要旨： A 28-year-old Decatur man shot and killed on his way to work was the target of a hate-motivated crim. The fatal shooting happened about 8:30 a.m. Tuesday. The victim was on his way to the MARTA station before work, his partner told police. Multiple witnesses said that as the victim walked down the roadway, two men got out of a truck and put on masks. The men told the victim to hand over his bag, a witness said. The incident report indicates one of the men then called the victim an anti-gay slur. The witness then stated one of the unidentified suspects shot the victim in the chest with a chrome pistol, then proceeded to shoot him again in the neck after he was on the ground and took his bag. Another witness told police the men who robbed and fatally shot the victim left in a maroon, 4-door truck. ^{みだ}見出し : "Teens break into Columbia home, rob girl at gunpoint, cause school lockdown, cops say"

^{しんぶん}新聞 : thestate.com

^{きしや}記者 : Noah Feit

^{ひづけ}日付 : 6/6/2019

^{ようし}要旨 : Two teenage boys are facing multiple charges after breaking into a Columbia home Wednesday and robbing a girl at gunpoint. A teenage girl called the sheriff's department around 9:45 a.m., reporting that she was sleeping in her bedroom at a home on Wild Indigo Court when she was disturbed by a noise. The girl told sheriff's deputies a 14-year-old boy barged in her room and stuck a gun in her face before handing her a note that read, "Don't move or I'll kill you." With the pistol pointed at her, the girl said she could hear a 15-year-old boy "rummaging through the other bedrooms," the sheriff's department said. Reportedly, the girl knew the suspects. When sheriff's deputies launched a search for the suspects, nearby Ridge View High School was placed on lockdown. Two school resource officers who assisted in the search because of the "high alert" situation, were the ones to detain the 14-year-old suspect. The 15-year-old suspect later turned himself in to sheriff's deputies. Both teens were charged with armed robbery, kidnapping, first-degree burglary, possession of a weapon during a violent crime and petit larceny, the sheriff's department said. Surveillance footage showed them forcing their way inside the home while wearing gloves and backpacks.
