/30/22	3:20 PM	Ted Clifford	The State	SC		Richland County	Firetower Rd	Shooting	Sheriff's Deputy Fires Shots at Pistol-Carrying Suspect During Drive-By Shooting Manhunt	As Hurricane Ian darkened South Carolina's skies, a law enforcement pursuit nearly turned deadly in the Midlands. On Friday afternoon, a Richland County sheriff's deputy investigating a recent drive-by shooting found himself in an armed confrontation with a suspect, the sheriff's office said in a statement. Around 3:20 p.m., sheriff's deputies spotted a white van believed to be connected to recent drive-by shootings in Audubon Oaks. Investigators believed that the shootings were "retaliation for another shooting that occurred September 5th at an apartment complex on Bluff Road," according to the sheriff's department. When investigator Robert Beary attempted to stop the van, the driver fled. Beary pursued the van, which crashed into the woods off of Firetower Road and Western Lane. "At least 3 subjects" ran from the crashed van, according to the sheriff's department. Beary gave chase on foot. The sheriff's department said the man Beary chased, Darreun Miller, did not comply with his commands to stop. When confronted, Miller allegedly reached for a gun in his waistband. Beary then fired one shot. It did not hit Miller, the sheriff's department said. Miller, 19, was then taken into custody. Neither Beary nor Miller sustained injuries. Miller was booked at Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center and charged with criminal conspiracy, pointing and presenting a firearm, and unlawful carrying of a pistol. His bond hearing was scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday.

Officers were called to the Cash America store at 4814 Stone Mountain Highway for a robbery in progress at 2:15 p.m., Gwinnett police spokeswoman Officer Hideshi Valle said in a news release. A man entered the building, pulled a gun on its two employees and told them he was robbing the store, Valle said. The suspect used zip-ties to immobilize the employees and forced them to lie face-down on the floor at the back of the shop. Before police could respond, the man was able to steal about $21,000 worth of jewelry, $1,500 in cash and 10 handguns. Officials said the man was wearing black jeans, a black shirt, black boots and a blue hat. He also wore sunglasses, a blue surgical mask and gloves. Security cameras captured the suspect leaving the store in a black Toyota Camry, Valle said. Investigators released photos of the man and his car, and are asking for help from the public as they work to identify him.

The shooting happened at about midnight near the intersection of Main and Washington streets, Lt. W.E. Pegram told The State. That's two blocks from Gervais Street and the South Carolina State House. The shooting took place on the street, not inside any business, according to Pegram. The victim and the man police say pulled the trigger knew each other before the shooting, and were arguing inside Sky Bistro Lounge. "Due to the altercation, business security escorted both men outside," police said. Once outside, there was a conflict, and a man pulled out a gun and fired at least four shots, Pegram said. The shooter left the scene after the person he had a dispute with was injured, according to Pegram. Police said the victim was shot in the lower body and is in critical condition, but further information was not available.

1891	10/2/22	12:50 PM	Martha Quillin	The News & Observer	NC	Durham		I-85	Shooting	Durham Man Found Shot to Death in A Car Sunday Afternoon; Police Asking for Help	A Durham man was killed Sunday afternoon in a shooting off Interstate 85 near Hillandale Road. Officers from the Durham Police Department and the N.C. Highway Patrol responded to a call about a suspicious vehicle on the off ramp from northbound I-85 shortly after 12:50 p.m., the department said in a release. When officers arrived, they found Reshaun Cates, 44, had been shot. Emergency responders pronounced Cates dead at the scene. Police say the shooting does not appear to be a random act, suggesting Cates knew the person who shot him. Cates, known by the nickname "Marbles," had served more than 10 years in prison after pleading guilty in 2009 to charges of second-degree murder and armed robbery. He was one of three men charged in the case, in which Eva Marie Johnson Jacobs, 49, of the Cedar Grove community in Orange County was shot during a break-in at her home. Investigators said the robbery and shooting on Nov. 26, 2007, involved a few hundred dollars' worth of marijuana and a shotgun. Cates was sentenced to 12 to 16 years in prison. Also charged in that case were Doné Octavous Johnson of Hillsborough and Montez Antonio Stevons of Durham. N.C. Department of Correction records indicate Cates was released in 2020, and family members say he returned to Durham, where last spring he coached a youth basketball team in a public housing development.

The Jefferson County Coroner's Office identified the homicide victim as Malik Syrmone Shelton. He lived in Birmingham. Birmingham police and Birmingham Fire and Rescue Service responded at 5:01 p.m. to 16th Street South between Second and Third avenues, which is between Railroad Park and Regions Field. Once on the scene, officers were met by a couple who had their infant daughter with them. The family had just left the event Picnic at Railroad Park, which ended at 5 p.m. According to witnesses, the male who fired the shots and the male who was wounded got into an altercation while the family was walking in the area. The nature of the dispute wasn't immediately known. The couple was being taken to police headquarters to undergo questioning about what led up to the shooting. Sgt. Monica Law said the victim sustained at least one gunshot wound. He was pronounced dead on a sidewalk. An Uber driver coming to pick up a passenger saw the entire ordeal, and said the shooter warned the victim back off before firing the deadly shot. Law said detectives were canvassing the area for video of the slaying and had spoken to witnesses. No arrests have been announced.

Both Roswell and Sandy Springs police departments are investigating the incidents, which began shortly after 10 p.m. Sunday. A 911 caller reported a person had been injured at the Midwood Roswell Apartments on Mimosa Boulevard, according to Roswell police spokesman Officer Tim Lupo. Inside an apartment, officers found Rosa Evaristo Perez dead from an apparent stab wound, Lupo said. She was 31. Family members told investigators they went to check on the woman after receiving confessional messages from a man she knew, police said. While Roswell investigators attempted to locate the man, Sandy Springs officers responded to a deadly crash on I-285. Investigators determined the man killed was the suspect in the fatal stabbing, Lupo said. "The preliminary investigation has shown that this person exited from a parked vehicle on westbound I-285, and intentionally stepped into the path of an oncoming semi-truck," police said in an emailed statement. While Roswell police investigate the homicide, Sandy Springs police are investigating the crash.

Michael Todd Gray, a 51-year-old Camden resident, was originally charged with assault and battery of a high and aggregated nature following an Oct. 3 incident at the Parkview Motel, the sheriff's office said in a news release. That's in Camden, less than 2 miles from Camden High School and MUSC Health Kershaw Medical Center. But the victim, 50-year-old Horace Junior McLeod, died over the weekend, Kershaw County Coroner David West said in the release. During the assault, McLeod was knocked unconscious, fell backward and hit the back of his head on the asphalt parking lot at the motel, the sheriff's office said. McLeod suffered serious head injuries and was taken to Prisma Health Richland hospital. Gray is being held at the Kershaw County Detention Center after bond was denied on the assault charge, the sheriff's office said. Bond was also denied on the upgraded murder charge, jail records show.

The shooting happened just before 11 p.m. in the 2000 block of Jones Lane in Mobile's Plateau community. An ambulance rushed the 13-year-old boy to the University of South Alabama University Hospital, but he did not make it. Police charged the mother, Glenda Marie Agee with murder. She is being held at Mobile County Metro Jail. Agee has been arrested dozens of times dating back to the early 1990s, charged with offenses ranging from reckless endangerment to public intoxication to domestic violence to driving under the influence of alcohol. Mobile police said in the last two years, alone, officers have been called to Agee's address 34 times for reasons as varied as 911 hang-ups, assault complaints and medical emergencies. Agee was out on bond at the time of the shooting, charged with reckless endangerment and second-degree assault of a Prichard police officer in January. The Mobile County District Attorney's Office on Tuesday asked a judge to revoke that bond based on the murder arrest.

The employee, who called 911 after his truck disappeared, told police he was making a delivery at a communications company on Peachtree Road in Buckhead, an incident report states. He said he left the truck running and the key in the ignition about 3:20 p.m. as he went upstairs to deliver the package. Less than 10 minutes later, the vehicle was nowhere in sight, the employee said. The truck was eventually found near Ethel Street and an officer attempted to block the driver with his patrol vehicle, dash camera footage reveals. Despite telling the driver to “turn it off,” the driver managed to get away and lead officers on a chase through West Midtown. The driver, identified as Adonia Hornsby, managed to get nearly two miles away, until reaching a dead end at the intersection of 6th Street and Techwood Drive at the Georgia Tech campus, according to the footage. Hornsby quickly got out of the vehicle, repeatedly stating, “I can’t do it.” After being handcuffed, she asked officers to not leave her lying on the ground. She thanked them when they took her to the back of a patrol vehicle. Hornsby was charged with felony theft by taking, fleeing a police officer and failure to obey signs. She remains in the Fulton County Jail on a $20,000 bond.

Lashunda Heath-Ellison was taken to the hospital after her husband and children found her unresponsive, according to Channel 2 Action News. Her husband, Mac Ellison, told the news station he woke up shortly after midnight to the sound of Heath-Ellison's ragged breathing. When Ellison was able to turn his wife over, he saw "blood everywhere," he said. Heath-Ellison was taken to Grady Memorial Hospital, where doctors found a bullet lodged in her head, Channel 2 reported. According to Ellison, the bullet traveled through the couple's headboard, into the top of his wife's head and stopped in her sinus cavity. "We go back in the house and we see where it went through the wall, and right where she was laying," Ellison told Channel 2. DeKalb police confirmed the shooting but shared few details. Officers responded to the Ellison household on Wilkins Court just before 12:45 a.m. Wednesday for a person shot call, police said. Investigators quickly determined the bullet came from outside the home but are still working to figure out where the round was fired.

A 911 call was made about 12:45 p.m. regarding a shooting at a residence in the 7900 block of Kendrick Road, police spokeswoman Sgt. Julia Isaac said. The victim, whose name was not released, was pronounced dead at the scene, according to Isaac. Authorities said they are still investigating what led to the killing. Video footage from Channel 2 Action News showed a heavy police presence around the home Thursday afternoon. The home is near Kendrick Middle School and is surrounded by other residential streets.
1920	10/6/22	3:00 PM	Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		DeKalb County	Panola Rd	Robbery	Cops: Masked Robber Points Taser, Demands Cash from DeKalb Bank	A man used a Taser to rob a DeKalb County bank Thursday, police said. Officers are now trying to locate the suspected robber, who they said entered the Citizens Trust Bank at 2727 Panola Road about 3 p.m. through the front door. Surveillance footage shows the man dressed in an orange mask, red hoodie and black vest, pants and headwear. According to authorities, the man pulled out a Taser and told three tellers to put money in a bag. Each teller handed over $180 with dye packs, which stain the money a bright color to make it easily recognizable as stolen. The man fled the bank after the robbery, police said.

1925	10/6/22	10:00 PM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Forsyth	Monroe County	Russell Pkwy	Assault	Cops: Georgia Woman Evading arrest with Child in Car Hits, Injures 2 Officers	A Georgia woman is facing assault charges after she hit and injured two Forsyth police officers with her car as they attempted to take her into custody Thursday night, officials said. Autumn Thomas was located by Monroe County sheriff's deputies in Jonesboro, more than 40 miles from the hotel where the officers first tried to arrest her, Forsyth police said in a news release. Thomas was charged with two counts of aggravated assault against a police officer and booked into the Monroe jail, where she remains. The incident began when officers were called to the Union Hill Apartments in Forsyth for a domestic dispute just after 10 p.m., police said. A man was arrested on domestic violence charges there and officers left the scene. After leaving, officers learned that Thomas, who was also involved in the domestic incident, had active arrest warrants in another jurisdiction. Two officers went to Thomas' workplace, a La Quinta Inn on Russell Parkway, to serve the warrant. When the officers made contact with Thomas, she was at her car with her child in the parking lot. As they spoke to her and tried to take her into custody, she began to get into the car and drive away, police said. A struggle ensued, but Thomas was able to speed off, throwing one officer to the ground and hitting the other officer, sending him tumbling across the hood of her car. The officers were taken to separate hospitals with minor injuries. Both have since been released and are recovering at home. Thomas drove away from the hotel, which is located just off I-75, and headed northwest toward Clayton County, where she was arrested.

1926	10/7/22		Teddy Rosenbluth	The News & Observer	NC	Raleigh			Assault	Raleigh Cops Arrest Man Who Crashed into Police Cars, Had Several Other Warrants	Raleigh police arrested a man Friday who crashed into police cars after attempting to escape arrest for several other charges. Police found Joshua Ray Bibey, 27, in a Garner Chipotle after an automated license plate reader in the parking lot identified his plate as stolen, Fox 8 reported. While police tried to arrest him, Bibey backed his car into two Raleigh police cars. The patrol cars were damaged but no officers were injured. Bibey led police on a chase through Garner and Raleigh, Fox reported, which ultimately ended when he hit a chain-link fence, allowing police to take him into custody. Bibey was wanted on numerous warrants from multiple jurisdictions, the report said. He faces dozens of charges including four counts of assault with a deadly weapon, possession of a firearm by a felon and two hit and run counts, according to the North Carolina Judicial Branch website. The Raleigh resident made news earlier this year after driving in the wrong direction on Interstate 40 while allegedly under the influence, setting off a high speed chase. A highway patrol trooper blocked Bibey's path with his car in order to stop him. Bibey has several upcoming court dates for his charges next week and in late November.

Before the bow even became a component of the incident, Columbus police officers were called to a Circle K on Second Avenue about 1:40 a.m. due to a domestic dispute, according to the GBI. At the scene, officers were told a man left the gas station after slashing the tires of a vehicle in the parking lot. He also assaulted a woman with a carjack, the GBI said, causing minor injuries. The suspect, identified as 45-year-old Jonathan Powell, was found nearby, but when authorities approached him, he was holding a knife and ratchet strap, the GBI said. Officers told him to drop the weapons, but Powell did not. According to the GBI, officers used pepper ball munitions, which are considered a less lethal intervention, to gain compliance, but It was ineffective. Powell threw the ratchet strap at one of the officers and made threatening statements, the GBI said. He then walked inside his house along Third Avenue, eventually coming to the doorway, pointing a compound bow at the officers, the state agency said. One of the officers shot Powell, the GBI said, and he was taken to a hospital. Authorities did not say what charges Powell is facing.

Athens-Clarke County officers were called to the 200 block of West Clayton Street around 2:15 a.m. about a fight, according to an incident report. Upon arrival, police found a 30-year-old man bleeding from his head and lying on the sidewalk in front of the Tropical Bar, the report states. A 22-year-old woman was standing nearby with a gunshot wound to her hand. Both victims were expected to survive, police said in a statement. The woman is a fourth-year UGA student, the university confirmed Monday. "University representatives were with the student and family at the hospital Saturday morning, and we are continuing to provide support during recovery from this horrible incident," a spokesperson said in a statement. At the scene, witnesses pointed out the suspect, who was wearing a red hoodie while crossing Clayton Street, the incident report states. Responding officers then apprehended 24-year-old Corey Austin, police said. Austin was booked into the Athens-Clarke County jail and faces two counts of aggravated assault and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony, according to online jail records.

George Litchfield, 25, was taken to a hospital with injuries that were not considered life-threatening after the shooting at a home on Frances Avenue, according to the GBI. His air rifle mimicked the appearance of “a bolt-action firearm with a telescopic sight,” officials with the agency said Sunday in a news release. The incident began around 10:30 p.m. when the Marietta Fire Department was sent to a home in the historic Cherokee Heights neighborhood, not far from Wellstar Kennestone Hospital. The 911 caller told dispatchers he’d been assaulted by his son, who was having a mental health crisis, Marietta police said. The call was disconnected twice as the father attempted to communicate with dispatchers, according to the GBI. Fire crews responded but immediately sought cover away from Litchfield and requested a police response. When officers arrived, they found Litchfield on the roof waving the air rifle, Marietta police spokesman Officer Chuck McPhilamy said. “The suspect refused verbal commands to drop the weapon and instead raised it and pointed it at our officers,” McPhilamy said in a statement. “Officers fired their weapons, striking the man before he dropped the weapon and surrendered.” No one else was injured, and an update on Litchfield’s condition was not provided. Officials did not say what charges he may face.

Officers responded to reports of a shooting at about 10 a.m. on Oct. 9, the Lexington Police Department said in a news release. The gunfire was reported in building 500 of the Reserve at Mill Landing apartments. That's on East Main Street, near Lexington Mill Pond and about two miles from Exit 58 on Interstate 20. When they arrived, officers found a man outside of his apartment after he had been shot in the lower body several times. Lexington County EMS took the man to an area hospital. The man suffered non-life-threatening injuries and was released from the hospital later that same day. After the shooting, two men dressed in all black clothing and wearing masks on their faces ran from the complex into the woods and left the area, according to police. Witnesses told police that a white or silver sedan was seen in the area at the time of the shooting. An investigation has been ongoing since the shooting, but the victim has not cooperated with detectives, according to the release. Despite his lack of involvement, police said security video from the victim's door camera was obtained with a search warrant and it showed two men in the breezeway of the apartment complex with guns. Police said they believe the shooting is connected to drug trafficking.

1952	10/10/22	1:00 AM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Ezra Church Dr	Shooting	13-Year-Old Injured in NW Atlanta Drive-By Shooting	A 13-year-old boy was injured in a drive-by shooting Monday morning at his home in the West Lake neighborhood of northwest Atlanta, police said. The shooting was reported around 1 a.m. in the 1500 block of Ezra Church Drive. The boy was found with a graze wound and taken to a Children's Healthcare of Atlanta location, according to Atlanta police. His mother also was inside the home at the time of the shooting but was not injured. According to a preliminary investigation, at least one person in a white vehicle discharged multiple gunshots toward the victim's home. It was not clear if the home, or the 13-year-old boy, were the intended targets of the gunfire. Four bullet holes could be seen in one of the quaint home's front windows, Channel 2 Action News footage showed.

1956	10/11/22		Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Buckhead		W Roxboro Rd	Burglary	Man Arrested After Burglarizing Home Owned by Ex-Falcon Julio Jones, Police Say	A man suspected of burglarizing a home owned by ex-Atlanta Falcons wide receiver Julio Jones on Tuesday was quickly located and taken into custody while wearing some of the clothes he'd allegedly stolen, authorities said. Martin Williams, 31, of Bowling Green, Kentucky, was arrested on two counts of first-degree burglary after he was spotted by an officer on an off-duty patrol, Atlanta police said in a news release. He is accused of stealing clothing and jewelry from a Buckhead home owned by Jones, who now plays for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Officers responded to the West Roxboro Road home after a 911 caller reported a burglary there. Officers were able to use the home's security technology to see images of the suspect, then broadcast his physical description over the radio, police said. The off-duty officer said he saw Williams and detained him without incident after matching him to the description. According to police, Williams possessed some of the stolen property and was wearing some of the clothing items that had been reported stolen. He was booked into the Fulton County Jail, where he remains without bond. Online jail records indicate that he has additional active arrest warrants out of Lake Charles, Louisiana.

Raleigh police Chief Estella Patterson said the suspect is hospitalized in critical condition following the shooting late Thursday afternoon. Those killed were a racially diverse group and ranged in age from 16 to their late 50s. Among the dead was an off-duty Raleigh police officer, Gabriel Torres, who was on his way to work when the shooting began. A second police officer was wounded and released from the hospital, while a 59-year-old woman is hospitalized in critical condition. The suspect eluded officers for hours before he was cornered in a home and arrested. The shooting set off a massive police response and manhunt, with police scouring an area of more than 2 miles (3 kilometers) to find and capture the suspect. Authorities have not yet determined any motive for the shooting. The gunfire broke out around 5 p.m. in a residential area northeast of downtown, Raleigh Mayor Mary-Ann Baldwin said. Officers from numerous law enforcement agencies swarmed the area, closing roads and warning residents to stay inside while they searched for the shooter. The Neuse River Greenway runs just behind the backs of houses in the Hedingham neighborhood where the shooting began. The trail runs about 27 miles (43 kilometers) along the river and connects to the state's Mountains-to-Sea Trail that's popular with through hikers.

Officers responded to a home on John Boy Trail near Newnan around 11:30 p.m. on Oct. 26 after getting reports of a stolen car, Coweta sheriff's office spokesman Toby Nix said. The victim told police he met the suspect, Jennifer Gray, whom he knew only as "Piper," on the dating app Plenty of Fish, according to an incident report obtained by The Atlanta Journal-Constitution. The man told deputies he'd called an Uber to pick up Gray at a hotel in DeKalb County near Northlake Mall, about 60 miles from his home, the report said. Gray was dropped off at the Newnan home around 9 p.m., according to the report. Later in the evening, the man said he and Gray decided to go to the store to get Dr. Pepper and toilet paper, according to the report. He told Gray he needed to use the bathroom before they left, and while he was inside he heard his truck start. He then saw Gray driving his truck across his front yard, the police report said. The man immediately called 911. As deputies responded, one of the units spotted Gray in the victim's truck and tried to pull her over, Nix said. The woman did not stop and led deputies on a chase that reached speeds of more than 100 mph, according to Nix. They were eventually able to stop the truck using Stop Sticks, which flattened the tires, followed by a precision immobilization technique (PIT) maneuver. Gray was arrested and taken to the county jail, Nix said.

Cortney Dion Price, 38, is being held in the Jefferson County Jail on a murder charge. More charges are expected. The ordeal began at 5:31 p.m. Saturday at a hotel on Kelco Place in Fairfield. Jefferson County sheriff's Deputy Chief David Agee said deputies were called to the hotel on a report of a shooting. When they arrived, they found a 30-year-old woman suffering from a gunshot wound. She was later pronounced dead. Witnesses told investigators the man - identified as Price - and the woman were arguing, and the woman was trying to get away from him. That's when Price shot the woman, authorities said, and then fled on foot. Agee said Price later emerged on Seminole Road in Fairfield - about 6:39 p.m. - and carjacked a family at gunpoint. Just four minutes later - at 6:43 p.m. - a bicyclist was struck on Grasselli Road by a vehicle that sped away, Agee said. The bicyclist was pronounced dead on the scene. Deputies spotted the stolen vehicle near Erie Street in Birmingham. After a brief pursuit, Price wrecked the vehicle and was taken into custody. He was booked into the county jail at 9:27 p.m. and remains held without bond.

Birmingham police and Birmingham Fire and Rescue Service were dispatched at 2:16 a.m. to the VA Hospital at University Boulevard and 19th Street on a report of a car crashing into the building. UAB police officers heard the shots and then found the red Corvette has slammed into the hospital, shattering a window and damaging the brick. The car had been struck by at least a dozen bullets, most of them on the passenger's side. The passenger was shot multiple times and taken to UAB Hospital with critical injuries. The driver also was shot, but his injuries didn't initially appear to be life-threatening. Investigators found shell casings in the intersection from both a handgun and rifle. It wasn't immediately clear if multiple people were shooting at the Corvette or if there was an exchange of gunfire. The Corvette hit at least one parking meter and a sign before it traveled on the sidewalk and struck the building. The sign toppled, causing damage to the truck of a VA employee.

1983	10/30/22	3:00 AM	Noah Feit	The Herald	SC	Sumter	Sumter County	Broad St	Hit & Run	Waffle House Argument Leads to Woman Being Charged with Attempted Murder, SC Cops Say	A Midlands woman is in jail on multiple charges, including attempted murder, after a recent argument at a Waffle House, the Sumter Police Department said. No bond was set for Shatarica Michelle Unique Gray, who is being held at the Sumter County Sheriff's Office Detention Center, jail records show. The 35-year-old Sumter resident was involved in an incident that caused injuries and damage to cars at the Waffle House at 1350 Broad St. on Oct. 30, police said in a news release. At about 3 a.m., officers were called to the Waffle House where witnesses said there was a confrontation between Gray and a security guard at the restaurant. Gray got into a minivan and tried to run over the security guard, police said. Rather than hitting the guard, Gray missed and crashed into some parked vehicles, as well as an occupied vehicle, before driving away. One person was taken to Prisma Health Tuomey for treatment and later released. While officers were at the hospital checking on the injured person, a woman matching the description of the suspect arrived for treatment for a minor injury. Following medical treatment, Gray was arrested, police said. In addition to attempted murder, Gray was charged with four counts of first-degree assault and battery, assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature, three counts of malicious injury to animals/personal property, hit and run (great bodily injury), driving under suspension and leaving the scene of an accident with injuries, Sumter County jail records show.

1994	10/31/22		Jessica Banov	The News & Observer	NC		Orange County	U.S. 70	Shooting	Child Grazed by Bullet While in Backseat of Car in NC Road Rage Shooting, Police Say	A child was grazed by a bullet in the backseat of a car in what Orange County authorities say was a possible “rolling road rage incident.” The Orange County Sheriff’s Office reported Monday night that the child was hit while in his safety seat in the back seat of his father’s car. Authorities say the bullet caused “a slight burn wound to his back”. The sheriff’s office and the Hillsborough Police Department are investigating to determine what happened. They say deputies responded to a gas station on U.S. 70 where a driver reported a “series of road rage incidents” between himself and an SUV driver. The chain of events started on U.S. 86, north of Hillsborough, when the man and the SUV were driving south. The man told police that the SUV driver fired a gun at his sedan. That’s when the child was hit. The Orange County Sheriff’s Office did not identify a suspect or that someone has been detained but said there is no “threat to the general public.”

2000	10/31/22	8:40 PM	William Thornton	AL.com	AL	Dothan		Tuskegee St	Assault	Shots Fired, Person Carrying Baby Hit by Vehicle As Woman Drives into Alabama Crowd on Halloween	Dothan police are trying to sort out who drove a vehicle into a group of people Monday night, touching off a wild, chaotic scene where several were injured. According to police, the incident happened about 8:40 p.m. in the 700 block of Tuskegee Street at Martin Homes. Officers were called to a report of a pedestrian struck by a vehicle and found one victim on the ground, with lower leg injuries. The vehicle, which they found unoccupied, had also struck the front porch of an apartment. According to police, the vehicle was intentionally driven by a woman into a crowd, striking as many as three victims, one of whom was holding a 1-year-old child at the time. The child was uninjured in the incident. Two victims, beside the injured pedestrian, were taken to the hospital by personal vehicle before police arrived. The injuries to all three struck by the vehicle appear to be minor, police said. While tending to the victim, police say a crowd grew and surrounding the scene, growing disorderly and causing officers to divert their attention away from the victim. As this unfolded, a woman tried to remove items from the vehicle. When officers told her not to, police say she charged at them and was arrested. Ariyan Tranice McCoy, 19, of Dothan, was charged with obstructing a government operation, resisting arrest, tampering with physical evidence and third degree criminal mischief for damage police say she did to the patrol car, just before she was pepper sprayed. At the same time, police said several shots were fired in the area, adding to the disorder. Dothan police said investigators are working to identify the driver of the vehicle and the person who fired the shots.

WDHN is reporting that Michael Harrison Barrett, 18, a senior at Slocumb High School, has been charged with first-degree assault. More arrests could follow, authorities said. Attempts to contact Geneva County Sheriff Tony Helms were not immediately successful. A witness at the party told authorities that Barrett arrived at a party where a few hundred people, some as young as 14, were gathered. Barrett was reportedly wearing what was described as a KKK costume. A male approached Barrett, telling him the costume was offensive and that he should take it off. In the ensuing fight, Barrett reportedly stabbed the male in the side with a knife. The victim was taken to a Dothan area hospital and is in stable condition after surgery. Barrett was booked into the Geneva County Jail. Authorities are looking for any video of the incident.
2004	11/1/22	12:30 AM	Chelsea Prince	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Chamblee		Briarcliff Rd	Shooting	Suspect at Large After Chamblee Officer Shot During Foot Chase in Northlake	A Chamblee police officer was shot early Tuesday morning while chasing two armed robbery suspects in the Northlake area, authorities said. The officer was taken to a hospital with injuries that were not considered life-threatening, according to Chamblee police. One suspect was arrested and officers are searching for the second suspect. The shooting came at the end of a vehicle and foot pursuit. Officers spotted a stolen vehicle used in an armed robbery and attempted to stop it shortly before 12:30 a.m. The driver sped away, kicking off the chase, before eventually crashing near the intersection of Briarcliff Road and Briarcliff Way. State Rep. Scott Holcomb, who lives in the Northlake area, said he heard a series of about 10 gunshots outside his home around 12:50 a.m. The first suspect was captured after he was spotted lying on the side of the road, Holcomb said. The other is the subject of a massive search that has shut down several residential roads in the area. Holcomb said he and his neighbors were asked to stay inside and alert police of any suspicious activity. Officers were hoping daylight would prove beneficial as they combed yards and checked inside vehicles, he said. The intersection of Briarcliff and Henderson Mill roads is also closed outside the entrance to the mall, where police have set up a command post Tuesday morning. A SWAT team and other local law enforcement agencies are assisting in the search.

On Nov. 3, Sharquis K. O' Neal, 18, shot and killed a "20-year-old friend," according to police. The man who died has not been publicly identified by the Richland County Coroner's Office. At about 12:30 a.m. on Nov. 3, officers responded to reports of a shooting in the 1300 block of Sycamore Avenue, police said. That's near Columbia College and Eau Claire High School, in the area between North Main Street and Monticello Road. In addition to murder, the Columbia resident was also charged with possession of a weapon during a violent crime, Richland County court records show. No bond has been set for O' Neal, who is being held at the Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center, according to the Richland County jail's records. Prior to the shooting, O' Neal was arrested on Aug. 30 on a drug possession charge, court records show.
2020	11/3/22	5:00 AM	Aaron Sánchez-Guerra	The News & Observer	NC	Clayton		U.S. 70 Business W	Shooting	Store Clerk Locked in Bathroom During Shootout in Circle K and Food Lion in Clayton	The Clayton Police Department is searching for several suspects in an early morning shootout that damaged a Circle K store, a Food Lion and a nail salon on Thursday. Police responded to a call of shots fired at a Circle K on 10081 U.S. 70 Business West shortly before 5 a.m., according to a news release. They found an employee in a locked restroom. and shell casings outside the store and BP gas station, as well as in the parking lot of an adjacent shopping center. Bullets had shattered windows of the Circle K, a Food Lion grocery store and Queen Nails and Spa, but no employees of the businesses were injured. Authorities say two people were in a verbal confrontation that began inside the Circle K and continued outside. One of them left the parking lot in a gray Toyota Avalon following a white Nissan SUV. Another person fired at the people in the Toyota from a black Dodge Challenger. Marquise LeShawn Taylor, who was in the Toyota, was shot in the leg. Both vehicles fired "numerous rounds" at each other through the parking lot, resulting in stray bullets damaging nearby property. Police detectives charged Reginald Derrell Sanders Jr. with two counts of attempted murder, two counts of shooting into an occupied vehicle and structure, and damage to property. Sanders has not yet been taken into custody, police said late Thursday afternoon. Charges against other suspects are pending.

Officers were called to the 3500 block of Camp Creek Parkway where they found a man with a single gunshot wound, police said in a statement. The man was taken to Grady Memorial Hospital, where he died. Investigators believe the shooting was a result of an ongoing dispute with someone the victim was familiar with, the statement read. Just last month, then-Interim Atlanta police chief Darin Schierbaum addressed gun violence before a weapon buyback event, warning about when disputes escalate to bullets. "This department has been fighting successfully over the summer gang and gun and drug violence," Schierbaum said before addressing the toll of arguments turning violent. 2024	11/4/22		Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Lithia Springs	Douglas County		Homicide	Douglas County Deputies Searching for Man Accused of Murdering Ex-Girlfriend	Douglas County sheriff's deputies are searching for a man accused of killing his ex-girlfriend after he had been released on bond following an arrest on sexual assault charges involving the same woman. Harold Dakers, 34, is wanted on a murder charge in connection with a killing that took place Friday in Lithia Springs, Douglas Sheriff Tim Pounds said at a news conference. The victim, 29-year-old Kaleshia Lyons, who had a child with Dakers, was found dead at her grandmother's home. She died as a result of blunt force trauma to her head and face, Pounds said. Investigators do not believe anyone else was in the house when Lyons was killed, Pounds said. Dakers had previously been arrested in Carroll County after he was accused of raping Lyons in June, according to court documents. He was released on bond Oct. 25, court documents show, less than two weeks before Lyons was killed. According to Pounds, Lyons had moved from the home in Villa Rica where she was allegedly raped by Dakers to the Lithia Springs home. Dakers was also charged in June with aggravated assault, theft by taking and false imprisonment. Pounds said investigators believe Dakers is still in the area and advised anyone who sees him to immediately call 911. Asked if Dakers was a threat to others, Pounds said, "Maybe himself, not other people, but maybe law enforcement." "He made a statement saying he wasn't going back to jail," Pounds added.

2025	11/4/22		Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Coweta County	Waterworks Rd	Kidnaping	Cops: Man Kidnaps Couple after robbing Coweta County Home at Gunpoint	A man kidnapped a couple and forced them to drive him to the interstate after taking multiple items from their Coweta County home Friday, officials said. Michael Butler, who fled out of state after the alleged robbery and kidnapping, was arrested in Alabama, the Coweta County Sheriff's Office said. He is facing charges of home invasion, aggravated assault, armed robbery, kidnapping and possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. A man and a woman were outside their home along Waterworks Road when Butler pulled into the driveway and forced the couple back inside at gunpoint, officials said. Once inside, Butler forced the woman to tie up the man and took several items from the home. The stolen items were then loaded into the victims' vehicle. According to authorities, Butler then forced the couple into their vehicle and had them drive him toward I-85. "On the way to the interstate, the female convinced Butler to let them pull over into a gas station parking lot so they could secure some of the items in the car," the sheriff's office said. "The female exited the vehicle under the guise of securing the stolen items and ran inside the gas station, where she called Coweta County E-911." The robber then drove back to the couple's home with the man still tied up in the passenger seat, officials said. Back at the residence, authorities said Butler tried to shoot the man at least three times, but the gun malfunctioned. Officials said Butler instead beat the man with the firearm before leaving the scene in the vehicle he drove to the home. Before getting to Coweta County, the sheriff's office said they believe Butler was in Fulton County, where he allegedly committed multiple crimes. Authorities also said they believe Butler committed crimes in Alabama. The sheriff's office said additional charges are pending as multiple jurisdictions investigate.

2029	11/4/22	6:00 PM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Birmingham		45th PIN	Shooting	33-Year-Old Man ID'd as Birmingham Shooting Victim Killed in Vehicle with His Infant Son Inside	Authorities have released the name of a man shot to death Friday night just across the street from where three young boys were celebrating their birthdays. Birmingham police on Saturday identified the victim as Jesse Dewayne Cummings Sr. He was 33. The shooting happened about 6 p.m. Friday near 45th Place North and Eighth Court North. Officer Truman Fitzgerald said the shooting appeared to stem from some kind of domestic dispute. Those involved in the shooting did not appear to be affiliated with the large gathering across the street where twin boys, age 8, and another boy were celebrating their birthdays in the Rev. Dr. Morrell Todd Homes public housing community in Kingston. Partygoers said they ducked when the shots were fired, but the barbecue continued once the gunfire stopped. Fitzgerald said South Precinct officers arrived to find Cummings unresponsive inside a vehicle. Cummings' infant son was inside the vehicle with him when the shots rang out but was not injured. Cummings was pronounced dead on the scene. Fitzgerald said the preliminary investigation indicates some kind of argument took place and was domestic in nature. The fatal shots were fired into Cummings' vehicle. The city's gunfire detection system – Shot Spotter – alerted officer to more than 20 rounds fired. The investigation is ongoing. No arrests have been made.

He is facing one count each of theft by taking, driving without a valid license, failure to maintain lane and failure to obey traffic signs, signals or control devices, jail records show. Williams was booked into the Fulton County Jail, where he remains on $5,000 bond. The ambulance was reported stolen from Emory University Hospital Midtown at 3:55 a.m., police said. About 10 minutes later, officers spotted it on Piedmont Road and began following as they waited for more officers to respond, police said Video footage released by police shows how officers blocked in the ambulance as the driver pulled into the gas station at 1896 Piedmont Road. Williams got out and started walking away but was quickly taken into custody, police said.
2045	11/7/22	4:40 AM	Chelsea Prince & John Spink	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		DeKalb County	Glenwood Rd	Arson	Boy, 12, Taken into Custody After Early Morning Fire at DeKalb Apartments	A 12-year-old boy was detained by police after a Monday morning fire at his DeKalb County apartment that forced his older sister and her boyfriend to jump three stories to safety, officials said. Naomi Lilly's daughter and her daughter's boyfriend, both in their 20s, were taken to Grady Memorial Hospital after leaping from a window at the 4371 Glenwood apartments. Lilly believes her son was playing with fire around 4:40 a.m. when he set his bed ablaze, and it quickly grew out of control. The child was later led away from the family's apartment in handcuffs. The fire is being investigated as suspected arson, according to a DeKalb fire official. "The fire ignited so quickly that my daughter couldn't even come out of her room to come up the hallway," Lilly said. "They had to jump out of the third-floor window, her and her boyfriend. They couldn't get up off the ground." Lilly said her 12-year-old shook her awake after he first tried to put out the flames himself. Two more people were rescued from the family's apartment when DeKalb fire crews arrived at the Glenwood Road complex. "Our investigation is still ongoing," fire Capt. Jaeson Daniels told The Atlanta Journal-Constitution. "It is a suspected arson investigation, and the juvenile is a suspect in that investigation." The boy had not been formally charged as of Monday afternoon. Thirty-three people in eight units were being assisted by volunteers with the American Red Cross of Georgia, according to the fire department.

2047	11/7/22	6:45 PM	William Thornton	AL.com	AL	Mobile		Bryant St	Shooting	Mobile Police: Suspect Fatally Shot Man, Fired on Woman, Wounded Officer in Running Gun Battle	Mobile police say a man faces a murder charge and seven counts of attempted murder after a shooting death, followed by a running gun battle across several locations that wounded an officer. Cpl. Katrina Frazier said the sequence of events began about 6:45 p.m. in the 800 block of Bryant Street. Officers responding to a shooting call found Matthew Richardson, 31, wounded from a gunshot. He died later at the scene. Investigators identified Zackery Hannah, 20, as responsible for the shooting, as well as an earlier altercation that went unreported where a shot was fired into a vehicle. Later, investigators believe Hannah got into an altercation with Richardson and a woman at the scene, attempted to shoot the woman and fired the fatal shot at Richardson. He then fled the scene on foot, carrying a shotgun, into the wooded area of the Glen Acres community, Frazier said. After officers set up a perimeter, they encountered Hannah on three separate occasions, she said. During the first, officers entreated for Hannah to surrender before he fired a shot and ran into the woods. During a second encounter, Hannah fired shots at officers after they told him to surrender. During the exchange of gunfire, an officer was wounded in the lower portion of both legs, Frazier said. Hannah again fled into the wooded area. At that point, Frazier said, he encountered a resident on his property and pointed his weapon at him before fleeing. Then, in the 8000 block of Crowell Street, officers discovered Hannah and told him to drop his weapon. According to Frazier, Hannah pointed his gun at officers, and gunfire resumed. Hannah was struck multiple times, and a dog was used to assist in taking him into custody. He was transported to the hospital and taken into guarded custody.

2048	11/7/22	8:46 PM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Birmingham		Oporto Madrid Blvd	Shooting	Employee Charged in Shooting at East Birmingham Convenience Store	An east Birmingham store employee is under arrest after a shooting earlier this week. Mazin Othman, a 40-year-old employee of the Chevron at 125 Oporto Madrid Boulevard, is charged with second-degree assault and discharging a gun into an occupied dwelling. East Precinct officers responded at 8:46 p.m. Monday to a Shot Spotter notification in the area of the store. Minutes later, said Sgt. Monica Law, police received a 911 call reporting that a man had been shot. The victim was taken to UAB Hospital. The extent of his injury and a possible motive has not been released by police. Law said community members provided information that led investigators to believe that Othman, of Hoover, was the shooter. Othman was taken into custody for an investigative hold until formal warrants were obtained on Wednesday. Othman was booked into the Jefferson County Jail at 4:23 p.m. Wednesday and released at 2:40 a.m. today after posting $45,000 bond.

Valerie Jones opened the door to find her house had become a crime scene. Her two adult children had been struck by a barrage of bullets fired at the family's DeKalb County home. Jones said she called 911 several times after the shooting Monday around 9 p.m. at her home on Olde Street near Stone Mountain. By the time first responders arrived, it was too late for her daughter. Denee Wheelous was 40. Jones then tried to revive her son, using her skills as a certified nursing assistant. Paramedics transported Darrell Wheelous to the hospital, but he also died from his injuries. He was 35. DeKalb County police are investigating Monday's shooting and recovered 32 shell casings from Jones' home, she said. Denee Wheelous is also survived by two children, ages 22 and 17.

2053	11/8/22		Chelsea Prince	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Gainesville		Brown St	Shooting	Teenage Brothers Arrested in Hall County Shooting Death	Two teenage brothers are facing murder charges as adults in a Tuesday morning shooting near Gainesville, authorities announced Thursday. Christopher Dixon, 25, died at a hospital after being shot in the chest in the 1300 block of Brown Street just east of the city, according to the Hall County sheriff's office. By Tuesday afternoon, investigators believed they had cornered two suspects inside an apartment at the nearby Harrison Square complex and called in a SWAT team to help them negotiate. But the operation yielded no arrests when the apartment was discovered empty. Investigators with the Hall agency then tracked the suspects to Atlanta, where they turned themselves in late Wednesday night, a spokesperson said. Gainesville brothers Jamarco Patton, 16, and Syn'sere Antrell Deshaun Patton, 17, were arrested on charges of felony murder, aggravated battery and aggravated assault. Additional charges are pending, according to the sheriff's office. The motive in the killing remains under investigation. It was not clear if Dixon knew the teen suspects. Both Pattons are being held without bond. The 17-year-old is in custody at the Hall County Jail, and his younger brother is being housed at the Regional Youth Detention Center in Gainesville.

2084	11/13/22		Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		Butts County		Shooting	Hours-long SWAT Standoff Ends with 2 Georgia Police Officers Injured	Two Georgia police officers were injured during an encounter with a man at a home in Butts County that led to an hours-long SWAT standoff, according to authorities. Jackson police were called to a home in the Fox Hollow subdivision about a “disturbance” Sunday evening, the Georgia State Patrol said. While officers were inside, the man, later identified as Donald River Waits, opened fire on the officers, according to the GSP. One officer was struck by shrapnel and sustained a broken wrist, authorities said. The other broke her leg while jumping out of a window. Both injuries were not life-threatening, according to the state patrol. Waits then barricaded himself inside the home, and the Butts County SWAT team was requested, along with some troopers. By 4 a.m., the state patrol’s SWAT team was called in. They forced entry to the home around 5:30 a.m. and Waits was taken into custody without further incident.

Officers responded to East Tinsley Street after getting several 911 calls about a shooting, Griffin police spokesman Investigator Richard Powell said in a news release. At the scene, police found four men in a white Mercedes-Benz that had crashed into a power pole. The two men flown to the trauma center were suffering from multiple gunshot wounds, Powell said. The other two were also taken to the hospital, but their injuries were not specified. They were identified as Nehemiah Casey, Raekwon Parks, Cedarias Harden and Donell Casey. Police have not responded to a request for additional information. Powell said a stolen gun was found in the wrecked Mercedes and that investigators believe the incident is related to gang activity. Police are asking for help from the public as they gather more details.

2086	11/13/22		Alabama News Network Staff	Alabama News Network	AL	Lapine		Boyd Springs Rd	Homicide	Court Records: Man Charged with Capital Murder Involving Kidnapping	Court records have new details on a murder case involving a man who was abducted from Montgomery and killed in Lapine. Those records show Jonathan Antonio Hoover has been arrested and charged with capital murder involving a kidnapping. The documents say that sometime between 6:30AM on Sunday, November 13, and 4:30PM on Tuesday, November 15, Hoover forcibly took control over the victim, 47-year-old Nakel Johnson, in his hotel room. As Alabama News Network has reported, Johnson was last seen alive in the 3400 block of Mobile Highway. Court records say Hoover beat Johnson with multiple types of objects, stuffed him into the trunk of his own car, then dumped the vehicle with the victim inside in the 2300 block of Boyd Springs Road in Lapine. Records say Hoover tried to burn the vehicle with the victim inside, which led Johnson's death. Hoover is in the Montgomery County Detention Facility where he's being held without bond.

And a murder investigation is underway — following a shooting early Sunday morning in Pine Hill. Police Chief Nikisha says it's the first homicide in the town this year. She says officers responded to the 200 block of Gwen Road around 12:45 Sunday morning. They found a man lying face-down on the ground. "He was shot, had been shot," said Gales. "The name of the victim is going to be LaDarren Jones. I think 31, 32 years old." Gales says Jones was pronounced dead on the scene. Then his body was taken to forensics — for an autopsy. She says right now — investigators are interviewing witnesses in the case. And trying to determine — the motive behind the shooting. Gales called in the ALEA State Bureau of Investigation to look into the case.

According to the Limestone County Sheriff's Office, Athens police responded to a store robbery Monday night in the 200 block of U.S. 31 and obtained a description of the robber and his getaway vehicle. Then at 8:20 p.m., a man identified as James Lee Henry, 53, of Collegeville, Penn., walked into a gas station in the 26000 block of Main Street in Ardmore. Henry, carrying a handgun, carried out a second armed robbery, according to the sheriff's office. Then an unnamed man, who authorities identified only as a former Marine, saw the robbery taking place and produced his own weapon. When Henry left the store, the man told Henry to drop his gun. When Henry pointed his gun, the unnamed man shot him. Henry died at the scene. All the money from both robberies was recovered, according to Limestone County authorities, and no other people were injured. Once an investigation is completed, its findings will be presented to a Limestone County grand jury, authorities said.

Nathan Huff, 43, was taken into custody at the Oakland City MARTA station. He will face multiple charges, including murder, East Point police spokesman Capt. Allyn Glover said Wednesday morning. Hyun Chan Cha, 69, was shot twice inside Beauty World in a Washington Road strip mall, according to Glover. Officers responded to the business after getting reports of a person down and found Cha wounded. She was treated by East Point Fire Rescue and taken to Grady Memorial Hospital, where she died. Glover told Channel 2 Action News that Huff was casing some businesses in the area and chose the beauty supply shop. Huff forced Cha to turn over some money, then shot her, he said. "Her life was worth a few hundred bucks to him," Glover said. A memorial was growing Wednesday morning outside the shop, where mourners left cards and flowers for the business owner and beloved member of the community. According to the Georgia Department of Corrections, Huff has already served years in prison for a previous robbery. After committing an armed robbery in 1999, he was convicted and sent to prison in 2004. Huff was released in January 2016 after serving less than 12 years of a 20-year sentence, state records show. East Point police said late Tuesday they were developing "strong leads" in the case and working around the clock. Investigators initially released a photo of the suspect taken from security camera footage, and on Wednesday released a photo of a second person they said they were also hoping to identify. Police did not say if the second person was also a suspect or a person of interest.

Deputies were trying to pull a driver over just before 10 a.m. at the intersection of Macland Road and Bobo Road, not far from Dallas, the sheriff's office said in a statement. When the driver pulled over, "gunfire erupted between the suspect and deputies." The suspect, later identified by the GBI as 36-year-old Billy Wayne Denton, of Rockmart, then fled in the vehicle, and deputies gave chase until Denton crashed at West Memorial Drive, next to the Bolton Furniture Company in Dallas, officials said. Another exchange of gunfire took place at that location, and the suspect was eventually apprehended and taken to a hospital, where he died while in custody. A handgun was recovered from Denton's vehicle, the GBI said. It was not clear what led to the man's death. Officials did not say whether he was struck by any gunfire. The GBI will conduct an independent investigation. Once completed, it will turn over its findings to the Paulding County District Attorney's Office for review.

Raleigh officers will be handing out flyers to drivers on Hillsborough Street near Bashford Road starting about 3 p.m. Friday (12/16). The flyers will contain information that police hope will generate tips that might lead to an arrest. Samantha Briggs was hit about 7:30 p.m. on the day after Thanksgiving as she and four others were attempting to cross Hillsborough after a trip to a Sheetz convenience store on nearby Chapel Hill Road. Police say the driver was going eastbound on Hillsborough and drove off after hitting Samantha. She died after being taken to a hospital, police said. She had just turned 12 on Thanksgiving. Based on debris left at the scene, police think the car was a white Hyundai hybrid, model year 2006, 2007 or 2008. There are no crosswalks or streetlights near where Samantha was hit. The speed limit along that stretch of Hillsborough is 45 mph, and the road is three lanes wide, with two travel lanes and a center turn lane.

On Nov. 26, Sylacauga police responded to a traffic crash on West Fourth Street at the Marble City cemetery. When they arrived, they found Douglas Jude suffering from some type of trauma. Sylacauga Police Chief Kelley Johnson said it was evident that Jude's injuries did not come from the minor accident. He was able to tell police what happened. Jude told investigators that an acquaintance named Christopher Grantham, 25, had come to his home and assaulted him while he was asleep. The suspect left the home in Jude's 2010 Honda Accord and had also taken the victim's cell phone. Jude then tried to drive himself to the emergency room but wrecked because of his injuries. The victim was taken to Coosa Valley Medical Center and later transferred to UAB Hospital in Birmingham because of the severity of his injuries. Johnson said Grantham was captured in Lynn Haven, Florida which is near Panama City. He was in the victim's vehicle. Grantham was held in the Bay County Jail until he was extradited to Alabama on Dec. 7. He is charged with first-degree theft of property and second-degree assault. Grantham is being held in the Talladega County Jail with bond set at $50,000. The victim remains hospitalized in critical condition.

No bond was set for Nasir Washington, 18, and Jaquail Mack, 17, on the murder charges, the sheriff's office said in a news release. Mack, who is being charged as an adult, was also arrested on a charge of possession of a weapon during the commission of a violent crime. The two were arrested after the discovery of the Estate Court man in his yard, the sheriff's office said. That's in Orangeburg in the area between U.S. 178/Charleston Highway and U.S. 301/Five Chop Road. At about 7:40 a.m. on Nov. 29, both law enforcement officers and EMS responded to an emergency call at the home, according to the release. The caller said the man was unconscious, but emergency responders determined he had died, the sheriff's office said. Deputies said they believe the man was shot the previous night. The Orangeburg County Coroner's Office said Ricke Irick was the victim. The 18-year-old died at the scene, according to the coroner's office. There was no word on a motive for the shooting. "This is just absolutely senseless," Sheriff Leroy Ravenell said in a news release. "But they'll get at least 30 years to think about their actions." Despite the charges against Mack and Washington, more arrests are expected, according to Ravenell.

Birmingham police identified the slain man as Cornelius Arthour May Jr., age 20. The volley of gunfire – believed to be between two groups of people – erupted about 8 p.m. near the Chevron gas station at 1525 Finley Boulevard. “Let me explain just how bold this incident was,” said Birmingham police Officer Truman Fitzgerald. “An officer told me you had two groups shooting at one another in vehicles.” “One vehicle was trying to flee the scene, and a person gets out of another vehicle in the parking lot and fires additional shots,” at the fleeing vehicle, he said. North Precinct officers were initially dispatched to the scene on a report of multiple people shot and multiple people shooting at each other. When they arrived, they found a vehicle that had crashed into the tree. Inside the vehicle, police found May and a female, both of whom had sustained gunshot wounds. May was pronounced dead on the scene. The female was taken to an area hospital with injuries not believed to be life threatening. Officers then found a third victim who was on foot in the area. Though shot as well, his injuries did not appear to be life threatening either, Fitzgerald said. Fitzgerald said it appeared the shooting began in the 1600 block of Finley Boulevard. Numerous shell casings were marked in the intersection. He said at least some of the shots were fired from the Chevron parking lot. “We believe the victims had a part in this,” Fitzgerald said. “We’re trying to figure out what that part is.”

Blake Nichols Grady, 33, of Wake Forest, has been charged with felony fleeing and eluding, two counts of assault with a deadly weapon against a government official, felony assault with physical injury to law enforcement and resisting a public officer, according to a Durham County Sheriff's Office news release. The incident began around 11:30 a.m. Sunday when a deputy in the 5300 block of N.C. 98 (Wake Forest Highway) saw a black Dodge Challenger strike a bicyclist. The driver kept going east on NC 98. The deputy turned on his lights and siren and pursued the driver, who then rammed into a second, responding deputy's vehicle. The driver still kept going until he lost control of his car, and the Challenger flipped onto its roof, in the yard of a home on South Mineral Springs Road. He then got out of the car and ran from the overturned car and ran until he was caught. Grady was taken to the Durham County jail under $850,000 bail pending a court hearing Monday, the release stated In 2017, Grady was convicted of multiple driving related offenses, including speeding, reckless driving and had his driver's license revoked. The N.C. Highway Patrol is investigating the crash involving the injured bicyclist, whose name and condition were not released. The suspect and a deputy injured during the pursuit were taken to a hospital with minor injuries, the release stated.

Randy Harmon, 34, was later arrested by Cobb County police while driving a different stolen car, Marietta police spokesman Officer Chuck McPhilamy said. The victim, Tomeka Harris, suffered minor injuries when she fell out of her car but was commended for her bravery by Marietta police Chief Marty Ferrell. The incident took place Dec. 6 around 9 a.m. at a Kroger store at 1122 Powers Ferry Road, near the intersection with Delk Road. Harmon, a felon, arrived there about 10 minutes before Harris and parked in a lot to the side of the store. After Harris arrived, Harmon moved his car next to hers while she went inside. When she came back out to her car, Harmon approached her from behind with a gun as she opened the driver's door, McPhilamy said. Harmon forced Harris into the car and over the center console at gunpoint, McPhilamy said. But once inside, Harris fought back. As the two struggled, Harmon got the vehicle moving and began to drive. At that point, Harris was able to open her door and "tumbled out of her vehicle to safety," according to McPhilamy. Officers were called to the scene and began immediately searching the area for Harris' car. It was located in less than an hour by Cobb officers, parked in a nearby subdivision. All of her personal property remained inside. Later the same day, Harmon was pulled over in a different stolen vehicle that was detected by license plate-reading technology in the area, McPhilamy said. That was the same car he had abandoned in the grocery store parking lot that morning. Harmon was charged with five felony counts related to the incident: attempted kidnapping.

2178	12/9/22		Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta			Stabbing	Teen Arrested, Charged with Stabbing Co-Worker at SE Atlanta Cook Out	Kenya Pierce, 17, is accused of stabbing her co-worker during a Dec. 9 dispute at a southeast Atlanta Cook Out restaurant, Atlanta police said. Investigators released photos of Pierce and a second suspect, 29-year-old Rontavius Dawson, on Tuesday (1/3). Pierce surrendered at the Fulton County Jail the following day, online records show. Dawson, who is accused of hitting and choking the same woman, has not been located. The victim, Shaquanda Franks, was seriously injured in the stabbing when Pierce's knife allegedly punctured her intestines. Officers were called to Grady Memorial Hospital and learned about the stabbing while Franks was in surgery the next day. No one called 911 from the Cook Out when the incident took place. According to an incident report obtained by The Atlanta Journal-Constitution, Franks and Pierce were co-workers and Dawson is Franks' ex-boyfriend. Franks told police the incident began while she was at work with Pierce and her current boyfriend, who was a restaurant manager, the report said. Pierce informed Dawson that Franks and her new boyfriend were both at the restaurant, then opened the door for Dawson when he came to Cook Out to confront the couple. At the time, the dining room was closed to customers but the drive-thru window remained open. Dawson "tried to attack" Franks' boyfriend, the report said, but Franks intervened. Dawson instead hit Franks, who ran to the bathroom, where Franks followed and continued to hit her, according to the report. Dawson then left, but once he was gone, a confrontation between Shaquanda Franks and Pierce escalated into a physical fight. Pierce stabbed Franks multiple times, the report said. Franks' boyfriend took her to Grady when she realized she'd been stabbed, according to the report. Pierce remains in the Fulton jail without bond.

The 34-year-old from Snellville was an employee at the store. A witness told police the masked man was seen running from the scene with a gun after the shooting. A perimeter around the business was set up and authorities searched for the man, but were unable to find him. Police will be going through surveillance camera video in hopes that the suspect was caught on footage. "No suspects in custody at this time. It's a possibility that the suspect may have been known to the victim and/or the business itself," Gwinnett police spokesman Cpl. Ryan Winderweede said from the scene. Police are still trying to determine the motive.

Christopher Croft Sr. was killed in a reported drive-by shooting, the coroner's office said in a news release. The 43-year-old Aiken resident died at the scene, according to the release. At about 9 p.m., Aiken Department of Public Safety officers responded to reports of a shooting in the 1400 block of Redd St. NW, the coroner's office said. That's about 2 miles from Aiken High School. Officers found Croft inside a home and determined he had been shot. An autopsy is planned in Newberry, according to the coroner's office. Another man who was shot in the incident drove himself to a local hospital, the department of public safety said Monday. His injuries were not considered to be life threatening. No arrests have been reported by the department of public safety, which is continuing to investigate the shooting, along with the coroner's office and the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division.

"I was on my way to visit her for the holidays and got to her a few hours too late," he said Sunday. He found her dead in the garage of her home in a gated Buckhead community early Saturday evening. Bowles' death is the second homicide at a Buckhead residence in as many months and comes amid the Atlanta community's ongoing efforts to turn back a rash of violent crime. The 77-year-old, described by friends as a strong, independent woman, had been preparing for Christmas when she was stabbed multiple times in her garage, according to family and Atlanta police. Investigators believe she may have interrupted the suspect earlier that day, between 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., as he tried to steal her 2021 Lexus Rx 350 from her home on Paces West Terrace, just off West Paces Ferry Road, investigators told reporters the following morning. Her son found her body about five hours later and called police. "Finding her like that is something that will be with me forever," Michael Bowles said in a statement shared with The Atlanta Journal-Constitution. "What happened to her was her worst nightmare. It's most people's worst nightmare."

Paula Lee Decoteau, 51, is accused of shooting 75-year-old Cheryl Garner Medlin in the forehead in a house on Spruce Pine Trail, a news release from the sheriff's office said. Deputies received a call about the shooting just after midnight Sunday. Medlin was transported by EMS to Duke Hospital, where she died of her injuries Sunday afternoon. Deputies interviewed "all people" at the scene, the release said. Two other people were in the house at the time, but in a different part of the house than Medlin and Decoteau. Those occupants said they overheard an argument between Decoteau and Medlin, followed by a single gunshot, but did not observe the shooting. The occupants reported that after the gunshot, Decoteau came into the room where they were, then took their phones "and did not allow them to leave the room while she decided what to do next," the release says. After 15 to 30 minutes, Decoteau allowed the occupants to leave to call 911. On the way out of the room, the release says one of the occupants was able to secure the weapon alleged to have been used in the shooting, a .22-caliber rifle, until deputies arrived. Deputies arrested Decoteau, took her before a magistrate, then placed her in the custody of officers at the Orange County Detention Center. As a deputy arrested her, the release says Decoteau kicked the arresting deputy in the chest. Before Medlin's death, Decoteau was charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill inflicting serious injury, two counts of second-degree kidnapping and assault on a government official. She was under a $500,000 bond. Deputies believe the incident was domestic in nature, according to the

It was just after 4:10 a.m. when 32-year-old Ethan Lann walked out of his home at The Windsor Apartments to go to his Jeep to go to work. Lann, who said the neighborhood has been plagued with vehicle break-ins for more than a year, saw a group of possible thieves casing out cars. When he saw what was happening, he yelled, "Hey." Within seconds, he was taking gunfire. "The very first pop I heard, I felt my shin get hit with something," Lann said. Lann dropped to the ground and took cover behind a tree. He said eight more shots were fired at him while he was taking cover. "The two gunmen continued to fire on him even though he was wounded and taking cover," neighbor Janis La Velle wrote in a GoFundMe launched for Lann. "They didn't want to injure. Their aim was to kill someone for being in the wrong place at the wrong time." Lann was able to make his way to a stairwell and got behind a brick wall. He said the group of suspected thieves left a short time later. He said it's not the first time he's confronted possible thieves in the neighborhood but said usually they just run off. "Once I realized I was shot, I was just worried about getting the paramedics here," he said. Lann was taken to the hospital. "I've got a shattered .45 caliber in my leg because the hospital was unable to safely remove all but two pieces," he said. Lann can't put any weight on his leg and is expected to be out of work for an extended period of time while he recovers. He is a locksmith, and the only representative for his company in this area. But he is equally upset at the ongoing theft problem in his neighborhood. He said he believes it is the same group of people carrying out the crimes that have been taking place since last year.

Alicia Inez Moles, 38, of Hillsborough, was taken to the Orange County jail around 11 p.m. Tuesday, Hillsborough officials said in a news update. Police reported the first incident around 6 a.m. Monday at the State Employees Credit Union at 2313 Old N.C. 86 in Hillsborough. The victim told police he was approached while in his car at a Hillsborough gas station by a woman asking for a ride home. The man said the woman then took out a firearm and demanded that he drive her to an ATM to withdraw money from his bank account. The victim gave the woman money, and she left the car, fleeing on foot, police said. Later on Monday, another person called 911 to report an armed kidnapping and robbery, Chapel Hill police said. The preliminary investigation in that case found that Moles held a victim at gunpoint around 6 p.m. Monday in the parking lot of New Hope Commons, located at 5454 New Hope Commons Drive in Durham. Moles then forced the victim to drive to an ATM at 851 Willow Drive in Chapel Hill and withdraw cash. Moles took the money and left, they said. Hillsborough police have charged Moles with armed robbery and possession of a firearm by a felon, adding that additional charges are possible. Chapel Hill police have charged Moles with second-degree kidnapping, armed robbery and assault by pointing a gun.

Capt. Audrey Henderson would tell Riner to take the day off, and he'd push back. His duty came first, he told his former supervisor, before reluctantly agreeing to some respite. That's the kind of dedication Riner was known for at the Gwinnett County Comprehensive Correctional Complex, and how his coworkers and inmates will remember him. Riner, 59, was shot and killed Tuesday morning as he arrived 40 minutes early for his 7 a.m. shift at the Hi Hope Road facility. His body was found lying near his vehicle in the parking lot, according to Gwinnett County police spokesperson Sgt. Jennifer Richter. Investigators had few leads in Riner's killing Tuesday, other than a grainy image of an unidentified suspect seen in the parking lot around the same time. Richter said no one witnessed the shooting, made particularly brazen by its apparent disregard for the numerous law enforcement officers working nearby. The complex, which is next door to police headquarters, houses minimum-security state and county inmates sentenced to full-time incarceration, as well as offenders on work release programs. "The best we can tell is that he had an encounter with an individual here in the parking lot, and we are working to determine what that encounter was and what exactly led up to the shooting, as well as who that individual was." Investigators are exploring all possible motives.

2214	12/17/22	1:15 AM	David Aaro	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Dallas	Paulding County	Mill Point Dr	Shooting	Man Accused of Fatally Shooting Friend During Paulding House Party	A Paulding County homeowner was arrested Sunday after fatally shooting his friend following an argument, authorities said. David Ayers May, 47, is accused of shooting Dane Michael Patrick Kellum, 38, in his residence in the 100 block of Mill Point Drive in Dallas after a verbal exchange escalated during a night of partying Saturday, according to the Paulding County Sheriff's Office. "As the verbal altercation between Kellum and May became more heated, May reportedly retrieved a pistol and shot Kellum in the head, which subsequently killed him," sheriff's office spokesman Sgt. Ashley Henson said in a news release. The shooting death was one of two in Paulding County over the weekend as another man, Joshua Mitchell, 37, died after being shot several times Saturday night. Kellum went to May's home Saturday evening with a group of friends, according to the sheriff's office. The argument occurred at around 1:15 a.m., "in the midst of an evening of reported heavy drinking by all of the parties." After receiving a 911 call, deputies entered the home, where Kellum's body was "discovered beyond help," according to the release. May was taken into custody without incident, the sheriff's office said. He was charged with murder and aggravated assault and is being held at the Paulding jail without bond. Mitchell's death is being investigated by Paulding detectives and the GBI, according to the sheriff's office. Deputies found him lying in the driveway in the 500 block of Warrenton Drive in Douglasville with multiple gunshot wounds. His body was taken to the GBI Crime Lab, where an autopsy is scheduled to be performed later this week. There are no suspects or potential motives at this time, authorities said.

2215	12/17/22	8:00 AM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		DeKalb County	Bouldercrest Ln	Shooting	1 Dead, 1 Injured in Separate Shooting Hours Apart in DeKalb County	Two men were struck in separate shootings 10 hours apart in DeKalb County on Saturday, police said. First, county police got a call shortly before 8 a.m. about a person shot along Bouldercrest Lane, off Bouldercrest Road and just north of I-285. When they arrived, they found the victim, who was described by police as being in his 20s, sitting in a vehicle with a gunshot wound, according to a statement. The man was rushed to a hospital in critical condition. An update on his status was not provided Sunday. Investigators believe the man was shot by two suspects who ran away before police arrived, the statement read. In the second case, officers were called to the 2900 block of Gus Place around 5:45 p.m., police said. The area is about four miles from the first shooting. There, officers found a man, described as being in his 20s, with a gunshot wound. He was pronounced dead at the scene.
2216	12/17/22	5:00 PM	Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Continental Colony Pkwy	Shooting	2 Teens Killed, 3 Other Youths Injured in SW Atlanta Shootout	Investigators believe a fight on social media led to a shootout Saturday afternoon, killing two teenagers and leaving three other youths injured, Atlanta police said. A little after 5 p.m., officers were called to the Retreat at Greenbriar apartment complex at 3000 Continental Colony Parkway in southwest Atlanta, Deputy Chief Charles Hampton Jr. said late Saturday. At the complex, investigators found both a 14-year-old boy and a 16-year-old boy dead, he said. They were identified Sunday by the Fulton County Medical Examiner's Office as Malik Malik Grover and Justin Powell, respectively. "We know that there was some type of social media dispute that escalated to gunfire," Hampton said. "One group of individuals came to the apartment with their guns and then the other group fired their weapons." Multiple shots were fired inside an apartment and outside, Hampton said. Three others were also injured, including a 15-year-old girl, an 11-year-old boy and a 15-year-old boy, he said. The extent of their injuries was not known late Saturday, but one of the three appeared to have been grazed, Hampton said. At least two of those involved in the shooting were Atlanta Public Schools students, according to police. The investigation continued late Saturday.

Officers responded to a welfare check at the Deerfield Lodge around 8 p.m. Sunday after receiving a call that a man, later identified as 37-year-old Kelly Michael Holcomb, was running around the hotel naked while screaming, according to the Acworth Police Department. Police arrived at the scene to find that Holcomb, of Dallas, also had allegedly assaulted guests of the hotel, located at 6055 Lake Acworth Drive. Officer Taniesha Palarche was the first member of law enforcement to respond, but as she approached Holcomb, police said he became aggressive and started attacking her. During the fight, Holcomb struck Palarche in the face before attempting to strangle her. "The officer's tooth was broken and she also had some injury to her face," said Acworth police spokesperson Cpl. Eric Mistretta. After Palarche requested backup, Holcomb then assaulted other officers that arrived on the scene, the spokesperson said. Officers used a Taser and attempted to restrain him several times. Paramedics later arrived and administered a sedative to calm him down, according to Mistretta. Holcomb was taken to a hospital and was booked into the Cobb County jail on Tuesday after he was released. He is facing several charges, including aggravated assault, battery, burglary, obstruction of law enforcement officers, and second-degree damage to property, according to authorities. Mistretta said all of the victims injured during the incident were treated and released. Palarche is expected to return to work this week, he added.

The street is in a neighborhood north of downtown Holly Springs near Main Street. According to the release, the person, whose name was not released, attacked the officers with a knife and was shot by an officer. Residents told WRAL they heard at least four gunshots. The person was taken to a local hospital where they died. Only one person was involved in the incident, police said. The State Bureau of Investigation will review the incident, which is standard procedure in shootings by officers. No officers were seriously injured but one was taken to the hospital for evaluation of possible wounds, the release stated.
2247	12/21/22		Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Hollywood Rd	Shooting	Police: 2-Year-Old Injured After Accidentally Firing Gun	A 2-year-old was hospitalized after being shot in the Grove Park neighborhood of northwest Atlanta on Wednesday evening, according to police. Atlanta officers were called to Atlanta Fire Station 22 on Hollywood Road, where the mother had taken the child for help, police said in a statement. The toddler was described as alert before being taken to a hospital, and an update on their condition was not provided Thursday. The preliminary investigation indicates the shooting, which took place in the 1800 block of Newman Place, may have been self-inflicted after the child accidentally fired the gun.

2248	12/21/22		Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Marietta		N Saint Mary's Ln	Assault	New Jersey Man Arrested in Midday Attack of Marietta Couple at Their Home	A New Jersey man was arrested Wednesday after police said he broke into a Marietta couple's home and attacked them in a brazen midday home invasion. The man, identified by police as 32-year-old Harjit Singh, appeared around noon at the door of a home on North Saint Mary's Lane in the Oakton neighborhood, a quiet, high-end residential community close to the Marietta Square and WellStar Kennestone Hospital. He began knocking on the door. When the homeowners confronted Singh, a complete stranger to them, he broke the glass around the door and tried to go inside, according to Marietta police spokesperson Officer Chuck McPhilamy. After the initial interaction, Singh walked down the driveway and vandalized the couple's mailbox before returning to the door and damaging plants, glass, and a table on the front porch, McPhilamy said. He then focused his attention back on getting inside the house, he said. The couple fought back, trying to keep Singh outside until police arrived. During the confrontation, Singh picked up a broken piece of glass and used it to slash one of the homeowners in the side, according to McPhilamy. When officers arrived, Singh had blood on his hands and feet, ignored police orders and "displayed abnormal and unpredictable behavior," he said. Police used a stun gun to get him under control and took him into custody. He is being held at the Cobb County jail and faces multiple charges, including burglary, home invasion, terroristic threats, obstruction, aggravated battery and second-degree criminal damage to property. According to police, Singh was armed with a knife but did not use it during the attack.

In the first case, the GBI said a Georgia State Patrol trooper was trying to stop a driver for a traffic violation around 11 a.m. on Watson Boulevard in Warner Robins. The driver failed to stop, and a pursuit ensued. During the chase, the driver, later identified as 33-year-old Christopher Rodriguez of Macon, fired multiple shots at the trooper, according to the GBI. Rodriguez then came to a stop behind a business and got out of the vehicle with a firearm, officials said. He ran to a nearby apartment complex, where he allegedly carjacked a man at gunpoint and sped away. He made it to neighboring Bibb County, where he wrecked on U.S. 41 near Ga. 247. Rodriguez was taken into custody and is being held at the Houston County jail. About 2½ hours later, the GBI was called to Toombsboro, about an hour away, to investigate after a man allegedly pointed a weapon at Wilkinson County sheriff's deputies who were trying to arrest him. The man, identified as 55-year-old Christopher Thomas Ford, had been in a shed when deputies showed up at his house to arrest him at about 1:30 p.m. He had active warrants for terroristic threats, the GBI said. When Ford came out of the shed, he had a shotgun and pointed it at deputies, according to the GBI. One of them fired at Ford, missing him. He then ran into the woods and remains at large as of Wednesday afternoon.

2252	12/21/22	10:00 PM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Birmingham			Shooting	Shots Fired at Birmingham Police; Manhunt Underway on City's West Side	A manhunt is underway in Ensley after shots were fired at Birmingham police during a chase. A call for all possible assistance went out after 10 p.m. Wednesday. According to police radio traffic, shots were fired at West Precinct police with at least one bullet striking the windshield of a patrol vehicle. Shot Spotter, the city's gunfire detection system, alerted on dozens of shots fired. No injuries were reported. Officers were chasing the vehicle that was stolen in a carjacking and assault on Tuesday. At least three males are believed to have bailed from the stolen Toyota. They left behind a rifle in the middle of the street and either masks or some kind of head gear. A second gun was found near an apartment complex in the same area. The suspects are described as Black males wearing all black. Police have set up a large perimeter in the area of Pike Road, Ensley Avenue and surrounding streets. Officers in patrol cars were warned to be on guard because they were "sitting targets." Tracking dogs are on the ground.
2253	12/22/22	12:44 AM	Carol Robinson	AL.com	AL	Birmingham		24th Street Ensley	Shooting	Barrage of Gunfire Leaves Woman Dead in Birmingham 141st Homicide of 2022	A woman was found dead in a running vehicle after a barrage of gunfire in a west Birmingham neighborhood. Shot Spotter alerted police to multiple rounds fired at 12:44 a.m. Thursday in the 2500 block of 24th Street Ensley. A West Precinct officer was patrolling nearby and arrived on the scene within minutes. The officer discovered an adult female in the driver's seat of a vehicle at the end of a driveway. The window was shattered, and the woman had sustained gunshot wounds. Birmingham Fire and Rescue Service pronounced the woman dead on the scene. Shot Spotter registered 11 rounds. Sgt. Monica Law said the investigation is in its early stages and detectives are trying to determine what led to the deadly shooting. The victim, Law said, is believed to have lived close to where she was found. A 17-year-old girl ran up to the scene, crying out that she wanted to see if it was her mother was killed. Police at that point had not positively identified the victim.

Officers responded around 4:30 a.m. to the BP station on 3550 Campbellton Road and found a 25-year-old man suffering from multiple gunshot wounds, according to Maj. Peter Malecki with the Atlanta Police Department. He was taken to the hospital, where he was pronounced dead. The suspect fled the scene on foot and is currently at large, Malecki said. Crime scene technicians placed evidence markers near what appeared to be a gun and multiple shell casings in the parking lot. A large amount of blood could also be seen on the ground near a vehicle. The shooting occurred following a verbal dispute in the parking lot, Malecki said, adding that it doesn't appear to be an act of road rage or a robbery. Investigators are interviewing witnesses at the scene and looking at surveillance footage Thursday morning.

He is facing one count each of murder and aggravated assault in the June 24 incident that killed Laquan Dewberry, according to LaGrange police. Officers were called to Mason's World, a restaurant along Hogansville Road, and a car wash along Vernon Street regarding multiple people shot. A teenage gathering at the restaurant ended in gunfire after an altercation broke out between two groups, police said. Dewberry and another 16-year-old were found nearly two miles from the shooting scene near the car wash. Dewberry had been shot in the upper torso, while the other teen had been shot in the leg, police said. Both were taken to Wellstar West Georgia Medical Center, where Dewberry died. The other victim was eventually released. At Mason's World, officers said they found a third teen who had been shot. The 17-year-old was taken to the same hospital and her injuries were not considered life-threatening. Police did not say how many teenagers were in attendance at the gathering or what the altercation was about.

Brad Damon Greenlee has been charged with the murder of 26-year-old Tayanna Lycurgus, the statement said. On the evening of Dec. 25, first responders arrived at the Extended Stay America on Wake Forest Road for a fire alarm call. Fire department personnel reported that Greenlee had barricaded himself in a room with Lycurgus and refused to allow anyone to enter, the statement said. Officers attempted to de-escalate the situation and eventually took Greenlee into custody. Lycurgus was found unresponsive in the hotel room and was later pronounced dead at the hospital. Police initially classified the incident as a "serious assault" and have not described the nature of Lycurgus' assault or injuries. Greenlee was also transported to the hospital for treatment for a medical condition unrelated to the incident, the statement said. Greenlee is now in custody at Wake County Detention Center. In 2005, Greenlee was convicted of assault inflicting serious bodily harm.

Luis Sajbocho-Ordonez, 30, of Gainesville, was charged with armed robbery and aggravated assault, police said, which echoed other failed Christmas Day crimes from the famed "Wet Bandits." "Like a scene from 'Home Alone.' Fortunately, no serious injuries occurred and the perp went to jail," the Gainesville Police Department said. Officers responded to the armed robbery at 415 Atlanta Highway around 1 a.m. Sunday. Police said Sajbocho-Ordonez hid behind the unidentified business, pulled a gun on an employee as they left and demanded cash. A fight ensued until another employee exited the building, police said, which apparently spooked Sajbocho-Ordonez. The suspect then fired his gun and ran off, according to authorities. No one was injured in the shooting. "In his attempt to get away, Sajbocho fell on ice, hitting his head," Gainesville police said. "Witnesses were able to get two guns away from Sajbocho while he was laying injured on the ground." Officers arrived soon after and arrested the suspect. He was treated and taken to the Hall County Jail.

What appeared to be a set-up for a fight, turned into a murder and kidnapping. One person is dead and two others are facing charges. Elmore County Sheriff Bill Franklin says it started when Lea Lewis and her boyfriend Emmanuel Lucas picked up an acquaintance, Joe Harris, on Zelda Road in Montgomery around 1 o'clock Tuesday morning. "They had a companion robbery case from a few months ago up here in Elmore County. Harris was going to plead to that case and testify," Franklin told Alabama News Network. But the sheriff says Lucas wanted to go to trial, and it appears he was willing to fight Harris over it, so he hid in the car. "Mr. Lucas gets in the back seat. He hunkers down in the back seat where hopefully when Harris is picked up, he won't see him back there." Franklin says the three drove from Zelda Road all the way up to Clover Bottom T Road in Elmore County, off Highway 111. "While they're fixing to stop in the middle of the dirt road there, Lucas wields a knife — 6-8" blade knife. He comes over the seat and begins to stab Mr. Harris in the left arm." But the sheriff says Lucas was in for a deadly surprise from Harris inside the car. "He grabs what we believe is a .380 black semi-automatic handgun. He fires off two rounds, hitting Lucas in the face and he dies of those gunshot wounds." Sheriff Franklin says Lucas' body was left in the road as Harris — who thought Lewis set him up — forced her to drive him back to Montgomery at gunpoint, where he was dropped off. The sheriff says a relative then convinced Lewis to call police to tell them what happened. Meanwhile, Franklin says Harris called an ambulance for his stab wounds, but was then taken into custody. Miasia T. James, a Columbia resident, is the homicide victim, Richland County Coroner Naida Rutherford said Wednesday night. The Columbia Police Department has charged 19-year-old Jimmy Murphy Kelly with murder and possession of a firearm during the commission of a violent crime, police said Wednesday. Twenty-one-year-old Zavia Dorsey has been charged with obstruction of justice. Both were booked into the Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center. No bond was set for Kelly, who remains behind bars at the Richland County detention center, jail records show. Dorsey is not listed on the current inmate roster and information about her bail situation was not available. Kelly is accused of shooting his female acquaintance Tuesday in a parking lot of the Colony Apartments. "Evidence collected at the scene is offering valuable information," the department said in a statement Wednesday, though no additional details or specific information about that evidence was provided. Dorsey is accused of not coming forward with information about the shooting, according to police. At about noon Tuesday, officers responded to the Colony Apartments and found James, police said. She was unresponsive and died at the scene outside of the apartment complex.

Officers responded around 10 p.m. to reports of a person shot near the 300 block of Ralph David Abernathy Boulevard and found the victim wounded, according to Atlanta police. Police said the man had attempted to warm himself inside a nearby Family Dollar store, which closed for business at 9 p.m., but was denied entry by employees. At the time, temperatures were in the upper 30s in Atlanta. As he was leaving, police said two men approached him, before one of them took out a gun and shot him in the right thigh. The victim was alert when he was taken to a hospital, according to authorities. The suspects fled the scene and are at large, police said.

2277	12/28/22		Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		DeKalb County	Central Dr	Shooting	Stone Mountain Man Arrested After 12-Year-Old Girl Shot in DeKalb	A DeKalb County man has been arrested on multiple charges after a 12-year-old girl was shot Wednesday during a domestic incident, police said. Ferando Marquis Davis Jr., 27, of Stone Mountain, was one of two people initially taken into custody after the shooting, DeKalb police said. He was later booked into the county jail on one count each of aggravated assault, first-degree cruelty to children and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony, online jail records show. Police did not say if the second person had been charged. Authorities responded to the 4700 block of Central Drive at about noon Wednesday regarding a person shot call. The girl was found injured, but police did not provide her condition. She was taken to a hospital. The victim was shot during an argument between her mother and a “known suspect,” police said. Davis’ arrest was announced around midday Thursday, but online records show he was booked into the DeKalb jail just after 5 p.m. the day before.

2279	12/29/22	4:30 AM	Rosana Hughes	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Bolton Rd	Shooting	Arrest Made in Shooting Death of Fulton Sheriff's Deputy	Atlanta police have arrested a man in the fatal shooting of a Fulton County deputy last week, officials announced Tuesday (1/3). Deputy James Thomas, 24, originally from Mississippi, was found dead in the driver's seat of his wrecked gray Ford Fusion in the 1900 block of Bolton Road around 4:30 a.m. Thursday. He was assigned to the detention unit at Grady Memorial Hospital and was at work the night before. A suspect was identified soon after, and by Monday, police arrested 26-year-old Alton Deshawn Oliver and charged him with murder, aggravated assault and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony, records show. Oliver was on foot at the time of the shooting, Deputy Chief Charles Hampton Jr. said during a Tuesday morning news conference. There was "some type of argument that escalated to the gunfire," he said, adding that Thomas and Oliver did not appear to have known each other. Authorities said last week that the driver of a van contacted police to report having struck Thomas' car around the time of the incident, though investigators did not believe that person was involved in the shooting. The person reported seeing Thomas "driving erratically" in the middle of Bolton Road, and when they tried to pass his vehicle is when the person believed they heard gunfire, Atlanta police Maj. Pete Malecki said last week. The van and Thomas' vehicle then collided. Hampton said Thomas had been struck by gunfire immediately before crashing into the van. Authorities said a truck driver's dash camera footage and the city's network of security cameras were instrumental in identifying a suspect. Thomas had been with the sheriff's office for less than a year after being recruited from the Milledgeville Police Department.

2280	12/29/22	5:00 PM	Caroline Silva	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA		DeKalb County	Wesley Chapel Rd	Shooting	2 Injured in Shootout at KFC in DeKalb	Two people were injured Thursday in a shootout that began inside a KFC in DeKalb County and spilled over into the parking lot, police said. The shooting happened at the chicken chain's location on Wesley Chapel Road near Snapfinger Woods Road shortly before 5 p.m. Police vehicles and crime scene tape blocked off access to the parking lot of the KFC for hours. DeKalb police said that two men, believed to be in their 30s, exchanged gunfire inside the restaurant. The shooting continued as the men moved outside. One of the victims was found shot in the parking lot and the other was found lying in the street, according to police. Both were taken to a hospital with injuries not considered life-threatening. At least one of the restaurant's windows was shattered during the exchange, footage from the scene showed. Authorities did not say how many people were inside or near the area when gunfire erupted.

2283	12/30/22	11:00 AM	Henri Hollis	The Atlanta Journal-Constitution	GA	Atlanta		Kipling St	Shooting	2 Arrested in SE Atlanta Shooting That Left 1 Dead, 1 Injured	Two people have been arrested in connection with a shooting that left one person dead and another hospitalized Friday morning near a troubled apartment complex in southeast Atlanta, police confirmed. Officers were called to two separate locations related to the shooting around 11 a.m. The first call sent police to a home on Kipling Street and minutes later to a gas station on McDonough Boulevard, Atlanta police spokeswoman Officer TaSheena Brown said. One person was pronounced dead at the Kipling Street location, while a second was taken to Grady Memorial Hospital in a private vehicle. Brown said the two scenes were connected but could not provide additional details. The following day, Duwayne Johnson and Rene Ndiaye, both 26, were arrested on charges of murder and aggravated assault. Johnson faces additional charges of robbery by entering an automobile and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony. The deceased victim was identified by the Fulton County Medical Examiner's Office as 44-year-old Rashone Gardner. The two scenes were about a mile apart, and the gas station sits across the street from Forest Cove apartments, one of the complexes highlighted in The Atlanta Journal-Constitution's "Dangerous Dwellings" series. The city is in the process of relocating the complex's residents using federal grant money in the wake of the AJC's report, which focused on unsafe and unsanitary conditions at apartment buildings around the city.

2289	12/31/22	1:30 PM	Tanasia Kenney, The Charlotte Observer	AL.com	GA	Decatur	DeKalb County		Shooting	Georgia Tire Shop Worker Killed While Moving Customer's Car Was in Uniform: 'It Was A Test Drive'	A tire shop employee was fatally shot on the job after a customer mistook him for a car thief, police in Georgia said. Daniel Gordon, 24, was killed at the Tires Plus in Decatur around 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 31, according to DeKalb County police. Officers arrived to find a man who had been shot multiple times. Gordon was taken to a hospital where he died, police said. The accused shooter, Quadarius McDowell, was arrested and charged with malice murder. The 30-year-old went before a judge on Jan. 2 and was denied bond, WAGA reported. Authorities said McDowell was at the shop to get his car serviced and opened fire on Gordon, who he thought was trying to steal his car. The worker was test driving McDowell's car in the parking lot when gunshots rang out. McDowell ran after the shooting but was arrested a short time later, according to police. He was booked into the DeKalb County Jail where he remains held without bond as of Jan. 3, online records show.
2290	12/31/22	6:20 PM	Richard Stradling	The News & Observer	NC	Raleigh		Pearl Rd	Hit & Run	Man Lying in Wake Road Was Hit and Killed on New Year's Eve. Had He Been Hit Earlier	The State Highway Patrol is still trying to determine how a man ended up lying on a road where he was hit and killed by a pickup truck on New Year's Eve. The man was hit on Pearl Road, off Rock Quarry Road southeast of Raleigh, at about 6:20 p.m., said Trooper Kevin Cardenas. A woman who drove by a short time earlier saw the man on the pavement and returned with her husband, Cardenas said, but by then the man had been hit. The woman told troopers that the man appeared to be alive when she first saw him because he could lift his head, Cardenas said. "According to the witness, it appeared as if he was injured, because he was on the ground in the road," he said. The driver of the Dodge Ram pickup that hit and killed the man remained at the scene and was not cited. It's possible the man had already been struck by a vehicle when the woman first saw him, Cardenas said. Two residents who lived nearby said they heard a vehicle drive off quickly before the man was killed but could not provide more details. "All they told us was that they heard a vehicle take off really, really fast and that they don't know what it looks like," Cardenas said. Cardenas said the man was 31 years old but declined to provide additional information, including his name and whether he lived in the area. He said the incident remains under investigation. The collision took place on Pearl, about two-tenths of a mile from the Shoppes at Battle Bridge shopping center. There are no streetlights on the road, and the speed limit is 35 mph.

2291	12/31/22	11:14 PM	Jeremy Gray	AL.com	AL	Mobile		Dauphin St	Shooting	Mobile New Year's Eve Shooting Suspect Out of Hospital, Jailed for Murder, Assault Charges	A 22-year-old man hospitalized after a New Year's Eve shooting in downtown Mobile killed a man and injured nine people is now in jail, Mobile police announced. Thomas Thomas, 22, was identified as suspect in the murder of Jatarious Reives, 24. Thomas was released from the hospital today and taken into custody. Thomas is charged with murder, assault first degree, shooting into an occupied building and shooting into an unoccupied building. At about 11:14 p.m. Saturday, during the run-up to the city's signature New Year's Eve MoonPie Drop at midnight, gunfire broke out in the 200 block of Dauphin Street. Mobile Police Chief Paul Prine has said that police don't think Reives was one of two shooters believed to be involved. But Prine on Tuesday said that police do think they know who shot him: Thomas, who was treated for a gunshot chest wound at a local hospital. Reives was known to Thomas, Prine said. The other nine injured ranged in ages from 17 to 57. "I am outraged at the violence that occurred last night in downtown Mobile. I am beyond disgusted that the actions of one or two individuals with suspected gang affiliations have taken a life, injured others and tarnished what should have been a safe and fun event," a statement from Mayor Sandy Stimpson on Sunday read. Prine has said police think the incident involved loosely organized neighborhood gangs, and that they haven't ruled out a connection to another shootout, similar in its disregard for bystanders, that took place Dec. 27 in the self-checkout area of the Walmart on Mobile's I-65 beltline.
