要旨: West Precinct officers were called to Wylam at 10:50 p.m. on a report of someone shot. When they arrived, they found a man on the ground. He had been shot multiple times, said a Birmingham police spokesman. The victim was taken to UAB Hospital, where he was pronounced dead at 11:20 p.m. Investigators have learned he was standing outside with a friend who was having car problems when two men from the neighborhood approached the victim. One of the suspects demanded money that the victim apparently owed him. A few words were exchanged, reportedly, and the suspect punched the victim in the face and shot him several times. Both suspects fled the scene on foot. No arrests have been announced.

要旨： Etowah County officials today announced the arrest of seven people on various drug charges related to heroin distribution in the county, as agencies say they are seeing an alarming increase in drug overdoses. Officers also made six associated drug arrests, and are still looking for four people. The seven arrested are not a classic "drug ring," investigators said, but more of a loose association of people dealing in the same substances. In some cases, they made referrals to each other. The arrests came after three weeks of undercover work and a series of coordinated buys this week in Gadsden and surrounding cities. About 35 tactical officers were called in to assist in the arrests.

The victim told investigators she had been home alone sleeping on a couch in the living room when she was awakened by a noise in the house. She opened her eyes and saw two men trying to steal a television. The teen yelled at them and they dropped the television and ran. She said she went to a window and watched the men run to a red Saturn that was parked in her driveway. She heard one of them say they could not find the keys and then they ran away on foot. She then ran to a neighbor's house to call for help. Deputies found a red Saturn in the driveway and the keys were found on the ground next to the car door. Deputies used K-9's to search the area, but didn't find the thieves. A wallet containing identification was found in the car, reports said today. Detectives were able to identify the car's own and got warrants against him Thursday afternoon.

ようし要旨 : Glencoe police are investigating a Wednesday night home invasion involving two men robbing an elderly couple. Police said no one was injured, but the two men got away with a purse. The incident happened about 8:30 p.m. Wednesday at a home on Lay Avenue. Two men knocked on the door and asked to use the phone. They said their car had broken down. They were not wearing masks and were dressed in dark clothing, police said. The man inside the home unlocked the door to hand the phone through. When he did, the two forced their way in, pushing the man down. The men said, "Where's the money?" according to reports. Then, while one man held the couple with a gun, the other looked through the home. Once one of the men found the purse, the two left.
